Section 57 of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869.Rules and Regulations regarding Bonded Warehouses.*

The following rules and regulations regarding bonded warehouses have been made by the Principal Collector of Customs under section 57 of the Customs Ordinance, No. 17 of 1869:—

1. Every bonded warehouse shall have two sets of padlocks, one provided at the expense of the Crown and the other of the expense of the owner of the warehouse; the keys of that provided by Government shall be kept in the custody of the Customs Department, the others in the custody of the owners.
2. No one is allowed to enter the warehouse except those who are employed in the transaction of business. Merchants who have goods stored in the warehouse may be allowed to inspect their own goods, but no one else is allowed to enter or take lists of goods belonging to others.
3. The Locker's Register must not be examined or referred to by any person, except the Government Warehouse-keeper or officer acting for him, or the principal officers of Customs.
4. The Colonial Auditor or any officer of his department duly authorized by him in writing is at all times, within the official hours, to have access to a warehouse. Such officer of the Audit Department is to be allowed to examine the warehouse registers, books of account, and documents, to make surveys of the contents of warehouses, and to satisfy himself, if necessary, by the examination of the contents and weights, &c., of packages, that the provisions of the Customs Ordinance are not being evaded.
5. Smoking is not allowed in any part of the warehouse. All lights used for any necessary purposes must be in lanterns or properly protected lamps.
6. No goods shall be received into a bonded warehouse till the Locker has received a warehousing entry or an advice note signed by the Landing Waiter of the warehouse into which the goods were landed.
7. The packages shall be arranged as nearly as possible according to the marks and numbers as shown in the entry, and a warehousing label attached.
8. All the packages of each warehousing entry should, if possible, be piled together. If they are disarranged by the removal of any portion of them, the remaining packages must be immediately re-arranged by the person to whom they belong.
9. Packages should not be piled nearer than six inches from the walls. They may be allowed to rest on cemented floors if dry; but on asphalt or brick floors they should be placed on pieces of wood or on wooden stands, so that they may not receive damage from damp, white ants, or other causes.
10. No package or other goods whatever shall be taken out of the warehouse until the order for their delivery signed by the Warehouse-keeper has been received by the Locker.
11. Duty paid goods are not to be allowed to remain in a bonded warehouse. Duty free goods, unless forming part of the contents of packages containing also goods liable to duty, shall not be stored in bonded warehouses. Exception may be made in the case of closed packages declared merely to contain "merchandise" removed under the Ordinance by the Wharfage Company to their Bonded Warehouse No. B 2.
12. If the goods are for exportation from a warehouse outside the Customs premises, the goods must be forwarded by a Tide Waiter with a shipping pass. Before delivery the bond under section 76 of the Customs Ordinance must be produced to the Warehouse-keeper.

52. Modification of rights and consent thereto.—If at any time by the issue of preference shares or otherwise the capital is divided into shares of different classes—

- (1) The holders of any class of shares by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders may consent, on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class, to the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally therewith or having any priority thereto, or the abandonment of any preference or priority, or of any accrued dividend, or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to any scheme for the reduction of the Company's capital affecting the class of shares :
- (2) All or any of the rights, privileges, and conditions attached to each class may be commuted, abrogated, abandoned, added to, or otherwise modified by a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting, provided the holders of any class of shares, affected by any such commutation, abrogation, abandonment, addition, or other modification of such rights, privileges, and conditions, consent thereto, on behalf of all the holders or shares of the class, by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders.

Any extraordinary resolution passed under the provisions of this Article shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class provided that this Article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent as aforesaid in any case in which but for this Article the object of the resolution could have been effected without it.

53. Meeting affecting a particular class of shares.—Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding clause shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, provided that no Shareholder, not being a Director, shall be entitled to notice thereof or to attend thereat, unless he be a holder of shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and that no vote shall be given except in respect of a share of that class, and that at any such meeting a poll may be demanded in writing by any Shareholder personally present and entitled to vote at the meeting.

CALLS.

54. (a) Directors may make calls.—The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the registered holders of shares, in respect of moneys unpaid thereon, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times : and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors, provided that two months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of each call.

Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued. A declaration under the Company's seal contained in or endorsed upon any of the documents mentioned in this Article and subscribed by two or more of the Directors, or by one Director and the Agent or Secretary or Agents or Secretaries, to the effect that the Directors have power to borrow the amount which such document may represent, shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors, and no such document containing such declaration shall, as regards the creditor, be void on the ground of its being granted in excess of the aforesaid borrowing power, unless it shall be proved that such creditor was aware that it was so granted.
