DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to provide for the Recognition in this Colony of Probates and Letters of Administration granted in the United Kingdom and in British Possessions.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the recognition in this Colony of probates and letters of administration granted in the United Kingdom and in British Possessions : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The British and Colonial Probate Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Interpretation.

2 In this Ordinance the expression—

"Court of Probate" means any court or authority by whatever name designated having jurisdiction in matters of probate.

"Probate" and "letters of administration" include confirmation in Scotland, and any instrument having in a British Possession the same effect which, under the law of this Colony, is given to probate and letters of administration respectively.

"Testamentary duty" includes any duty payable on the value of the estate and effects for which probate or letters of administration is or are granted.

"British court in a foreign country" means any British court having jurisdiction out of the King's Dominions in pursuance of an Order of His Majesty in Council, whether made under any Act or otherwise.

"Order in Council" and "Governor in Council" mean Order in Executive Council and Governor in Executive Council.

Application of Ordinance by Order in

3 (1) The Governor may, on being satisfied that the Legislature of any British Possession has made adequate provision for the recognition in that Possession of probates and letters of administration granted by the District Courts of this Colony, direct by Order in Council that this Ordinance shall, subject to any exceptions and modifications specified in the Order in Council, apply to that Possession.

(2) Where it appears to the Governor that the Legislature of part of a British Possession has power to make the provision requisite for bringing this Ordinance into operation, it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Order in Council, to direct that this Ordinance shall apply to that part as if it were a separate British Possession, and thereupon, while the Order is in force, this Ordinance shall apply accordingly.

British and
probates.

4 (1) Where a Court of Probate in the United Kingdom or in a British Possession to which this Ordinance applies has granted probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of a deceased person, the probate or letters so granted may, on being produced and a copy thereof deposited with the District Court of Colombo, be authenticated by the signature of the Judge of the said court, and thereupon shall be of like force and effect and have the same operation in Ceylon as if granted by that court.

(2) Provided that such Judge shall, before authenticating the said probate or letters of administration under this section, be satisfied—

- (a) That duty has been paid in respect of so much (if any) of the estate as is liable to duty in Ceylon; and
- (b) In the case of letters of administration, that security has been given in a sum sufficient in amount to cover the property (if any) in Ceylon to which the letters of administration relate;

and may require such evidence, if any, as it thinks fit as to the domicile of the deceased person.

(3) The court may also, if it thinks fit, on the application of any creditor, require, before the probate or letters of administration are authenticated as aforesaid, that adequate security be given for the payment of the debts due from the estate to creditors residing in Ceylon.

(4) For the purposes of this section a duplicate of any probate or letters of administration sealed with the seal of the Court of Probate granting the same, or a copy thereof certified as correct by or under the authority of such court, shall have the same effect as the original.

Rules of court.

5 (1) It shall be competent for the Judges of the Supreme Court, or any three of them, of whom the Chief Justice shall be one, to make rules of court for regulating the procedure and practice, including fees and costs, on and incidental to an application for authenticating a probate or letters of administration granted in the United Kingdom or in a British Possession to which this Ordinance applies, and to vary and revoke the same in the same manner as rules relating to the practice and procedure, fees, and costs of the Supreme Court, or to the duties of the officers thereof under the authority of "The Courts Ordinance, 1889," may be varied or revoked.

(2) Until such rules be made and subject thereto, the fee payable for such authentication as aforesaid shall be that which would have been payable for the issue of probate or letters of administration if the will had been proved or the letters of administration granted in this Colony.

Application of Ordinance.

6 This Ordinance shall extend to authorize the authentication as hereinbefore mentioned of any probate or letters of administration granted by a British court in a foreign country in like manner as it authorizes the authentication of a probate or letters of administration granted in a British Possession, and the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply accordingly with the necessary modifications.

Orders in Council.

7 (1) Every Order in Council made under this Ordinance shall, as soon as may be after it has been made, be published in the "Government Gazette."

(2) The Governor may, by Order in Council, alter or revoke any Order in Council previously made under this Ordinance.

Application of Ordinance to probate and letters already granted.

8 This Ordinance when applied by an Order in Council to any British Possession shall, subject to the provisions of the Order, apply to probates and letters of administration granted in that Possession either before or after the commencement of this Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, January 27, 1919. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Colonial Probates Act, 1892, of the Imperial Parliament, provides for the recognition of probates and letters of administration granted by Colonial Courts of Probate, provided that adequate provision has been made in the particular Colony for the recognition of probates and letters of administration granted by Courts of the United Kingdom. It is obvious that such recognition is of mutual benefit to the United Kingdom and to the particular Colony; and section 4 of the Bill provides for this recognition being extended to probates and letters of administration granted in the United Kingdom. It will be observed that the rights of the revenue and of creditors are protected by section 4 (2), (3) of the Bill.

2. By the conjoint effect of sections 3 and 4 of the Bill similar recognition may be granted to probates and letters of administration granted in any British Possession if reciprocal recognition is granted to Ceylon. Section 6 allows of similar arrangements being made with respect to British courts exercising jurisdiction, under special treaties, in foreign countries, such as China.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Public Performances Ordinance, No. 7 of 1912."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Public Performances Ordinance, No. 7 of 1912," in certain respects: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Public Performances (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Substitution of new paragraph for (d) of 3 (1) of principal Ordinance.

2 For paragraph (d) of section 3 (1) of the principal Ordinance the following paragraph shall be substituted:

(d) For the submission to the prescribed authority of a description of any public performance intended to be exhibited, and in such cases as such authority thinks fit to require, for the exhibition before such authority of any such performance before the same shall be advertised or exhibited.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, January 22, 1919. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

EXPERIENCE has shown that it is in many cases difficult for the licensing authority to gather, from the written description of an intended performance, its true character. For example, an expression may be comparatively unobjectionable in itself; but the representation of these words on a screen may be accompanied by gestures which make them highly objectionable.

2. It is intended by the amendment proposed by this Bill to make it quite clear that rules may be made empowering the prescribed authority to require, where it thinks proper, an exhibition of a film before granting a license.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to provide for the Collection of Estate Duties.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the imposition and collection of estate duties: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Estate Duty Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Interpretation.

2 (1) In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires, the term—

"Estate duty" means the duty imposed under the provisions of this Ordinance in case of the death of any person dying on or after the commencement of this Ordinance.

"Deceased" means any person dying on or after the commencement of this Ordinance.

"Will" includes any testamentary instrument.

"Executor" means the executor or administrator of a deceased person, and includes, as regards any obligation under this Ordinance, any person who takes possession of, or intermeddles with, the property of a deceased person.

"Proper officer" means the Commissioner of Stamps or any officer of his Department appointed by the Commissioner of Stamps for the particular purpose referred to.

