THE following Order in Council of October 13, 1920, published in the London Gazette of the 19th idem, applying the provisions of section 91 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907-1919, to Roumania, is published for general information.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 11, 1921.

By His Excellency's command,
GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of October, 1920.

Present:

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by section 91 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907 (7 Edw. 7, c. 29), as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1914 (4 & 5 Geo. 5, c. 18), and the Patents and Designs Act, 1919 (9 & 10 Geo. 5, c. 80), it is enacted as follows:—

" 91. (1) If His Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the Government of any Foreign State for mutual protection of inventions, or designs, or trade marks, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention, design, or trade mark in that State, or his legal representative or assignee, shall be entitled to a patent for his invention or to registration of his design or trade mark under this Act or the Trade Marks Act, 1905, in priority to other applicants; and the patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in the Foreign State:

" Provided that—

" (a) The application is made in the case of a patent within 12 months, and in the case of a design or trade mark within 4 months, from the application for protection in the Foreign State; and

“(b) Nothing in this section shall entitle the patentee or proprietor of the design or trade mark to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the actual date on which his complete specification is accepted, or his design or trade mark is registered, in this country.

“(2) The patent granted for the invention or the registration of a design or trade mark shall not be invalidated—

“(a) In the case of a patent, by reason only of the publication of a description of, or use of, the invention; or

“(b) In the case of a design, by reason only of the exhibition or use of, or the publication of a description or representation of, the design; or in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man during the period specified in this section as that within which the application may be made.

“(c) In the case of a trade mark, by reason only of the use of the trade mark,

“(3) The application for the grant of a patent, or the registration of a design, or the registration of a trade mark under this section, must be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under this Act or the Trade Marks Act, 1905:

“Provided that—

“(a) In the case of patents the application shall be accompanied by a complete specification, which, if it is not accepted within the 12 months from the application for protection in the Foreign State, shall with the drawings (if any) be open to public inspection at the expiration of that period; and

“(b) In the case of trade marks, any trade mark the registration of which has been duly applied for in the country of origin may be registered under the Trade Marks Act, 1905.

“(4) The provisions of this section shall apply only in the case of those Foreign States with respect to which His Majesty by Order in Council declares them to be applicable, and so long only in the case of each State as the Order in Council continues in force with respect to that State.

“(5) Where it is made to appear to His Majesty that the Legislature of any British Possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection of inventions, designs, or trade marks, patented or registered in this country, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to apply the provisions of this section to that Possession, with such variations or additions, if any, as may be stated in the Order”:

And whereas by section 103 of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section 6 of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act (Amendment) Act, 1885, and by section 1 of the Patents Act, 1901, and since repealed by section 98 of the said Patents and Designs Act, 1907, provisions were made to the same or like effect as those above set forth as contained in section 91 of the last-mentioned Act, and by the said section 98 it was provided that “this repeal shall not affect any Convention, Order in Council, Rule, or Table of Fees having effect under any enactment so repealed, but any such Convention, Order in Council, Rule, or Table of Fees in force at the commencement of this Act shall continue in force, and may be repealed, altered, or amended, as if it had been made under this Act”:

And whereas it pleased Her late Majesty Queen Victoria to make an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said section 103, by and in virtue of a Declaration signed and sealed by Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris on the 17th March, 1884, duly conveying the accession of Great Britain and Ireland to the International Convention and Protocol for the protection of Industrial Property, signed by Representatives of certain Powers on the 20th March, 1883, and duly ratified on the 6th June, 1884, power being reserved to Her Majesty to accede thereafter to the provisions of the said Convention and Protocol on behalf of the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, and any of Her Majesty's Possessions, which Declaration of Accession was duly accepted by the French Government on behalf of the Signatory Powers by and in virtue of a Declaration dated the 2nd April, 1884:

And whereas on the 14th December, 1900, at Brussels, an Additional Act was agreed upon between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the Heads of the Foreign Countries parties thereto for the purpose of modifying certain of the provisions of the said International Convention and the Protocol annexed thereto, the ratification of which Additional Act was duly effected:

And whereas by a Convention signed at Washington on the 2nd June, 1911, His Majesty and the Heads of the Foreign States named therein agreed to make certain modifications in and additions to the said Convention dated 20th March, 1883, as revised at Brussels on the 14th December, 1900, the ratification of which Convention was duly effected by Great Britain and certain other States:

And whereas by various Orders in Council Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and His late Majesty King Edward VII. and His present Majesty have been pleased to declare that the hereinbefore mentioned provisions of the said Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883 (as amended), should apply to the several Foreign Countries named in the said Orders parties to the said Convention and Protocols:

And whereas Roumania has acceded to the said International Convention Protocol and Additional Act as revised at Washington on 2nd June, 1911:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers in Him vested by the above-recited provisions, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The provisions of section 91 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907, as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1914, and the Patents and Designs Act, 1919, shall apply to Roumania.

2. This Order shall take effect from the 6th October, 1920.

"THE CENSUS ORDINANCE, 1900."

RULES made by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, under sections 5, 10, 12, 13, 14 of "The Census Ordinance, 1900."

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

* This column is to be filled by the Enumerator on the morning of March 19, 1921, after all the persons in his Block have been enumerated.

Under Section 10.

1. Every Census Officer may ask any questions which may be necessary to enable him, from the answers thereto, to enter the required particulars in the prescribed form of schedule in accordance with the following instructions:—

How to fill up the Heading and Columns.

Heading (Schedule Number).—This is the serial number of the schedule in the Enumeration Book. The first schedule in the book will be numbered 1 against this heading, the second 2, and so on to the end of the book. This heading must be filled in immediately the schedules are bound into the book.

Column 1 (Census Number of Building).—This is the number marked, for the Census, on the building or group of buildings. It also appears in column 1 of the Block List. The number of the building must be repeated for each inmate.

Column 2 (Name).—Enter first the chief resident member of the family, whether male or female; then the other members of the family in order of age; next the resident servants, if any; lastly, visitors, if any. If a child has not been named, enter "Not named." Ge names need not be entered. If the building is empty, write "empty" in this column. Empty buildings will, therefore, have the number entered in column 1, "empty" in column 2, and a blank line above and below. Similarly, in the case of "institutions," except that the word "institution" will be entered in column 2.

Column 3 (Religion).—Enter the religion, as Buddhist, Hindu, Parsi, Muhammadan, &c. In the case of Christians, enter the sect, thus: Church of England, Roman Catholic, Wesleyan, Baptist, Independent Catholic, Dutch Presbyterian, Scotch Presbyterian, Salvationist, &c. "Protestant" is not sufficiently exact, and should not be used. If the person has no religion, enter None, or Freethinker, or Agnostic, &c., according to the person's statement. (Note that "Hindu" means a worshipper of Siva, Vishnu, or other Indian deity. In the case of Tamils stating that they are Buddhists, or Sinhalese stating that they are Hindus, ascertain carefully whether they mean that they go to a kovil or to a pansala, and enter Hindu or Buddhist accordingly.)

Columns 4 (a) and 4 (b) (Sex).—For males enter M in column 4 (a). For females enter F in column 4 (b).

Column 5 (Unmarried, &c.).—Enter each person, whether infant, child, or grown up, as either unmarried, married, widowed, or divorced. Divorced persons who have married again should be entered as "married" and not as "divorced." As to whether a man and woman are married or not, accept the statements made by them. The entry "divorced" should only be made if a legal divorce has been obtained.

Column 6 (Age last Birthday).—Enter the number of years completed, thus, a person aged 25 years and 10 months would be entered as 25. For infants less than one year old enter "Infant." Absurd replies about age should not be accepted. The Enumerator should enter what appears to him to be the real age of each individual. Every effort should be made to find out the correct age of each person, e.g., by comparing ages of members of a family whose relative ages may be known.

