II.—CAPITAL.

1.—SHARES.

4. No part of the funds of the Company shall be employed in the purchase of or lent or advanced upon the security of the shares of the Company.
5. The shares shall be subject to the control of the Directors, who may issue and allot the same to such persons on such terms and conditions as to payment by way of deposit, instalment, or calls or as the amount or time of payment of calls and at such times as the Directors may think fit, subject, however, in the case of any new shares of the Company, to the consent in writing of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued.
6. The Company may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and time for the payment of such calls.
7. If by the conditions of the allotment of any share the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall when due be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being shall be the registered holder of the share, but this provision shall not affect the liability of any allottee who may have agreed to pay the same.
8. The Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof, and consequently shall not be bound by or compelled to recognize, even when having notice thereof, any trust, charge, incumbrance, lien, or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any person other than an absolute right thereto in the registered holder thereof for the time being, and such rights upon transmission as are hereinafter mentioned.
9. If two or more persons are registered as joint-holders of any share, any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for any dividends, bonus, return of capital, or other money payable in respect of such share, but all the joint-holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all instalments and calls payable in respect thereof.

The Company may with the consent in writing of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued pay to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares, debentures or debenture stock in the Company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional for any shares, debentures, or debenture stock in the Company, such commission as the Directors may from time to time determine, but so that the commission payable in respect of shares (if paid out of capital moneys or satisfied by means of shares of the Company) shall not exceed the rate of 20 per cent. of the nominal amount of the shares in each case subscribed or to be subscribed, and that the rate per cent. paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in any circular or notice (not being a prospectus) inviting subscriptions for the shares. Such commission may be satisfied by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares. The total amount of the sum paid by way of commission in respect of any shares, debentures or debenture stock, or allowed by way of discount in respect of any debentures or debenture stock, or so much thereof as shall not have been written off, shall be stated in every balance sheet of the Company, until the whole amount thereof has been written off. 13. If any certificate is worn out or defaced, then, upon delivery thereof to the Directors, they may order the same to be cancelled, and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof, and if any certificate is lost or destroyed, then, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors, and on such indemnity, whether with or without security, as the Directors may deem adequate being given, and on payment to the Company of any expenses incurred by the Company in connection with the proof of such loss, or in investigating the title to the shares, or in connection with such indemnity, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be issued to the person entitled to the shares represented by such lost or destroyed certificate.

18. Six weeks' notice of any call shall be given, specifying the time and place of payment and the persons to whom such call is payable.

19. If any instalment payable on a share under the terms of allotment, or any call or instalment of a call payable in respect of any share, be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the registered holder for the time being or allottee of the share shall pay interest for the same from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum, or at such less rate as the Directors may determine.

20. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the money unpaid upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called up thereon, either as a loan repayable or as a payment in advance of calls, but such advance, whether repayable or not, shall, until actually repaid, extinguish, so far as the same shall extend, the liability upon the shares in respect of which it is advanced, and upon the money so received, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which it has been received, the Company may pay interest at such rate as the member paying such sum and the Directors agree upon.

4.—FORFEITURE AND LIEN.

21. If any member fails to pay the whole or any part of any instalment payable under the terms of allotment of a share or of any call on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter, while the said instalment or call or any part thereof remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member requiring him to pay the same with any interest which may have accrued, and all expenses which may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

22. The notice shall name a day (not being less than six weeks from the date of the notice) and a place (being either the registered office of the Company or some place at which calls of the Company are usually made payable) on and at which such instalment or call or such part thereof as shall remain unpaid and such interest and expenses are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the share in respect of which such payment is due will be liable to be forfeited.

23. If the requisitions of such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice shall have been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all instalments, calls, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared and interest payable in respect of the forfeited shares, and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

24. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the Directors shall with the consent in writing of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued (exclusive of the shares so forfeited) think fit, and in the case of re-allotment with or without any moneys paid thereon by any former holder credited as paid up thereon.

25. The Directors may at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of annul the forfeiture upon such conditions as they think fit.

26. The holder at the time of forfeiture of any share which has been forfeited shall, notwithstanding the same, be liable to pay to the Company all instalments, calls, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such share at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest on such instalments, calls, and expenses from the time of forfeiture, until payment at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum, or such less rate as may be fixed by the Directors.

27. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on all the shares registered in the name of any member (whether solely or jointly with other persons), and on the dividends or interest declared or payable in respect thereof for the debts, liabilities, or engagements of that member either alone or jointly with any other person to or with the Company, although the period for the payment, fulfilment, or discharge thereof may not have arrived, and whether the same may have been incurred before or after notice of any equitable interest subsisting in any person other than the registered holder. For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they shall with the consent in writing of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued think fit, but no sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived, and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his executors, or administrators, and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment, fulfilment, or discharge of such debts, liabilities, or engagements for seven days after service of such notice. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) paid to such member, his executors, administrators, or assigns. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien (if any) on such shares.

28. Upon the sale or re-allotment of a forfeited share, or the sale of any share to enforce a lien of the Company in purported exercise of the powers hereinbefore contained, the Directors may cause the name of the purchaser or allottee to be entered in the register as the holder of the share, and deliver to him a certificate therefor, and thereupon he shall be deemed the holder of such share discharged from all instalments, calls, or other money due prior to such purchase or allotment. The purchaser or allottee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money or consideration, and after his name has been entered in the register, his title to such share shall not be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale, but the remedy of any person aggrieved thereby shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

5.—TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

29. The instrument of transfer of any share in the Company shall be in writing in the usual common form, but need not be under seal, and shall be signed both by the transferor and the transferee. Shares of different classes shall not be transferred by the same instrument of transfer without the consent of the Directors. Until a transfer is duly registered the transferor shall be deemed the holder of the share transferred.

30. There shall be paid to the Company in respect of the registration of every transfer or transmission of a share or shares such fee not exceeding one rupee as the Directors deem fit.

31. No share in the Company shall be transferred without the previous consent in writing of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued.