"Property" includes movable and immovable property of any kind situate or being in the Colony and the proceeds of sale thereof respectively, and any money or investment for the time being representing the proceeds of sale; and in the case of a deceased person who was at the time of his death domiciled in the Colony, includes movable property wherever it may be.

"Settled" when applied to property means any property subject to a settlement, that is to say, to any deed, will, agreement for a settlement, or other instrument or any number of instruments, or to any parol trust, under or by virtue of which any property or any interest therein stands for the time being limited to or in trust for any person or persons by way of succession, and includes any interest in remainder or reversion not disposed of by the settlement and reverting to the settler or descending to the testator's heir or next of kin.

"Incumbrances" includes mortgages, hypothecations, and terminable charges.

"Property passing on the death" includes property passing either immediately on the death or after any interval, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive limitation; and the expression "on the death" includes "at a time ascertainable only by reference to the death."

(2) For the purposes of this Ordinance—

(a) A person shall be deemed competent to dispose of property if he has such an estate or interest therein or such general power as would, if he were sui juris, enable him to dispose of the property; and the expression "general power" includes every power or authority enabling the donee or other holder thereof to appoint or dispose of property as he thinks fit, whether exercisable by instrument inter vivos or by will, or both, but exclusive of any power exercisable in a fiduciary capacity under a disposition not made by himself.

- (b) A disposition taking effect out of the interest of a deceased person shall be deemed to have been made by him, whether the concurrence of any other person was or was not required.
- (c) Money which a person has a general power to charge on property shall be deemed to be property of which he has power to dispose.

PART I.
ADMINISTRATION.

Care and management of estate duty.
Rules.

3 (1) The estate duty shall be under the care and management of the Commissioner of Stamps.

(2) In the care and management of such duty, the Commissioner of Stamps shall be guided by the provisions of this Ordinance and by such rules, not being inconsistent therewith, as the Governor in Executive Council may from time to time think fit to make.

(3) All such rules shall be published in the "Government Gazette," and shall thereupon, subject to the provision of the next succeeding sub-section, be as legal, valid, effectual, and binding as if they had been enacted in this Ordinance.

(4) All such rules shall be laid before the Legislative Council, and if a resolution is passed within forty days of their being laid before the Legislative Council praying that any rule shall be annulled, such rule shall thenceforth be void, but without prejudice to anything done thereunder.

Forms.

4 (1) The Commissioner of Stamps may from time to time frame, and when framed, alter or annul, such forms as may be required for all or any of the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Every such form or alteration or annulment of a form shall be subject to the approval of the Governor in Executive Council, and shall be published in the "Government Gazette."

Taking of oath, &c.

5 Any oath or affirmation required for the purposes of estate duty may be taken before the proper officer, who is hereby authorized to administer such necessary oath or affirmation.

Public officers to furnish information.

6 (1) It shall be the duty of every public officer to furnish the Commissioner of Stamps, on his making application in writing for that purpose, with any information which may be in his possession, or which he may be able to procure with reference to any matter connected with estate duty.

(2) The Judge of any District Court shall furnish the Commissioner of Stamps, on his making application in writing for that purpose, with a certified copy of any will deposited or filed in the court after the commencement of this Ordinance, but it shall not be necessary to affix any stamp to such copy.

PART II.
ESTATE DUTY.

Grant of Estate Duty.

Grant of estate duty.

7 In the case of every person dying after the commencement of this Ordinance, there shall, save as hereinafter expressly provided, be levied and paid, upon the value of all property settled or not settled, which passes on the death of such person, a duty called "estate duty," at the graduated rates set forth in the schedule to this Ordinance.

What property is deemed to pass.

8 (1) Property passing on the death of the deceased shall be deemed to include the property following, that is to say :

(a) Property of which the deceased was at the time of his death competent to dispose.

(b) Property in which the deceased or any other person had an interest ceasing on the death of the deceased to the extent to which a benefit accrues or arises by the cesser of such interest, inclusive of property the estate or interest in which has been surrendered, assured, d. vested, or otherwise disposed of, whether for value or not, to or for the benefit of any person entitled to an estate or interest in remainder or reversion in such property, unless that surrender, assurance, divesting, or disposition was bona fide made or effected three years before the death of the deceased, and bona fide possession and enjoyment of the property was assumed thereunder immediately upon the surrender, assurance, divesting, or disposition, and thenceforward retained to the entire exclusion of the person who had the estate or interest limited to cease as aforesaid, and of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise, but exclusive of property the interest in which of the deceased or other person was only an interest as holder of an office, or recipient of the benefits of a charity, or as a corporation sole.

(c) Property taken as a donatio mortis causa made by any person dying on or after the commencement of this Ordinance, or taken under a disposition made on or after the Sixth day of December, 1918, by any person so dying purporting to operate as an immediate gift inter vivos, whether by way of transfer, delivery, declaration of trust, or otherwise, which shall not have been bona fide made three years before the death of the deceased, or taken under any gift whenever made, of which property bona fide possession and enjoyment shall not have been assumed by the donee immediately upon the gift and thenceforward retained to the entire exclusion of the donor or of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise. Provided that nothing herein contained shall apply to gifts made in consideration of marriage, or which are proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Stamps to have been part of the normal expenditure of the deceased, and to have been reasonable, having regard to the amount of his income, or to the circumstances under which the gift is made, or which, in the case of any donee, do not exceed in the aggregate one thousand five hundred rupees in value or amount.

(d) Property which the deceased, having been absolutely entitled thereto, has caused to be transferred to or vested in himself and any other person jointly, whether by disposition or otherwise, or any purchase or investment made by the deceased alone, or in concert or by arrangement with any other person, so that the beneficial interest therein or in some part thereof passes or accrues by survivorship on his death to such other person.

(e) Property passing under any past or future settlement made by the deceased by any instrument not taking effect as a will whereby an interest in such property or the proceeds of sale thereof for life or any other period determinable by reference to death is reserved, either expressly or by implication, to the settlor, or whereby the settlor may have reserved to himself the right, by the exercise of any power, to restore to himself or to reclaim the absolute interest in such property or the proceeds of sale thereof. Provided that in this paragraph the expression "settlement" shall include any trust, whether expressed in writing or not, in favour of any person, and if contained in an instrument effecting the settlement, whether the instrument was made for valuable consideration or not as between the settlor and any other person.

(f) Money received under a policy of assurance effected by the deceased on his life where the policy is wholly kept up by him for the benefit of a donee, whether nominee or assignee, or a part of such money in proportion to the premiums paid by him, where the policy is partially kept up by the deceased for such benefit.

(g) Any annuity or other interest purchased or provided by the deceased, either by himself alone or in concert or by arrangement with any other person, to the extent of the beneficial interest accruing or arising by survivorship or otherwise on the death of the deceased.

