DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Small Towns Sanitary Ordinance, 1892": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Small Towns Sanitary (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Addition of new paragraph to sub-section (2) of section 9 E of the principal Ordinance.

2 After paragraph (s) of sub-section (2) of section 9 E of the principal Ordinance, the following paragraph shall be added :

- (s) (a) For the prohibition of cesspools and the establishment and regulation of closets on the dry-earth system.
- (b) For the removal and disposal of night soil.
- (c) For the charging and recovering fees from owners or occupiers for such removal and disposal when carried out by the Board or by any contractor on behalf of the Board.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 24, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

By section 4 of "The Local Boards (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 29 of 1914," a provision was inserted in "The Local Boards Ordinance, 1898," in the same terms as those which appear in section 2 of this Bill. Representations have been made that similar powers are required in Sanitary Board towns; and this Bill seeks to give effect to such representations

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, March 14, 1921.

H. C. GOLLAN,
Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Law relating to the Constitution and Control of Co-operative Societies.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to encourage thrift, self-help, and co-operation among agriculturists, artisans, and persons of limited means, and for that purpose to provide for the constitution and control of co-operative societies: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Preliminary.

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Co-operative Societies Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Definitions.

2 In this Ordinance, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

"By-laws" mean the registered by-laws made by a society in the exercise of any power conferred by this Ordinance, and include a registered amendment of the by-laws ;

"Rules" mean rules made by the Governor in Executive Council under this Ordinance.

"Committee" means the governing body of a registered society to whom the management of its affairs is entrusted ;

"Member" includes a person or registered society joining in the application for the registration of a society, and a person or registered society admitted to membership after registration in accordance with the by-laws and rules ;

"Officer" includes a chairman, secretary, treasurer, member of committee, or other person empowered under the rules or by-laws to give directions in regard to the business of a registered society ;

"Registrar" means a person appointed to perform the duties of a registrar of co-operative societies under this Ordinance ; and

"Registered Society" means a co-operative society registered under this Ordinance.

Registration.

Power to Governor to appoint registrar and assistant registrars.

3 The Governor may appoint a person to be Registrar of Co-operative Societies for the Colony or any portion of it, and may appoint persons to assist such Registrar, and may, by general or special order published in the "Government Gazette," confer on any such persons all or any of the powers of a Registrar under this Ordinance.

Societies which may be registered.

4 (1) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, a society which has as its object the promotion of the economic interests of its members in accordance with co-operative principles, or a society established for the purpose of facilitating the operations of such societies, may be registered under this Ordinance with or without limited liability.

(2) Where the liability of the members of a society is limited by shares, no member other than a registered society shall—

(a) Hold more than such portion of the share capital of the society, subject to a maximum of one-fifth, as may be prescribed by the rules ; or

(b) Have or claim any interest in the shares of the society exceeding one thousand rupees.

Conditions of registration.

5 (1) No society, other than a society composed of at least two registered societies, shall be registered under this Ordinance which does not consist of at least ten persons above the age of eighteen years, and who, save where the Registrar otherwise directs, reside or own landed property in the same town or village or group of villages.

(2) When any question arises as to the age or residence of any person, or as to the ownership of landed property, or as to whether two or more villages shall be considered to form a group for the purposes of this Ordinance, the same shall be decided by the Registrar, whose decision shall be final.

(3) The word "limited" shall be the last word in the name of every society with limited liability registered under this Ordinance.

Application for registration.

6 (1) For the purposes of registration an application shall be made to the Registrar.

(2) The application shall be signed—

(a) In the case of a society of which the members are not registered societies, by at least ten persons qualified in accordance with the requirements of section 5 (1) of this Ordinance; and

(b) In the case of a society of which the members are registered societies, by a duly authorized person on behalf of each of at least two such registered societies.

(3) The application shall be accompanied by a copy of the proposed by-laws of the society, and the persons by whom or on whose behalf such application is made shall furnish such information in regard to the society as the Registrar may require.

Registration.

7 If the Registrar is satisfied that a society has complied with the provisions of this Ordinance and the rules, and that its proposed by-laws are not contrary to this Ordinance or the rules, may, if he thinks fit, register the society and its by-laws.

Evidence of registration.

8 A certificate of registration signed by the Registrar shall be conclusive evidence that the society therein mentioned is duly registered, unless it is proved that the registration of the society has been cancelled.

Amendment of the by-laws of a registered society.

9 (1) No amendment of the by-laws of a registered society shall be valid until the same has been registered under this Ordinance, for which purpose a copy of the amendment shall be forwarded to the Registrar.

(2) If the Registrar is satisfied that any amendment of the by-laws is not contrary to this Ordinance or to the rules, he may, if he thinks fit, register the amendment.

(3) When the Registrar registers an amendment of the by-laws of a registered society, he shall issue to the society a copy of the amendment certified by him, which shall be conclusive evidence that the same is duly registered.

Rights and Liabilities of Members.