Column 7 (Race).—Enter the race of each person, as Sinhalese, Tamil, Moor, Burgher, English, French, &c. General terms, such as British, Ceylonese, &c., should not be used. Enter English, Scotch, Irish, Sinhalese, Tamil, Burgher, &c. In the case of a Sinhalese, state whether Kandyan or Low-country. In the case of a Tamil or Moor, state whether Ceylon Tamil or Moor, or Indian Tamil or Moor. Ceylon Tamils and Moors are Tamils and Moors permanently settled in Ceylon, e.g., the Tamils of the Northern and Eastern Provinces; Puttalam, Batticaloa, and Hambantota Moors, &c. Indian Tamils and Moors are Tamils and Moors who are only working or trading in Ceylon away from their coast, and whose homes are in India. In general, the decision as to whether a person is a Ceylon or Indian Tamil or Moor will depend on the person's statement as to which country he himself regards as his home. But labourers and coolies must be entered as Indian Tamils or Moors, unless they can trace their origin to a Tamil or Moor district in Ceylon. The offspring of parents of different races will follow the father's race. In the case of a Vedda, enter "Vedda."

Column 8 (Birth District or Town).—In the case of persons born in Ceylon outside a town, enter the name of the district, e.g., Colombo, Negombo, Kandy, Nuwara Eliya, Galle, Matara, Jaffna, Mannar, Ratnapura, Kegalla, Chilaw, Puttalam, &c., and not the name of the village in which the person was born. In the case of persons born in towns, enter Colombo Town, Gampola Town, Moratuwa Town, &c., taking care to differentiate between the town and district by adding the word "Town" in the case of persons born in towns. In the case of persons born in India, enter the district as far as can be ascertained, thus: India, Tinnevely; India, Cochin. Persons born in India should be asked the name of the Taluk (தாலுக) or District in which they were born; if they cannot say, they should be asked the name of the Zilla (ஜில்லா) or Province. If this information cannot be obtained, the name of the town or village, or such other place name they can give, should be obtained. The province can always be traced if the name of the nearest Post Office to the place where they were born can be given. In the case of persons born out of Ceylon or India, enter the country, thus: China, England, France, &c.

Columns 9 (a) (Principal Occupation or Means of Subsistence of Earner); 9 (b) (Subsidiary Occupation or Means of Subsistence of Earner); 10 (If not Earner, Principal Occupation or Means of Subsistence of Persons on whom dependent) are the most difficult columns in the schedule to fill up, and the following points should be carefully studied and borne in mind:—

(1) The first distinction is between "Earner" and "Non-Earner." "Earners" include both workers and persons of independent means, derived, say, from shares, pensions, rents, the work of others, &c. "Non-Earners" include children, women, old and infirm persons, who do not earn money or means of subsistence, and have no means of their own. But women and children who help to augment the family income are "earners." A woman who makes lace, baskets, hoppers, &c., or is engaged as telephone operator, typist, &c., and earns money by her work, or who regularly assists her husband in his work, is augmenting the family income, and is an "earner." But a woman who looks after her house and cooks the food does not augment the family income, and is a "non-earner." Boys at school or college are non-earners. Domestic servants are "earners." Persons temporarily out of employ should be shown as following their last occupation. Begging should be regarded as an occupation or means of subsistence, and persons making a livelihood out of begging should be entered in column 9 (a) as "earners." For "earners" column 9 (a) and possibly 9 (b) will show the occupation or means of subsistence. For "non-earners" the principal occupation or means of subsistence of the persons on whom they are dependent will be shown in column 10, and columns 9 (a) and 9 (b) will be left blank. Thus, if a man lives by cultivating his own land, say, with tobacco or paddy and his wife and children assist him in that cultivation, they will be all entered in column 9 (a), he as "tobacco (or paddy) cultivator and proprietor," and they as "tobacco (or paddy) cultivators." Again, if the head of a family is a lawyer, and his wife and children have no independent means of subsistence, enter opposite the name of such wife or child in column 10 "advocate" or "proctor," as the case may be, and leave column 9 (a) and 9 (b) blank.