(2) Property passing on the death of the deceased shall not be deemed to include property held by the deceased as trustee for another person under a disposition not made by the deceased, or under a disposition made by the deceased before the Sixth day of December, 1918, or more than three years before his death, where possession and enjoyment of the property was bona fide assumed by the beneficiary immediately upon the creation of the trust and thenceforward retained to the entire exclusion of the deceased or of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise.

Exception of transactions for money consideration.

9 (1) Estate duty shall not be payable in respect of property passing on the death of the deceased by reason only of a bona fide purchase from the person under whose disposition the property passes, nor in respect of the falling into possession of the reversion on any lease for lives, nor in respect of the determination of any annuity for lives, where such purchase was made, or such lease or annuity granted, for full consideration in money or money's worth paid to the vendor or grantor for his own use or benefit, or in the case of a lease, for the use or benefit of any person for whom the grantor was a trustee.

(2) Where any such purchase was made, or lease or annuity granted, for partial consideration in money or money's worth paid to the vendor or grantor for his own use or benefit, or in the case of a lease, for the use or benefit of any person for whom the grantor was a trustee, the value of the consideration shall be allowed as a deduction from the value of the property for the purpose of estate duty.

Exemptions from estate duty.

10 (1) Estate duty shall not be payable in respect of a single annuity not exceeding two hundred and fifty rupees purchased or provided by the deceased, either by himself alone or in concert or arrangement with any other person, for the life of himself and of some other person and the survivor of them, or to arise on his own death in favour of some other person; and if in any case there is more than one such annuity, the annuity first granted shall be alone entitled to the exemption under this section.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Stamps to remit the estate duty, or any other duty leviable on or with reference to death, in respect of any such pictures, prints, books, manuscripts, works of art, or scientific collections, as appear to the Commissioner of Stamps to be of national, scientific, artistic, or historic interest, and to be given or bequeathed for national purposes, or to any university, or to any municipal corporation, and no property the duty in respect of which is so remitted shall be aggregated with any other property for the purpose of fixing the rate of estate duty.

Exception to passing of property on enlargement of interest of settler.

11 Where property is settled by a person on himself for life, and after his death on any other persons with an ultimate reversion of an absolute interest or absolute power of disposition to the settler, the property shall not be deemed to pass to the settler on the death of any such other person by reason only that the settler, being then in possession of the property as tenant for life, fiduciary, or usufructuary, becomes, in consequence of such death, entitled to the immediate reversion, or acquires an absolute power to dispose of the whole property.

Reverter of property to disponent.

12 (1) Where by a disposition of any property an interest is conferred on any person other than the disponent for the life of such person or determinable on his death, and such person enters into possession of the interest and thenceforward retains possession thereof to the entire exclusion of the disponent or of any benefit to him by contract or otherwise, and the only benefit which the disponent retains in the said property is subject to such life or determinable interest, and no other interest is created by the said disposition, then, on the death of such person, the property shall not be deemed to pass by reason only of its reverter to the disponent in his lifetime.

(2) Where by a disposition of any property any such interest as above in this section mentioned is conferred on two or more persons, either severally or jointly or in succession, this section shall apply in like manner as where the interest is conferred on one person.

(3) Provided that the foregoing sub-sections shall not apply where such person or persons taking the said life or determinable interest had at any time prior to the disposition been himself or themselves competent to dispose of the said property.

Relief in respect of quick succession where property consists of land or a business.

13 Where the Commissioner of Stamps is satisfied that estate duty has become payable on any property consisting of land or a business (not being a business carried on by a company), or any interest in land or such a business, passing upon the death of any person, and that subsequently within five years estate duty has again become payable on the same property or any part thereof passing on the death of the person to whom the property passed on the first death, the amount of estate duty payable on the second death in respect of the property so passing shall be reduced as follows :

Where the second death occurs within one year of the first death, by fifty per cent. ;

Where the second death occurs within two years of the first death, by forty per cent. ;

Where the second death occurs within three years of the first death, by thirty per cent. ;

Where the second death occurs within four years of the first death, by twenty per cent. ;

Where the second death occurs within five years of the first death, by ten per cent.

Provided that where the value, on which the duty is payable, of the property on the second death exceeds the value, on which the duty was payable, of the property on the first death, the latter value shall be substituted for the former for the purpose of calculating the amount of duty on which the reduction under this section is to be calculated.

Aggregation of property to form one estate for purpose of duty.

14 (1) For determining the rate of estate duty to be paid on any property passing on the death of the deceased, all property so passing, in respect of which estate duty is leviable, shall be aggregated so as to form one estate, and the duty shall be levied at the proper graduated rate on the value thereof.

Provided that any property so passing, in which the deceased never had an interest, or which under a disposition not made by the deceased passes immediately on the death of the deceased to some person other than the wife or husband, or a lineal ancestor or lineal descendant of the deceased, shall not be aggregated with any other property, but shall be an estate by itself, and the estate duty shall be levied at the proper graduated rate on the value thereof; but if any benefit under a disposition not made by the deceased is reserved or given to the wife or husband, or a lineal ancestor or lineal descendant of the deceased, such benefit shall be aggregated with property of the deceased for the purpose of determining the rate of estate duty.

(2) Where the nett value of the property in respect of which estate duty is payable on the death of the deceased, exclusive of property settled otherwise than by the will of the deceased, does not exceed fifteen thousand rupees, such property, for the purpose of estate duty, shall not be aggregated with any other property, but shall form an estate by itself.

Settled property.

15 (1) Where property in respect of which estate duty is leviable is settled by the will of the deceased, or having been settled by the deceased by some other disposition passes under that disposition on the death of the deceased to some person not competent to dispose of the property—

(a) A further estate duty (called settlement estate duty) on the value of the settled property shall be levied at the rate hereinafter specified, except where the only life interest in the property after the death of the deceased is that of a wife or husband of the deceased ; but

(b) During the continuance of the settlement, the settlement estate duty shall not be payable more than once.

(2) If estate duty has already been paid in respect of any settled property under the last preceding sub-section since the date of the settlement, the estate duty shall not be payable in respect thereof until the death of a person who was at the time of his death, or had been at any time during the continuance of the settlement, competent to dispose of such property.

(3) In the case of settled property, where the interest of any person under the settlement fails or determines by reason of his death before it becomes an interest in possession, and subsequent limitations under the settlement continue to subsist, the property shall not be deemed to pass on his death.

Value of Property.

Deduction of debts and funeral expenses.

16 (1) In determining the amount on which the estate duty payable in respect of any property is to be calculated and paid, the following deductions shall first be made from the value of such property, namely:

- (a) Such expenses as are allowed as reasonable funeral expenses by the Commissioner of Stamps;
- (b) All debts or incumbrances which, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Stamps, have been incurred or created by the deceased bona fide for full consideration in money or money's worth wholly for the deceased's own use and benefit. Provided always that no debt shall be deducted in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person.