32. The executors or administrators of a deceased member (not being one of several joint-holders) shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in the shares registered in the name of such member, and in the case of the death of any one or more of the joint-holders of any registered shares, the survivors or survivor shall be the only persons or person recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in such shares, but this Article shall not be deemed to release the estate of a deceased joint-holder from any liability in respect of any shares held by him jointly with any other person or persons.

33. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or otherwise than by transfer, upon producing the share certificate and such evidence of title as the Directors think sufficient, may, with the consent of the Directors or of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued, they shall be under no obligation to give), be himself registered as the holder of the shares, or may, subject to the regulations of these Articles as to transfers, transfer such shares to any other person. There shall be paid to the Company in respect of any such registration such fee not exceeding one rupee as the Directors deem fit.

34. Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the registered office of the Company for registration, together with the certificate of the shares proposed to be transferred, and the Company shall be furnished with such evidence as the Directors may require of the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares, and thereupon, and upon payment of the proper fee, the transferee shall, subject to the foregoing regulations, be registered as a member in respect of such shares. The Directors may waive the production of a certificate upon evidence satisfactory to them of its loss or destruction, and on such indemnity, whether with or without security, as the Directors may deem adequate being given, but the transferor shall pay to the Company any expenses incurred in investigating the title to the shares, or in connection with such indemnity.

35. All instruments of transfer which shall be registered and the certificates of the shares to which they refer shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register and the certificates of the shares to which it refers shall be returned to the person depositing the same. If a certificate lodged and retained comprises more shares than the transfer, a new certificate for the residue shall be issued to the transferor.

36. The transfer books may be closed during such time or times as the Directors may think fit, not exceeding in the whole twenty-one days in each year.

37. The holders for the time being of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued may at any time serve the Company with a requisition to enforce the transfer of any particular shares not held by the requisitionists. The Company shall forthwith give to the holder of such shares notice in writing (with a copy of this Article subjoined), and upon the service of such notice the holder of such shares shall be deemed to have authorized the Company to sell his shares to any other member of the Company in accordance with the provisions herein contained at the fair value to be fixed by the Auditor in accordance with these Articles. If the Company shall within the space of twenty-eight days after the service of such notice find a member of the Company willing to purchase the shares (hereinafter called "the purchasing member"), and shall give notice thereof to the holders of such shares, the latter shall be bound upon payment of the fair value to transfer the shares to the purchasing member. In case any difference arises between such holder and the purchasing member as to the fair value of the shares, the Auditor shall on the application of either party certify in writing the sum which in his opinion is the fair value, and such sum shall be deemed to be the fair value, and in so certifying the Auditor shall be deemed to be acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator. If the holder of such shares after having become bound as aforesaid makes default in transferring the shares, the Company may receive the purchase money and shall thereafter cause the name of the purchasing member to be entered in the register as the holder of the shares, and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the holder of such shares. The receipt of the Company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing member, and after his name has been entered in the register in the purported exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person. Until otherwise determined by the Company in general meeting any shares in respect of which any such requisition shall be served on the Company shall be offered in succession to the holders of the shares of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held by them respectively, the holder of a larger holding being always preferred to the holder of a smaller holding, and as between holdings of equal amount in such order as may be determined by lots drawn in regard thereto, and the lots shall be drawn in such manner as the Directors think fit.

6.—INCREASE AND REDUCTION OF CAPITAL.

38. The Company in General Meeting may with the consent in writing of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued from time to time increase the capital by the creation of new shares of such aggregate amount as may be deemed expedient.

39. The new shares shall be of such nominal amounts and shall be issued upon such terms and conditions as the Company in General Meeting may with the consent in writing of the holder of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued direct, and in particular such shares and also any shares of the original capital for the time being unissued may (subject to the provisions hereinafter contained as to the consent of the holders of any class of shares where such consent is necessary) be issued with any preference or priorities, or special or qualified, or restricted rights in the payment of dividends, or in the distribution of assets or otherwise over as compared with any other shares, whether preference, ordinary, or deferred, and whether then already issued or not, or as shares ranking equally with any other shares, or as deferred shares, or with any special rights of or restrictions (whether absolute or partial) against voting.

40. Subject to or in default of any such directions, the provisions of these Articles shall apply to the new capital in the same manner in all respects as to the original ordinary capital of the Company.

41. The Company may from time to time by special resolution reduce its capital in any way, and in particular (without prejudice to the generality of this power) may (a) extinguish or reduce the liability on any of its shares in respect of capital not paid up, (b) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares cancel any paid up capital which is lost or is unrepresented by available assets, or (c) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability, on any of its shares pay off any paid up capital which is in excess of the wants of the Company. The Company may also cancel shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled. Capital may be paid off upon the footing that it may be called up again or otherwise.

7.—CONSOLIDATION AND SUBDIVISION OF SHARES.

42. The Company in General Meeting may consolidate, and by special resolution may subdivide, its shares or any of them into shares of a larger or smaller denomination. The special resolution whereby any share is subdivided may provide that as between the holders of the shares resulting from such subdivision any one or more of such shares shall have any preference, priority, or advantage with regard to dividends, in the distribution of assets, as to right of voting, or in any other respect over the other or others of them.

III.—BORROWING POWERS.

43. The Directors may from time to time at their discretion raise or borrow in any manner, and upon any terms, any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company.

44. The Directors may for the purpose of securing borrowed money and the interest thereon, or for any other purpose, create any mortgage, charge, or lien upon, or may pledge the undertaking of the Company and the whole or any part of its property, present and future, including its uncalled capital for the time being, by way either of specific or of floating security, and may also, for any purpose and for any consideration, create and issue bonds or perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock or other obligation, and secure the principal represented thereby and the interest thereon by any such mortgage, charge, or lien as aforesaid.

45. The Directors may also issue or deposit any such debentures or debenture stock by way of collateral or contingent security for the payment of any debt or the discharge of any liability of the Company.

IV.—MEETINGS OF MEMBERS.

1.—CONVENING OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

46. The Statutory Meeting of the Company shall be held at such time, not being less than one month nor more than twelve months after the date at which the Company is entitled to commence business, and at such place as the Directors shall determine.

