He shall furnish a general report on the Police for each year. He shall inquire into and advise on all Police matters which may be referred to him by the Government or by the Government Agent of any Province.

3. He shall from time to time, as vacancies occur, recommend to the Governor the appointment or promotion of suitable persons to the rank of Deputy Inspector-General, Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent of Police, and Inspector, and he shall himself appoint or promote all officers of rank subordinate to that of Inspector.

4. He shall furnish constables to the divisions from the Depôt, according to the strength of each division, and shall order all such transfers as may be required.

5. He shall be responsible for the training, clothing, and arming of the Police, and for furnishing them with suitable accoutrements.

6. He shall frame rules, subject to the approval of the Governor, respecting the leave, punishment, reward, and payment of the Police, and respecting correspondence and the maintenance of Police records.

7. He shall administer all Departmental Funds, and shall be assisted by a committee in the administration of the Police Compassionate Fund.

8. Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Criminal Investigation Department.—The Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Criminal Investigation Department, shall be in charge of the Criminal Investigation Department and the Colombo Harbour Police. He shall be responsible for—

The supervision over all persons arriving in, or departing from, the Island.

Supervision over the importation of arms, cocaine, opium, bhang, and ganja.

Keeping in touch and corresponding with the Police of other countries regarding the movements of bad characters and persons to be watched.

Collecting and distributing information of importance in and outside the Island.

Scrutinizing the vernacular and daily press, and keeping agitators and street preachers under observation.

The investigation of intricate and difficult cases of crime specially referred to him.

The Deputy Inspector-General shall report direct to the Government on matters relating to—

- (a) Arrival of foreigners.
- (b) Destitutes.
- (c) Enemy subjects.

(d) Extradition warrants, and persons to be arrested or watched at the request of other countries.

(e) Inquiries by other countries.

(f) The supervision of newspapers and printed matter.

(g) Repatriated immigrants.

(h) Special reports on individuals.

9. The Deputy Inspector-General of Police (Provinces).—The Deputy Inspector-General of Police (Provinces) shall be responsible to the Inspector-General for—

Supervision over the state and investigation of crime in the Colony; supervision over every case of serious crime reported, the pursuit of absconders, and the detection of the offender; seeing that steps are taken for the prevention of crime, and particularly looking out for any unusual outbreak of crime in the Colony; and seeing that adequate arrangements are made to deal with it.

Supervision over the investigation of crime by junior Police Officers in charge of Districts; advising and instructing them.

Securing co-operation between Police in the Provinces and at Headquarters; collecting and distributing information which has been reported from one Province, and which should be known by other Provinces.

Assuming control at Headquarters in the absence of the Inspector-General on inspection.

10. The Headquarter Superintendent.—The Headquarter Superintendent shall personally assist the Inspector-General of Police in his office. He shall be responsible to the Inspector-General of Police for all accounts and financial matters, assisted by the Chief Clerk. He shall, under the Inspector-General, have charge of the Depôt, and shall be responsible for the performance of the duties that shall be assigned to the Depôt and for its general efficiency. He shall superintend the enrolment of recruits, and arrange for the proper supply of men to fill vacancies in the divisions.

11. The Assistant Superintendent of Police, Headquarters.—The Assistant Superintendent of Police, Headquarters, shall be responsible for all arms, ammunition, clothing, and stores at Headquarters, and for all correspondence relating to the strength and conduct of members of the Force. He shall be responsible for the care of police horses.

12. The Superintendent of Police, Colombo.—The Superintendent of Police, Colombo, shall, under the Inspector-General, have charge of the Colombo Division of Police. He shall be responsible for its drill, discipline, and general efficiency, and for the performance of the Municipal and other duties assigned to it. He shall have charge of the quarters, arms, ammunition, clothing, and stores, the payment of men, and other financial matters. He shall be directly responsible for the expenditure of the votes allotted to the Police of his division, and shall at the proper date frame his estimate for the cost of the establishment and services of the ensuing year. He shall be authorized to inflict punishments on the members of the division according to law and regulations of the Force. He shall be responsible for, and personally direct, the preventing and investigation of crime, and the registration and supervision of habitual criminals.