Member not to exercise rights till due payment made.

10 No member of a registered society shall exercise the rights of a member unless or until he has made such payment to the society in respect of membership or acquired such interest in the society, as may be prescribed by the rules or by-laws.

Restriction on membership in society.

11 No person other than a registered society shall be a member of more than one registered society, except with the sanction of the Registrar first had and obtained.

Votes of members.

12 (1) Where the liability of the members of a registered society is not limited by shares, each member shall, notwithstanding the amount of his interest in the capital, have one vote only as a member in the affairs of the society.

(2) Where the liability of the members of a registered society is limited by shares, each member shall have as many votes as may be prescribed by the by-laws.

(3) A registered society which is a member of any other registered society may appoint as its proxy, for the purpose of voting in the affairs of such other registered society, any one of its members.

Restrictions on transfer of share or interest.

13 (1) The transfer or charge of the share or interest of a member in the capital of a registered society shall be subject to such conditions as to maximum holding as may be prescribed by this Ordinance or by the rules.

(2) In case of a society registered with unlimited liability, a member shall not transfer any share held by him or his interest in the capital of the society or any part thereof, unless—

- (a) He has held such share or interest for not less than one year; and
 (b) The transfer or charge is made to the society or to a member of the society.

Duties of Registered Societies.

Address of societies.

14 Every registered society shall have an address, registered in accordance with the rules, to which all notices and communications may be sent, and shall send to the Registrar notice of every change thereof.

Copy of Ordinance, rules, and by-laws to be open to inspection.

15 Every registered society shall keep a copy of this Ordinance and of the rules and of its by-laws, open to inspection, free of charge, at all reasonable times at the registered address of the society.

Audit.

16 (1) The Registrar shall audit or cause to be audited by some person authorized by him by general or special order in writing in this behalf the accounts of every registered society once at least in every year.

(2) The audit under sub-section (1) shall include an examination of overdue debts, if any, and a valuation of the assets and liabilities of the registered society.

(3) The Registrar, the Government Agent, or any person authorized by general or special order in writing in this behalf by the Registrar shall at all times have access to all the books, accounts, papers, and securities of a registered society, and every officer of the society shall furnish such information in regard to the transactions and working of the society as the person making such inspection may require.

Privileges of Registered Societies.

Societies to be bodies corporate.

17 The registration of a society shall render it a body corporate by the name under which it is registered, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to hold property, to enter into contracts, to institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings, and to do all things necessary for the purposes of its constitution.

Priority of claim of registered society as against crops, agricultural produce, cattle, implements, raw material, and manufactured articles.

18 Subject to the prior claims of the Government on the property of its debtors and of landlords in respect of rent, or any money recoverable as rent, a registered society shall be entitled, in priority to other creditors, to enforce its claim—

(a) Upon the crops or other agricultural produce of a member or past member, at any time within two years from the date when seed or manure was advanced, or money for the purchase of seed or manure was lent to such member or past member in respect of the unpaid portion of such advance or loan;

(b) Upon any cattle, agricultural or industrial implements, or raw material for manufactures supplied by the society or purchased in whole or in part with money lent by the society or upon any articles manufactured from raw material so supplied or purchased in respect of the outstanding liability on account of such supply or loan.

Charge and set off in respect of shares or interest of members.

19 A registered society shall have a charge upon the shares or interest in the capital and on the deposits of a member or past member and upon any dividend, bonus, or profits payable to a member or past member in respect of any debt due from such member or past member to the society, and may set off any sum credited or payable to a member or past member in or towards payment of any such debt.

Shares or interest not liable to attachment or sale.

20 Subject to the provisions of section 19 of this Ordinance the share or interest of a member in the capital of a registered society shall not be liable to attachment or sale under any decree or order of a court in respect of any debt or liability incurred by such member, and neither his assignee in insolvency nor a receiver appointed under chapter L. of the Civil Procedure Code shall be entitled to, or have any claim on, such share or interest.

Transfer of interest on death of member.

21 (1) On the death of a member the registered society may pay to, or transfer to, the credit of the person nominated in accordance with the rules made in this behalf, or, if there is no person so nominated, such person as may appear to the committee to be entitled to receive the same as heir or legal representative of the deceased member, a sum representing the value of such member's share or interest, as ascertained in accordance with the rules or by-laws :

Provided that—

(i.) In the case of a society with unlimited liability, such nominee, heir, or legal representative, as the case may be, may require payment by the society of the value of the share or interest of the deceased member ascertained as aforesaid ;

(ii.) In the case of a society with limited liability, the society shall transfer the share or interest of the deceased member to such nominee, heir, or legal representative, as the case may be, being qualified in accordance with the rules and by-laws for membership of the society, or on his application within one month of the death of the deceased member to any person specified in the application who is qualified.

(2) A registered society may pay all other moneys due to the deceased member from the society to such nominee, heir, or legal representative, as the case may be.

