MINUTE BY THE GOVERNOR.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR desires, now that peace has been declared, to express his appreciation of the good work performed by the Ceylon Police Force throughout the Colony during the war. The war undoubtedly threw much additional and arduous work on the Force, more especially on the Colombo and Harbour Police, and it is very gratifying to His Excellency to note that all ranks readily accepted the additional duties allotted to them, and worked in a most willing and cheerful manner, in the face of many difficulties. At the outbreak of the war there were numerous applications from all ranks of the Force to be permitted to go to the front on active service. Permission to do so, however, was given to a few officers and men only; but to the majority of the applicants such permission could not be given, as the adequate policing of the Colony during the period of the war was a matter of paramount importance.

The officers and men who had to remain to carry on the essential duties of police for the safety of the Colony served the British Empire in a no lesser degree than those who actually left the Colony on active service.

To all ranks of the Force, for services ungrudgingly rendered, and to the gentlemen who volunteered for temporary police duty for the duration of the war, to enable physically-fit officers to proceed to the front, His Excellency desires to express his appreciation and thanks.

By His Excellency’s command,

A. S. PAGDEN,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary’s Office,
