DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to make provision for determining the Date of the Termination of the present War, and for purposes connected therewith.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for determining the date of the termination of the present war, and for purposes connected therewith: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Termination of the Present War (Definition) Ordinance, No. of 1919."

Determination of date of termination of present war.

2 (1) The present war shall, for the purposes of any provision in any Ordinance, rule, regulation, Order in Council or Proclamation, and, except where the context otherwise requires, of any provision in any contract, deed, or other instrument referring, expressly or impliedly, and in whatever form of words, to the present war or the present hostilities, be treated as having continued to and as having ended on such date as it is declared by His Majesty in Council, under the provisions of the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act, 1918, of the Imperial Parliament, shall be treated as the date of the termination of the present war.

(2) In the event of His Majesty in Council declaring under the provisions of the said Act that any date shall be treated as the date of the termination of war between His Majesty and any particular State, a similar effect shall, as regards such State, be given to such declaration.

(3) A copy of the "Government Gazette" containing a Proclamation by the Governor in Executive Council that any such date has been declared by His Majesty in Council shall be evidence in all courts and for all purposes of such date having been declared as aforesaid.

Fixing of earlier date for termination of exercise of powers under an Ordinance.

8 In the case of any Ordinance conferring powers on any Government Department or any officer of any such Department exercisable during the present war, the Governor in Executive Council may, if it appears to him that it is expedient that the powers shall cease before the date so fixed as aforesaid, fix some earlier date for the termination of those powers.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 27, 1919.

By His Excellency's command,
A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

REFERENCE is made in certain Ordinances, e.g., section 2 of "The Trading with the Enemy Ordinance, No. 20 of 1914," to the termination of the war or to the termination of hostilities. In the United Kingdom special provision is made, by the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act, 1918, for fixing this date, and it is thought advisable to be prepared similarly in this Colony, as will be the case if this Bill becomes law.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Irrigation Ordinance, No. 45 of 1917."

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the irrigation works for the maintenance, conservation, protection, and management of which the proprietors in irrigation districts are responsible :

And whereas it is expedient to set such doubts at rest :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Irrigation (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette."

Amendment of section 11 of the principal Ordinance.

2 The principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects :

Section 11 (e) by striking out the words "irrigation works in the district" in line 2 thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the words "such works."

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 26, 1919.

By His Excellency's command,
A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

DOUBTS have arisen as to the interpretation of section 11 (e) of "The Irrigation Ordinance, No. 45 of 1917." It may be read to mean that proprietors within an irrigation district are to make rules providing for the maintenance, conservation, protection, and management of all irrigation works—large as well as small—in such district. It is obvious that this could not have been intended to be the case, and that section 11 (e) should be confined to works such as those specified in section 11 (d).

This Bill proposes to make this intention clear.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, May 8, 1919.

H. C. GOLLAN,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance shall be cited as "The Lunacy (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Amendment of section 4 of the principal Ordinance.

2 There shall be added as paragraph (3) of section 4 of the principal Ordinance the following paragraph:

(3) "Criminal lunatic" means any of the following persons:

(a) Any person who is confined or continued in confinement in a lunatic asylum under the provisions of section 12 or section 13 of this Ordinance; and

(b) Any person who is ordered by the Governor to be confined in a lunatic asylum under the provisions of section 369 (2) or section 374 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

Addition of new sections 19, 20, and 21.

3 The following new sections shall be added to the principal Ordinance at the end thereof, and numbered 19, 20, and 21, respectively:

Recapture of lunatics generally.

19. (1) If any person detained in a lunatic asylum under the provisions of this Ordinance, and not being a criminal lunatic, escapes, he may be re-taken at any time within fourteen days of his escape by the Superintendent of the asylum, or by any officer or servant thereof, or by any one authorized in writing by such Superintendent, and conveyed to, received, and detained in such asylum.

(2) In the case of the escape of a criminal lunatic, the provisions of the last preceding sub-section shall apply without any limitation as to time.

Recapture of lunatic, not being a criminal lunatic, after fourteen days.

20. In any case in which a person detained in a lunatic asylum, and not being a criminal lunatic, has escaped, and is not taken within the period of fourteen days prescribed by the last preceding section, the Superintendent of such asylum may apply to the District Judge within the limits of whose jurisdiction such asylum is situated, for authority to re-take such person. If the District Judge to whom such application is made shall, after making such inquiry, if any, as he may deem necessary, grant such authority, such Superintendent or any one authorized in writing by him may re-take such person, and such person may be conveyed to, received, and detained in the asylum.

Absence on trial.

21. (1) The Governor may, on the recommendation in writing of the Superintendent of an asylum, permit, by order under his hand, any person detained in a lunatic asylum, and not being a criminal lunatic, to be absent on trial for a period to be named in such order.

(2) If at any time within the period mentioned in such order it appears to such Superintendent that the further detention of such person in the asylum is necessary, such Superintendent, or any person authorized by him in writing, may take such person, and such person may thereupon be conveyed to, received, and detained in the asylum.

(3) (a) At the expiration of the period mentioned in any such order, such person shall, unless he has been received into the asylum under the provisions of the last preceding sub-section, return to the asylum, and the Superintendent shall examine him, and may thereupon either direct his further detention in the asylum, or order him to be discharged.

(b) If such person does not return to the asylum at the expiration of the period for which he was allowed to be absent on trial, he may at any time within fourteen days of the expiration of the period of trial be re-taken, as in the case of an escape.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 31, 1919.

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THERE is no provision in "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873," allowing of escaped lunatics being re-taken. Under the lunacy law in England a lunatic who is not a criminal lunatic may be re-taken at any time within fourteen days of his escape. If more than fourteen days elapse, it is necessary for an application to be made to a Magistrate. An escaped criminal lunatic may be re-taken at any time. It is proposed by this Bill to amend the Colonial law so as to bring it into line with the English practice.

The Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum has pointed out that even after the exercise of the greatest care a person may be released and relapse after a very short period of freedom. In such a case fresh proceedings are necessary to allow of his detention. Section 21, which it is proposed to insert in No. 1 of 1873, will allow of release on trial, with power to re-take in the event of relapse.