47. General Meetings, not being Extraordinary General Meetings, shall be held once in every year after the year of the incorporation of the Company, at such time and place as may be prescribed by the holders of two-thirds of the Company for the time being issued, or if no time or place is so prescribed as may (subject as aforesaid) be determined by the Directors.

48. The General Meetings mentioned in the last preceding Article shall be called Ordinary General Meetings, and all other General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

49. The Directors may, whenever they shall think fit, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting and they shall, upon a requisition made in writing by Members of the Company holding together not less than one-tenth of the issued capital upon which all calls or other sums then due shall have been paid, forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting. An Extraordinary General Meeting if convened by the Directors shall be held at such place as the Directors may determine.

50. Any requisition made by members shall state the objects of the meeting to be called, and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the Company. It may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more requisitionists.

51. If the Directors do not proceed to cause an Extraordinary General Meeting to be held within twenty-one days from the date of the deposit, the requisitionists, or a majority of them in value, may themselves convene the meeting, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of such deposit. If at any such meeting convened under this Article a resolution requiring confirmation at another meeting shall be passed, the Directors shall forthwith convene a further Extraordinary General Meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution, and, if thought fit, of confirming it as a special resolution, and if the Directors do not convene the meeting within seven days from the date of the passing of the first resolution, the requisitionists, or a majority of them in value, may themselves convene the meeting. Any meeting convened under this Article by the requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are to be convened by the Directors.

52. Twenty-eight days' notice of any General Meeting (inclusive of the day of service, but exclusive of the day appointed for holding the meeting) specifying the place, day, and hour of such meeting, and in case of special business the general nature of such business, shall (except in the case of meetings convened solely for the purpose of confirming a special resolution or special resolutions, and meetings convened in pursuance of a requisition made by members) be given to the members entitled to attend and vote thereat in manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting. In the case of General Meetings convened solely for the purpose of confirming a special resolution or resolutions, or a General Meeting convened in pursuance of a requisition made by members, the length of notice shall be seven days calculated as above mentioned to be given in manner above provided.

53. The accidental omission to give any such notice to any member, or the non-receipt of the same by any member, shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting.

2.—PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS.

54. The business of an Ordinary Meeting shall be to receive and consider the accounts presented by the Directors, and the reports of the Directors and of the Auditors, to declare dividends, to elect Auditors, and to vote their remuneration. All other business transacted at an Ordinary Meeting, and all business transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting, shall be deemed special.

55. Two members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum at a General Meeting. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the quorum requisite be present at the commencement of the business.

56. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall be adjourned to such day and place as the meeting shall by resolution determine, or, in default of such resolution, to the same day in the next week (or if that day be a holiday to the next working day thereafter), and at the time and place as the original meeting. At an adjourned meeting the members present and entitled to vote, whatever their number, shall have power to decide upon all matters which could properly have been disposed of at the meeting from which such adjournment took place.

57. The Chairman of the Directors shall be entitled to preside at every General Meeting, or if there be no Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, and willing to preside, the Deputy-Chairman (if any) of the Directors shall be entitled to preside, or if there be no such Chairman or Deputy-Chairman, or if neither of them shall be present within such fifteen minutes, and willing to preside, the members present shall choose another Director as Chairman, or if one Director only be present, he shall preside, if willing so to do. If no Director is present, or if all the Directors present decline to preside, then the members present shall choose one of their number to act as Chairman.

58. The Chairman of a General Meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the same from time to time, and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

59. At every General Meeting every resolution (including a special resolution) submitted shall, subject to the right to demand a poll, be determined by a show of hands, and unless a poll is demanded by the Chairman or by at least two members personally present, or by a member or members holding or representing by proxy, and entitled to vote in respect of at least one-tenth of the issued capital, or in the case of a special resolution by at least five Shareholders, a minute signed as hereinafter mentioned, or a declaration of the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, or in the case of a resolution requiring any particular majority that it was passed by the requisite majority, and an entry to that effect in the Book of Proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the facts, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

60. If a poll is demanded as aforesaid, it shall be taken in such manner and at such time (within twenty-eight days next after the meeting), and at such place as the Chairman of the meeting before the conclusion of the meeting directs, and either immediately or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. Any poll duly demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting, or any question of adjournment, shall be taken at the meeting and without adjournment. The fact that a poll has been demanded shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. A demand of a poll may be withdrawn, and no notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately.

61. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall, both on a show of hands and at a poll, have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a member.

62. Minutes shall be made in books provided for the purpose of all resolutions and proceedings of general meetings, and any such minutes, if signed by the Chairman of the meeting to which they refer, or by any person present thereat and appointed by the Directors to sign the same in his place, or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be received as conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein.

3.—MEETINGS OF SPECIAL CLASSES OF SHAREHOLDERS.

63. The holders of any class of shares shall have power at any time and from time to time, and whether before or during liquidation, by an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of such holders, of which notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution shall have been duly given, to consent on behalf of all the holders of shares of the class—

- (a) To the issue or creation of any shares ranking equally with the shares of the class or having any priority thereto, which could not be issued under the powers hereinbefore contained without the consent of all the holders of shares of the class; or
- (b) To the abandonment or alteration of any preference, privilege, priority, or special right, whether as regards capital or dividends, or of any right of voting affecting the class of shares, or to the abandonment of any accrued dividend, or the reduction for any time or permanently of the dividends payable thereon, or to the amalgamation into one class of the shares of any two or more classes, or to the division of shares into shares of different classes, or to any alteration in these Articles, varying or abrogating, or putting an end to any rights or privileges attached to shares of the class; or
- (c) To any scheme for the reduction of capital prejudicially affecting the class of shares as compared with any other class, and not otherwise authorized by these Articles; or
- (d) To any scheme for the distribution of assets in money or kind in or before liquidation (though such scheme may not be in accordance with legal rights), or to any contract for the sale of the whole or any part of the Company's undertaking or property determining the manner in which, as between the several classes of Shareholders, the purchase consideration shall be distributed (though such distribution may not be in accordance with legal rights); and
- (e) Generally to any alteration, contract, compromise, or arrangement which the persons voting thereon could, if sui juris and holding all the shares of the class, consent to or enter into;

and a resolution so passed shall be binding upon all the holders of shares of the class, provided that this Article shall not be read as implying the necessity for such consent in any case in which, but for this Article, the object of the resolution could have been effected without it under the provisions contained in these Articles. The consent in writing of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the class for the time being issued shall have the same effect as an extraordinary resolution passed at a meeting of holders of shares of the class.

