DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Registration of Business Names Ordinance, No. 6 of 1918."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Registration of Business Names Ordinance, No. 6 of 1918": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Registration of Business Names (Amendment No. 1) Ordinance, 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor may, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Amendment of section 8 of the principal Ordinance.

2. Immediately after section 8 of the principal Ordinance there shall be added the following provisos :

Provided that a Registrar to whom a statement is required to be furnished as aforesaid may, if he thinks fit, instead of instituting proceedings as aforesaid, accept from any such partner or person such sum of money as such Registrar may consider proper in composition of the offence committed by him.

Provided further that when such Registrar has accepted any such sum of money as aforesaid, proceedings under this section shall not be taken, or if already taken shall not be continued in respect of such offence, against the partner or person so compounding as aforesaid.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, June 10, 1919. A. S. PAGDEN, Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Registrar-General has pointed out that in several cases persons have offended against section 8 of Ordinance No. 6 of 1918 without deliberate intention, and that it would be well to give him power to accept compositions on the precedent of the proviso at the end of section 29 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1907. It seems expedient to give effect to this recommendation, and the object of this Bill is to make the necessary amendment in the law.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance shall be cited as "The Lunacy (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor shall, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Amendment of section 4 of the principal Ordinance.

2 There shall be added as paragraph (3) of section 4 of the principal Ordinance the following paragraph :

(3) "Criminal lunatic" means any of the following persons :

(a) Any person who is confined or continued in confinement in a lunatic asylum under the provisions of section 12 or section 13 of this Ordinance ; and

(b) Any person who is ordered by the Governor to be confined in a lunatic asylum under the provisions of section 369 (2) or section 374 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

Addition of new sections 19, 20, and 21.

3 The following new sections shall be added to the principal Ordinance at the end thereof, and numbered 19, 20, and 21, respectively :

Recapture of lunatics generally.

19. (1) If any person detained in a lunatic asylum under the provisions of this Ordinance, and not being a criminal lunatic, escapes, he may be re-taken at any time within fourteen days of his escape by the Superintendent of the asylum, or by any officer or servant thereof, or by any one authorized in writing by such Superintendent, and conveyed to, received, and detained in such asylum.

(2) In the case of the escape of a criminal lunatic, the provisions of the last preceding sub-section shall apply without any limitation as to time.

Recapture of lunatic, not being a criminal lunatic, after fourteen days.

20. In any case in which a person detained in a lunatic asylum, and not being a criminal lunatic, has escaped, and is not taken within the period of fourteen days prescribed by the last preceding section, the Superintendent of such asylum may apply to the District Judge within the limits of whose jurisdiction such asylum is situated, for authority to re-take such person. If the District Judge to whom such application is made shall, after making such inquiry, if any, as he may deem necessary, grant such authority, such Superintendent or any one authorized in writing by him may re-take such person, and such person may be conveyed to, received, and detained in the asylum.

Absence on trial.

21. (1) The Governor may, on the recommendation in writing of the Superintendent of an asylum, permit, by order under his hand, any person detained in a lunatic asylum, and not being a criminal lunatic, to be absent on trial for a period to be named in such order.

(2) If at any time within the period mentioned in such order it appears to such Superintendent that the further detention of such person in the asylum is necessary, such Superintendent, or any person authorized by him in writing, may take such person, and such person may thereupon be conveyed to, received, and detained in the asylum.

(3) (a) At the expiration of the period mentioned in any such order, such person shall, unless he has been received into the asylum under the provisions of the last preceding sub-section, return to the asylum, and the Superintendent shall examine him, and may thereupon either direct his further detention in the asylum, or order him to be discharged.

(b) If such person does not return to the asylum at the expiration of the period for which he was allowed to be absent on trial, he may at any time within fourteen days of the expiration of the period of trial be re-taken, as in the case of an escape.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, A. S. PAGDEN,
Colombo, May 31, 1919. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THERE is no provision in "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873," allowing of escaped lunatics being re-taken. Under the lunacy law in England a lunatic who is not a criminal lunatic may be re-taken at any time within fourteen days of his escape. If more than fourteen days elapse, it is necessary for an application to be made to a Magistrate. An escaped criminal lunatic may be re-taken at any time. It is proposed by this Bill to amend the Colonial law so as to bring it into line with the English practice.

The Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum has pointed out that even after the exercise of the greatest care a person may be released and relapse after a very short period of freedom. In such a case fresh proceedings are necessary to allow of his detention. Section 21, which it is proposed to insert in No. 1 of 1873, will allow of release on trial, with power to re-take in the event of relapse.