(2) The second distinction is between "principal" and "subsidiary" occupation or means of subsistence (columns 9 (a) and 9 (b)). The "principal" occupation or means of subsistence is that which brings in the largest income, or that on which the earner depends most for a livelihood. The "subsidiary" occupation or means of subsistence is the means of livelihood on which the earner depends, in addition to the previous. Only one—the most important—"subsidiary occupation or means of subsistence" may be entered in column 9 (b). If the earner has no subsidiary occupation, enter "None" in column 9 (b). It should be noted that the relative importance of occupations or means of subsistence is to be judged from their importance as sources of income or means of livelihood.* Column 9 (a) and 9 (b) will always be blank for "non-earners."

(3) The exact occupation or means of subsistence must be entered. Vague terms like "merchant," "trader," "planter," "cooly," &c., must be made definite by adding the kind of merchandise, trade, labour, &c., thus: "rice merchant," "piece goods merchant," "general merchant," &c., "cloth trader," "cocoa dealer," "general trader," "tea planter," &c., "tea estate plucking cooly," "rubber estate tapping cooly," "Local Board conservancy cooly," "odd job cooly," &c. Similarly, "clerk" will not be used, the correct entry being "Kacheheri Gansabhawa clerk," "District Court translator," "Municipal Accounts clerk," "proctor's accountant," &c. Persons cultivating their own land will be entered as "paddy owner and cultivator," "coconut planter and proprietor," &c. If a person makes the articles he sells, he will be entered as "maker and seller of combs," "maker and seller of baskets," &c.

(4) In the case of non-earners depending on several earners with different occupations or means of subsistence, column 10 should show the occupation or means of subsistence of the person who contributes most to the maintenance of the dependents.

(5) It must be carefully noted that columns 9 (a) and 10 cannot be filled up for the same person; also that if there is an entry in column 9 (b), there must be one in column 9 (a); also that if column 10 is entered, columns 9 (a) and 9 (b) will be blank.

Column 11 (Mother Tongue or other Language which can be read and written).—Enter in this column his mother tongue against each person who can read and write it. If he cannot read and write his native language, but can read and write another language, insert the name of that language. Enter "None" in case of inability to read and write any language.

Column 12 (a) (Whether able to read and write English).—Enter in this column against each person the word "Yes" if he can both read and write English; and if he cannot, "No" should be entered.

Column 12 (b) (Whether able to speak English).—Enter in this column against each person the word "Yes" if he can speak English. Able to speak English means able to conduct a short conversation, or understand and answer questions put, in English.

Column 13 (Deaf-mute from Birth, Insane, Totally Blind).—If any person be deaf and dumb from birth, or of unsound mind, or totally blind, enter the name of the infirmity in this column. Do not enter those who are blind of one eye only or who have become deaf and dumb after birth.

Column 14 (Serial Number of Persons in the Enumeration Book).—This column is not to be filled in till after the Final Census. Then, the first person in the book will be numbered 1, the second 2, and so on right through to the end of the book without any break for the different schedules. Thus, if the last entry in column 14 of schedule number 8 is 81, the first entry in column 14 of schedule number 9 will be 82.

2. He may, for example, ask the following questions, but if the answers do not contain the information required by the preceding rule, additional questions may be asked till it is obtained:—

Questions for the Preliminary Census.

(Note.—The questions need not be put to any person who is certain not to be residing in the building or taking his meals from it on March 18, 1921.)

Col. 2.—What is your name?

Col. 3.—What is your religion? (In case of Christians) To what sect of Christians do you belong?

Col. 5.—Have you ever been married? If you have, have you a wife (or husband) now alive? (To persons who say they are divorced) Have you obtained a legal divorce?

Col. 6.—How old are you; that is, how many years have you completed?

Col. 7.—What is your race? If Sinhalese, are you Kandyan or Low-country? If Tamil or Moor, are you a Ceylon or Indian Tamil or Moor? Is your home on the Coast in India?

Col. 8.—Were you born in this Town or District (as the case may be)? If not, in what Town or District? If not in Ceylon, in what country? If in India, in what District of India?

