DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Wells and Pits Protection Ordinance, 1884."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Wells and Pits Protection Ordinance, 1884": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Wells and Pits Protection (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Insertion of new section in lieu of section 8 of principal Ordinance.

2 The principal Ordinance is amended by striking out section 8, and inserting in lieu thereof the following section :

Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent may appoint inspectors of pits and wells within their respective districts.

8. The Government Agent or Assistant Government Agent of any district may appoint one or more persons to be inspectors of wells and pits within any area in such district and such persons when so appointed shall have authority at all times to proceed to and inspect any well or pit within the respective areas for which they have been appointed, and every such inspector shall be deemed a public officer within the meaning of that term in the Ceylon Penal Code.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 15, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTION 8 of the principal Ordinance empowers the Governor to appoint Inspectors of Wells and Pits. It is thought that this power might well be delegated to Government Agents or Assistant Government Agents in their districts, and it is proposed to amend the law accordingly.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, March 10, 1921.