(2) Where the Commissioner of Stamps is satisfied that in the United Kingdom or any British Possession duty is payable by reason of a death in respect of any property situate in the United Kingdom or such Possession and passing on such death, he shall allow a sum equal to the amount of that duty to be deducted from the estate duty payable in respect of that property on the same death.

(3) Where any property passing on the death of the deceased is situate in a foreign country, and the Commissioner of Stamps is satisfied that by reason of such death any duty is payable in that foreign country in respect of that property, he shall make an allowance of the amount of that duty from the value of the property.

(4) The amount of any stamp duty paid on any gift or deed of gift of any property in accordance with the provisions of clause 30 of Part I. of Schedule B of "The Stamp Ordinance, 1909" (as the same is set forth in section 7 of "The Stamp (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 16 of 1917"), shall be deducted from any estate duty payable under the provisions of this Ordinance in respect of the property comprised in such gift or deed of gift.

(5) The value of any property shall be estimated to be the price which, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Stamps, such property would fetch if sold in the open market at the time of the death of the deceased, and no reduction shall be made in the estimate on account of the estimate being made on the assumption that the whole property is to be placed on the market at one and the same time. Provided that where it is proved to the Commissioner of Stamps that the value of the property has been depreciated by reason of the death of the deceased, the Commissioner in fixing the price shall take such depreciation into account.

(6) The value of the benefit accruing or arising from the cesser of an interest ceasing on the death of the deceased shall—

- (a) If the interest extended to the whole income of the property, be the value of that property; and
- (b) If the interest extended to less than the whole income of the property, be such proportion of the value of the property as corresponds to the proportion of the income which passes on the cesser of the interest.

Provided that if the benefit accruing or arising on such death shall be a life interest, the estate duty payable shall be at the rate of one-half the rate set forth in the schedule to this Ordinance.

Provided also that in such last-mentioned case the provisions of section 13 of this Ordinance shall not apply.

(7) Property passing on any death shall not be aggregated more than once, nor shall estate duty in respect thereof be more than once levied on the same death.

(8) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Commissioner of Stamps under this section may, in the manner, within the times, and subject to the conditions laid down in section 21 (3) of this Ordinance, appeal to the District Court having jurisdiction to administer the estate, and such court shall have, for the purposes of the appeal, all the powers conferred upon such court by section 21 (4) of this Ordinance.

Liability for Estate Duty.

Duty to be a first charge.

17 Unless and until the same is paid as hereinafter provided, the estate duty payable in respect of any property passing on the death of a deceased person shall be a first charge on all the immovable property of the deceased coming to an executor or being under his control, so far as the duty payable by such executor is concerned, and on the property passing to any other person, so far as the duty payable by such other person is concerned.

Liability for estate duty.

18 (1) The executor of the deceased shall pay the estate duty on all property coming to him or being under his control, and in like manner may pay the estate duty in respect of any property not coming to him or being under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty in respect thereof request him to make such payment, but an executor shall not be liable for any duty in excess of the assets which he has received as executor, or might but for his own neglect or default have received.

(2) Estate duty, so far as not paid by the executor, shall be paid by the person to whom any property passes for any beneficial interest in possession, and also to the extent of the property actually received or disposed of by him, by every trustee, guardian, or other person in whom any interest in the property so passing or the management thereof is vested, and every person in whom the same is vested by alienation or other derivative title shall be accountable for the estate duty on the property. Provided that nothing in this section contained shall render a person accountable for duty who acts merely as agent for another person in the management of property.

(3) Estate duty may be collected in cash or by stamps or by such other means as the Governor in Executive Council may prescribe.

(4) A person required, not being an executor, to pay the estate duty in respect of any property may, for the purpose of paying the duty or raising the amount of the duty when already paid, whether the property is or is not vested in him, raise, with the consent of the District Court having jurisdiction to administer the estate first had and obtained, the amount of such duty, and any interest and expenses properly incurred or paid by him in respect thereof, by the sale or mortgage of, or a terminable charge on, that property or any part thereof. Provided that nothing herein contained shall in any way affect the right of an executor to deal with the property of a deceased.

(5) A person having a limited interest in any property, who pays the estate duty in respect of that property, shall be entitled to the like charge, as if the estate duty in respect of that property had been raised by means of a mortgage to him.

Apportionment of burden of estate duty paid.

19 As between the several persons beneficially interested in the property of a deceased person on which the executor is, under the provisions of this Ordinance, required to pay estate duty, all such duty paid in respect of such property shall be regarded as a debt incurred by the deceased person, and shall, unless such deceased person has otherwise directed by his will (if any), be apportioned among such persons in proportion to the values of their interests in the property of such deceased person.

Assessment and Payment of Estate Duty.

Statement of property liable to duty.

20 (1) The executor of every deceased person shall, within twelve months after his death, deliver to the proper officer a full and true statement of all the property in respect of which duty has, subject to the deductions hereinbefore mentioned, become payable on the death of the deceased, together with a statement of the deductions which are to be made therefrom, exhibiting at the same time a certified copy of the will (if any) of the deceased; and shall make a declaration verifying on oath or affirmation such statements, and stating that such property is of the value of a certain sum therein specified to the best of the declarant's knowledge, information, and belief.

(2) Every such statement shall include all income accrued upon the property included therein down to, and outstanding at, the date of the death of the deceased.

(3) Interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum on the estate duty shall be paid from the expiration of one year of the death of the deceased, and shall form part of the estate duty.

(4) Where the executor is not accountable for estate duty in respect of any property passing on the death of a deceased, the person accountable shall, within the time hereinbefore in this section mentioned, deliver to the proper officer a true and full statement of the particulars of the beneficial interest in the property passing to such person on the death of the deceased and shall make a declaration verifying on oath or affirmation such particulars, and stating that such property is of the value of a certain sum therein specified to the best of the declarant's knowledge, information, and belief.

(5) The Commissioner of Stamps may, in his discretion, extend the period hereinbefore fixed for making any of the statements or declarations hereinbefore mentioned.

Assessment of
valuation.

21 (1) The Commissioner of Stamps shall, if he is satisfied with a statement and estimate of value given in the declaration as originally delivered, or with any amendments that may be made therein upon his requisition, assess the duty on the footing of such statement and estimate; but it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Stamps, if he is dissatisfied with such statement and estimate, to cause a statement and estimate to be made by any assessor or assessors to be appointed by the Commissioner of Stamps, and to assess the duty on the footing of such last-mentioned statement and estimate, subject to appeal as hereinafter provided.