(3) All transfers and payments made by a registered society in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be valid and effectual against any demand made upon the society by any other person.

Liability of past member.

22 The liability of a past member for the debts of a registered society, as they existed at the time when he ceased to be a member, shall continue for a period of two years from the date of his ceasing to be a member.

Liability of the estates of deceased members.

23 The estate of a deceased member shall be liable for a period of two years from the time of his decease for the debts of the society, as they existed at the time of his decease.

Register of members prima facie evidence.

24 Any register or list of members kept by any registered society shall be prima facie evidence of any of the following particulars entered therein—

(a) The date at which the name of any person was entered in such register or list as a member ;

(b) The date at which any such person ceased to be a member.

Mode of proof of entries in societies' books.

25 A copy of any entry in a book of a registered society regularly kept in the course of business shall, if certified in such manner as may be prescribed by the rules, be received in any legal proceeding, civil or criminal, as prima facie evidence of the existence of such entry, and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters, transactions, and accounts therein recorded in every case where, and to the same extent as, the original entry itself is now by law admissible, but not further or otherwise.

Exemptions from Taxation.

Power to exempt from stamp duty and registration fees.

26 (1) The Governor in Executive Council by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette" may, in the case of any registered society or class of society, remit—

(a) The stamp duty with which, under any law for the time being in force, instruments executed by or on behalf of a registered society, or by an officer or member, and relating to the business of such society, or any class of such instruments are respectively chargeable ;

(b) Any fee payable under the law of registration for the time being in force.

(2) A notification exempting any registered society from the fees referred to in sub-section (1), clause (b), may provide for the withdrawal of such exemption.

Property and Funds of Registered Societies.

Restrictions on loans.

27 (1) A registered society shall make no loan to any person other than a member. Provided that, with the consent of the Registrar, a registered society may make loans to another registered society.

(2) Save with the permission of the Registrar, to be given by general order in the case of each society, a registered society shall not lend money on the security of movable property.

(3) The Governor in Executive Council may, by general or special order, prohibit or restrict the lending of money on mortgage of immovable property or any kind thereof by any registered society.

Restrictions on borrowing.

28 A registered society may receive deposits from members without restrictions, but it may borrow from persons who are not members only to such extent and under such conditions as may be provided by the by-laws or rules.

Restrictions on other transactions with non-members.

29 Save as provided in sections 27 and 28 of this Ordinance, the transactions of a registered society with persons other than members shall be subject to such prohibitions and restrictions, if any, as the Governor in Executive Council may by rules prescribe.

Investment of society's funds.

30 (1) A registered society may deposit or invest its funds in the Ceylon Savings Bank, or in a Savings Bank established in connection with the General Post Office under "The Ceylon Postal and Telegraph Ordinance, 1892," or with any banker or person acting as a banker approved for this purpose by the Registrar, or in the shares of any other registered society, or in any other mode permitted by the rules.

(2) Any deposits or investments made before the commencement of this Ordinance which would have been valid if this Ordinance had been in force are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Disposal of profits.

31 (1) No dividend or payment on account of profits shall be paid to a member of a registered society, but all profits made by the society shall be carried to a fund (to be called the reserve fund). Provided that when such reserve fund has attained such proportion to the total of the liabilities of the society, and when the interest on loans to members has been reduced to such rates, as may be determined by the rules or by-laws, any further profit of the society, not exceeding three-fourths of the total annual profit, may be distributed to members by way of bonus.

(2) Provided also that in the case of a registered society with unlimited liability no distribution shall be made without the written sanction of the Registrar.

Inspection and Inquiry.

Inspection and inquiry.

32 (1) The Registrar may of his own motion, and shall on the request of the Government Agent or on the application of a majority of the committee, or of not less than one-third of the members, hold an inquiry into the constitution, working, and financial condition of a registered society, and all officers and members of the society shall furnish such information in regard to the affairs of the society as the Registrar may require.

(2) The Registrar shall, on the application of a creditor of a registered society, inspect or direct some person authorized by him by order in writing in this behalf to inspect the books of the society:

Provided that—

- (a) The applicant satisfies the Registrar that the debt is a sum then due, and that he has demanded payment thereof and has not received satisfaction within a reasonable time; and
- (b) The applicant deposits with the Registrar such sum as security for the costs of the proposed inspection as the Registrar may require.

(3) The Registrar shall communicate the results of any such inspection to the creditor.

(4) Where an inquiry is held under sub-section (1) or an inspection is made under sub-section (2), the Registrar may apportion the costs, or such part of the costs, as he may think right, between the registered society, the members demanding an inquiry, and the officers or former officers of the society.

(5) Any sum awarded by way of costs under this section may be recovered, on application to a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the place where the person from whom the money is claimable resides for the time being, by the distress and sale of any movable property, within the limits of the jurisdiction of such Magistrate, belonging to such person.

Dissolution of a Registered Society.

Dissolution.

