10. The following new Part (sections 8A to 8L) is hereby inserted immediately after Part I and shall have effect as Part IA, of the principal enactment:-

“PART IA

REGISTRATION OF PERSONS MISSING DUE TO THE CONFLICT IN THE NORTHERN AND EASTERN PROVINCES, POLITICAL UNREST OR CIVIL DISTURBANCES OR ENFORCED DISAPPEARANCES

Criteria required to apply for a Certificate of Absence.

8A. (1) Where any person is reported missing and has not been heard of for a period exceeding one year by those who would naturally have heard of him, had he been present, and his disappearance is attributable to the conflict which took place in the Northern and Eastern Provinces or its aftermath or political unrest or civil disturbances or enforced disappearances or is a member of the armed forces or police who is identified as missing in action (hereinafter referred to as “missing person”), a relative of such person may apply in the manner hereinafter provided, to register such person as missing and to have issued to him, a Certificate of Absence in respect of such person.

(2) Every application under this section shall be substantially in the Form B specified in the Schedule to this Act and shall be forwarded to the Registrar-General or the District Registrar of the District in which such missing person was last resident or had his permanent residence.

(3) The relative appointed by Form C of the Schedule (hereinafter referred to as the “relative”) shall administer the affairs of the missing person in accordance with the provisions of this Act, taking into account the best interest of the missing person and the successors to the estate of such missing person.

Registration of Deaths (Temporary Provisions) 5
(Amendment) Act, No. 16 of 2016

Additional material to be supplied. 8B. Every application shall be supported by an Affidavit of the applicant which shall set out the grounds for his belief that the person who is sought to be registered is missing. The application shall be accompanied by a Report of the Grama Niladhari of the Grama Niladhari Division in which the person who is sought to be registered as missing was last resident or had his permanent residence, confirming the fact that such person has not been seen or heard of, for a period of over one year, together with any other evidence in support of such application.

Display of application. 8c. Upon receipt of an application under this Part, the Registrar-General or the District Registrar as the case may be, shall cause a copy of such application to be displayed for a period of two weeks on the notice board kept at his office and in the office of the relevant Grama Niladhari.

Objection for registration. 8D. Any person may, within one month of the date on which a copy of an application is displayed as provided for in section 8c, forward to the Register-General or the District Registrar, as the case may be, his objections in writing to the registration of such person as missing to whom such application relates or to the appointment of the relative and such objection shall be supported by an Affidavit of the objector and of any other person, setting out clearly the grounds for their objections and tender evidence in support of such objections.

Registration of Missing Persons. 8E. (1) On the expiry of the period of one month allowed to forward objections, the Registrar-General or the District Registrar, as the case may be, shall consider the application together with the evidence tendered in support of the application and the objections if any.

6 Registration of Deaths (Temporary Provisions)
(Amendment) Act, No. 16 of 2016

The Registrar-General or the District Registrar may, question any person or call for any evidence and after such inquiry as he may consider necessary, if satisfied as to the truth of the matter stated in the application, allow such application.

(2) Where the application was made to the Registrar-General, he shall make an order on the conclusion of such inquiry directing the District Registrar to register the missing person in the Register of Missing Persons and to issue a Certificate of Absence under his hand to the relative under section 8H, unless the issue of a Certificate of Absence is disallowed for reasons assigned.

(3) Where the application was made to the District Registrar, on the conclusion of such inquiry, he shall forward to the Registrar-General a Report under his hand setting out the particulars concerning the missing person. The Registrar-General having considered the contents of the Report shall make an order directing the District Registrar to register the missing person in the Register of Missing Persons under section 8H and to issue a Certificate of Absence under his hand to the relative, who applied for the same unless for reasons assigned the Registrar-General disallows the issue of a Certificate of Absence.

(4) The District Registrar shall accordingly enter such particulars in the Register of Missing Persons and issue a Certificate of Absence to the relative who applied for the same under section 8A, in the Form C of the Schedule hereto.

(5) The District Registrar shall forthwith forward the duplicate of the relevant registration entry for transmission to the Registrar-General.

