Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Local Boards (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by the Governor by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette."

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

UNDER section 4 of Ordinance No. 29 of 1914 Local Boards are empowered to require the establishment of earth closets, but nothing is said in that section as to the right of the Board to do the necessary work in the default of the owner or occupier. In similar cases expressly provided for in the Ordinance itself the Board is given that power by section 91, and the object of this amendment is to make it clear that where the requirement to execute works is made under a by-law, the Board may act in default of such owner or occupier.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

Preamble.	An Ordinance to amend "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873."
Short title and commencement.	W HEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows : 1 This Ordinance shall be cited as "The Lunacy (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.
Amendment of section 4 of the principal Ordinance.	2 There shall be added as paragraph (3) of section 4 of the principal Ordinance the following paragraph : (3) "Criminal lunatic" means any person who is confined or continued in confinement under the provisions of section 12 or section 13 of this Ordinance.
Addition of new sections 19 and 20.	3 The following new sections shall be added to the principal Ordinance at the end thereof and numbered 19 and 20, respectively : 19. (1) If any person detained in a lunatic asylum under the provisions of this Ordinance, and not being a criminal lunatic, escapes, he may be re-taken at any time within fourteen days of his escape by the Superintendent of the asylum, or by any officer or servant thereof, or by any one authorized in writing by such Superintendent, and conveyed to, received, and detained in such asylum. (2) In the case of the escape of a criminal lunatic, the provisions of the last preceding sub-section shall apply without any limitation as to time. 20. In any case in which a person detained in a lunatic asylum, and not being a criminal lunatic, has escaped, and is not taken within the period of fourteen days prescribed by the last preceding section, the Superintendent of such asylum may apply to the District Judge within the limits of whose jurisdiction such asylum is situated, for authority to re-take such person. If the District Judge to whom such application is made shall, after making such inquiry, if any, as he may deem necessary, grant such authority, such Superintendent or any one authorized in writing by him may re-take such person, and such person may be conveyed to, received, and detained in the asylum.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, R. E. STUBBS,
Colombo, April 1, 1919. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THERE is no provision in "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873," allowing of escaped lunatics being re-taken. Under the lunacy law in England a lunatic who is not a criminal lunatic may be re-taken at any time within fourteen days of his escape. If more than fourteen days elapse, it is necessary for an application to be made to a Magistrate. An escaped criminal lunatic may be re-taken at any time. It is proposed by this Bill to amend the Colonial law so as to bring it into line with the English practice.

Attorney-General.
