DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance, 1905."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance, 1905": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Buddhist Temporalities (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Substitution of new sections 15 and 16.

2 Sections 15 and 16 of the principal Ordinance are hereby repealed, and the following sections shall be inserted in lieu thereof :

Governor to appoint one or more Commissioners.

15. (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation published in the "Government Gazette," to appoint one or more Commissioners for the purpose of controlling and assisting district committees in the administration and management of the funds and property of their temples, and for the purpose of exercising the powers by the next succeeding section assigned to a Commissioner.

(2) The Governor may invest any Commissioner with all or any of the powers set forth in Ordinance No. 9 of 1872.

(3) Each such Commissioner shall exercise the powers by this section conferred with respect to all district committees elected for districts situated within the area defined in the Proclamation appointing him as aforesaid.

When district committee may suspend trustee.

16. (1) A district committee shall, whenever it shall be made apparent to them by evidence, which they shall duly record, that any trustee has been guilty of gross negligence or misconduct, suspend such trustee, and forthwith report such suspension and transmit such evidence to the Commissioner, if any, appointed for the area within which the district of such district committee is situated, and such Commissioner shall have power to dismiss such trustee and cause another to be elected in his stead as provided in section 17.

Commissioner may dismiss such trustee and elect another.

When no Commissioner, district committee may dismiss such trustee.

(2) If no Commissioner has been appointed to whom a district committee can report as in the last preceding sub-section mentioned, the district committee may dismiss such trustee and cause another to be elected in his place.

Decision final.

(3) The decision of the Commissioner or of the district committee, as the case may be, in regard to such dismissal shall be final and conclusive. Provided always that before such suspension or dismissal the trustee who shall be suspended or dismissed shall be called upon to answer specific charges which shall be formulated against him, and be allowed an opportunity of defending himself.

Proviso.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, A. S. PAGDEN,
Colombo, May 12, 1919. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

UNDER section 15 of "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance, 1905," the Governor may appoint a Government Agent or an Assistant Government Agent to be a Commissioner within his province or district, as the case may be, to assist and control district committees under that Ordinance in the administration and management of the funds and property of their temples. It is impossible for the Government Agents or Assistant Government Agents to find time to perform these duties, and consequently provision is sought to be made by this Ordinance for the appointment of one or more Commissioners to undertake this important work, if required.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, May 11, 1919.
