DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Vehicles Ordinance, No. 4 of 1916."

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Vehicles Ordinance, No. 4 of 1916": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Vehicles (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921," and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Governor in Executive Council, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette."

2 The principal Ordinance is hereby amended in the following respects :

(a) Section 5 thereof—

(i.) By striking out the words "substantially in the form A in the second schedule hereto" in lines 7 and 8 of the said section and substituting therefor the words "in one or other of such forms as may be prescribed";

(ii.) By inserting after the word "license" in line 8 of the said section the words "in one or other of such forms as may be prescribed."

(b) Section 6 thereof, by striking out the words "in the form in the second schedule hereto" at the end of the said section and substituting therefor the words "in one or other of such forms as may be prescribed."

Preamble.

Short title and commencement.

Amendment of sections 5, 6, and 44 of the principal Ordinance.

- (c) Section 10 (2) thereof, by striking out all after the word "indicated" in line 6 thereof and substituting therefor the words "on the plate which shall be in a form to be approved by the Governor, by means of figures, letters, or colours of a size, form, or kind, also to be approved by the Governor. And no plate, figures, letters, or colours, not so approved, shall be used."
- (d) Section 44 (2) thereof, by inserting after the word "therefor" in line 3 of the said section the words "or for any purpose or purposes not set out in such license."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 13, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

It has been found, as the result of the working of the Ordinance, that sections 5 and 6 of "The Vehicles Ordinance, 1916," are couched in terms which are too general so far as the forms of licenses are concerned.

Those sections provide for the issue of a simple form of license to cover vehicles—

- (a) Plying for hire in a public street ;
(b) Standing for hire on a stand in a public street ; and
(c) Carrying passengers, &c., for hire where the vehicle is kept on private premises.

It is obvious that different considerations apply to these 3 classes, and the amendments in section 2 (a) and (b) of the Bill are intended to allow of effect being given to those considerations.

The amendment in section 2 (c) of the Bill is intended to prevent the use of altered plates.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Insertion of new chapter in principal Ordinance. 2 The following provisions shall be inserted as Chapter XX. A of the principal Ordinance :—

CHAPTER XX. A.

Of Expenses of Witnesses, &c., Costs, and Compensation.

Power of Governor in Executive Council to make regulations.

253 A. (1) The Governor in Executive Council may make regulations providing—

- (a) For the payment out of the public revenue of the expenses of persons attending to give evidence for the prosecution or defence or called to give evidence at the instance of the court for the expense, trouble, or loss of time properly incurred in, or incidental to, the attendance and giving of evidence in any trial before the Supreme Court or a District Court, or on the inquiry preliminary to any such trial, and the conditions on which such payments may be allowed ;
- (b) For the payment out of the public revenue of the expenses of persons summoned to serve as jurors or assessors in any trial before the Supreme Court or a District Court, respectively ;

(c) For the persons by whom, and the manner in which, the amounts of such expenses shall be ascertained and payments made.

(2) Such regulations shall be laid as soon as conveniently may be before the Legislative Council, and may at any time within forty days after the date of their being so laid before the Council, or at any of the three meetings of the Council next succeeding such date, by resolution of the Council, be disallowed, amended, or otherwise dealt with as may be directed by the said Council, but without prejudice to anything that may have been done thereunder.

253 B. (1) The Supreme Court or any District Court by or before which any person is convicted of an indictable offence may, if it thinks fit, in addition to any other lawful punishment, order the person convicted to pay the whole or any part of the costs incurred in or about the prosecution and conviction, including any proceedings in the preliminary inquiry before a Magistrate, as taxed by the Registrar or Secretary of the court.

Power of Supreme Court or District Court to order payment of costs of prosecution by defendant.

(2) Any sum awarded under this section shall be recoverable in the manner set forth in sub-section (2) of section 312 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1893," for the recovery of fines; and also, if the court so directs, out of any money taken on his apprehension from the person convicted.

(3) Any amount so recovered shall be paid into the public Treasury.

253 c. (1) If in any case instituted on complaint under section 148 (1) (a) which a Police Court has power to try, a Magistrate acquits or discharges the accused and declares that the complaint was frivolous or vexatious, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to order the complainant to pay by way of Crown costs a sum not exceeding five rupees, and he may, in addition, at the same time, order the complainant to pay to the accused, or to each of the accused when there are more than one, such compensation not exceeding ten rupees to each person as the Magistrate shall think fit, which sum if paid or recovered shall be taken into account in any subsequent civil suit relating to the same matter.

Frivolous or vexatious complaints.

(2) Any sum awarded under this section shall be recoverable as if it were a fine, and if it cannot be recovered, the imprisonment to be awarded shall be simple and for such term, not exceeding in the case of a sum awarded by way of compensation thirty days, and in the case of a sum awarded by way of Crown costs fourteen days, as the Magistrate directs at the time of awarding such sum.

(3) Before making any such order the Magistrate shall record and consider any objection which the complainant may urge against the making of the order, and if he makes such order, he shall record his reasons for making the same.

(4) No appeal shall lie against any order for payment of Crown costs.