64. Any meeting for the purpose of the last preceding Article shall be convened and conducted in all respects as nearly as possible in the same way as an extraordinary general meeting of the Company, but no member not being a Director shall be entitled to notice thereof, or not being a Director or the duly appointed proxy of a corporation entitled to shares of the class shall be entitled to attend thereat, unless he holds shares of the class intended to be affected by the resolution, and (except that a Chairman, if a Director, may give a casting vote, whether a holder of shares of the class or not) votes shall only be given in respect of shares of that class; and at any such meeting or any adjournment thereof, the quorum shall be members holding or representing by proxy at least one half of the issued shares of the class, and a poll may be demanded at any such meeting by any member of the class present in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote at the meeting.

4.—VOTES OF MEMBERS.

65. Subject to any special terms as to voting upon which any shares may be issued or may for the time being be held, on a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote, and on a poll every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share held by him. Any company holding shares conferring the right to vote may by resolution of its Directors authorize any of its officials or any other person to act as its representative at any General Meeting of the Company, and the person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the Company which he represents as if he had been an individual Shareholder of the Company.

66. If any registered holder of shares conferring the right to vote is a lunatic or idiot, his committee, curator bonis, or other legal curator may vote at any General Meeting or upon a poll in respect thereof as if he were the registered holder of such shares, provided that forty-eight hours at least before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting (as the case may be) at which such committee, curator bonis, or other legal curator proposes to vote, he shall satisfy the Directors that he sustains that character, unless the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote in respect of such shares.

67. If there be joint registered holders of any share or shares conferring the right to vote, any one of them may vote at any meeting either in person or by proxy in respect thereof as if he were the sole registered holder thereof; but in case more than one of several joint-holders be present at a meeting, either in person or by proxy, that one of the holders so present whose name stands first on the register in respect of such shares shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

68. No member shall be entitled to be present or be reckoned in a quorum, or be entitled to vote, either personally or by proxy or otherwise, at any General Meeting or upon a poll, or to exercise any privileges as a member whilst any call or other sum which shall be due and payable by him in respect of any share of which he is the registered holder remains unpaid.

69. Votes may be given personally or by proxy.

70. The instrument appointing a proxy shall (except in the case of a form of proxy sent by cable) be in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney, or if such appointer is a corporation, under its common seal or under the hand and seal of its attorney, and, whether given for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall, as nearly as circumstances will admit, be in the form or to the effect following:—

Mackwoods Rubber Trading Company, Limited.

I, _____, of _____ being a member of Mackwoods Rubber Trading Company, Limited, hereby appoint _____ of _____ or failing him _____ of _____ as my proxy at the (Ordinary or Extraordinary as the case may be) General Meeting to be held on the _____ and at any adjournment thereof.

As witness my hand this _____ day of _____, One thousand Nine hundred and _____.

A form of proxy sent by cable shall be in shortened form (modelled on the foregoing form) as the appointer shall select.

71. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of Attorney (if any) under which it is signed (which may take the form of a cablegram or telegram) shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting (as the case may be) at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote, the donee of any such power of Attorney may appoint himself proxy thereunder.

72. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the principal or revocation of the proxy, or transfer of the shares in respect of which it is given, unless previous intimation in writing of the death, revocation, or transfer shall have been received at the registered office of the Company.

73. The Directors shall be at liberty, at the expense of the Company, to prepare and issue stamped instruments for the appointment of proxies, and to stamp instruments of proxy at the like expense, and to send stamped envelopes to the Members of the Company for the return thereof to the Company at the like expense.

V.—DIRECTORS.

1.—NUMBER AND APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS.

74. The number of Directors shall not be less than three or more than seven.

75. The first Directors shall be Francis Oswald Mackwood, Frank Edward Mackwood, and Edward Oswald Mackwood.

76. The holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any other person as a Director, but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the prescribed maximum number fixed as above. No casual vacancy shall be filled by the Directors. On any such nomination (which may take the form of a cablegram or telegram) being left at the registered office of the Company the person thereby nominated shall at once become a Director of the Company.

77. The continuing Directors, or the continuing Director if only one, may act notwithstanding any vacancies on the Board and notwithstanding that the number of Directors is less than the prescribed minimum number.

2.—REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS.

78. The remuneration (if any) of the Directors shall be fixed by the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued.

3.—DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS.

79. The office of a Director shall ipso facto be vacated—

(a) If without the sanction of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued, he accepts or holds any other office or place of profit under the Company, except that of manager, secretary, trustee for the debenture holders or debenture stock holders of the Company, or any other office or place of profit herein authorized.

(b) If he becomes bankrupt or suspends payment or compounds with his creditors.

(c) If he is found lunatic or becomes of unsound mind.

(d) If he is absent from the meetings of the Directors continuously during a period of six months without special leave of absence from the Directors, expressed by a duly recorded resolution.

(e) If he sends in a written resignation to the Directors, and the same is accepted, or not being accepted is not withdrawn within seven days.

(f) If a notice by the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued calling upon him to resign (which may take the form of a cablegram or telegram) is left or delivered at the registered office of the Company.

80. No Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either as vendor, purchaser, or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting, or being so interested, be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason only of such Director holding that office, or of the fiduciary relation thereby established, but the nature of his interest must be disclosed by him at the meeting of the Directors at which the contract or arrangement is determined on, if his interest then exists, or in any other case at the first meeting of the Directors after the acquisition of his interest.

4.—PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS.