(2) If the duty so assessed exceeds the duty assessable according to the return made to the Commissioner of Stamps, and with which he was dissatisfied, and if there is no appeal against such assessment, it shall be in the discretion of the Commissioner of Stamps, having regard to the merits of each case, to charge the whole or any part of the expenses incidental to the making of such last-mentioned statement and estimate in increase of such duty, and to recover the same forthwith accordingly; and if there is an appeal against such last-mentioned assessment, the payment of such expenses shall be in the discretion of the court.

(3) If any person who is made accountable by this Ordinance is dissatisfied with any valuation or assessment made by or on behalf of the Commissioner of Stamps, and the sum in dispute in respect of duty on such assessment exceeds two hundred rupees, such person, on giving within twenty-one days after receiving notice of such valuation or assessment a notice in writing to the Commissioner of Stamps of his intention to appeal against such valuation or assessment, and on furnishing to the Commissioner of Stamps, within the further period of twenty-one days, a statement in writing of the grounds of such appeal, may, by petition, appeal accordingly to the District Court having jurisdiction to administer the estate. Provided always that any such appellant may pay as hereinafter provided the amount of any such assessment under protest, without prejudice to his right of appeal.

(4) The court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine as speedily as possible the matter of such appeal and the costs thereof, with power to direct, for the purposes of such appeal, an inquiry, valuation, or report to be made by any officer of the court or other person as such court may think fit.

Certificate of

22 (1) On the estate duty payable being assessed in the manner so provided for in this Ordinance, the proper officer shall cause to be made on the declaration a memorandum of the amount of estate duty payable.

(2) The person making the declaration shall thereupon pay to the proper officer the estate duty so assessed, or shall secure the payment of such duty by instalments to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Stamps by way of hypothecation of immovable property.

(3) The proper officer shall then prepare a certificate under his hand setting forth that the statement and declaration have been duly delivered, and that the estate duty, if such duty is payable, has been paid, or has been paid under protest, or that the payment of such estate duty by instalments has been secured to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Stamps by way of hypothecation of immovable property, and stating the value as shown by the statement of the property on which estate duty is payable.

(4) No probate or letters of administration shall issue from a District Court unless and until there has been filed in such court a certificate certifying that the executor has paid or secured to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Stamps the payment of all estate duty for which he is accountable.

(5) Where a person accountable for estate duty elects to pay by instalments, payment may be made by eight equal yearly instalments or by any less number, the first of such instalments being made payable within one year of the death of the deceased.

Release of
duty is paid.

23 (1) The Commissioner of Stamps on being satisfied that the full estate duty has been or will be paid in respect of an estate or any part thereof shall, if required by the person accounting for the estate duty, give a certificate to that effect, which shall discharge from any further claim for estate duty the property shown by the certificate to form the estate or part thereof, as the case may be.

(2) Where a person accountable for the estate duty in respect of any property passing on a death applies to the Commissioner of Stamps, and delivers to him and verifies a full statement to the best of his knowledge and belief of all property passing on such death and the several persons entitled thereto, the Commissioner of Stamps may determine the rate of the estate duty in respect of the property for which the applicant is accountable, and on payment of the duty at that rate, that property and the applicant, so far as regards that property, shall be discharged from any further claim for estate duty, and the Commissioner of Stamps shall give a certificate of such discharge.

(3) A certificate of the Commissioner of Stamps under this section shall not discharge any person or property from estate duty in case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts, and shall not affect the rate of duty payable in respect of any property afterwards shown to have passed on the death, and the duty on such property shall be at such rate as would be payable if the value thereof were added to the value of the property in respect of which duty has been already accounted for.

(4) Provided, nevertheless, that a certificate purporting to be a discharge of the whole estate duty payable in respect of any property included in the certificate shall exonerate from the estate duty a bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice, notwithstanding any such fraud or failure.

General.

Power to require explanations and proof in

24 (1) It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Stamps at any time, and from time to time within three years after the date of the certificate, as he may think necessary, to require the executor of any deceased person or any person accountable for estate duty to furnish such information or explanations, and to produce such documentary or other evidence respecting the contents of, or the particulars verified by, the declaration of the property of the deceased subject to estate duty, as the case may seem to him to require.

(2) Any person failing without reasonable excuse to comply with any such requisition shall be liable to pay to His Majesty the King one thousand rupees; provided that the Commissioner of Stamps, or in any proceeding for the recovery of such penalty the court, shall have power to reduce any such penalty.

Payment of
in case of default.

25 If any person who ought to deliver any statement and make a declaration or a further declaration (as hereinafter mentioned) neglects to do so within the period prescribed by law for the purpose, he shall be liable to pay to His Majesty the King one thousand five hundred rupees, or double the amount of duty chargeable, according as the Commissioner of Stamps elects. Provided that the Commissioner, or in any proceeding for the recovery of such penalty the court, shall have power to reduce any such penalty.

Provision for return of duty overpaid.

26 If at any time within three years of making the declaration hereinbefore provided for the value of the property on which estate duty has been paid is found to exceed the true value of the property subject to estate duty on the death of the deceased, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Stamps, and he is hereby required, to return the amount of duty which has been overpaid, after deducting a discount of two and a half per cent. on the amount of the duty so returned.

Return of duty in respect of debts if claimed in three years.

27 Where it is proved by an affidavit or declaration on oath or affirmation and proper vouchers to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Stamps that the executor has paid debts (including funeral expenses) which might have been, but were not, deducted as hereinbefore provided, and the deduction thereof would have occasioned a less duty to be paid than has been actually paid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Stamps, and he is hereby required, to return the difference, after deducting a discount of two and a half per cent. on the amount of the duty so returned, provided the same is claimed within three years of making the declaration hereinbefore required; but where, by reason of any proceeding at law, the debts due from the deceased which might be deducted as aforesaid have not been ascertained, and in consequence thereof the executor was prevented from deducting the same and from claiming such return of estate duty as aforesaid within the term of three years, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Stamps to allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to him to be reasonable under the circumstances of the case.

Provision for payment of further duty.

28 (1) If at any time it is brought to the notice of any executor or person accountable for estate duty that the property subject to estate duty on the death of the deceased was of greater value than that on which estate duty was actually computed, such executor or person, as the case may be, shall, within six months after such notice, deliver a further statement verified as hereinbefore in this Ordinance provided to the proper officer.

(2) The person delivering the statement shall thereupon pay to the proper officer the amount which, with the estate duty previously paid on a declaration of such property, may be sufficient to cover the estate duty chargeable according to the true value thereof, and shall at the same time pay to the proper officer interest upon such amount at the rate of four per cent. per annum from the date of the last payment in respect of such estate duty, or from such subsequent date as the Commissioner of Stamps may think proper.

Punishment of person making false affidavit.

29 If any person in any affidavit or declaration made under the provisions of this Ordinance wilfully and corruptly affirms or declares any matter or thing which is false or untrue with intent to defraud His Majesty the King of any estate duty payable under this Ordinance, every such person shall be guilty of the offence of giving false evidence, and shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

Proceedings in case of return not being made by accountable person.

