DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Registration of Business Names Ordinance, No. 6 of 1918."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Registration of Business Names Ordinance, No. 6 of 1918": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Registration of Business Names (Amendment No. 1) Ordinance, 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor may, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Amendment of section 8 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Immediately after section 8 of the principal Ordinance there shall be added the following provisos:

Provided that a Registrar to whom a statement is required to be furnished as aforesaid may, if he thinks fit, instead of instituting proceedings as aforesaid, accept from any such partner or person such sum of money as such Registrar may consider proper in composition of the offence committed by him.

Provided further that when such Registrar has accepted any such sum of money as aforesaid, proceedings under this section shall not be taken, or, if already taken shall not be continued in respect of such offence, against the partner or person so compounding as aforesaid.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, June 10, 1919. A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Registrar-General has pointed out that in several cases persons have offended against section 8 of Ordinance No. 6 of 1918 without deliberate intention, and that it would be well to give him power to accept compositions on the precedent of the proviso at the end of section 29 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1907. It seems expedient to give effect to this recommendation, and the object of this Bill is to make the necessary amendment in the law.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, June 5, 1919.

H. C. GOLLAN,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to prevent Abuse of the Process of the Courts by the Institution of Vexatious Legal Proceedings.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent abuse of the process of the courts by the institution of vexatious legal proceedings: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

Commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Vexatious Actions Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor may, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Power of Supreme Court to prohibit institution of action without leave.

2 (1) It shall be lawful for the Attorney-General to apply to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof for an order under this Ordinance, and if he satisfies such Court or Judge that any person has habitually and persistently instituted vexatious legal proceedings without any reasonable ground for instituting such proceedings in any court, and whether against the same person or against different persons, such Court or Judge may, after hearing such person or giving him an opportunity of being heard after assigning counsel in case such person is unable on account of poverty to retain counsel, order that no legal proceeding shall be instituted by that person in any court unless he obtains the leave of the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, and satisfies the Court or Judge that such legal proceeding is not an abuse of the process of the Court, and there is prima facie ground for such proceeding.

(2) A copy of such order shall be published in the "Government Gazette."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 13, 1919.

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

At present there is nothing to prevent a person commencing action after action against an unfortunate defendant, even though there is no cause of action against the latter.

2. The law of England was the same until the Vexatious Actions Act, 1896, was passed; and this Bill has been framed on the model of the Act.