81. The Directors may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and may determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Until otherwise determined two Directors shall be a quorum. A Director may at any time, and the Secretary, upon the request of a Director, shall convene a meeting of the Directors. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes of the Directors present. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director who is out of the Island of Ceylon, unless he has supplied to the Company an address within the Island of Ceylon, or an address outside the Island of Ceylon ordinarily within forty-eight hours postal delivery from Colombo, in which case notice shall be sent to such address.

82. The Directors may elect a Chairman of their meetings, and determine the periods for which he or they is or are to hold office. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Directors, but if at any time there is no Chairman or if at any meeting the Chairman be not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, and willing to preside, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting. The said Frank Edward Mackwood shall be the first Chairman of the Directors.

83. A meeting of the Directors for the time being properly summoned at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the powers, authorities, and discretions by or under these Articles vested in or exercisable by the Directors generally, but the provisions of this Article shall be without prejudice to the powers of a sole continuing Director.

84. The Directors may delegate any of their powers (other than the powers to borrow and make calls) to committees consisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit. Any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the power so delegated conform to any regulations which may from time to time be imposed on them by the Directors.

85. A committee of two or more Directors may elect a Chairman of their meetings. If there be no such Chairman, or if he is not present at the time appointed for holding a meeting, and willing to preside, the members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting. A committee may meet and adjourn as they think proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present.

86. All acts done at any meeting of the Directors, or of a Committee of Directors, or by any persons acting as Directors, shall, notwithstanding that it shall be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or any of them, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

87. The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in books provided for the purpose of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of the Directors, or Committees of Directors, and any such minutes, if signed by any person purporting to be the Chairman of the meeting to which they relate or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be received as conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

5.—POWERS OF DIRECTORS.

88. The management of the business and control of the Company shall be vested in the Directors, who, in addition to the powers and authorities by these Articles expressly conferred upon them, may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised, or done by the Company, and are not hereby or by Ordinance expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulations from time to time made in writing by the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued, but so that no such regulation shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if no such regulation had been made.

89. Without prejudice to the general powers conferred by the last preceding Article and to the other powers conferred by these Articles (but subject as mentioned in the last preceding Article), the Directors shall have the following powers, that is to say, power—

- (f) To accept from any member a surrender of his shares or any of them by way of compromise of any question as to the holder being properly registered in respect thereof, or any gratuitous surrender of a fully paid share, and to dispose of any surrendered share in the same manner as a forfeited share.
- (g) To appoint any person or persons, whether incorporated or not, to accept and hold in trust for the Company any property belonging to the Company, or in which it is interested, and to execute and do all such deeds and things as may be requisite in relation to any such trust, and to provide for the remuneration of such trustee or trustees.
- (h) To exercise all the powers of sale mentioned in or to be implied from the Memorandum of Association of the Company, whether for shares or otherwise, including the power to sell the Company's undertaking for shares or otherwise.
- (i) To make, draw, accept, and endorse promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, and other mercantile and negotiable instruments, provided that every promissory note, bill of exchange, cheque, or other mercantile or negotiable instrument made, drawn, accepted, or endorsed shall be signed by such person or persons as the Directors may appoint for such purpose.

- (l) To make and give receipts, releases, and other discharges for money payable to the Company, and for the claims and demands of the Company.
- (m) To invest and deal with any of the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the purposes thereof, upon such investments and in such manner as they may think fit, and from time to time deal with, vary, or realize such investments, provided that the funds of the Company shall not be expended in the purchase, or lent upon the security, of its own shares.
- (n) To appoint any persons to be the attorneys or agents of the Company with such powers (including power to sub-delegate and to appear before all proper authorities, and make all necessary declarations to enable the Company's operations to be validly carried on abroad) and upon such terms as may be thought fit.
- (o) To give to any Director who shall be called upon to perform extra services or to make any special exertions in going or residing abroad (either in addition to or substitution for the remuneration above provided for), such special remuneration either by way of a fixed sum or percentage on profits or otherwise as may be thought fit.
- (p) To execute in the name and on behalf of the Company in favour of any person who may incur or be about to incur any personal liability for the benefit of the Company such mortgages of all or any part of the undertaking and property of the Company and its uncalled capital as they may think fit, and any such mortgage may contain a power of sale and such other powers, provisions, and covenants as may be agreed upon.
- (q) To appoint such persons as they may think fit (who may be Directors or members of the Company or not) to act as a local board, or as a local managing or consulting committee, in any place where the Company carries on or proposes to carry on business, and to delegate to any board or committee so appointed such of their own powers and authorities as they may deem fit, and to regulate the proceedings and determine the remuneration and the term of office of the members of such local board or committee.
- (r) To give to any officer or other person employed by the Company a bonus or commission on the profits of any particular business or transaction, or a share in the general profits of the Company, such commission or share of profits to be treated as part of the working expenses of the Company.

- (t) To enter into all such negotiations and contracts, and rescind and vary all such contracts, and execute and do all such acts, deeds, and things in the name and on behalf of the Company as they may consider expedient for or in relation to any of the matters aforesaid or otherwise for the purposes of the Company.

90. A Director who is at a place or is about to go to a place outside the Island of Ceylon, which is in the ordinary course of post outside a 48 hours postal delivery from Colombo, may with the consent in writing of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued, appoint any person to be an alternate Director during his absence, and such appointment shall have effect, and such appointee whilst he holds office as an alternate Director shall be entitled to notice of meetings of the Directors, and to attend and vote thereat accordingly, and he shall ipso facto vacate office if and when the appointer returns to the Island of Ceylon, or vacates office as a Director, or removes the appointee from office, and any appointment and removal under this clause shall be effected by notice in writing under the hand of the Director making the same left at the registered office for the time being of the Company.

91. The Directors may from time to time by resolution appoint a temporary substitute for the Secretary, and any person so appointed shall, for the purpose of these Articles, be deemed during the term of his appointment to be the Secretary.

6.—THE SEAL.

92. The Directors shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal of the Company, and it shall not be affixed to any instrument except in the presence of two or more Directors, or of one Director, and the Secretary, who shall attest the sealing thereof.