33 (1) If the Registrar, after holding an inquiry or making an inspection under section 32, or on receipt of an application made by three-fourths of the members of a registered society, is of opinion that the society ought to be dissolved, he may cancel the registration of the society.

(2) Any member of a registered society may, within two months from the date of an order under sub-section (1), appeal from such order to the Governor in Executive Council.

(3) Where no appeal is presented within two months from the making of an order cancelling the registration of a society, the order shall take effect on the expiry of that period. Where an appeal is presented within two months, the order shall not take effect until it is confirmed by the Governor in Executive Council.

Cancellation of registration of society.

34 Where it is a condition of the registration of a society that it should consist of at least ten members, the Registrar may, by order in writing, cancel the registration of the society if at any time it is proved to his satisfaction that the number of the members has been reduced to less than ten.

Effect of cancellation of registration.

35 Where the registration of a society is cancelled, the society shall cease to exist as a corporate body—

(a) In the case of cancellation in accordance with the provisions of section 33, from the date the order of cancellation takes effect;

(b) In the case of cancellation in accordance with the provisions of section 34, from the date of the order.

Liquidation after cancellation of registration of society.

36 (1) Where the registration of a society is cancelled under section 33 or section 34, the Registrar may appoint a competent person to be a liquidator of the society.

(2) A liquidator appointed under sub-section (1) shall have power to institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings, on behalf of the society by his name of office, and shall also have power—

(a) To determine the contribution to be made by the members and past members of the society respectively to the assets of the society;

(b) To investigate all claims against the society, and, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, to decide questions of priority arising between claimants;

(c) To determine by what persons and in what proportions the costs of the liquidation are to be borne; and

(d) To give such directions in regard to the collection and distribution of the assets of the society as may appear to him to be necessary for winding up the affairs of the society.

(3) Subject to any rules, a liquidator appointed under this section shall, in so far as such powers are necessary for carrying out the purposes of this section, have power to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and to compel the production of documents by the same means, and (so far as may be) in the same manner as is provided in the case of a District Court under the Civil Procedure Code.

(4) The rules may provide for an appeal to a District Court from any order made by a liquidator under this section.

(5) Orders made under this section may be enforced as follows:

(a) When made by a liquidator, by any civil court having local jurisdiction, in the same manner as the decree of such court;

(b) When made by a District Court, in the matter of any such appeal as aforesaid, in the same manner as a decree of such court made in any suit pending therein.

(6) Save in so far as is hereinbefore expressly provided, no civil court shall have any jurisdiction in respect of any matter connected with the dissolution of a registered society.

Rules.

Rules.

37 (1) The Governor in Executive Council may, for the whole or any part of a province, and for any registered society, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may—

- (a) Prescribe the forms to be used and the conditions to be complied with in applying for the registration of a society and the procedure in the matter of such applications ;
- (b) Prescribe the conditions to be complied with by persons applying for registration and by persons applying for admission or admitted as members, and provide for the election and admission of members from time to time, and the amount of payment to be made and interests to be acquired before exercising rights of membership ;
- (c) Provide for the withdrawal and expulsion of members, and for the payments to be made to members who withdraw or are expelled, and for the liabilities of past members ;
- (d) Prescribe the extent to which a registered society may limit the number of its members ;
- (e) Provide for the mode in which the value of a deceased member's interest shall be ascertained, and for the nomination of a person to whom such interest may be paid or transferred ;
- (f) Subject to the provisions of section 4, prescribe the maximum number of shares or portion of the capital of a registered society which may be held by a member ;
- (g) Prescribe the payments to be made and the conditions to be complied with by members applying for loans, the period for which loans may be made, and the amount which may be lent to an individual member ;
- (h) Prescribe the proportion to the total liabilities to be attained by the reserve fund, and the rate to which interest on loans to members is to be reduced before profits may be distributed to the members ;
- (i) Regulate the manner in which capital may be raised by means of shares or debentures or otherwise ;
- (j) Provide for general meetings of the members, and for the procedure at such meetings and the powers to be exercised by such meetings ;
- (k) Provide for the appointment, suspension, and removal of the members of the committee and other officers, and for the procedure at meetings of the committee, and for the powers to be exercised and the duties to be performed by the committee and other officers ;
- (l) Prescribe the matters in respect of which a society may or shall make by-laws, and for the procedure to be followed in making, altering, and abrogating by-laws, and the conditions to be satisfied prior to such making, alteration, or abrogation ;
- (m) Prescribe the accounts and books to be kept by a registered society, and provide for the audit of such accounts, and the charges, if any, to be made for such audit, and for the periodical publication of a balance sheet showing the assets and liabilities of a registered society ;
- (n) Prescribe the returns to be submitted by registered societies to the Registrar, and the persons by whom and the form in which the same are to be made ;
- (o) Provide for the persons by whom, and the form in which, copies of entries in books of registered societies may be certified ;
- (p) Provide for the formation and the maintenance of a register of members, and, where the liability of the members is limited by shares, of a register of shares ;
- (q) Provide for the rate at which interest may be paid on deposits, for the formation and the maintenance of reserve funds, and the objects to which such funds may be applied, and for the investment of any funds under the control of the registered society ;

