DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to repeal "The Sugar Convention Ordinance, 1903," and "The Sugar Convention (Amendment) Ordinance, 1908."

Preamble.

WHEREAS His Majesty has caused to be given the necessary notice of withdrawal from the Convention in relation to sugar, signed the Fifth day of March, 1902 :

And whereas, in consequence of such notice, such withdrawal as aforesaid has taken place, and it is expedient to repeal "The Sugar Convention Ordinance, 1903," and "The Sugar Convention (Amendment) Ordinance, 1908," which were passed to give effect to certain provisions of the said Convention :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Sugar Convention Ordinances (Repeal) Ordinance, No. of 1919."

Repeal.

2 "The Sugar Convention Ordinance, 1903," and "The Sugar Convention (Amendment) Ordinance, 1908," are hereby repealed.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, December 2, 1919.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE preamble sets out the reasons for this Bill. In view of the withdrawal of His Majesty's Government from the Brussels Sugar Convention, the two Ordinances in question are no longer necessary.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Petroleum Ordinance, 1887."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Petroleum Ordinance, 1887": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Petroleum (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919."

Amendment of section 14 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 14 of the principal Ordinance is amended by adding the following proviso at the end thereof :

Provided that nothing in this section contained shall extend to the possession or transportation of oil ordinarily used as liquid fuel, and having its flashing point at or above one hundred and seventy-five degrees of Fahrenheit's thermometer.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, December 1, 1919.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTION 14 of Ordinance No. 6 of 1887 requires that no quantity of petroleum exceeding 50 gallons shall be kept or transported by any person except under license. Liquid fuel, whatever its flashing point may be, is included within the definition of petroleum as given in section 3 of the Ordinance, and is therefore subject to all provisions both of the Ordinance and the rules applying to petroleum. But it is thought that these provisions are unnecessary, so far as their full application is concerned, in the case of liquid fuel with a flashing point so high as 175° F., and it is therefore sought to exempt it from the provisions as to possession and transport.

Colombo, November 20, 1919.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Courts Ordinance, 1889."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Courts Ordinance, 1889": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Courts (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919."

Amendment of section 46 of principal Ordinance.

2 Section 46 of "The Courts Ordinance, 1889," is amended by inserting after the word "mandamus" in lines 4 and 5 thereof the words "quo warranto."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 29, 1919.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

In the case of the Jaffna Local Board election, reported in 1 Appeal Court Reports, and decided in 1907, the Full Court held that the Supreme Court had no power to issue a writ of quo warranto.

By means of this writ a simple means for determining the validity of a disputed election is provided, and it is thought advisable to amend section 46 in the manner proposed.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Firearms Ordinance,
No. 33 of 1916."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Firearms Ordinance, No. 33 of 1916"; Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Firearms (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1919."

Amendment of the principal Ordinance.

2 The principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects :

(1) Section 22 (2) by inserting as paragraph (i.) the following :—

(i.) To the possession and use of a gun by any person in respect of which the Governor has, by writing under the hand of the Colonial Secretary, given a permit, to such person. Provided that the Governor may at his discretion in like manner cancel or revoke any such permit.

Substitution of new section 48. Sale of cartridges.

(2) The following section shall be substituted for section 48 :

48. (1) No person shall sell any cartridges to any other person, unless the purchaser shall produce to the vendor a gun license authorizing him to possess a gun of the type for which the cartridges sought are adapted, or is a person exempted under section 45 of this Ordinance from the liability to obtain a license in respect of any such gun.

(2) In the case of every such sale it shall be the duty of the vendor to enter in a book the name of the purchaser, the character and quantity of the cartridges sold, and the number or other indication of the license, if any, and any further particulars which may be prescribed by regulations made by the Governor in Executive Council.

(3) Any person infringing any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, December 1, 1919.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

It has been found that there is difficulty under "The Firearms Ordinance, No. 33 of 1916," in exempting articles which are technically guns, but which, if properly used, do not fall within the intention of the Ordinance. An instance of this is the Humane Killer for slaughtering cattle. The proposed amendment to section 22 (2) would allow of such articles being exempted. It would also make it possible to grant special exemptions even in the case of ordinary guns.

The amendment to section 48 (1) allows of the purchase of ammunition, without production of a license, by a person exempted under section 45, from the liability to obtain a gun license.

The amendment to section 48 (2) merely allows of further particulars being required if thought necessary.

Attorney-General.