VI.—ACCOUNTS AND DIVIDENDS.

1.—ACCOUNTS.

93. Directors shall cause accounts to be kept in the English language in books provided for the purpose of the sums received and expended by the Company, and the matters in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place, and of the assets, credits, and liabilities of the Company. The books of account shall be kept at the registered office of the Company, or at any such other place or places as the Directors think fit.

94. Except by the authority of the Directors or of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company for the time being issued, no member shall be entitled as such to inspect any books or papers of the Company, other than the balance sheet and the register of members or mortgages.

95. At the Ordinary General Meeting in each year the Directors shall lay before the Company a balance sheet and a profit and loss account, containing a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company made up to as recent a date as practicable from the date to which the last preceding balance sheet and account were made up, or in the case of the first balance sheet and account, from the incorporation of the Company.

96. Every balance sheet and account shall be accompanied by a report of the Directors as to the state and condition of the Company, and as to the amount (if any) which they propose to carry to the reserve fund, and the amount they recommend to be distributed by way of dividend or bonus to the members in accordance with the provisions in that behalf hereinafter contained, and the balance sheet, account, and report shall be signed on behalf of the Board by two of the Directors of the Company, or if there is only one by that Director.

2.—AUDIT.

97. The Company shall at each Ordinary General Meeting appoint an Auditor or Auditors to hold office until the next Ordinary General Meeting.

98. The first Auditors of the Company may be appointed by the Directors before the statutory meeting, and if so appointed shall hold office until the First Ordinary General Meeting, unless previously removed by a resolution of the Shareholders in General Meeting, in which case the Shareholders at such meeting may appoint Auditors. Any Auditor quitting office shall be eligible for immediate re-election. The remuneration of the Auditors shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting, except that the remuneration of any Auditors appointed before the statutory meeting, or to fill any casual vacancy, may be fixed by the Directors.

99. A Director or Officer of the Company, or a partner in any business with, or a person employed by a Director or Officer of the Company, shall not be capable of being appointed or of acting as Auditor of the Company.

100. If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of Auditor, it may be filled by the Directors, or the Directors may forthwith convene an Extraordinary General Meeting for the purpose of supplying the same. Whilst any vacancy continues the surviving or continuing Auditor or Auditors (if any) may act.

101. If no election of Auditors be made at an Ordinary General Meeting, the Directors may appoint an Auditor for the current year, and fix the remuneration to be paid to him by the Company for his services.

102. The Auditors shall have a right of access at all times to the books and accounts and vouchers of the Company, and shall be entitled to require from the Directors and Officers of the Company such information and explanation as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of the Auditors. The Auditors shall make a report to the Shareholders on the accounts examined by them, and on every balance sheet laid before the Company in General Meeting during their tenure of office, and in every such report shall state whether or not they have obtained all the information and explanations they have required, and whether in their opinion the balance sheet referred to in the report is properly drawn up, so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Company's affairs according to the best of their information, and the explanations given to them, and as shown by the books of the Company, and such report shall be attached to the balance sheet, or there shall be inserted at the foot of the balance sheet a reference to such report, and such report shall be read before the Company in General Meeting, and shall be open to the inspection of any member who shall be entitled to be furnished with a copy thereof, at a charge not exceeding twenty-five cents for every hundred words.

103. A person other than a retiring Auditor shall not be capable of being appointed Auditor at an Ordinary General Meeting, unless notice of an intention to nominate that person to the office of Auditor has been given by a member to the Company not less than fourteen days before the Ordinary General Meeting, and the Company shall send a copy of any such notice to the retiring Auditor, and shall give notice thereof to the member either by advertisement or in any other mode allowed by these Articles not less than seven days before the Ordinary General Meeting. Provided that, if after a notice of the intention to nominate an Auditor has been so given, an Ordinary General Meeting is called for a date fourteen days or less after the notice has been given, the notice, though not given within the time required by this Article, shall be deemed to have been properly given for the purposes hereof, and the notices to be sent or given by the Company may, instead of being sent or given within the time required by this Article, be sent or given at the same time as the notice of the Ordinary General Meeting.

3.—RESERVE FUND.

104. The Directors may, before recommending any dividends, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sum as they think proper as a reserve fund, to meet depreciation or contingencies or for special dividends, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing, improving, or maintaining any of the property of the Company, or for any other purposes which the Directors may think conducive to the objects of the Company or any of them, and the same may be applied accordingly from time to time in such manner as the Directors shall determine. The Directors may divide the reserve fund into such special funds as they think fit, and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve fund may have been divided as they think fit, with full power to employ the whole or any part of the assets constituting the reserve fund in the business of the Company without being under any obligation to keep the same separate from the other assets of the Company. The Directors may also, without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which they may think it not prudent to divide.

4.—DIVIDENDS.

105. The Company may in General Meeting, subject to any preference or priority for the time being subsisting, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, declare a dividend to be paid to the members in proportion to the amounts for the time being paid up or credited as paid up on their shares otherwise than in advance of calls, but no larger dividend shall be declared than is recommended by the Directors.

106. The Directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends on account of the dividends for the current year as in their judgment are justified by the position of the Company.

107. Any premium received upon the issue of shares, and any profits realized upon the sale or shown by a valuation of assets, may be treated as revenue of the Company for the year in which the issue is made or the profits realized are ascertained.

108. The Directors may retain any dividends or instalments of interest on which the Company has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities, or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.

109. The Directors may retain the dividends or instalments of interest payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the provisions as to the transmission of shares hereinbefore contained entitled to become a member, or which any person under those provisions is entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a member in respect of such shares, or shall duly transfer the same.

110. Every dividend and instalment of interest shall belong and be paid subject to the Company's lien (if any) to those members who shall be the registered holders of the shares at the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which such dividend shall be declared, or at the date at which such interest shall be made payable respectively, notwithstanding any subsequent transfer or transmission of the shares.

112. Notice of any dividend which may have been declared shall be given to the members entitled to participate therein in manner hereinafter prescribed.

