DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance for making provision for the Contingent Services for the Financial Year October, 1919, to September, 1920.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the contingent expenditure required for the service of the Government of this Island for the financial year October, 1919, to September, 1920, and not otherwise provided for, has been estimated at the sum of Seventy-two million Seven hundred and Eighty-one thousand Three hundred and Seventy rupees: It is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Rs. 72,781,370 to be charged upon the revenue of this Island for the Contingent Services for the financial year October, 1919, to September, 1920.

1 A sum not exceeding Seventy-two million Seven hundred and Eighty-one thousand Three hundred and Seventy rupees shall be and the same is hereby charged upon the revenue and other funds of this Island for the Contingent Services for the financial year October, 1919, to September, 1920, and the said expenditure shall be in conformity with the Heads of Expenditure specified in the schedule hereunto annexed.

Amount of labour to be supplied under the Ordinance No. 31 of 1884.

2 And whereas by the 31st section of the Ordinance No. 31 of the year 1884, entitled "An Ordinance to amend Ordinance No. 10 of 1861, entitled 'An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Public Thoroughfares in this Colony,'" it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor to propose the estimates prepared in pursuance thereof, or such of them as to him may appear expedient, in the Ordinance for making provision for the contingent expenditure of the Colony for the ensuing year, to be dealt with in like manner as any other estimate to be so proposed: And it is thereby also provided that the amount of labour to be supplied under the provisions of the said Ordinance No. 31 of 1884, for the performance of any work or works for which an estimate or estimates may have been so proposed by the Governor, and approved of by the Legislative Council, shall be distinctly stated in the Ordinance enacted for the same, and that the same shall not exceed two-thirds of the whole amount of labour due from the district or districts within which it may be required to be performed: It is enacted that the amount of labour to be supplied under the provisions of the said Ordinance shall be in conformity with the estimates detailed under Head No. 40, "Public Works Annually Recurrent."

Treasurer to pay the above at such times as the Governor by warrant shall order.

And to receive credit to his accounts for the payments made in pursuance hereof.

3 The Treasurer of the said Island shall issue and pay the said several sums to such persons, for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned, upon such days and in such proportions as the Governor for the time being, by any warrant or order in writing to be signed by him, shall from time to time order and direct; and the payments so to be made shall be charged upon and payable out of the revenues and other funds of the said Island.

4 The said Treasurer shall in his accounts from time to time be allowed credit for any sum or sums of money paid by him in pursuance of such warrant or order in writing as aforesaid; and the receipt or receipts of the respective persons to whom the same shall be so paid shall be a full and valid discharge to the said Treasurer in passing his said accounts for any such sum or sums as shall be herein mentioned; and he shall and may receive credit for the same accordingly.

THIS Ordinance makes provision for the Contingent Services of the Colony for the Financial Year 1919-20.

Colombo, June 30, 1919. THOMAS F. GARVIN,
Acting Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to prevent Abuse of the Process of the Courts by the Institution of Vexatious Legal Proceedings.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent abuse of the process of the courts by the institution of vexatious legal proceedings: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Vexatious Actions Ordinance, No. of 1919," and shall come into operation on such date as the Governor may, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint.

Power of Supreme Court to prohibit institution of action without leave. 2 (1) It shall be lawful for the Attorney-General to apply to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof for an order under this Ordinance, and if he satisfies such Court or Judge that any person has habitually and persistently instituted vexatious legal proceedings without any reasonable ground for instituting such proceedings in any court, and whether against the same person or against different persons, such Court or Judge may, after hearing such person or giving him an opportunity of being heard after assigning counsel in case such person is unable on account of poverty to retain counsel, order that no legal proceeding shall be instituted by that person in any court unless he obtains the leave of the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, and satisfies the Court or Judge that such legal proceeding is not an abuse of the process of the Court, and there is prima facie ground for such proceeding.

(2) A copy of such order shall be published in the "Government Gazette."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, A. S. PAGDEN,
Colombo, June 13, 1919. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

At present there is nothing to prevent a person commencing action after action against an unfortunate defendant, even though there is no cause of action against the latter.

2. The law of England was the same until the Vexatious Actions Act, 1896, was passed; and this Bill has been framed on the model of the Act.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, June 9, 1919.
