BYLAW ON THE SUB-DIVISION OF LANDS WITHIN THE AREA OF AUTHORITY OF THE PRADESHIYASABHA

1. Sub section 126(vi) of the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987 has provided for powers to make this bylaw.
2. This bylaw shall be enacted for making provisions for the purpose of subdividing lands for sale, developing, maintaining, regularizing and administering the portions of land so subdivided and the matters incidental there to within the area of authority of Pradeshiya Sabhas of the Western Province.
3. This bylaw may be cited as the Bylaw on the Subdivision of Lands within the Area of Authority of the Pradeshiya Sabha.
4. Every person making subdivisions of any land for sale in an area of authority of a Pradeshiya Sabha in the Western Province shall, prior to forwarding the subdivided plan relating to it for approval, register himself for the said purpose in the Pradeshiya Sabha where the area of authority of the Pradeshiya Sabha in which the said land is situated relates.
5. When applying for registration under Section 4 above, doing so shall be through the application referred to in Schedule I hereof.
6. For the purpose of the registration under this bylaw, the applicant, in order to obtain the development license of the property relating to the subdivision, should make a payment as a deposit in the Pradeshiya Sabha in a sum equivalent to the amount estimated by the Technical Officers of the Pradeshiya Sabha on the related development activities to be carried out.
7. Every Plan for the subdivision of lands in the area of authority of the Pradeshiya Sabha shall be an approved plan under the Urban Development Authority Act or the Housing and Town Development Ordinance.
8. Until such time a compliance certificate under the Urban Development Authority Act or the Housing and Town Development Ordinance as the case may be, is obtained from the Chairman in the event of the subdivision of lands within the area of authority in respect of the approved plan that has been approved, no person should engage in the sale or disposal or publically advertising the sale of any part of subdivided land.
9. Where the smallest part of the land that was subdivided in the case of lands in excess of one hectare that are being subject to subdivision for sale in an area of authority pertaining to the Housing and Town Development Ordinance within the area of authority of the Pradeshiya Sabha is less than 40 perches, the owner of the land should, under a duly executed instrument, donate 10% of the remaining land excluding the extent of land reserved for internal roadways from the entire area of land after having allotted such extent of remaining land for common amenities, to the Pradeshiya Sabha.
10. The registered applicant under this bylaw,
 - (a) should develop the internal roadways pertaining to a subdivision in the area of authority of the Pradeshiya Sabha according to proper standards in consultation with the Chairman as per the recommendations of the planning committee or planning technical committee of the Pradeshiya Sabha.
 - (b) should design the internal drainage system in such a manner as to connect it to a main water outlet.
 - (c) should maintain the remaining parts of the land in a manner that causes no harm to any party until such time the rights concerning each portion of the land become disclaimed.
 - (d) should report to the Secretary on considerations relating to the sale of the parts of lands for the purpose of Section 154 of the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987.

11. The Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha should, following the issuance of a compliance certificate by the Chairman in relation to a subdivision of land under the Urban Development Authority Act or the Housing and Town Development Ordinance, report to the District Assistant Commissioner of the Local Government together with a report of recommendation of the planning committee or planning technical committee of the Pradeshiya Sabha on such subdivisions of the land within a week of the issuance of such compliance certificate by the Chairman.
12. The applicant who sought registration under this bylaw may, following the receipt of the compliance in relation to the subdivided plan, make an application for claiming monies of deposit together with a certified copy thereof to the District Assistant Commissioner of Local Government and the District Assistant Commissioner of Local Government should, after having satisfied that the matters involving the relevant subdivision of land has been in an orderly manner, refund the deposit concerned to the applicant.
13. A person who happens to be an offender on two occasions under this bylaw should be blacklisted as an incapacitated individual for such purpose within the area of authority of the Pradeshiya Sabha.
14. Where the applicant becomes inappropriate for compliance and the applicant by himself accordingly comes forward to withdraw his application, the Assistant Commissioner of Local Government should on the request of the applicant, release the monies of deposit concerned as set out in Section 12 and accordingly revoke the respective registration.
15. Where the person who applied for registration under this bylaw fails to reclaim the monies of deposit under Section 12 or Section 13 within a period of 3 years of the date of such deposit, such monies should be credited to the revenue of the Provincial Council Fund.
16. Breach or violation of any provision of this bylaw is an offence and the maximum fine imposable when a person has been found to be an offender for such offence by any court of law with appropriate jurisdiction and the maximum of the additional fine imposable for each day of such offence on being further found guilty of the continuation of such breach or violation subsequent to handing over a written notice by the Chairman or other authorized officer drawing the attention of such offender of his continued indulgence in such breach or violence shall be the maximum fine and the maximum of the additional fine respectively as prescribed in Sub section (2) of Section 122 of the Pradeshiya Sabha Act, No. 15 of 1987.
