An Ordinance to regulate and control the Slaughter of Buffaloes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS for the purpose of securing the supply of buffaloes available for agricultural purposes, it is deemed expedient to make provision for restricting and, if need be, prohibiting the slaughter of buffaloes: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Buffaloes Protection Ordinance, 1920."

Definitions and explanations.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the subject or context otherwise requires—

"Local authority."

The expression "local authority" denotes a person falling under any of the descriptions hereinafter following, viz. :

- (a) Within the limits of a Municipality, Local Board, or Sanitary Board, or the Board of Improvement of Nuwara Eliya, the Chairman of such Council or Board ;
- (b) Outside the limits of a Municipality, Local Board, or Sanitary Board, or the Board of Improvement of Nuwara Eliya, and within the limits of a province or district, respectively, the Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent thereof.

Rules.

3 (1) The Governor in Executive Council may, in respect of the whole Island or of any particular area or areas therein, make rules for restricting, controlling, and regulating the slaughter of buffaloes, and, without prejudice to the generality of the powers so conferred, such rules may—

- (a) Prohibit the slaughter of buffaloes, except on the permit of the local authority ;
- (b) Prohibit the removal of buffaloes or the transport of buffalo meat from one area to another, except on the permit of the local authority ;

- (c) Prescribe the form of permits to be issued ;
 (d) Authorize such local authorities to grant or refuse such permits absolutely or upon conditions.

(2) All rules made under the provisions of this section shall be published in the "Government Gazette," and when published shall have the same force and effect as if they had been enacted in this Ordinance.

Application to whole Island or part by Proclamation.

4 In any case in which it appears expedient so to do, the Governor in Executive Council may, by a Proclamation to be published in the "Government Gazette," with respect to the whole Island or any part thereof, prohibit the slaughter of buffaloes as and from a day to be appointed therein; and, so long as such Proclamation shall remain in force, the rules, if any, made under section 3 hereof shall be deemed to be suspended in so far as they are inconsistent with such Proclamation.

Penalties.

5 Any person committing any breach of any rule made under this Ordinance, or acting in contravention of a Proclamation made under the provisions of section 4 hereof, shall be liable on summary conviction before a Police Magistrate to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for any period not exceeding six months, or both.

Ordinance not to apply to buffaloes specially imported for slaughter.

6 This Ordinance shall not apply to buffaloes specially imported into the Island for the purpose of slaughter, but the onus of proving that any particular buffalo was so imported for the purpose of slaughter shall lie on the person who affirms it.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, May 12, 1920.

B. HORSBURGH,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this draft Ordinance is explained in the preamble. The limited supply of buffaloes available for agricultural purposes is being so seriously depleted by the slaughter of these animals for food that it is deemed necessary to take power to control, restrict, and, if need be, prohibit, slaughter.