- (r) Prescribe the conditions under which profits may be distributed to the members of a registered society with unlimited liability, and the maximum rate of dividend which may be paid by registered societies ;
- (s) Provide that any dispute touching the business of a registered society between members or past members of the society or persons claiming through a member or past member, or between a member or past member or persons so claiming and the committee or any officer, shall be referred to the Registrar for decision, or, if he so directs, to arbitration, and prescribe the mode of appointing an arbitrator or arbitrators, and the procedure to be followed in proceedings before the Registrar or such arbitrator or arbitrators and the enforcement of the decisions of the Registrar or the awards of arbitrators ;
- (t) Prescribe the conditions to be complied with by a registered society applying for the financial assistance of Government ;
- (u) Determine in what cases an appeal shall lie from the orders of the Registrar, and prescribe the procedure to be followed in presenting and disposing of such appeals ; and
- (v) Prescribe the procedure to be followed by a liquidator appointed under section 36, and the cases in which an appeal shall lie from the order of such liquidator.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be published in the "Government Gazette," and on such publication shall have effect as if enacted in this Ordinance. Provided that unless and until other rules are made the general rules in the schedule to this Ordinance shall apply and have effect.

Debts due to Government.

Recovery of sums due to Government.

38 (1) All sums due from a registered society, or from an officer or member or past member of a registered society as such, to the Government, including any costs awarded to the Government under section 32, may be recovered in manner provided for the recovery of Crown debts by Ordinance No. 14 of 1843, intituled "An Ordinance for providing for the better security and recovery of Crown Debts."

(2) Sums due from a registered society to Government and recoverable under sub-section (1) may be recovered, firstly, from the property of the society ; secondly, in the case of a registered society of which the liability of the members is limited, from the members, subject to the limit of their liability ; and thirdly, in the case of other societies, from the members.

Miscellaneous.

Special power to Governor in Executive Council to register any associations under this Ordinance.

39 (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance, the Governor in Executive Council may by special order in each case, and subject to such conditions as it may impose, permit any association of not less than ten persons above the age of eighteen years to be registered as a society under this Ordinance.

(2) A society so registered shall be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance to the same extent as any other registered society. Provided that the Governor in Executive Council may at any time by order exempt such society from any of such provisions, or may direct that they shall apply to such society with such modifications as may be specified in the order.

Restriction of use of word "co-operative."

40 (1) No person other than a registered society shall trade or carry on business under any name or title of which the word "co-operative" is part without the sanction of the Governor in Executive Council.

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to the use by any person or his successor in interest of any name or title under which he traded or carried on business at the date on which this Ordinance comes into operation.

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of this section shall be punishable on summary conviction before a Police Magistrate with fine, which may extend to fifty rupees, and in the case of a continuing offence, with further fine of five rupees for each day on which the offence is continued after conviction therefor.

"Joint Stock Companies Ordinance, 1861," not to apply.

Saving of existing societies.

Repeal.

41 The provisions of "The Joint Stock Companies Ordinance, 1861," and of any Ordinances amending the same, shall not apply to societies registered under this Ordinance.

42 Every society now existing, which has been registered under "The Co-operative Credit Societies Ordinance, 1911," shall be deemed to be registered under this Ordinance, and its by-laws shall, so far as the same are not inconsistent with the express provisions of this Ordinance, continue in force until altered or rescinded.

43 "The Co-operative Credit Societies Ordinance, 1911," is hereby repealed.

4. (1) Every member who is guilty of wrongful application of loans or other conduct prejudicial to the interest of a society may after inquiry be suspended by the committee, and is liable to be expelled at a general meeting.

(2) To any member who ceases to be a member by death, withdrawal, or expulsion shall be paid those sums which at the time when he ceased to be a member stood to his credit in the books of the society, and in the case of other than expelled members, such a proportion of bonuses declared for distribution at the next following annual general meeting as is in accordance with the length of period of membership during the year for which the bonuses are declared.

(3) No member who ceases to be a member by death, withdrawal, removal, or expulsion shall have any claim to any portion of the reserve fund.

Head (e).

Nominee of member.

5. (1) Every member of a registered society shall, at the time of his becoming a member, nominate in writing the person who, in the event of his death, will succeed to his share and interest in the society, and the name of such nominee shall be entered in a column of the register of members of the society.

(2) In the event of any person so nominated dying, or of the member desiring to cancel any such nomination, the member may from time to time nominate in writing another person as aforesaid, and the necessary alterations shall be made in the above-mentioned column of the register of members.

Determination of deceased member's interest.

6. The value of the share and interest of a deceased member shall be determined by the committee, who shall for this purpose determine the respective amounts due from and to such member on the date of his death, and deduct the latter from the former.

Head (h).

Dividend or profits.