30 If any person who is made accountable by this Ordinance makes default in delivering any statement or making a declaration required by the Commissioner of Stamps under this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Stamps to sue out of the District Court having jurisdiction to administer the estate, or having jurisdiction in the district where the person in default resides, and for the court to issue a citation commanding the party so in default to deliver such statement or make such declaration within such period as may be appointed in the citation, or to show cause to the contrary, and whether cause is shown or not, the court may make such order as justice may require.

Recovery of duty and penalties.

31 If any amount shall be owing by way of estate duty, penalty, or otherwise to His Majesty the King under this Ordinance, the Commissioner of Stamps may apply to the District Court having jurisdiction to administer the estate, or having jurisdiction in the district where the person in default resides, to issue a citation to such person to appear and show cause, within a time to be specified therein, why execution for such amount should not issue against him, and on such person not appearing or failing to show sufficient cause, the court may cause execution for such amount to issue.

Appeal.

32 Any person aggrieved by any order of a District Court under this Ordinance may appeal to the Supreme Court in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code.

Repeal.

33 Sections 68 to 73 (both inclusive) and Part III. of Schedule B, so far as the duty on probate or letters of administration is concerned, of "The Stamp Ordinance, 1909," are hereby repealed, except as regards the property and estate of any person dying before the commencement of this Ordinance.

The rate of the settlement estate duty where the property is settled shall be one per cent.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 5, 1919.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE only duty which is, under the existing law, payable upon the death of a person is probate duty under section 68 of "The Stamp Ordinance, 1909." In view of the need for further revenue, a Bill was introduced into the Legislative Council with the object of increasing the rate of probate duty; it was referred to a Select Committee of the Council, and that Committee came to the conclusion that it would be advisable to bring the local law up to date.

2. This Bill is based on the Finance Act, 1894, of the Imperial Parliament, as amended by a series of other Acts, and it embodies the principle that all property which passes on the death of a person shall pay a duty, to be called estate duty.

3. Sections 3 to 6 of the Bill deal with the officers who are to oversee the collection of the duty. The duty of collection is now overseen by the Judges of the District Courts, but the advantages of placing the care and management of death duties in an administrative department are obvious, and by this Bill that care and management are vested in the Commissioner of Stamps.

4. Section 7 of the Bill embodies the leading principle that all property, settled or not settled, passing on death is to pay estate duty; and this statement of the principle would almost be sufficient, if the simple methods of disposition of property now prevalent in the Colony were continued. But experience elsewhere has proved that this would not be the case; and it would soon be discovered, if preventive measures did not appear in the Bill, that various forms of disposition of property, not now in use, would become common. It is for this reason that the somewhat elaborate provisions of sections 8 to 12 have been introduced.

5. No provision corresponding to section 13 of the Bill appeared in the Finance Act, 1894; it was introduced into the Estate Duty Law by section 15 of 4 and 5 Geo. 5, c. 10. This section is intended to meet the cases where, as the result of death, there are quick successions to property in the nature of land or business ; in such cases a reduced duty is payable. There is also, by section 15, provision for a reduced payment on a succession where property is the subject of a settlement.

6. One distinctive principle of the English Estate Duty Law is that of the aggregation for purposes of assessment of all property passing on death. For instance, a deceased may have owned Rs. 20,000 absolutely, and have only a life interest in another Rs. 20,000. For the purpose of estimating the rate of duty the estate will be taken as worth Rs. 40,000, though the duty due on the second sum of Rs. 20,000 will be paid by the person who succeeds to that sum. Where, however, an estate, exclusive of property settled by will, does not exceed Rs. 15,000, aggregation does not take place. It should also be noted that by section 16 (7) property passing on a death shall not be aggregated more than once.

7. Section 16 of the Bill is a very important one, and lays down the manner in which the value of the estate is to be arrived at. The value is to be estimated by the Commissioner of Stamps to be the price which it would fetch in the open market, subject to the deduction of reasonable funeral expenses, bona fide debts, and other items set out in the section. Provision is also made (sub-section 8) for an appeal from any decision of the Commissioner of Stamps to a District Court.

8. It is obvious that, in order to ensure that the fund, out of which payment of estate duty is to be made, is not dissipated before payment, provision must be made to impose a charge on property passing on a death. By section 17 estate duty is made a first charge on such property, and in section 18 the persons by whom the duty is to be paid are mentioned.

9. Sections 20 to 23 provide for the manner of assessment, payment, and release from the charge of estate duties.

10. By section 20 a verified statement of the property of a deceased is to be presented within twelve months of the death, or within such further time as he may allow, to the Commissioner of Stamps. This statement will be presented by the executor or administrator, where he is made liable to payment of duty, and in other cases by the person made accountable for duty by the Ordinance.

11. Section 21 allows the Commissioner, if satisfied with the statement, to accept it ; otherwise provision is made for him to have the property re-assessed, for the payment of the expenses of re-assessment and for appeal to a District Court, if any one is dissatisfied with the re-assessment.

12. Section 22 provides for payment of duty after assessment either at once or by instalments ; and section 23 allows of the Commissioner of Stamps, on being satisfied that estate duty has been or will be paid, to give a certificate freeing property from the charge in respect of estate duty imposed by section 17 of the Bill.

13. Sections 24 to 32 of the Bill provide necessary machinery for enforcing the provisions of the Bill. The Commissioner is empowered to require the executor or administrator of a deceased to give such information as the Commissioner may require, and a penalty is provided for failure to comply (see section 24). There are provisions dealing with the return by the Commissioner of duty overpaid (sections 26, 27) within three years, and for payment of estate duty where the property was of greater value than that on which estate duty was actually paid (section 28).

14. There are also sections dealing with making false affidavits (section 29), proceedings against persons not making statements as to property (section 30), and for the recovery of duty and penalties (section 31).

15. Power is given to appeal from orders of a District Court to the Supreme Court (section 32), and by section 33 the provisions of the Stamp Act dealing with probate duty are repealed, as such duty is included in the estate duty leviable under the Bill.

16. The schedule contains the rates of estate duty, and is based on the scale now in force in the United Kingdom. It will be observed that estates under Rs. 1,500 do not pay duty.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to prevent Thefts of Tea.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make special provision to prevent thefts of tea: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title, commencement, and operation.

1 (1) This Ordinance may be cited as "The Tea Thefts Prevention Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

(2) It shall be in force within such districts of the Colony as may from time to time be defined by Proclamation in that behalf.

Definitions.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the contrary intention appears—

"Tea" includes all forms of the leaf of the tea plant, whether in a natural, manufactured, or partly manufactured state.

"Licensed manufacturer" means a person licensed to manufacture tea under this Ordinance.