Registration of Deaths (Temporary Provisions) 7
(Amendment) Act, No. 16 of 2016

The Registrar-General shall forthwith include the necessary entries to the Register maintained under subsection (1) of section 8H subject to review of the District Court under 8F, if necessary. The registration entry made by the Registrar-General shall be final and conclusive for the purposes of this Act.

If dissatisfied to apply to District Court. 8F. An applicant who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Registrar-General refusing to issue a Certificate of Absence to him under section 8E, or a person who has objected under section 8D to the issue of a Certificate of Absence under this Part, may within one month of the notification of such refusal or issue, as the case may be, make application to the District Court against such refusal or issue. The District Court may after review of the material before it, either affirm or set aside the decision of the Registrar-General, and may direct the Registrar-General to issue a Certificate of Absence or allow the application of a relative, as the case may be.

Special procedure relating to registration of Missing Persons in respect of whom there are findings by a Commission of Inquiry or a Special Presidential Commission of Inquiry or by the Office on Missing Persons. 8G. (1) Where a Commission appointed under the Commissions of Inquiry Act (Chapter 393) or a Special Presidential Commission of Inquiry established under the Special Presidential Commission Law, No. 7 of 1978 or the Office on Missing Persons established under the Office on Missing Persons (Establishment, Administration and Discharge of Functions) Act, No. 14 of 2016 finds that a person has disappeared or is missing, the relative of that person may, apply to the Registrar-General or to the District Registrar in which that person was last residing or had his permanent residence, substantially in the Form "B" set out in the Schedule to this Act, to have issued to him, a Certificate of Absence in respect of that missing person. Every such application shall be accompanied by an Affidavit of the applicant in terms of section 8B and a certified copy of the findings of the Commission of Inquiry or Special Presidential Commission of Inquiry or the Interim Report or Report of the Office on Missing Persons, as the case may be, relating to such missing person.

(Amendment) Act, No. 16 of 2016*

(2) Upon receipt of an application under subsection (1), the District Registrar shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding provisions of this Act, forthwith send to the Registrar-General a Report under his hand, setting out the particulars of the missing person.

(3) Upon receipt of the Report under subsection (2), the Registrar-General shall consider the contents of the Report and make an order directing the District Registrar to register the missing person in the Register of Missing Persons and issue under section 8E a Certificate of Absence under his hand to the relative of the missing person who applied for the same.

(4) The District Registrar shall accordingly enter such particulars in the Register of Missing Persons as provided under subsections (2) and (3) of section 8H.

(5) The District Registrar shall forthwith forward the duplicate of the relevant registration entry together with the order issued under subsection (2), to the Registrar-General. The Registrar-General shall forthwith include the necessary entries to the Register maintained under subsection (1) of section 8H. The registration entry made by the Registrar-General shall be final and conclusive for the purposes of this Act.

Register of Missing Persons.

8H. (1) Registrar-General shall maintain a Register of Missing Persons electronically. The information for registration shall be entered based on the name of the missing person and where available the National Identity Card numerical of the missing person.

(2) Every District Registrar shall also maintain a Register of Missing Persons and make such entries as may be directed by the Registrar-General by order.

(3) Every registration entry made by the District Registrar –

- (a) shall be made in the order of time in which the particulars were given to the Registrar-General or the District Registrar;
- (b) shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the officer making the entry; and
- (c) shall be prepared in triplicate. The original shall be in the custody of the District Registrar, the second copy (hereinafter referred to as the “duplicate”) shall be forwarded to the Registrar-General and the third copy (hereinafter referred to as the “Certificate of Absence”) shall be delivered or transmitted by post to the relative who applied for the same, duly endorsed under the hand of the District Registrar.

10 *Registration of Deaths (Temporary Provisions)
(Amendment) Act, No. 16 of 2016*

Correction of errors. 8i. The provisions in Part VI of the Births and Deaths Registration Act (Chapter 110) pertaining to correction of any error, including an omission in any registration entry shall, mutatis mutandis, be applicable to registrations made under this Part.