7. A dividend or payment on account of profits shall not be made until the reserve fund has reached a proportion of not less than one-tenth of the total liabilities of a society registered with unlimited liability and one twenty-fifth of the liabilities of a society registered with limited liability, and until the rate of interest on loans to members has been reduced to 12 per cent. per annum.

Head (i).

Limit of capital
by loans or deposits from non-members.

8. Capital raised by loans or deposits from other than members shall not exceed, in the case of societies registered with unlimited liability, three times the paid-up share capital and deposits of members, and in the case of societies registered with limited liability an amount equal to the paid-up share capital and deposits of members.

Head (l).

By-law-making powers.

9. Every registered society shall, subject to the provisions of the Ordinance and of the rules made thereunder, make, alter, or rescind by-laws in respect of the following matters, namely:

- (a) The name and address of the registered society.
- (b) The area of its operations.
- (c) The objects of the registered society.
- (d) The qualifications requisite for membership.
- (e) The liabilities of members, and their election, withdrawal, removal, and expulsion.
- (f) The appointment, powers, duties, and liabilities of the committee, and the removal of members of the committee.
- (g) The appointment and duties of the officers of the registered society.
- (h) The calling of, and procedure at the meetings of the registered society, and the duties and powers of the general meeting.
- (i) The purposes for which loans may be issued, and the conditions on which such loans may be granted to members.
- (j) The application of gross earnings and profits.
- (k) The formation, maintenance, employment, and investment of a reserve fund.

- (l) The distribution of duties among the members of the committee.
- (m) The reports and statements to be submitted and accounts kept by officers and servants.
- (n) The forms to be used in accounts and registers and other documents, and kept at the registered office and elsewhere.
- (o) Under what conditions, if any, the transfer of the share or interest of a member shall be permitted.
- (p) The nature and amount of the share capital, if any, of the registered society, and where there is a share capital, the maximum share capital which a single member can hold.
- (q) The circumstances under which the registered society may borrow funds and the procedure to be followed in so borrowing.
- (r) The entrance and miscellaneous fees and fines, if any, to be collected from members.
- (s) The maximum loans admissible to a member and the procedure to be followed in granting loans and extensions or renewals and in recovering loans from members.
- (t) The conditions on which loans may be granted to members.
- (u) The consequences of default in payment of any sum due by a member.
- (v) The maximum dividend payable on subscribed share capital to members.
- (w) The rates of interest payable by the registered society on borrowed funds and by members on loans granted to them.
- (x) In the case of productive and distributive registered societies, the procedure to be followed in purchasing and selling stores, raw material, and finished products.
- (y) The mode of custody and investment of funds.
- (z) Matters considered prejudicial to the credit of the registered society.

10. (1) A by-law made under rule 9 shall not take effect or be altered or rescinded otherwise than—

- (a) By the vote of a majority of three-fourths of the members assembled in special meeting; and
- (b) With the written sanction of the Registrar.

(2) The quorum for a special meeting of the kind referred to in sub-rule (1) (a) shall not be less than one-half of the members of the registered society.

Notification of by-laws and amendments to Registrar.

11. All by-laws and amendments thereto shall reach the Registrar within fourteen days of their having been passed by the registered society.

Head (m).

Publication of accounts.

12. Every registered society shall on or before May 31 in each year publish—

- (a) A balance sheet showing the income, expenditure, and profits of the society for the year ending on the previous April 30; and
- (b) A statement of the assets and liabilities of the society as they stood on April 30; and a copy of each of these statements shall be despatched to the Registrar on or before July 1.

Accounts and books
prescribed.

13. Registered societies shall keep the following accounts and books for the purpose of recording the business transacted by them:

(a) Credit Societies.

- (1) Minute book recording the proceedings of the committee and of the general body of members.
- (2) Members' register, showing name and address of each member and of his nominee, the date of his admission, and share taken by him.
- (3) Cash book, showing daily receipts and expenditure and monthly balance.
- (4) Loan register, showing number and date of disbursement of each loan issued to members, the amount of loan, and the date or dates of repayment, distinguishing principal and interest.
- (5) Loan bonds, showing date and amount of loan, rate of interest, periods of repayment, and signatures of sureties.
- (6) Deposit register, showing deposits and other borrowings of all kinds.
- (7) Pass books for members, in which shall be entered all transactions in respect of share payments, deposits, withdrawals, loans, and dividends or bonuses.
- (8) Prescribed forms of application for membership, application for withdrawal of deposits, and application for loans.
- (9) Such other accounts and books as may be required or prescribed by the Registrar.

(b) Central Banks.

In addition to the books to be maintained as above by credit societies, all central banks, that is, societies which lend money to other societies, shall keep the following accounts :

- (1) Share register, in which shall be entered number of shares taken, amount of share payments, withdrawals, and repayments, and date or dates of same.
- (2) Cash book, showing daily balance instead of monthly balances as above prescribed.
- (3) Reserve fund register, showing reserve funds of societies invested in the central bank.
- (4) Ledger, showing all transactions with members, borrowings of all kinds, profit and loss accounts, and reserve funds.