113. Until otherwise directed, any dividend, bonus, or interest payable in cash to the holders of registered shares shall be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the holder at his registered address, or in the case of joint-holders directed to the holder whose name stands first in the register in respect of the shares at his registered address. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the registered holder, and in the case of joint-holders to the order of the holder whose name stands first on the register in respect of such shares, unless such joint-holders otherwise direct, and shall be sent at his or their risk.

114. A General Meeting declaring a dividend may direct payment of such dividend wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company, or paid up on the shares, debentures, or debenture stock of any other company, or in any one or more of such ways, and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution, and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution they may settle the same as they think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates, and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof, and may determine that cash payments may be made to any member upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of the members, and may vest any specific assets in trustees upon trust for the persons entitled to the dividend as may seem expedient to the Directors.

VII.—NOTICES.

115. A notice may be served by the Company upon any member, either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such member at his registered address in the Island of Ceylon, or at any place outside the Island of Ceylon which is in the ordinary course of post, within a forty-eight hours' postal delivery from Colombo. In the event of a meeting being convened to consider a resolution requiring, if passed, confirmation as a special resolution, the notice convening the meeting to confirm the same may be served with or at the same time as or at any time after the notice convening the first meeting, and it shall be no objection to the notice convening the second meeting that it only convenes the same contingently on the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first meeting.

116. Any member residing out of the Island of Ceylon at a place which is in the ordinary course of post outside a forty-eight hours' postal delivery from Colombo may from time to time notify to the Company an address in the Island of Ceylon, or an address out of the Island of Ceylon, which is in the ordinary course of post within a forty-eight hours' postal delivery from Colombo at which all notices may be served upon him, and all notices served at such address shall be deemed well served. If he shall not have named such address, he shall not be entitled to any notices. But in the case of Heilbut Symons & Company, Limited, or any person, firm, or company for the time being carrying on the business now carried on by them, an intimation of the Company's intention to hold a meeting shall forthwith at the expense of the Company be given by cablegram addressed to them in London, England.

117. All notices directed to be given to the members shall, with respect to any share held by joint registered holders, be given to the person first named in the register of members in respect of those shares, and notice so given shall be deemed to be notice to all the holders of such shares.

118. Any notice if served by post shall be deemed to have been served at the expiration of forty-eight hours after the letter containing the same is posted, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the same was properly addressed and put into the post office.

119. Every executor, administrator, or trustee in bankruptcy of any member, and every person who by transfer, operation of law, or other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share, which previously to his name being entered in the register shall have been duly given to the person from whom he derives his title, and if such person was not entitled to any notice, shall be so bound without any notice whatsoever.

120. Any notice or document given, delivered, or sent by post to or left at the registered address of any member in pursuance of these Articles shall, notwithstanding such member be then deceased, and whether or not the Company has notice of his decease, be deemed duly served in respect of any shares held by such member, whether solely or jointly with other persons, until some other person shall be registered in his stead as the holder or joint-holder thereof, and such service shall for all purposes of these articles be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on his heirs, executors, or administrators, and all persons (if any) jointly entitled with him to any such shares.

VIII.—WINDING UP.

121. If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution among the members shall be insufficient to pay the whole of the paid up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that as nearly as may be the losses shall be borne by the members in proportion to the capital paid up, or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively, and if in a winding up the assets available for distribution among the members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed amongst the members in proportion to the capital paid up, or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up, on the shares held by them respectively, but in no case shall a member be entitled to have any call made upon other members holding shares of the same class for the purpose of adjusting their rights. This Article shall be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of any shares issued upon special conditions and to the provisions hereinafter contained.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE NATIONAL PUBLISHING COMPANY, LIMITED.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL NOTICES.

MUNICIPALITY OF COLOMBO.

Minutes of Proceedings of a General Meeting of the Municipal Council of Colombo held in the Town Hall, on Friday, April 22, 1921, at 3 p.m.

The Council met this day at 3 P.M., pursuant to notice dated April 15, 1921.

Present :—Mr. B. G. de Glanville, Chairman; Mr. C. P. Dias; Major A. W. de Wilton; the Hon. Mr. N. H. M. Abdul Cader; Mr. Arthur Alvis; Dr. E. V. Ratnam; Dr. W. P. Rodrigo; the Hon. Dr. G. J. Rutherford; Mr. W. C. S. Ingles; Mr. Harold Creasy; Mr. W. Philips; Mr. A. E. de Silva; Lieut.-Colonel S. Boylan Smith, D.S.O., O.B.E.; Mr. E. W. Jayewardene; Mr. R. L. Pereira; Mr. T. H. Tatham; and Mr. J. S. Collett.

1. The Minutes of the General Meeting of March 4, 1921, having been previously printed and copies thereof having been sent to each Member of Council, were taken as read.—Resolved that the Minutes of the General Meeting of March 4, 1921, be confirmed.

2. (a) The Chairman read the following :—Since the last Meeting of Council 30 cases of human plague have been recorded, making a total of 148 cases for the year up to date, as against a total of 49 cases during the corresponding period of last year. The incidence during this outbreak reached its maximum, as judged by date of onset, during the week ended December 11, and remained high until the week ended February 19, since when it has rapidly fallen and is now very low. 11 cases were septicaemic, all proved fatal; and 19 were bubonic, of which 16 proved fatal. The continued predominance of bubonic over septicaemic cases is a very interesting and important point. The distribution of the cases was as follows:—Nagalagam street 2, Samera's lane 1, 2nd Division, Maradana 1, Sea street 1, Dias place 1, Baseline road 2, Vincent street 2, Church street 1, Wolfendahl 1, Kollupitiya road 1, Megoda Kolonnawa 1, Messenger street 1, Darley road 1, Maligakanda 1, Maligawatta 1, Prince street 1, Peer Saibo's lane 1, Vauxhall street 1, Saunders' Court 1, Kochchikade 1, Baillie street 1, hospital cases untraced 6.

Rat plague.—Twelve cases of rat plague, all from the Customs premises, were recorded, making a total of 43 for the year up-to-date, as against a total of 60 during the corresponding period of last year.

