DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance, 1905."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance, 1905": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Buddhist Temporalities (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Substitution of new sections 15 and 16.

2 Sections 15 and 16 of the principal Ordinance are hereby repealed, and the following sections shall be inserted in lieu thereof :

Governor to appoint one or more Commissioners.

15. (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation published in the "Government Gazette," to appoint one or more Commissioners for the purpose of controlling and assisting district committees in the administration and management of the funds and property of their temples, and for the purpose of exercising the powers by the next succeeding section assigned to a Commissioner.

(2) The Governor may invest any Commissioner with all or any of the powers set forth in Ordinance No. 9 of 1872.

(3) Each such Commissioner shall exercise the powers by this section conferred with respect to all district committees elected for districts situated within the area defined in the Proclamation appointing him as aforesaid.

When district committee may suspend trustee.

Commissioner may dismiss such trustee and elect another.

When no Commissioner, district committee may dismiss such trustee.

Decision final.

Proviso.

16. (1) A district committee shall, whenever it shall be made apparent to them by evidence, which they shall duly record, that any trustee has been guilty of gross negligence or misconduct, suspend such trustee, and forthwith report such suspension and transmit such evidence to the Commissioner, if any, appointed for the area within which the district of such district committee is situated, and such Commissioner shall have power to dismiss such trustee and cause another to be elected in his stead as provided in section 17.

(2) If no Commissioner has been appointed to whom a district committee can report as in the last preceding sub-section mentioned, the district committee may dismiss such trustee and cause another to be elected in his place.

(3) The decision of the Commissioner or of the district committee, as the case may be, in regard to such dismissal shall be final and conclusive. Provided always that before such suspension or dismissal the trustee who shall be suspended or dismissed shall be called upon to answer specific charges which shall be formulated against him, and be allowed an opportunity of defending himself:

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, May 12, 1919. A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

UNDER section 15 of "The Buddhist Temporalities Ordinance, 1905," the Governor may appoint a Government Agent or an Assistant Government Agent to be a Commissioner within his province or district, as the case may be, to assist and control district committees under that Ordinance in the administration and management of the funds and property of their temples. It is impossible for the Government Agents or Assistant Government Agents to find time to perform these duties, and consequently provision is sought to be made by this Ordinance for the appointment of one or more Commissioners to undertake this important work, if required.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Irrigation Ordinance, No. 45 of 1917."

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the irrigation works for the maintenance, conservation, protection, and management of which the proprietors in irrigation districts are responsible :

And whereas it is expedient to set such doubts at rest :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Irrigation (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette."

Amendment of section 11 of the principal Ordinance.

2 The principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects :

Section 11 (e) by striking out the words "irrigation works in the district" in line 2 thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the words "such works."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 26, 1919.

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

DOUBTS have arisen as to the interpretation of section 11 (e) of "The Irrigation Ordinance, No. 45 of 1917." It may be read to mean that proprietors within an irrigation district are to make rules providing for the maintenance, conservation, protection, and management of all irrigation works—large as well as small—in such district. It is obvious that this could not have been intended to be the case, and that section 11 (e) should be confined to works such as those specified in section 11 (d).

This Bill proposes to make this intention clear.

Colombo, May 8, 1919.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to make provision for determining the Date of the Termination of the present War, and for purposes connected therewith.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for determining the date of the termination of the present war, and for purposes connected therewith: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Termination of the Present War (Definition) Ordinance, No. of 1919."

Determination of date of termination of present war.

2 (1) The present war shall, for the purposes of any provision in any Ordinance, rule, regulation, Order in Council or Proclamation, and, except where the context otherwise requires, of any provision in any contract, deed, or other instrument referring, expressly or impliedly, and in whatever form of words, to the present war or the present hostilities, be treated as having continued to and as having ended on such date as it is declared by His Majesty in Council, under the provisions of the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act, 1918, of the Imperial Parliament, shall be treated as the date of the termination of the present war.

(2) In the event of His Majesty in Council declaring under the provisions of the said Act that any date shall be treated as the date of the termination of war between His Majesty and any particular State, a similar effect shall, as regards such State, be given to such declaration.

(3) A copy of the "Government Gazette" containing a Proclamation by the Governor in Executive Council that any such date has been declared by His Majesty in Council shall be evidence in all courts and for all purposes of such date having been declared as aforesaid.

Fixing of earlier date for termination of exercise of powers under an Ordinance.

3 In the case of any Ordinance conferring powers on any Government Department or any officer of any such Department exercisable during the present war, the Governor in Executive Council may, if it appears to him that it is expedient that the powers shall cease before the date so fixed as aforesaid, fix some earlier date for the termination of those powers.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 27, 1919.

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

REFERENCE is made in certain Ordinances, e.g., section 2 of "The Trading with the Enemy Ordinance, No. 20 of 1914," to the termination of the war or to the termination of hostilities. In the United Kingdom special provision is made, by the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act, 1918, for fixing this date, and it is thought advisable to be prepared similarly in this Colony, as will be the case if this Bill becomes law.