(c) Distributive and Productive Societies.

The books for the credit branch of such societies shall be the same as for credit societies other than central banks, and in addition shall be kept—

- (1) Goods ledger containing a classification of goods stocked and sold.
- (2) Stock purchase book, showing the daily purchase of articles.

Head (n).

Returns.

14. The following returns shall be submitted to the Registrar by all co-operative societies annually as soon after the end of each co-operative year as possible :

- (1) Statement of receipts and disbursements.
- (2) Statement of profit and loss.
- (3) Statement of assets and liabilities

Head (o)

Copies of entries.

15. Copies of such entries in the books of a registered society as may be required for purposes of section 25, shall be made by the secretary of the registered society, and shall be certified correct by him and by another officer of the society or member of the committee.

Head (q).

Maximum rate of interest.

16. (1) Interest payable on deposits by members or non-members shall in no case exceed 9 per centum per annum, and shall not in general exceed three-fourths the rate of interest charged on loans to members.

(2) The reserve fund of registered societies shall be invested or deposited in one or more of the modes mentioned in section 30 with the proviso that a sum not exceeding one-half of the reserve fund, in the case of societies with unlimited liability may, with the written sanction of the Registrar, be utilized for the ordinary business of the society.

Head (r).

Maximum rate of dividend.

17. A dividend or payment on account of profits shall not exceed 9 per cent. per annum.

Head (s).

Reference of dispute.

18. Any dispute in respect of the business of a registered society between any person who—

- (a) Is or has been a member of a registered society ; or
- (b) Claims through any one who is or has been a member ;

and such registered society or its committee or any of its officers shall be referred to the Registrar for decision.

Decision of dispute.

19. The Registrar, on receiving notice of such a dispute as is referred to in rule 18, shall either decide the dispute himself, or shall refer it for arbitration to three arbitrators, of whom one shall be nominated by each of the parties to the dispute and the third by the Registrar.

Nomination of arbitrator.

20. Where any party to the dispute fails to nominate an arbitrator within fifteen days after receipt of notice from the Registrar, the Registrar himself may make the nomination.

Procedure.

21. In proceedings under rule 19 before the Registrar or arbitrators, the statements of the parties who attend and of such witnesses as they may produce shall be reduced to writing, and upon the evidence so recorded, and after consideration of any documentary evidence produced by either side, a decision or award, as the case may be, shall be given in accordance with justice, equity, and good conscience.

- Enforcement of decision. 22. Where the decision or award involves the payment of money or delivery of grain, and such payment or delivery is not made within one week, the Registrar shall send the record of the proceedings to the Court of Requests within the jurisdiction of which the party condemned or any one or more of the parties condemned reside, and such court shall enforce the decision or award as if it were a decree of such court.
- Appeal. 23. (1) Any party aggrieved by an award of arbitrators may appeal to the Registrar within one month of the date of the award.
(2) Every order made by the Registrar under these rules shall be final and conclusive.
- Representation. 24. In proceedings under these rules neither party shall be represented by a legal practitioner.

Head (t).

President, Co-operative Society.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, GRAEME THOMSON,
Colombo, March 24, 1921. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

"THE Co-operative Credit Societies Ordinance, No. 7 of 1911," has been worked with success, but the experience of the last ten years has proved that in many respects amendments are required.

These amendments are numerous, though of varying importance, and it has been thought well to repeal Ordinance No. 7 of 1911, and to re-enact it in the form of the Bill.

A table is annexed showing these amendments.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, January 28, 1921.

H. C. GOLLAN,
Attorney-General.

Table referred to.

