The penalty for failure to report particulars of such property is Rs. 1,500.

Colombo, February 25, 1921.

E. B. ALEXANDER,
Custodian of Enemy Property, and Administrator,
Clearing Office (Austrian) Enemy Debts.

Notification by the Administrator of the Clearing Office (Austrian) Enemy Debts.

IT is hereby notified that a Local Clearing Office for (Austrian) enemy debts has been established under the control and management of the Custodian of Enemy Property as Administrator in terms of section 2 of "The Treaty of Peace (Austria) Enforcement Ordinance, No. 3 of 1921."

The following instructions are published for the information of interested creditors and debtors:—

1. The Administrator of the Clearing Office for (Austrian) enemy debts, pursuant to section 1 (ii.) of the Treaty of Peace (Austria) Order, 1920, hereby licenses direct communication between British creditors resident in Ceylon and Austrian debtors with regard to the adjustment of accounts or settlement of pre-war debts, or debts arising out of pre-war transactions or contracts, due by Austrian nationals to British nationals, provided that such creditors shall, on or before August 16, 1921, give the Administrator notice of such debts due to them, whether they take advantage of this license or not.

2. A creditor may either—

- (a) Notify the Administrator of his claim and then enter into direct communication with his debtor; or
- (b) Enter into direct communication with his debtor and then notify the Administrator of his claim, whether admitted or denied by the debtor; or
- (c) Notify the Administrator of his claim and request him to forward it to his debtor through the Clearing Offices in London and Vienna:

Provided that the notice required by the Administrator under (a), (b), and (c) must in all cases be given before August 16, 1921.

3. A creditor entering into direct communication with his debtor under 2 (a) or 2 (b) above shall retain true copies of all such communications and the original replies thereto, and hand the same to the Administrator on demand at any time. If such communications lead to a proposal for the settlement of the debt, the draft of the agreement embodying the terms of the proposed settlement must be submitted in triplicate to the Administrator for his approval, and such approval in writing must be obtained before any such agreement can be entered into.

Apart from the penalties incurred by the breach of this license no agreement for the settlement of such debts or claims will be valid or binding on the parties in the absence of such written approval.

4. The Administrator also hereby licenses communication in writing between British debtors and Austrian creditors with regard to pre-war debts or debts arising out of pre-war transactions or contracts, with the sole object of ascertaining particulars of indebtedness between the parties, provided that no proposal or suggestion is made for the payment or settlement of such debts except through the Clearing Offices, and that the party so communicating shall retain true copies of such communications and the original replies thereto, and hand the same to the Administrator on demand at any time.

Any direct communication outside the scope of this license is an offence punishable by fine and/or imprisonment.

5. Creditors who do not desire to enter into direct communication with their debtors are requested to forward to the Administrator proof of their claims on a form similar to Form "A" in Schedule I. attached to the notification by the Controller of the Clearing Office for (German) enemy debts published in Ceylon Government Gazette, Extraordinary No. 7,110 of June 15, 1920, copies of which will be sent on application to the Administrator.

Claims should be sent in as early as possible, and in any case before August 16, 1921, after which date no claim will be entertained.

6. Claims must be made and debts paid in rupee currency at the pre-war rate of exchange as laid down in paragraph 4 (d) of Article 296 of the Peace Treaty. Until further instructions are issued the pre-war rate of exchange will be taken to be—

- (a) For conversion of Austrian into British currency, Kronen 24 equals £1.
- (b) For conversion of Austrian into Ceylon currency, Kronen 24 equals Rs. 15.

7. Creditors and debtors are requested to note that, except for the concession of direct communication between creditor and debtor referred to in paragraphs 1 and 4 above, the procedure and instructions to be observed for the settlement of Austrian enemy debts (e.g., as regards interest, cross claims, cash discount, life policies, &c.), will be, in general, the same as those laid down for the settlement of German enemy debts published in Government Gazette Extraordinary No. 7,110 dated June 15, 1920, copies of which will be sent on application to the Administrator.

It should be noted, however, that the material date of residence of debtor and creditor referred to in paragraph 1 of the notification in question is the day on which the Treaty of Peace with Austria was ratified, namely, July 16, 1920.

8. A commission of 2½ per cent. will be chargeable on all claims against Austrian nationals eventually admitted or found due, and will be deducted from repayments to British creditors.

E. B. ALEXANDER,
Custodian of Enemy Property, and Administrator,
Clearing Office (Austrian) Enemy Debts.