"Licensed premises" means a place where a licensed manufacturer is authorized to manufacture tea.

"Manufacture" includes any artificial process to which tea may be submitted by means of any apparatus for the purpose of rendering it a marketable article.

"Purchase" includes the taking of tea in exchange for other goods, or on account of other claims or indebtedness.

"Peace officer" means any headman appointed to perform police duties.

"Government Agent" includes an Assistant Government Agent.

"Prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Ordinance.

Manufacture of tea by unlicensed person prohibited.

3 (1) From and after the commencement of this Ordinance it shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture tea, unless he has been licensed under this Ordinance for that purpose.

(2) Any person who manufactures tea without being so licensed shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

Power of Government Agent to issue licenses to manufacture tea.

4 (1) The Government Agent may issue free of charge licenses under his hand authorizing the persons to whom the same are granted to manufacture tea.

(2) Every such license shall be in such form as may from time to time be prescribed.

(3) Every such license shall expire, unless it is determined otherwise, on the thirty-first of December next following the date when it was issued.

(4) Where any such license is sought for the purpose of any company owning a tea estate, the license shall be issued to the superintendent in charge of the estate.

Power of Government Agent with regard to refusal to issue license, &c.

5 (1) The Government Agent may at his discretion refuse to grant a license to any applicant, or to renew any license which has expired, or may revoke any license already issued.

(2) Any person who is aggrieved by the refusal of the Government Agent to grant or renew a license, or by the revocation of a license, may appeal to the Governor in Executive Council, who may confirm or reverse such refusal or revocation as may appear just.

Duty of licensed manufacturer to paint words "Licensed Tea Manufacturer" on licensed premises.

6 (1) Every licensed manufacturer shall cause the words "Licensed Tea Manufacturer" to be painted or affixed in conspicuous letters in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages at or near the entrance to his licensed premises.

(2) Any licensed manufacturer who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

- Provisions with regard to partners. 7 (1) Two or more partners carrying on business in partnership shall not be obliged to obtain more than one license in respect of the same premises. A license to two or more persons shall not be determined by the death or retirement from business of any one or more of the partners.
- (2) No license shall be assignable or shall authorize any person to manufacture tea by reason of his being executor or administrator of any person to whom such license has been granted.
- Offences. 8 (1) It shall be unlawful for any licensed manufacturer to purchase or take delivery of tea, whether for the purpose of manufacture or otherwise, from any person who is not personally known to him, or from any person whom he knows or has reasonable grounds of believing to be under the age of twelve years, or from any estate labourer.
- (2) Any person who does any act in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.
- Offences. 9 (1) It shall be unlawful for a licensed manufacturer—
- (a) To purchase or cause or suffer to be purchased any tea; or
- (b) To receive or suffer to be received upon his licensed premises otherwise than by way of purchase any tea not the produce of lands in his own possession or occupation; unless in the case of every such purchase or receipt there shall be delivered with the tea a declaration substantially in such form or forms as may be prescribed, signed by the owner of the tea, specifying the lands of which the tea is the produce.
- (2) For the purposes of this section "owner" includes any person for the time being in charge of the lands of which the tea in question is the produce.
- (3) Any person who does or suffers any act in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.
- (4) A declaration under this section shall not be liable to stamp duty.
- (5) Every such declaration shall be retained for a period of one year by the licensed manufacturer, and shall be open to inspection in manner hereinafter provided.
- (6) A person making for the purposes of this section a declaration which to his knowledge is false in any material particular shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, if the court shall be of opinion that the offence was committed with a view to facilitating the commission of any offence under sections 11 or 18 of this Ordinance, to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding one year, or to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.
- Book to be kept by licensed manufacturer. 10 (1) Every licensed manufacturer shall keep on the licensed premises a book in such form as may be prescribed, and shall enter therein immediately upon the delivery at his licensed premises of any tea purchased by him or delivered at such premises, whether for the purpose of manufacture or otherwise, such particulars and in such form as may be prescribed.
- (2) Whenever any licensed manufacturer removes any tea from his licensed premises, such manufacturer shall forthwith enter in such book the date when the same was removed, and the name and the residence of the person to whom the same was delivered or despatched, and such other particulars as may be prescribed.
- Possession of tea substantially in excess of capacity of lands alleged to have produced it. 11 The owner or the person for the time being in charge of any lands on which tea shall have been produced, who shall be proved within a specified period to have represented himself in any declaration or declarations made for the purpose of this Ordinance to have been in possession of, or to have disposed of or otherwise dealt with, as the produce of such lands, a quantity of tea, which, regard being had to the quantity of tea so disposed of or dealt with by him prior to or after such period, is substantially in excess of any quantity which could reasonably have been derived from such lands, shall, unless he accounts for such excess to the satisfaction of the court, be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to both.

Inspection of licensed premises.

12 It shall be lawful for any Police Magistrate, or for any police officer not below the rank of a sergeant, or for any headman not below the rank of korala or vidane arachchi authorized by the Government Agent to inspect licensed premises, or for any person appointed by the Government Agent as an inspector for the purposes of this Ordinance, to enter any licensed premises at any time between sunrise and sunset and to call for and inspect and take extracts from or copies of any declaration or book required to be kept by this Ordinance; and if the licensed manufacturer or any one on his behalf fails to produce any such declaration or book, or refuses to allow such extracts or copies to be made, or if any entry which ought to have been made is not in such declaration or book, or if any entry in such book or declaration is false in any particular, such licensed manufacturer shall be guilty of an offence, unless he proves to the satisfaction of the court that such entry or omission was made without his knowledge or consent, or through a bona fide mistake, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment which may extend to three months.

Responsibilities of partners.

13 When a license is granted under this Ordinance to two or more persons carrying on business in partnership, every such person shall be liable for the acts and omissions of the other or others of them, unless the person held liable for the acts of his partner proves to the satisfaction of the court that he is innocent, and that he has in no way, directly or indirectly, contributed to the breach of the provisions of this Ordinance with which his partner is charged.

Forwarding of proceedings on conviction of licensed manufacturer to Government Agent.

14 When any licensed manufacturer is convicted of an offence against this Ordinance, the Police Magistrate shall forward a copy of the proceedings to the Government Agent for his information.

Duty of licensed manufacturer to keep scales on licensed premises.

15 Every licensed manufacturer shall keep on his licensed premises scales capable of weighing up to one hundred pounds at the least, and whenever he is called upon to do so by any officer or person authorized by section 12 of this Ordinance to inspect licensed premises, he shall forthwith weigh all the tea on his premises, and shall give every facility and assistance to such officer or person to compare the weight of the stock of tea upon such premises with the weights thereof as entered in the books which the licensed manufacturer is required by this Ordinance to keep.