13. The Superintendent of Police of a Province.—The position of the Superintendent is that of the head of the Police of the Province. He shall be responsible for the management of the Force, its drill, discipline, and general efficiency, and for the proper performance of its duties. He shall have charge of the stations, quarters, arms, ammunition, clothing, and stores, of the payment of the men, and all financial matters. He shall be directly responsible for the expenditure of the votes allotted to the Police of the Province. He shall have authority to inflict punishments upon members of the Force according to law and the regulations of the Force.

14. The Government Agent is the head of the Province, and is responsible for the orderly administration of the Province, and is empowered to give instructions to any Police Officer in his Province in any matter connected with the prevention, investigation, and detection of crime, or preservation of order. Subject to his general administrative control the responsibility for the maintenance of peace and order devolves upon the Superintendent. He shall personally supervise the prevention, investigation, and detection of crime, and registration and supervision of habitual criminals. The Superintendent shall be permitted to correspond direct with the chief and minor headmen with respect to matters connected with any particular case of crime in their respective divisions, and such headmen shall be, in connection with such matters, bound to comply with his instructions as far as possible. He shall not issue any circulars or general instructions to headmen except through the Government Agent. He shall have no power either to reward, reprimand, or punish such headmen, but he shall report to the Government Agent all cases in which he considers that they are deserving of reward, reprimand, or punishment. He shall seek the advice of the Government Agent on all matters concerning the Province, and shall keep the Government Agent fully and specially informed of all matters relating to the well being and management of the Province from a Police point of view, of the occurrence and progress of all cases of grave crime, and of all charges affecting headmen or public servants or departments. Before any station is established or abolished, or before the location of any station is changed, the consent of the Government Agent must be obtained. The Government Agent will inspect the Police Stations in his Province, and may give such orders as he considers necessary on matters within his jurisdiction. The Government Agent will, however, not interfere in departmental matters or matters of clearly internal economy.

15. The position of the Assistant Superintendent of Police towards the Assistant Government Agent is the same, within his own district, as that between the Government Agent and Superintendent.

16. In Provinces in which there is no Superintendent of Police the Government Agent shall be "in charge of" the division of the Police of the Province. He shall be responsible for its discipline and general efficiency, for the payment of the men and other financial matters, and for the clothing, arms, ammunition, and other Government property in the possession of the division. He shall be responsible for the expenditure of the votes allotted to the Police of his Province, and shall at the proper date furnish through the Inspector-General of Police his estimate for the cost of Police Establishment and services for the ensuing year. He shall have authority to inflict punishment on members of the division according to law and the regulations. In such Provinces and in districts in which Police Forces have not been established, the Government Agent shall be responsible for the prevention and investigation of crime, and for the registration and supervision of habitual criminals. The Inspector-General shall advise him on all Police matters, and shall aid generally in the supervision of the Police system. He shall correspond direct with the Inspector-General of Police on all matters affecting the Police in his Province.

17. The Assistant Government Agent shall, under the Government Agent, have the same powers and responsibilities in his district as the Government Agent has in his Province.

18. The Government Agents in charge of Police, Superintendents, and Assistant Superintendents of Police shall assist the Inspector-General in recruiting for the Police.

19. All members of the Police Force shall wear the prescribed uniform, and no change shall be made in the uniform without the authority of the Governor.

20. Cholera, Plague, Smallpox, and other Infectious Diseases.—Subsistence allowance at the usual rate for sergeants and constables employed on duties connected with cholera, plague, smallpox, or other infectious disease is chargeable to the Municipality or Local Board by whom they are employed, or outside the limits of Municipalities or Local Boards by the Medical Department. They shall not take any part in any actual nursing or administering of medicine, nor shall they be required to perform duty inside a hospital or infected house. They shall only assist at the removal of the sick when a medical man or sanitary officer is present to supervise the removal, and their assistance shall be restricted to protecting those charged with the duty of carrying the patient; they shall not be required, in any case, to take part in the actual carriage of the patient themselves; they shall not take part in the burial of the dead, the disinfection of rooms or houses, or the cleansing of sheds, yards, or other premises, but shall, if required by proper authority, supervise those engaged in these duties.

