DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to Increase the Powers of the Governor for the Prohibition or Restriction of the Import or Export of Articles for a certain Period.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by "The Necessaries of War Exportation
Ordinance, No. 19 of 1914," as amended by Ordinance
No. 1 of 1916, and "The Customs Amendment (War Powers) Ordinance, No. 30 of 1916," power was committed to His Excellency the Governor of prohibiting or restricting imports and exports during the present war :

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the exercise of similar powers until the expiry of five years from the date appointed under the provisions of Ordinance No. 17 of 1919 to be the date for the termination of the war. Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.	1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Restriction of Imports and Exports Ordinance, No. of 1920."
Commencement and duration of Ordinance.	2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on a date to be appointed by the Governor by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," and shall continue in operation thereafter until the expiry of five years from the date of the termination of the present war.
Definition.	3 In this Ordinance the term "goods" shall include gold or silver coin, whether of the United Kingdom or of any other part of the British Empire, or of any foreign state.
Governor in Executive Council may prohibit import or export of goods.	4 The Governor in Executive Council may, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," either absolutely or subject to such limitations and conditions as may be defined in the Proclamation, prohibit or restrict the import or export of all or any goods from or to any country or place, or from or to any person or class of persons.
Principal Collector of Customs may issue licenses subject to conditions.	5 (1) The Principal Collector of Customs may issue licenses, subject to such conditions as may be therein contained, authorizing the exportation of any goods subject to prohibition under this Ordinance to a particular person or place, or to a particular person at a particular place named in the license, and the provisions of this Ordinance shall not apply to goods shipped in accordance with such license. (2) In any such case the name of the person or place, or both, as the case may be, shall be inserted in all licenses, bills of lading, manifests, and other documents relating to the goods, and if this requirement is not complied with as regards any document, the person by whom or on whose behalf the document is made out shall, if he be the exporter of the goods, be deemed to have exported the goods without a license, and if any other person, shall be guilty of an offence and be liable to a fine of one thousand rupees.
Goods appearing in Proclamation to be deemed to have been included in Schedule C of Ordinance No. 17 of 1869.	6 All goods, the importation of which is prohibited by any such Proclamation, and all prohibitions and restrictions therein specified shall be deemed to have been included and specified in the "Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions Inward" contained in Schedule C to Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, and all the provisions of the said Ordinance and all amendments thereof shall apply to such goods and such prohibitions and restrictions in the same manner and to the same effect as they apply to goods and prohibitions and restrictions specified in the said schedule.
Penalties.	7 If any person shall, in breach of any such Proclamation, or in breach of the conditions of a license, which may have been issued to him under section 5 hereof, import or export any of the goods therein named or indicated, he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for any period not exceeding twelve months, and where the offence is committed in respect of imports, such goods shall be forfeited.
Repeal.	8 Ordinance No. 30 of 1916 shall stand repealed as and from the date on which this Ordinance shall come into operation.

By His Excellency's command,

B. HORSBURGH,

Colombo, June 23, 1920. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

By Ordinance No. 19 of 1914 and No. 30 of 1916 power to prohibit and restrict imports and certain exports was committed to His Excellency the Governor. It is the object of this Ordinance, which is drawn on the instructions of the Secretary of State, to make provision for the exercise of similar powers in respect of the import or export of any articles for a period of five years after the date appointed to be the date of the termination of the war.

To remove any doubt the term "goods" is so defined as to include all gold or silver coin, whether of the British Empire or of any foreign state.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, June 16, 1920.