Cols. 9 (a), 9 (b), 10.—Do you earn your livelihood by working? Or have you independent means? Do you augment the family income by your work? [If any of the answers is Yes, an entry must be made in column 9 (a). If all the answers are No, 9 (a) will be blank, but column 10 will have an entry. If any answer be Yes] What is your principal occupation or means of subsistence, that is, the employment which brings you in the greatest income? [for column 9 (a)]. Have you any other occupation or means of subsistence? [for column 9 (b)]. What is your exact employment? If merchant, in what merchandise do you deal? If trader, what is your trade? If landowner, what is the principal cultivation on the land? Do you both own it and cultivate it? Do you let out any land? Do you make more out of that than from the land you cultivate yourself? [If the answers to all the questions at the beginning are No] What is the principal occupation or means of subsistence of the person on whom you are dependent? [for entry in column 10]. In the case of infants and children, the information will be got from their parents or the persons in charge of them.

Col. 11.—Can you read and write your own language? Can you read and write any language? (Insert the native or other language of your informant if the answer is Yes; if No, write None.)

Col. 12 (a).—Can you both read and write English?

Col. 12 (b).—Can you talk in English? Can you understand a question put to you in English and reply in English?

Col. 13.—Inquire from whoever in the building can give you this information whether any inmate is deaf and dumb and has been so from birth. In case of blind, whether they are totally blind. Ask if any one in the building is insane.

3. Every Census Officer may ask such questions as may be necessary to enable him to ascertain whether any person has been already included in the Census returns.

* But unpaid headmen must show their employment under Government in column 9 (b).

Under Section 12 (1).

THE following regulations regarding the examinations for Eastern Cadetships are hereby published for general information.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 16, 1921.

By His Excellency's command,
GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Examinations for Eastern Cadetships, viz., for Cadetships in the Civil Services of Ceylon, Hong Kong, and Malaya.

An open competitive examination will be held in London, commencing on August 1, 1921, under the following regulations. Intending candidates should apply to the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, London, W. 1, about Easter, 1921, for the prescribed form of application.

Regulations.

1. The Cadets are selected by open competitive examination held by the Civil Service Commissioners, to whom all inquiries on the subject should be addressed.

Any such examination is open under such general restrictions as may be laid down, to all natural-born, but not naturalized, British subjects, being of the requisite age, health, and character.

2. Candidates for Ceylon Cadetships must be natural-born British subjects either of pure European or Ceylonese descent on both sides. Candidates for Hong Kong or Malayan Cadetships must be natural-born British subjects of pure European descent on both sides.

2 A. No person will be eligible for assignment to any of these Cadetships who has made before any Tribunal established under the Military Service Acts, 1916, an application for the issue to him of a certificate of exemption from the provisions of those Acts on the ground of a conscientious objection to the undertaking of combatant service.

3. Candidates successful in the competition who may be assigned to any of these Cadetships may be called upon to satisfy the Secretary of State for the Colonies that they fulfil the above requirements as regards descent. To avoid delay candidates claiming to be of Ceylonese descent would do well to provide themselves in advance with a form of certificate by application to the Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo.

4. The examinations for these appointments will, as a rule, be held in the month of August of those years in which vacancies have occurred in any of the above Services; and the successful Candidates will be allotted, as and when opportunity offers, to the various Colonies or States in which vacancies may exist upon a consideration of all the circumstances, including their own wishes; but the requirements of the Public Service will rank before every other consideration, and the Secretary of State retains full discretion to allot as he thinks fit.

5. Candidates must have attained the age of 22 and must not have attained the age of 24 on the first day of August in the year in which the examination is held, and must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they are duly qualified in respect of health and character. They must be of sound constitution, possessed of good sight, and physically qualified for service in tropical climates, and they will be called upon to undergo a strict medical examination to test these points.

6. The Examination will include the following subjects.* The numerical value is shown against each subject.

MUNICIPALITY OF COLOMBO.