2 (b) The Chairman read the following :—The Medical Officer of Health reports that since the outbreak of smallpox which began last year and came to an end on January 29, one fresh case has since been imported from India. This person arrived in good health from India on April 4, developed smallpox at Maliban street on April 7, and, on the appearance of the eruption on April 11, reported himself at the General Hospital, and was transferred from there to the Infectious Diseases Hospital. All known contacts were vaccinated and segregated, and a watch is being kept in the town for the occurrence of other cases.

3. Pursuant to notice, Dr. E. V. Ratnam asked the Chairman the following questions, and the Chairman replied as follows :—

Q. (1) If he invited the attention of Government to the fact that the granaries, known as the Chalmers' Granaries, erected at such enormous expense to the Colony as special rat-proof grain stores, have been found to be in fact non-rat-proof, and that plague infected rats have been found in them, and, if he did, whether the Government has been pleased to offer any explanation or reason (a) for the failure, (b) and why it should have compelled traders at great inconvenience and pecuniary loss to themselves to move from their non-rat-proof stores to non-rat-proof stores owned by the Government, and, also if Government has intimated what action it proposes to take to improve the deplorable condition of these stores?

A. (1) At the request of the Special Committee of this Council, appointed to inquire into Plague Regulations, Lieut.-Colonel Boylan Smith and Dr. Aserappa, Acting Medical Officer of Health, visited the Chalmers' Granaries and reported on their rat-proof qualities. At the Meeting of the Committee of July 13, 1920, it was resolved that a copy of this report be forwarded to the Chairman, Plague Committee, for his remarks. On July 23, 1920, the Chairman, Plague Committee, wrote to the Chairman, Municipal Council, forwarding, for his information, copy of the following resolution of the Plague Committee at a Meeting held on July 20, 1920 :—

“That the Chairman, Municipal Council, be informed that the present conditions at the Chalmers' Granaries are due to circumstances beyond the control of the Plague Committee, and that the remarks of Lieut.-Colonel Boylan Smith and of the Acting Medical Officer of Health will be borne in mind as soon as the decrease in the stocks of rice makes it possible to re-establish proper control.”

No representation has been made to Government in the matter, as none was considered to be called for. I am not aware that the condition of these fine granaries is in any sense of the word “deplorable.”

Q. (2) If he still considers that the report of the Colonial Auditor on the defalcations in the now defunct Rice Distribution Department is a confidential document, which should not be circulated among the Members of Council. If not, when it will be circulated?

A. (2) All prosecutions of defaulting officers being now concluded there is no further necessity to consider the report referred to a confidential document. I shall be pleased to send it to any Member of Council who wishes to see it.

Q. (3) If any report has been received by him from audit of misappropriation of fees recovered at the Cattle Quarantine Station at Tuticorin, or of any irregularity in bringing such fees to account. If any report has been received, what action has been taken thereon, and how the officers concerned have been dealt with?

A. (3) No report was received from audit of misappropriation of fees recovered at Tuticorin. The Municipal Veterinary Surgeon reported delay in certain remittances. These were subsequently received correctly. The officer concerned was warned.

Q. (4) If similar irregularities connected with the fees recovered or due for the use of the tipping cart have been brought to his notice, and what action has been taken on such information and how the officers have been dealt with?

A. (4) The Colonial Auditor raised a query as to the non-recovery of two items for use of a tipping cart. The items were with regard to fees due in respect of two carcasses removed from No. 92, Bagatelleroad, and amounting to Rs. 10. One case has been satisfactorily explained. The investigation with regard to the other is not complete, owing to the absence of the officer concerned in Tuticorin.

Q. (5) Why matters of this kind should not be reported for the information of Members of Council?

A. (5) It is not clear to which matters this question refers, but if it is to the matters referred to in questions 3 and 4, the reply is that these two matters were not considered of sufficient interest or importance to be reported for the information of Members of Council.

Dr. W. P. Rodrigo had given notice of the following question :—

4. Dr. W. P. Rodrigo to ask the Chairman :—

With reference to the letter written by the Member for San Sebastian Ward to the Chairman, dated March 11, 1921, which reads as follows, viz. :—

SIR,—I HAVE been approached by a number of well-known people residing in the vicinity of Timbirigasyaya and Bambalapitiya to ask you to be so good as to reconsider the application of W. M. S. Muttu Mohamadu, a licensed butcher, to sell meat and mutton in premises No. 27. This application is supported by the leading residents of the locality. Knowing most of them personally, I feel sure they will not support this application, unless they are satisfied that a stall here is a great convenience to the public. The mile rule in many cases causes great inconvenience. Dr. Rodrigo, the Member for the Ward ought to know this locality well. I therefore request you would be so good as to submit this application to the Sanitation Committee.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
C. P. DIAS.

Who the well-known people referred to in the letter are ?

Dr. W. P. Rodrigo wished that the question and a motion standing in his name be deferred till the next Meeting.

The Chairman thought that the question at least should be put and answered.

It was accordingly taken as put, and the Chairman replied as follows :—

I have written to the Member in question asking for the information required, and he states that, under the circumstances, he regrets he cannot comply with my request, but is prepared to give any information to the Council.

Dr. W. P. Rodrigo asked for leave of Council to withdraw the motion standing in his name to a later Meeting.

Mr. C. P. Dias opposed the withdrawal.

The Council not assenting to the withdrawal, the Chairman stated that the motion should be put.

Dr. W. P. Rodrigo thereupon put the motion to the Meeting. The motion was not seconded.

Mr. C. P. Dias asked for the permission of Council to give a personal explanation regarding his conduct, which had been called in question.

The Chairman put it to the Meeting, whether Mr. C. P. Dias should be allowed to make a personal explanation. The Council having agreed, Mr. C. P. Dias made his explanation.

Mr. C. P. Dias moved that the Council do go into Committee to consider items Nos. 5 to 9 (inclusive) on the agenda. Mr. Arthur Alwis seconded.—Carried.

The following extracts from the Minutes of the Standing Committees named were then laid before the Council in Committee :—
