DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Land Acquisition (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Amendment of section 28 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 28 of the principal Ordinance is amended by striking out the words "Provided that such fee shall not exceed two hundred rupees" in line 3 thereof.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, December 20, 1920.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

COMPENSATION cases may, and often do, involve large values, and take a long time to investigate; and strong representations have been made to the effect that the limitation of the fee allowed to assessors to two hundred rupees, irrespective of the importance, complexity, or length of the case, is not advisable. By this amendment it is proposed that the amount of the fee payable to an assessor should be left to the discretion of the judge who presides at the hearing.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Insertion of new chapter in principal Ordinance.

2 The following provisions shall be inserted as Chapter XX. A of the principal Ordinance :—

CHAPTER XX. A.

Of Expenses of Witnesses, &c., Costs; and Compensation.

Power of Governor in Executive Council to make regulations.

253 A. (1) The Governor in Executive Council may make regulations providing—

- (a) For the payment out of the public revenue of the expenses of persons attending to give evidence for the prosecution or defence or called to give evidence at the instance of the court for the expense, trouble, or loss of time properly incurred in, or incidental to, the attendance and giving of evidence in any trial before the Supreme Court or a District Court, or on the inquiry preliminary to any such trial, and the conditions on which such payments may be allowed ;
- (b) For the payment out of the public revenue of the expenses of persons summoned to serve as jurors or assessors in any trial before the Supreme Court or a District Court, respectively ;
- (c) For the persons by whom, and the manner in which, the amounts of such expenses shall be ascertained and payments made.

(2) Such regulations shall be laid as soon as conveniently may be before the Legislative Council, and may at any time within forty days after the date of their being so laid before the Council, or at any of the three meetings of the Council next succeeding such date, by resolution of the Council, be disallowed, amended, or otherwise dealt with as may be directed by the said Council, but without prejudice to anything that may have been done thereunder.

Power of Supreme Court or District Court to order payment of costs of prosecution by defendant.

253 B. (1) The Supreme Court or any District Court by or before which any person is convicted of an indictable offence may, if it thinks fit, in addition to any other lawful punishment, order the person convicted to pay the whole or any part of the costs incurred in or about the prosecution and conviction, including any proceedings in the preliminary inquiry before a Magistrate, as taxed by the Registrar or Secretary of the court.

(2) Any sum awarded under this section shall be recoverable as if it were a fine ; and also, if the court so direct, out of any money taken on his apprehension from the person convicted.

(3) Any amount so recovered shall be paid into the public Treasury.

Frivolous or vexatious complaints.

253 C. (1) If in any case instituted on complaint under section 148 (1) (a) which a Police Court has power to try, a Magistrate acquits or discharges the accused and declares that the complaint was frivolous or vexatious, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to order the complainant to pay by way of Crown costs a sum not exceeding five rupees, and he may, in addition, at the same time, order the complainant to pay to the accused, or to each of the accused when there are more than one, such compensation not exceeding ten rupees to each person as the Magistrate shall think fit, which sum if paid or recovered shall be taken into account in any subsequent civil suit relating to the same matter.

(2) Any sum awarded under this section shall be recoverable as if it were a fine, and if it cannot be recovered, the imprisonment to be awarded shall be simple and for such term, not exceeding in the case of a sum awarded by way of compensation thirty days, and in the case of a sum awarded by way of Crown costs fourteen days, as the Magistrate directs at the time of awarding such sum.

(3) Before making any such order the Magistrate shall record and consider any objection which the complainant may urge against the making of the order, and if he makes such order, he shall record his reasons for making the same.

(4) No appeal shall lie against any order for payment of Crown costs.

Compensation
for groundlessly giving in charge.

253 D. (1) Whenever any person causes a peace officer to arrest another person, if it appears to the Magistrate who takes cognizance of the case that there was no sufficient ground for causing such arrest, he may award such compensation not exceeding twenty-five rupees to be paid by the person so causing the arrest to the person so arrested for his loss of time and expenses in the matter as the Magistrate thinks fit.

(2) In such cases, if more persons than one are arrested, the Magistrate may in like manner award to each of them such compensation not exceeding twenty-five rupees as such Magistrate thinks fit.

(3) All compensation awarded under this section may be recovered as if it were a fine, and if it cannot be so recovered, the person by whom it is payable shall be sentenced to simple imprisonment for such term not exceeding thirty days as the Magistrate directs, unless such sum be sooner paid.

(4) Such compensation shall be no bar to an action for false imprisonment.

Power of court
to pay expenses
or compensation out of fine.

253 E. (1) Whenever a criminal court imposes a fine or passes a sentence of which fine forms a part, or the Supreme Court confirms in appeal, revision, or otherwise a sentence of a fine or sentence of which fine forms a part, such court may order the whole or any part of the fine recovered to be applied—

(a) In defraying the expenses properly incurred in the prosecution; or

(b) In compensation for the injury caused by the offence committed where substantial compensation is, in the opinion of the court, recoverable by civil suit.

(2) If the fine is imposed in a case which is subject to appeal, no such payment shall be made before the period allowed for presenting the appeal has elapsed, or, if an appeal be presented, before the decision of the appeal.