Sale of Ebony.

AN auction sale of the under-mentioned ebony will be held at the Central Timber Depot, Kew road, Slave Island, Colombo, on Saturday, December 20, 1919, at 10.30 A.M., subject to the following conditions:—

- The timber will be put up in lots to suit buyers at a rate per lot, and no advance of less than Re. 1 per lot will be accepted.
- The highest bid will be accepted, subject to the approval or disapproval of the Conservator of Forests. The highest bidder will be required by the officer conducting the sale to sign the sale book kept for the purpose directly a lot has been knocked down to him.
- Payment of 25 per cent. of the successful bid to be made at time of sale if so required.
- Depôt weights must be accepted, but buyers can have the right of giving notice, before the expiration of the date of payment, of having the actual weight ascertained. Should the difference between the depôt weight and the weight ascertained after re-weighing be more than 1½ per cent., the cost of re-weighing is to be borne by the Forest Department, and if within 1½ per cent. by the purchaser; any difference between the depôt weight and the weight ascertained after re-weighing is to be paid or allowed for, as the case may be. Should two or more purchasers desire to re-weigh their timber on the same day, precedence will be given to the buyer whose notification of intention to re-weigh reaches the Assistant Conservator of Forests first.
- No timber shall be removed before payment of the full price bid, and all timber sold must be removed from the depôt within ten days of date of notification of acceptance by the Conservator of Forests of such bid, and will be at the risk of the purchasers until removed.
- Should any person to whom a lot is knocked down refuse to take it over at the full price bid, or refuse or fail to sign the sale-book and pay 25 per cent. of his bid when so required, or refuse or fail to pay the full purchase amount or balance thereof, as the case may be, and to remove the timber within the time specified in clause 5 above, the lot will again be put up for auction, and the original purchaser or bidder will be held liable for any loss to Government owing to a lower price being realized at the re-sale, while if an enhanced price is realized at such re-sale, he shall, however, have no claim to the profit, which shall accrue to Government.
- Agents bidding for others will be required to produce a written authority from the firm or persons for whom they bid, such authority will be retained by the Assistant Conservator of Forests, and will hold good only at the particular sale at which it is produced.

J. D. SARGENT,
 Acting Conservator of Forests.

Office of the Conservator of Forests,
 Kandy, December 2, 1919.

Sale of Minor Forest Produce.

THE right to collect the forest produce specified in the appended schedule during the period commencing on January 1, 1920, and ending on September 30, 1920, from the Crown lands situated in the district specified will be sold by public auction by the Assistant Conservator of Forests of the Kurunegala Division on the date and at the place mentioned in the said schedule. The right in respect of the several products may be sold separately or collectively at the discretion of the Assistant Conservator of Forests.

2. The right to collect the produce hereby offered for competition shall be exclusive of such privileges as villagers have acquired under the provisions of the Forest Ordinance or by usage for their domestic or village requirements.

3. The highest bidder will be declared the purchaser, subject to the approval of the Conservator of Forests, and shall immediately on his being so declared deposit the necessary amounts as hereunder and sign his name in the register of sale in admission of such purchase :—

Bids up to Rs. 100.

The amount of the bid in full and security Rs. 20 to be deposited immediately on conclusion of the sale pending the approval of the Conservator of Forests.

Bids over Rs. 100 and up to Rs. 500.

50 per cent. of the bid and security Rs. 50 to be deposited immediately on conclusion of the sale pending the approval of the Conservator of Forests. Balance to be paid within 14 days of the approval of sale by the Conservator of Forests.

Bids over Rs. 500 up to Rs. 1000.

50 per cent. of the bid and security of Rs. 75 to be deposited immediately on conclusion of the sale pending the approval of the Conservator of Forests. Balance to be paid regularly in two monthly instalments within two months of the date of approval of the sale by the Conservator of Forests.