Section of Bill.	Corresponding Section of No. 7 of 1911.	Remarks.
1, 2	.. 1, 2	.. —
3	.. 5	.. Power given in Bill to appoint Assistant Registrars.
4	.. 12	.. This section defines the class of society that may be registered under the Bill; and makes the important provision for the registration of central societies intended to facilitate the operations of registered societies.
5	.. 3, 6 (4)	.. —
6	.. 6 (1)	.. The provision requiring that a copy of the by-laws should accompany the application is new. It will tend to ensure that the by-laws are effective and in accord with the law.
7	.. 6 (2)	.. —
8, 9	.. —	.. These sections are new, and speak for themselves.
10	.. 4	.. Section 10 of the Bill re-enacts the proviso to section 4 of No. 7 of 1911.
11	.. —	.. Section 11 of the Bill is new, and is considered to be in best interests of societies.
12	.. 13	.. Sub-section (3) of section 12 of the Bill is new, and provides for the manner in which societies which are members of a registered society are to vote.
13	.. 14	.. —
14	.. 6 (3)	.. —
15	.. 27 (4)	.. —
16	.. 21 (1, 3, 4)	.. —
17	.. 6 (2)	.. —
18	.. 19	.. In section 18 (b) of the Bill the reference to articles manufactured from raw materials supplied by the society or purchased with money lent from it is new.
19, 20	.. 20, 15	.. The period of liability is increased to two years, as experience has shown that one year is too short.
21	.. 16	.. Sub-section (1) of section 21 of the Bill reproduces section 16 of No. 7 of 1911; the rest is new.
22, 23	.. 17, 18	.. —
24	.. —	.. Section 24 of the Bill is new.
25, 26	.. 22, 25	.. —
27	.. 10	.. —
28	.. 9	.. —
29	.. —	.. Section 29 of the Bill is new.
30	.. 11	.. Sub-section 2 of section 30 of the Bill is new.
31	.. 8	.. Sub-section 2 of section 31 of the Bill is new. It is obvious that the distribution of profits by unlimited societies requires careful control.
32	.. 21 (5, 6, 7)	.. Sub-section (2) of section 32 of the Bill is new, and allows of the inspection by a duly authorized person of the inspection of the books of a registered society.
33	.. 23	.. —
34	.. —	.. This section of the Bill is new. It is a condition of registration that societies, unless composed of other registered societies, should have at least ten members. If they fall below that figure, it is proper to cancel their registration.
35	.. 23 (4)	.. —
36	.. 24	.. —
37	.. 27	.. —
38, 39	.. 26, 29	.. —
40	.. —	.. Section 40 of the Bill is new, and is intended to prevent unregistered societies holding themselves out without justification, as co-operative societies.
41	.. 28	.. —
42	.. —	.. Is new. Brings existing registered societies under the Bill.
43	.. —	.. Repeals No. 7 of 1911.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Ordinance, 1907": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Amendment of section 6 A of the principal Ordinance.

2 For the word and figure "section 6" in sub-section (1) of section 6 A of the principal Ordinance, as the same is contained in Ordinance No. 19 of 1912, there shall be substituted the words "this Ordinance."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 6, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTION 6 A of the Ordinance as it stands, allows of committal to an infirmary, only of animals unfit for work and actually used in any work. The object of the Bill is to empower Magistrates to order detention in an infirmary, of animals in regard to which an offence has been committed under the Ordinance whether the animal was used or not at the time.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, March 17, 1921.

Attorney-General.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Former Enemy Aliens Ordinance, No. 19 of 1919."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Former Enemy Aliens Ordinance, No. 19 of 1919": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Former Enemy Aliens (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Amendment of section 2 of the principal Ordinance.

2 The definition of "Former enemy alien" in section 2 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, and the following definition shall be inserted in lieu thereof :

"Former enemy alien" means an alien who is a subject or citizen of the German Empire or any component State thereof, or of Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria, or Turkey, or who having at any time been such subject or citizen, has not changed his allegiance as the result of the recognition of new States or territorial re-arrangements, or been naturalized in any other foreign State or in any British Possession in accordance with the laws thereof and when actually resident therein, and does not retain according to the law of his State of origin, the nationality of that State.

"Provided further that a woman who was at the time of her marriage, a British subject, shall not be taken to be a former enemy alien."

Insertion of new section in principal Ordinance.

3 There shall be inserted in the principal Ordinance immediately after section 6 thereof, the following section which shall be numbered 6 A :

Restrictions on acquisition of land.

6 A. (1) It shall not be lawful for a former enemy alien, either in his own name, or in the name of a trustee or trustees, to acquire any land or any interest in land, in the Colony.

(2) The expression "interest in land" does not include a tenancy for a period not exceeding three years.

(3) If any land or interest in land as aforesaid is acquired in contravention of this section the Governor in Executive Council may by order declare such property to be forfeited to His Majesty, and thereupon the same shall vest in His Majesty absolutely.

(4) Upon any Government Agent producing or causing to be produced such order before the District Court having jurisdiction within the district in which such property is situated, such court shall forthwith issue a writ of possession requiring the Fiscal or Deputy Fiscal of such district to put and place such Government Agent or any person whom he may name in writing in possession of such property for and on behalf of his Majesty, and, if need be, to remove therefrom any person refusing to vacate the same.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 1, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

It has been found that the definition of former enemy alien given in section 2 of Ordinance No. 19 of 1919 is not sufficiently wide, and that an amendment is therefore necessary.

The definition in section 2 of this Bill is taken from section 15 of "The Aliens Restriction (Amendment) Act, 1919," of the Imperial Parliament.

It will be observed that a woman who at the time of her marriage was a British subject is proposed, in conformity with the provisions of the British Act, to be excluded from the definition of former enemy alien.

Section 3 of the Bill enacts that portion of section 11 of the Imperial Act which prohibits former enemy aliens from holding land for a period of three years from the passing of that Act. The time limit will be imposed locally by section 8 of Ordinance No. 19 of 1919.

The procedure laid down in sub-section (4) of new section 6A is borrowed from section 7 of Ordinance No. 6 of 1887.
