Addition of proviso to sub-section (4) of section 18 of principal Ordinance.

Enhanced duty for delay in tendering deed, &c., for registration.

Transitory provision.

Provided always that if any such instrument as aforesaid is not produced for registration before such Registrar within three months of the same being made, granted, executed, or pronounced, the duty payable for the registration of the same shall be increased by an amount equal to fifty per centum of the duty provided for in such schedule as aforesaid.

4 In the event of any deed, judgment, order, or other instrument mentioned in section 16 of the principal Ordinance, and made, granted, executed, or pronounced before the commencement of this Ordinance, not being produced for registration within three months of the commencement of this Ordinance, the duty payable for the registration of the same under the third schedule of the principal Ordinance shall be increased by an amount equal to fifty per centum of the duty provided for in such schedule.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 8, 1918.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

IN view of the need to raise further revenue due to causes arising out of the war, it is proposed to increase the duties payable under "The Land Registration Ordinance, 1891," except in the case of instruments relating to partitions, and of the instruments mentioned in items 1 (b), 1 (d), 1 (e), 1 (f), 2 (b), and 2 (c) of Schedule III. of that Ordinance.

2. These exemptions are made because it is thought that the instruments in question are sufficiently taxed under the existing law.

3. The principle which has been adopted in the amendments made to items 1 (a), 1 (c), and 2 (a) of Schedule III. has been to retain the duty of 1 per cent. on sums not exceeding Rs. 100, and to provide for the other sums a scale descending in decimals, under which the rate of payment will be 9/10 per cent. in respect of sums exceeding Rs. 100 and not exceeding Rs. 500, until sums exceeding Rs. 5,000 and not exceeding Rs. 10,000 are reached, when the payment would be at the rate of 5/10 per cent. For every further Rs. 10,000 or part thereof a sum of Rs. 50 would be chargeable. As regards the duty on sums exceeding Rs. 500 and not exceeding Rs. 1,000, the mean duty has been fixed; while as regards sums exceeding Rs. 100 and not exceeding Rs. 500, the duty has been fixed at Rs. 2·80, so as to facilitate stamping. Similarly, Rs. 10 has been fixed as duty for sums exceeding Rs. 1,000 and not exceeding Rs. 2,500 as a convenient figure between Rs. 7, which is considered too low, and Rs. 12·25, which is perhaps too high, as well as awkward for stamping. In the case of the remaining classes in each of items 1 (a), 1 (c), and 2 (a), the minimum rate of duty has been adopted in view of the considerable increase in the duty payable.

4. In item 3 of Schedule III. the amount of duty has been doubled, as the amount is small, and there seemed to be no advantage in preparing any elaborate scale.

5. As regards items 5, 6, 7, and 8, there are increases of duty from 20 to 50 per cent.

6. Section 3 of the Bill introduces a new principle. At present there is no penalty for late registration, the only penalty for non-registration being that provided in section 17 of Ordinance No. 14 of 1891. It is thought that steps should be taken to make it more profitable to parties to register instruments promptly and steadily, and under section 3 of the Bill provision is made for payment of a penalty of 50 per cent. of the regular duty, unless an instrument is produced for registration within three months of its execution. Section 4 of the Bill deals with instruments executed before the commencement of the Ordinance, and allows three months from that date for registration.

Provided that where the common estate of a husband and wife shall be administered to after the death of one of them, duty shall be paid as for the half estate.

Donationes mortis causa and gifts inter vivos.

3 The property of a deceased person chargeable with stamp duty under Part III. of schedule B of the principal Ordinance shall include any property, movable or immovable, taken as a donatio mortis causa made by any person dying on or after the commencement of this Ordinance, or taken under a disposition made by any person so dying purporting to operate as an immediate gift inter vivos, whether by way of transfer, delivery, declaration of trust, or otherwise, which shall not have been bona fide made three years before the death of the deceased, or taken under any gift whenever made, of which property bona fide possession and enjoyment shall not have been assumed by the donee immediately upon the gift, and thenceforward retained to the entire exclusion of the donor or of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise.

By His Excellency's command,

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 11, 1918.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

In this Bill it is proposed, with the object of raising further revenue, to increase the death duties, and the scale set forth in Statement No. 4 of page 4 of the Report of the Select Committee (Sessional Paper III. of 1917) appointed to consider the question of finances has been adopted. When considering the increase of the death duties, the obvious means of evading their payment by means of donations mortis causa deeds of gift had to be kept in mind.

Under the Finance Act, 1898, a gift inter vivos to avoid death duties must be made bona fide three years before the death of the donor. This provision of the English law, as well as that relating to donationes mortis causa, has been adopted in section 3 of the Bill.