Bids over Rs. 1,000.

50 per cent. of the bid and security Rs. 150 to be deposited immediately on conclusion of the sale pending the approval of the Conservator of Forests. Balance to be paid regularly in three monthly instalments within three months of the date of approval of the sale by the Conservator of Forests.

4. Should the required deposit not be made immediately on conclusion of the sale, the right to collect the produce will be at once offered again to public competition, and the person who failed in the first instance to make the required deposit will not be allowed to bid unless he deposits in advance a sum of Rs. 50, which will be forfeited if he again refuses to make the required deposit on acceptance of his bid.

5. The balance of the purchase amount, if any, shall be paid as specified in condition 3.

6. Should the person decline or fail to enter into an agreement within ten days of receiving notice in writing from the Assistant Conservator of Forests of the Kurunegala Division to the effect that his bid has been accepted by the Conservator of Forests or to pay the balance of the purchase amount when due, the deposits already made on account of the purchase and the security shall be forfeited, and the right to collect the produce in question re-sold at the risk of the original purchaser, who shall be held liable to make good any deficiency in the price realized at such re-sale, but on the other hand he shall not be entitled to participate in any profit which may accrue to the Government by any re-sale.

7. The right to collect the produce in question shall not be assigned, re-sold, or sublet by the purchaser without the consent of the Conservator of Forests first obtained in writing.

8. Should the purchaser or his employes cause any damage to trees in the forest or commit any forest offence, the purchaser shall be held liable to pay compensation for all such damage or loss, and on failure to pay he shall be liable to prosecution.

9. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting the purchaser's employes, and of rescinding the agreement if the above conditions are not adhered to.

10. For any further information, and for inspection of the draft agreements, application should be made at the Office of the Assistant Conservator of Forests of the Kurunegala Division in which the forest are situated.

UNOFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Nahavilla Estates Company, Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given that an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Preference Shareholders of the above Company will be held at the Company's registered office, No. 14, Queen street, Colombo, on Friday, December 12, 1919, at noon, for the purpose of confirming as special resolutions the subjoined resolutions which were duly passed at the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Preference Shareholders of the Company held on November 21, 1919:—

Resolutions.

1. That the nominal capital of the Company be increased from Rs. 1,000,000 divided into 8,500 ordinary shares of Rs. 100 each, and 1,500 'A' 6 per cent. cumulative preference shares of Rs. 100 each to Rs. 1,500,000 divided into 15,000 shares of Rs. 100 each, by the creation and issue of 5,000 new shares of Rs. 100 each, of which—

- (a) 3,000 shares will be ordinary shares of Rs. 100 each ranking for dividend, and in all other respects pari passu with the existing ordinary shares in the Company.
- (b) 2,000 shares of Rs. 100 each will be called " 'B' 7 per cent. cumulative preference shares " and the right, privileges, and conditions following will be attached to such preference shares, that is to say:—
  - (1) The said 'B' 7 per cent. cumulative preference shares shall confer on the holders thereof the right to a fixed cumulative preferential dividend at the rate of 7 per centum per annum on the capital for the time being paid up on such shares.
  - (2) The said 'B' 7 per cent. cumulative preference shares shall rank for dividend next after the 1,500 existing 'A' 6 per cent. cumulative preference shares and in priority to the ordinary shares for the time being of the Company.
  - (3) The said 'B' 7 per cent. cumulative preference shares shall in a winding up be entitled to rank, as regards repayment of capital, next after the 1,500 existing 'A' 6 per cent. cumulative preference shares and in priority to the ordinary shares, but the said 'B' 7 per cent. cumulative preference shares shall not be entitled to any further participation in profits or surplus assets.
  - (4) The said 'B' 7 per cent. cumulative preference shares shall only confer on the holders thereof the right to attend and vote at General Meetings on any question directly affecting any of the rights or privileges attached to such shares and one vote per share, and shall qualify any holder thereof to be a Director in the same way as the holders of the ordinary shares and the 'A' 6 per cent. cumulative preference shares of the Company.