Applicability of the Certificate of Absence. 8j. (1) The Certificate of Absence may be used by the relative of the missing person who applied for the same in order to –

(a) apply for benefits under any social welfare scheme;

(b) (i) temporarily manage under the supervision of the District Court, the property and assets of the missing person and act as a provisional guardian for dependent children of the missing person;

(ii) The application under item (i) shall be made to the District Court having jurisdiction in respect of the property concerned or where the dependent children reside and shall be dealt with by summary procedure in the following manner:-

(a) matters pertaining to the administration of the property and other assets of the missing person, shall be concluded within four months from the date of application to the District Court.

(b) matters pertaining to guardianship of children where both parents are missing or where the surviving parent is unable to secure the wellbeing of the child, shall be concluded within one month.

- (c) make representation before executive, administrative and judicial authorities on behalf of the estate of the missing person.

(2) All institutions and persons in authority shall recognize and accept the Certificate of Absence as proof of the status of the person missing.

- (3)(a) Any dispute arising in regard to a matter specified under paragraph (a) of subsection (1), may be referred to the Divisional Secretary of the Divisional Secretary's Division by the relative.

- (b) The Divisional Secretary of the Divisional Secretary's Division shall make a determination after having discussed the matter in dispute with the relevant Institution, within one calendar month of receiving the application.

- (c) The determination of the Divisional Secretary of the Divisional Secretary's Division shall be in writing and be considered as conclusive thereon.

Period of Operation.

8κ. (1) The Certificate of Absence shall be valid for a period of two years from the date specified therein:

Provided however –

- (a) the remains of the missing person is recovered or other conclusive evidence is discovered regarding the death of the missing person, in such instances the Certificate of Absence shall be annulled and a Certificate of Death shall be issued under section 6.

12 *Registration of Deaths (Temporary Provisions)
(Amendment) Act, No. 16 of 2016*

- (b) the Missing Person is found to be alive, the provisions of section 13 shall mutatis mutandis apply. The District Registrar shall accordingly take action to cancel the registration and annul the Certificate of Absence;

(2) At the conclusion of the period of two years, the District Registrar shall inquire from the relative who is issued with the Certificate of Absence, of the status of the missing person and may subject to subsection (2)(a) of section 1 either, –

- (i) extend the period of the Certificate of Absence, subject to subsection (1) (b) of section 8A, by endorsement for another two years; or
- (ii) direct the relative, if willing to apply for a Certificate of Death, to make an application under section 2 and take action to cancel the registration and annul the Certificate of Absence; or
- (iii) cancel the Certificate of Absence where the relative does not intend to extend the period of the said Certificate.

“Cancellation of a Certificate of Death and the issue of a Certificate of Absence.

8L. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding provisions of this Act, where, prior to coming into operation of that Part–

- (a) an application has been made under section 2 or 8 for a Certificate of Death in respect of a missing person; or

Registration of Deaths (Temporary Provisions) 13
(Amendment) Act, No. 16 of 2016

(b) a Certificate of Death has been issued in respect of a missing person, then a relative of a missing person may make an application substantially in the manner specified under section 8G (1). The Registrar-General shall forthwith cancel such application or Certificate referred to in (a) or (b) respectively and issued a Certificate of Absence under section 8G.

(2) The provisions of section 8D and 8F shall mutatis mutandis apply to an application made under this section.”.

11. Subsection (3) of section 10 of the principal enactment is hereby amended by the substitution for the words, “set out in the Schedule” of the words, “in Form A set out in the Schedule”.

Amendment of section 10 of the principal enactment.

12. Section 14 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor:—

Replacement of section 14 of the principal
enactment.

“Avoidance of doubt. 14. For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that—

(a) if the operation of Parts I and IA has lapsed upon the expiry of the period specified in subsection (2) of section 1, and no Order for the extension of the period of operation of Parts I and IA has been made in terms of that subsections; and

(b) if an application for the issue of a Certificate of Death or of a Certificate of Absence respectively, has been made in terms of the provisions of sections 2, 8, 8A, 10 and 11 of this Act prior to the expiry of the period of operation of Parts I or Parts IA,

14 *Registration of Deaths (Temporary Provisions)