Where discrepancy between weight of tea in licensed premises and weight according to books.

16 Whenever the weight of tea found on the premises of a licensed manufacturer does not agree with the weight which, according to any declaration or book required to be kept by this Ordinance, ought to be on such premises, he shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance. Provided that if he satisfies the Government Agent that such discrepancy is due to natural causes, or has arisen through some bona fide mistake, or owing to some loss, the Government Agent may direct that no prosecution shall be instituted against the licensed manufacturer.

Where inspecting officer is refused admittance.

17 A licensed manufacturer shall at any time between sunrise and sunset give admittance to any officer or person who is authorized by section 12 of this Ordinance to inspect licensed premises, and if such officer or person is refused admittance to inspect the licensed premises, or any declarations or books required to be kept by this Ordinance, the licensed manufacturer carrying on business in such premises shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

Provided, however, that if such officer or person has reasonable grounds for believing that any offence has been committed upon the licensed premises against this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for him to demand admittance and to inspect the same and any declarations or books required to be kept by this Ordinance, though it be after sunset and before sunrise, and unless he is admitted into the premises forthwith, the licensed manufacturer shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance, and it shall be lawful for such officer or person to break into the licensed premises.

Possession of tea reasonably suspected to have been stolen.

18 (1) Any person who is found, or is proved to have been, in possession or charge of any tea which is reasonably suspected to have been stolen may be charged with being or having been in possession or charge of tea which is reasonably suspected of having been stolen; and if such person does not give an account to the satisfaction of the Police Magistrate as to how he came by such tea, and the Police Magistrate is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, there are reasonable grounds for suspecting such tea to have been stolen, such person may be convicted of an offence under this Ordinance.

(2) Where any police officer or peace officer finds any person in possession or charge of tea which he suspects to have been stolen, such tea may be seized, and such person may be brought before a Police Magistrate and charged as aforesaid.

(3) Upon a conviction under this section the Police Magistrate may direct the tea in respect of which the accused was convicted, if the same has been seized, to be restored to any person who he is satisfied is the lawful owner thereof, otherwise he shall order the same to be forfeited.

(4) An appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court from every conviction or order under this section, the provisions of section 335 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," notwithstanding.

Punishment for false information and complaints.

19 Whenever any person gives information or makes complaint against another person of an offence against the last preceding section, and it appears to the Police Magistrate who takes cognizance of the case that such information or complaint was false and was maliciously or corruptly given or made, he may sentence the informant or complainant to pay a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to undergo simple or rigorous imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month, and he may also award such compensation, not exceeding fifty rupees, to be paid by the informant or complainant to the person against whom the information was given or the complaint was made, as the Police Magistrate thinks fit. Such compensation shall be recoverable as a fine.

Punishment for offences.

20 Any person who is convicted of an offence against this Ordinance for which no punishment is specially provided by this Ordinance shall be liable to simple or rigorous imprisonment, which may extend to six months, or to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or to both.

Jurisdiction conferred on Police Courts.

21 Every offence under this Ordinance shall be triable by a Police Court, and such court shall have power to inflict the full penalty prescribed for such offence by this Ordinance, any provision of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," or of any other enactment to the contrary notwithstanding.

Special provisions in districts where tea thefts are prevalent.

22 (1) In any case in which the Governor in Executive Council is satisfied that within any area in any district in which this Ordinance is in force there is reason to suspect that tea thefts are prevalent, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Executive Council, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," to declare that any such area within such limits as may be defined in the Proclamation shall be subject to the special provisions of this section.

(2) In any such case, for such period as shall be specified in the Proclamation, the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to tea manufacturers mentioned in such Proclamation shall apply to all tea dealers, with the exception of such classes of dealers as may be specified in the Proclamation, and subject to the terms of such Proclamation, all persons dealing in tea within the limits specified therein shall be subject to all the requirements, obligations, and penalties of tea manufacturers, and all references to licensed manufacturers shall be construed as including a reference to licensed tea dealers, and all the other provisions of the Ordinance shall, with the necessary modifications, be construed accordingly.

Amendment to
"The Protection of Produce Ordinance,
No. 38 of 1917."

23 In section 4 of "The Protection of Produce Ordinance, No. 38 of 1917," for the words "tea seed or tea leaf (whether in a natural or manufactured state)" there shall be substituted the words "or tea seed."

Power to frame
rules.

24 It shall be lawful for the Governor in Executive Council from time to time to make rules and to frame forms for giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, January 30, 1919. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Bill is based upon the legislation already in force in the Colony for the prevention of thefts of cacao and rubber, but its application is limited, in the first instance, to persons who have any apparatus by which tea is subjected to any artificial process. These persons are described as tea manufacturers, and it is thought that if they are compelled to keep a record of their transactions, it will be possible to exercise a certain check on small holders, who use their holdings as a cover for thefts of tea.

2. It will be observed by section 1 that the Ordinance is made to apply to proclaimed districts only. This is, as it is, of an experimental nature, and it may be found convenient to apply it gradually and not universally.

3. Much of the Bill provides machinery which closely resembles that appearing in the class of enactments referred to in paragraph 1 supra, and therefore does not require special treatment.

4. But it is necessary to call special attention to section 22 of the Bill. It has been suggested that where it is shown that in any particular district tea thefts are going on upon a large scale, the provisions in the Bill relating to tea manufacturers should be made applicable to the dealers. That section allows of this being done by means of a Proclamation by the Governor in Executive Council, but power is taken to omit or exempt from the Proclamation such provisions of the Ordinance and such classes of traders as may be mentioned therein.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend the Ceylon Penal Code.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Ceylon Penal Code"; Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Ceylon Penal Code (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor may, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Insertion of new section 467 in the principal Ordinance.

2 The following section shall be inserted as section 467 of the principal Ordinance:

Penalty for possession of any imitation of an Indian currency note.

467. (1) Whoever without lawful authority or excuse, the proof whereof shall lie on the person accused, shall have in his possession any imitation of an Indian currency note, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to imprisonment of either description for any period not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

(2) For the purposes of this section the expression—

“ Indian currency note ” means a promissory note of any denominational value payable to bearer on demand issued by the Government of India.

“ Imitation ” includes cotton, silk, or other woven goods impressed with designs in imitation of Indian currency notes.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 31, 1919.

R. E. STUBBS,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance has been introduced at the request of the Secretary of State. It has been brought to the notice of Government that handkerchiefs bearing printed impressions of facsimile of Indian currency notes are being imported into this Colony and sold in the shops. To put a stop to this practice a resolution of the Legislative Council has already been passed prohibiting the importation of handkerchiefs containing such designs. This Ordinance makes it penal for any person to possess in the Colony any imitation of an Indian currency note, including cotton or silk or other goods, having impressed thereon designs in imitation of Indian currency notes.
