Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys thereby secured shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued. A declaration under the Company's seal contained in or endorsed upon any of the documents mentioned in this Article and subscribed by two or more of the Directors, or by one Director and the Agent or Secretary or Agents or Secretaries, to the effect that the Directors have power to borrow the amount which such document may represent, shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all questions between the Company and its creditors, and no such document containing such declaration shall, as regards the creditor, be void on the ground of its being granted in excess of the aforesaid borrowing power, unless it shall be proved that such creditor was aware that it was so granted.

(6) Immediate debenture issue—Without prejudice to any of the powers and provisions of Article 57 (a) hereof, and without the necessity of obtaining the sanction of the Company in General Meeting therefor, the Directors shall have power to raise and borrow immediately a sum not exceeding Three hundred thousand Rupees (Rs 300,000) by the creation and issue of Three thousand (3 000) redeemable debentures of One hundred rupees (Rs. 100), each carrying interest at eight (8) per centum per annum and to secure the same by a primary mortgage over the Company's estates.

59. Subsequent General Meetings.—Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no time or place is prescribed, at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors.

Upon the receipt of such requisition the Directors shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such time and place as they shall determine. If they do not proceed to convene the same within seven days from the delivery of the requisition, the requisitionists may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, to be held at such place and at such time as the Shareholders convening the meeting may themselves fix.

63. Notice of resolution.—Any Shareholder may, on giving not less than ten days' previous notice of any resolution, submit the same to a meeting. Such notice shall be given by leaving a copy of the resolution at the registered office of the Company.

64. Seven days' notice of meeting to be given.—Seven days' notice at least of every General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, and by whomsoever convened, specifying the place, date, hour of meeting, and the objects and business of the meeting, shall be given either by advertisement in the Ceylon Government Gazette, or by notice sent by post, or otherwise served as hereinafter provided, but an accidental omission to give such notice to any Shareholder shall not invalidate the proceedings at any General Meeting.

65. Business requiring and not requiring notification.—Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent, without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened, or of the business to be transacted thereat, to receive and discuss any report and any accounts presented thereto by the Directors, and to pass resolutions in approval or disapproval thereof, and to declare dividends, and to elect Directors and Auditors retiring in rotation, and to fix the remuneration of the Auditors; and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any business whatever of which special mention shall have been made in the notice or notices upon which the meeting was convened.

66. Notice of other business to be given.—With the exceptions mentioned in the foregoing Articles as to the business which may be transacted at Ordinary General Meetings without notice, no General Meeting, Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be competent to enter upon, discuss, or transact any business which has not been specially mentioned in the notice or notices upon which it was convened.

67. Quorum to be present.—No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting, except the declaration of a dividend recommended by a report of the Directors or the election of a Chairman, unless there shall be present in person at the commencement of the business three or more persons being Shareholders entitled to vote or persons holding proxies or powers of attorney from Shareholders entitled to vote.

68. If a quorum not present, meeting to be dissolved or adjourned; adjourned meeting to transact business.—If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of persons shall not be present at the meeting, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, those Shareholders who are present shall be a quorum, and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

69. Chairman of Directors or a Director to be Chairman of General Meeting; in case of their absence or refusal, a Shareholder may act.—The Chairman (if any) of the Directors shall be entitled to take the Chair at every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary; but if there be no Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall refuse to take the Chair, the Shareholders shall choose another Director as Chairman; and if no Directors be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the Chair, then the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

72. Minutes of General Meetings.—Minutes of the proceedings or every General Meeting, whether Ordinary or Extraordinary, shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall when so entered be signed as soon as practicable by the Chairman of the same meeting, or by the Chairman of the succeeding meeting, and the same when so entered and signed shall be evidence of all such proceedings and of the proper election of the Chairman.

VOTING AT MEETINGS.

73. Votes.—At any meeting every resolution shall be decided by the votes of the Shareholders present. In case there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman at such meeting shall be entitled to give a casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy and attorney; and unless a poll be immediately demanded in writing by some Shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

74. Poll.—If a poll be duly demanded, the same shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

75. Poll how taken.—If at any meeting a poll be demanded by notice in writing signed by some Shareholder present at the meeting and entitled to vote, which notice shall be delivered during the meeting to the Chairman, the meeting shall, if necessary, be adjourned, and the poll shall be taken at such time and in such a manner as the Chairman shall direct; and in such case every Shareholder shall have the number of votes to which he may be entitled as hereinafter provided, and in case at any such poll there shall be an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting at which such poll shall have been demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which he may be entitled as a Shareholder and proxy and attorney, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in such meeting.

77. Number of votes to which Shareholder entitled.—On a show of hands every Shareholder present in person shall have one vote only. In case of a poll every Shareholder present in person or by proxy or attorney shall have one vote for every one fully paid share held by him. Until a share has been fully paid it shall not confer on the holder thereof the right to a vote in respect thereof. When voting on a resolution involving the winding up of the Company, every Shareholder shall have one vote for every share held by him.

78. Curator of minor, &c., when not entitled to vote.—The parent or curator of a minor Shareholder, the committee or other legal guardian of any lunatic Shareholder, the husband of any female Shareholder not entitled to her shares as separate estate, and the executor or administrator of any deceased Shareholder, or any one of such persons as aforesaid, if more than one, shall not be entitled to vote in the place of such minor, lunatic, female, or deceased person, unless such person shall have been registered as a Shareholder.