(3) At the time of awarding compensation in any subsequent civil suit relating to the same matter, the court shall take into account any sum paid or recovered as compensation under this section.

Power of court
to order payment of compensation to aggrieved party.

253 F. (1) Whenever any person (hereafter referred to as the convict) is convicted by or before a criminal court, or the Supreme Court confirms in appeal, revision, or otherwise a sentence, such court may order the convict to pay such sum by way of compensation to any person affected by the offence (hereafter referred to as the aggrieved party) as to the court shall seem fit. Provided that in the case of a person convicted before a Magistrate the amount awarded by him shall not exceed fifty rupees to each aggrieved party.

(2) Any sum awarded under this section shall be recovered as if it were a fine, and if and when recovered shall be paid over to the aggrieved party.

Proviso.

Repeal.

3 Sections 197, 198, 277, 431, 432, and 437 of the principal Ordinance and section 54 of "The Police Ordinance, 1865," are hereby repealed.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, December 20, 1920. GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Bill gives effect to certain recommendations made by a Committee appointed by His Excellency the Governor to consider amongst other things the subject of costs, expenses of witnesses, and compensation in criminal cases.

The provisions dealing with these subjects in the Criminal Procedure Code are not grouped, but in the Bill these provisions are proposed to be included in a single chapter of the Code.

Payments to jurors and assessors are provided for by regulations under section 277 of the Code and for witnesses under section 431, but the Committee called attention not only to the inadequacy of the rates of payment which were laid down in 1883, but also to such distance limits as are specified in section 277.

Section 253 A (set out in section 2 of the Bill) is intended to give wide powers of making regulations for payment of the expenses of witnesses, jurors, and assessors, and is substituted for sections 277 and 431 of the Code. These regulations may be amended or disallowed by the Legislative Council.

Section 253 B (set out in section 2 of the Bill) is new, and is intended to give the Supreme and the District Courts power to order a convicted person to pay the costs of his trial in accordance with the provisions of the English law.

Sections 253 C, 253 D, and 253 E (set out in section 2 of the Bill) merely re-enact the provisions of sections 197 and 198, 437, and 431, respectively, of the Code.

Section 253 F (set out in section 2 of the Bill) is new, and gives all criminal courts power to order an offender to make compensation to the aggrieved party.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889" : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Civil Procedure Code (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Substitution of new section for section 122 of the principal Ordinance.

Payment of witness' costs.

2 Section 122 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, and the following shall be inserted in lieu thereof :—

122 (1) The party applying for a summons shall, before the summons is granted, and within a period to be fixed by the court, pay into court, or give security for payment of, such a sum of money as appears to the court to be sufficient to defray the travelling and other expenses of the person summoned in passing to and from the court in which he is required to attend, and for one day's attendance. Provided that the making of any such payment and the giving of any such security shall in no case be a condition precedent to the issue of a summons, but in every case where summons issues without such payment having been made or security given, the witness shall be informed on the face of the summons that such is the case, and that it is not obligatory on him to attend.

(2 a) Notwithstanding anything in this section contained, any person who has been summoned by a court to give evidence or to produce a document, and who resides more than ten miles away from such court, may, by registered letter addressed to the Judge of such court or by personal application, object to the issue of such summons, on the ground that he can give no material evidence with respect to the matters in dispute in the particular suit or matter.

(2 b) The Judge shall thereupon call upon the party at whose instance the summons was issued to prove by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the Judge, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the evidence of the person summoned is material, and if the Judge is not so satisfied, he shall direct that the issue of the summons be set aside and that no further proceedings be taken thereon.

Amendment of section 208 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 208 of the principal Ordinance is amended by striking out the words "charges of witnesses" in line 7 thereof and substituting therefor the words "such just and reasonable charges as appear to have been properly incurred in procuring evidence and the attendance of witnesses."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, December 20, 1920.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

A COMMITTEE appointed by His Excellency the Governor to report, amongst other matters, on the proper method of compensating witnesses in civil cases for attendance at court have recommended that the present scale of compensation be increased.

Sections 122 and 124 of the Civil Procedure Code merely require the travelling expenses and expenses of attendance of a witness to be paid, and there is no compensation provided for his loss of time. Similarly, no provision exists for the remuneration of expert witnesses who have to fit themselves to give evidence in a case. The Committee recommended that the English method of remunerating witnesses be adopted, and effect has been given to this recommendation by section 3 of the Bill.

Section 122 of the Civil Procedure Code does not allow of expenses being paid to a witness who lives within four miles of the court, but this limitation has been left out, as the distance makes little difference; it is the taking up of the time of the witness that is material.

Another point raised has been the abuse that sometimes occurs of summoning a person as a witness who has no material evidence to give. It is obvious that no undue difficulties should be put in the way of a person presenting his case; it is equally desirable to give protection against the abuse of the process of the court. In section 122 (2) of the Civil Procedure Code, which is set forth in section 2 of the Bill, an attempt has been made to find a reasonable way of effecting these two, partly contradictory, objects.