Minutes of Proceedings of a General Meeting of the Municipal Council of Colombo held in the Town Hall on Friday, January 14, 1921, at 3 p.m.

THE Council met this day at 3 p.m., pursuant to notice dated January 8, 1921.

Present :—Mr. B. G. de Glanville, Chairman; Mr. C. P. Dias; the Hon. Mr. N. H. M. Abdul Cader; Mr. Arthur Alvis; Dr. E. V. Ratnam; Dr. W. P. Rodrigo; the Hon. Dr. G. J. Rutherford; Mr. W. C. S. Ingles; Mr. Harold Creasy; Mr. W. Philps; Mr. B. F. Khan; Mr. A. E. de Silva; Lieut.-Col. S. Boylan Smith, D.S.O., O.B.E.; Major W. H. Robinson; Mr. M. J. Cary; Mr. E. W. Jayewardene; Mr. R. L. Pereira; Mr. C. H. Z. Fernando; and Mr. T. H. Tatham.

1. The Minutes of the General Meeting of 3rd and of the Special Meeting of December 10, 1920, having been previously printed and copies thereof having been sent to each Member of Council, were taken as read.

Dr. W. P. Rodrigo rose to a point of order with regard to Meeting, and stated that he had not received his notice of Meeting till Monday, the 10th instant, at 2.30 p.m., and, therefore, he considered that the notice, as required by the Ordinance, namely, four days, had not been given of the Meeting. After some discussion, the Chairman held that if the notice was served before 3 p.m. on Monday it was in time, and the Meeting, therefore, in order.

Resolved that the Minutes of the General Meeting of 3rd and of the Special Meeting of December 10, 1920, be confirmed.

2. (a) The Chairman read the following:—Since the last Meeting of Council 74 further cases of human plague were recorded up to the end of the year making a total for the year 1920 of 234 cases, as compared with 87 cases during 1919. Forty-five, i.e., 64 per cent. of cases were bubonic which is an exceptionally large proportion. Twenty-four cases of plague have been recorded up to date this year, 8 of which were septic and 16 bubonic in character. Nine of these cases developed during December, but were not recorded until after the holidays. Most of the cases occurred in the Sea street and 2nd Division, Maradana, areas.

Rat Plague.—Fifteen cases of rat plague were discovered, making a total of 137 for the year 1920, as against 66 during 1919. Seven plague infected rats have been found up to date during the current year, of which 4 were killed by the Clayton Machines. The Medical Officer of Health reports that the recent increase of plague began during the week ended September 25, and reached a maximum during the week ended December 11, since when there has been a decided decrease. In addition to the Sea street area, which, as usual, showed most cases, there were four other active centres of infection. One was in the Mosque lane area in Colpetty, the second in the De Mel street area of Slave Island, the third Rudd's lane, and the fourth at Dean's road. The Colpetty centre has had only one case (on December 24) since December 14, while the last case in De Mel street centre occurred on January 2. No case has occurred at Rudd's lane since December 10. The outdoor staff were kept at work throughout the Christmas holidays, with the single exception of New Year's day. Special measures were adopted to deal with this outbreak, which at one time was very threatening. A detailed report on this will be submitted later.

2. (b) The Chairman read the following:—Since the last Meeting of Council, 7 further cases of smallpox were discovered up to December 31, 1920, making a total of 75 cases during the year. Fourteen of these cases were concealed, and penalties were inflicted by the Court, ranging from a fine of Rs. 5 to a fine of Rs. 1,000. The accused in one case was sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment. Vaccination is being carried on vigorously in the infected areas. Five cases have been recorded up to 12th instant, 4 in Slave Island, and 1 vagrant who appears to have been infected in Slave Island. Two of these cases were concealed, and the parties responsible will be prosecuted.

3. Pursuant to notice, Mr. C. P. Dias moved that this Council request the Chairman to take steps to prevent the inconvenience and danger caused to pedestrians and vehicle traffic by race horses being exercised in the public roads in Colombo. Dr. E. V. Ratnam seconded.