Any Director so appointed shall hold office until the next Ordinary General Meeting of the Company. Until such appointment the remaining Director shall not act, except for the purpose of appointing another, and if necessary enabling him to be placed on the register of Shareholders.

130. Interim dividend.—The Directors may also if they think fit, from time to time and at any time, without the sanction of a General Meeting, determine on and declare an interim dividend to be paid, and (or) pay a bonus to the Shareholders on account and in anticipation of the dividend for the then current year.

135. Directors may deduct debt from the dividends.—The Directors may deduct from the dividend or bonus payable to any Shareholder all sums of money due from him (whether alone or jointly with any other person) to the Company, and notwithstanding such sums shall not be payable until after the date when such dividend is payable.

136. Dividends may be paid by cheque or warrant and sent through the post.—Unless otherwise directed any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the Shareholder entitled, or, in the case of joint-holders, to the registered address of that one whose name stands first on the register in respect of the joint-holding; but the Company shall not be liable or responsible for the loss of any such cheque or dividend warrant sent through the post.

137. Notice of dividend: forfeiture of unclaimed dividend.—Notice of all dividends or bonuses to become payable shall be given to each Shareholder entitled thereto; and all dividends or bonuses unclaimed by any Shareholder for three years after notice thereof is given may be forfeited by a resolution of the Board of Directors for the benefit of the Company, and, if the Directors think fit, may be applied in augmentation of the reserve fund. For the purposes of this clause any cheques or warrants which may be issued for dividends or bonuses and may not be presented at the Company's Bankers for payment within three years shall rank as unclaimed dividends.

"A method of and apparatus for mixing and kneading."

Abstract:—

The nature of the invention is indicated in the claims which are as follows:—

1. A method of mixing and kneading materials, which consists in causing such materials to flow continuously and successively from end to end simultaneously and circumferentially about the periphery of a container, for the purpose specified.

2. A machine for mixing materials, comprising a container which is equipped with a conveying device in the form of blades or the like constructed and arranged to cause the materials to flow continuously and successively from end to end and simultaneously and circumferentially about the periphery of the said container, for the purpose specified.

3. A machine for mixing and kneading materials, such as claimed in claim 2, in which the blades are provided with peripheral smearing surfaces which produce a smearing action on the material between said surfaces and the inner surface of the container, for the purpose specified.

4. A machine for mixing and kneading materials, in which the mixing device comprises a relatively rotary member comprising an axial body portion provided with one or more right-hand helical flanges and one or more left-hand helical flanges, said flanges beginning at opposite ends of the chamber and extending substantially to the end opposite that of beginning and extending also throughout their length uninterruptedly from said body portion substantially to the inner cylindrical surface of the chamber, whereby said material is conveyed successively and continuously from end to end of the chamber, for the purpose specified.

5. A machine for mixing and kneading material, such as claimed in claim 3, in which said flanges terminate in spirally arranged scrapers for the end walls of the chamber.

6. In a machine for mixing and kneading materials, a door for the mixing chamber on which is mounted a rotary feeding device which is arranged to feed its contents into the mixing chamber which contains the rotary mixing and kneading member, for the purpose specified.

7. In a machine for mixing and kneading materials, the provision of a rotary cylindrical member adjacent the mixing chamber and a device such as manually operable members for manually moving the end piece or pieces of said cylindrical member longitudinally with respect to the cylinder to provide an outlet for the material contained therein, for the purpose specified.

8. In a machine for mixing and kneading materials, the provision of a hollow member which can be driven or rotated to cause its contents to flow out into the mixing chamber of the machine and having a device for opening said hollow member to permit of egress of its contents, said device being operable independently of the driving of said member, for the purpose specified.

9. The improved method of mixing and kneading, and the apparatus substantially as described and as illustrated in the accompanying drawings, for the purpose specified.

2. Mr. Pieris moved—"That in view of complaints made to the elected Members adequate steps be taken to ensure the comfort and well being of the contacts removed to the Segregation Camp, and that consideration be given to the isolation of such contacts in private residences approved by the Medical Officer of Health. Mr. Goonewardene seconded and handed in a letter from Mr. C. S. Rajaratnam on behalf of a Committee appointed by the residents of Kandy to consider matters relating to the outbreak of plague.

The resolution was carried and it was agreed to sanction estimates for Rs. 1,400, submitted by the Superintendent of Works, for improvements to the Segregation Camp and for the construction of latrines at the Military Barracks, where the people from the evacuated areas were accommodated.

3. Dr. Attygalle proposed—"That the Sanitary Superintendent and four permanent Inspectors do revert to their ordinary duties in their respective wards and the sanitation of the unaffected areas be more carefully looked after by them, the special plague staff looking after the infected areas." Mr. de Silva seconded.

Mr. Goonewardene spoke in support of the resolution. After some discussion, on the explanation of the Medical Officer of Health, who was also present at the Meeting, that the permanent Inspectors were attending to their ordinary duties as far as possible, the motion was withdrawn.

4. It was agreed to write to Government and inquire whether the Public Works Department would be able to spare for temporary employment under this Municipality a competent engineer who is acquainted with town-planning, and if so at what salary and for how long.

5. Dr. Attygalle moved—"That the sum of Rs. 25,000 voted in the current year's budget on account of the new Infectious Diseases Hospital be appropriated for the immediate sanitary improvements of the town. Mr. de Silva seconded.—Carried by 5 to 4.