253 D. (1) Whenever any person causes a peace officer to arrest another person, if it appears to the Magistrate who takes cognizance of the case that there was no sufficient ground for causing such arrest, he may award such compensation not exceeding twenty-five rupees to be paid by the person so causing the arrest to the person so arrested for his loss of time and expenses in the matter as the Magistrate thinks fit.

Compensation for groundlessly giving in charge.

(2) In such cases, if more persons than one are arrested, the Magistrate may in like manner award to each of them such compensation not exceeding twenty-five rupees as such Magistrate thinks fit.

(3) All compensation awarded under this section may be recovered as if it were a fine, and if it cannot be so recovered, the person by whom it is payable shall be sentenced to simple imprisonment for such term not exceeding thirty days as the Magistrate directs, unless such sum be sooner paid.

(4) Such compensation shall be no bar to an action for false imprisonment.

Power of court to pay expenses or compensation out of fine.

253 E. (1) Whenever a criminal court imposes a fine or passes a sentence of which fine forms a part, or the Supreme Court confirms in appeal, revision, or otherwise a sentence of a fine or sentence of which fine forms a part, such court may order the whole or any part of the fine recovered to be applied—

(a) In defraying the expenses properly incurred in the prosecution; or

(b) In compensation for the injury caused by the offence committed where substantial compensation is, in the opinion of the court, recoverable by civil suit.

(2) If the fine is imposed in a case which is subject to appeal, no such payment shall be made before the period allowed for presenting the appeal has elapsed, or, if an appeal be presented, before the decision of the appeal.

(3) At the time of awarding compensation in any subsequent civil suit relating to the same matter, the court shall take into account any sum paid or recovered as compensation under this section.

Power of court to order payment of compensation to aggrieved party.

253 F. (1) Whenever any person (hereafter referred to as the convict) is convicted by or before a criminal court, or the Supreme Court confirms in appeal, revision, or otherwise a sentence, such court may order the convict to pay such sum by way of compensation to any person affected by the offence (hereafter referred to as the aggrieved party) as to the court shall seem fit. Provided that in the case of a person convicted before a Magistrate the amount awarded by him shall not exceed fifty rupees to each aggrieved party.

(2) Any sum awarded under this section shall be recoverable in the manner set forth in sub-section (2) of section 312 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," for the recovery of fines, and if and when recovered shall be paid over to the aggrieved party.

Proviso.

Repeal.

3 Sections 197, 198, 277, 431, 432, and 437 of the principal Ordinance and section 54 of "The Police Ordinance, 1865," are hereby repealed.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 21, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Bill gives effect to certain recommendations made by a Committee appointed by His Excellency the Governor to consider amongst other things the subject of costs, expenses of witnesses, and compensation in criminal cases.

The provisions dealing with these subjects in the Criminal Procedure Code are not grouped, but in the Bill these provisions are proposed to be included in a single chapter of the Code.

Payments to jurors and assessors are provided for by regulations under section 277 of the Code and for witnesses under section 431, but the Committee called attention not only to the inadequacy of the rates of payment which were laid down in 1883, but also to such distance limits as are specified in section 277.

Section 253 A (set out in section 2 of the Bill) is intended to give wide powers of making regulations for payment of the expenses of witnesses, jurors, and assessors, and is substituted for sections 277 and 431 of the Code. These regulations may be amended or disallowed by the Legislative Council.

Section 253 B (set out in section 2 of the Bill) is new, and is intended to give the Supreme and the District Courts power to order a convicted person to pay the costs of his trial in accordance with the provisions of the English law.

Sections 253 C, 253 D, and 253 E (set out in section 2 of the Bill) merely re-enact the provisions of sections 197 and 198, 437, and 431, respectively, of the Code.

Section 253 F (set out in section 2 of the Bill) is new, and gives all criminal courts power to order an offender to make compensation to the aggrieved party.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876."

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Land Acquisition (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Short title.

2 The first paragraph of section 4 of the principal Ordinance beginning with the word "Whenever" in line 1 thereof and ending with the word "workmen" in line 8 thereof is hereby struck out and the following words shall be substituted therefor :

Amendment of section 4 of the principal Ordinance.

"Whenever it shall appear to the Governor that land in any locality is likely to be needed for any public purpose, it shall be lawful for the Governor to direct the Surveyor-General to examine, or cause to be examined, such land and report, or cause a report to be made as to, whether the same is fitted for such purpose. And it shall thereupon be lawful for the Surveyor-General or for any officer of his Department or any surveyor authorized by the Surveyor-General and for the servants and workmen of the Surveyor-General or of any officer or surveyor so authorized as aforesaid."

3 Sections 5 and 6 of the principal Ordinance are hereby amended by striking out the words "other officer" where they appear in the said sections and inserting in lieu thereof the words "or any officer or surveyor."

Amendment of sections 5 and 6 of the principal Ordinance.

4 Section 28 of the principal Ordinance is amended by striking out the words "Provided that such fee shall not exceed two hundred rupees" in line 3 thereof.

Amendment of section 28 of the principal Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 21, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the amendment in section 2 is to delegate to the Surveyor-General, the power to appoint a surveyor for any acquisition survey, where necessary, instead of the Governor appointing such surveyor in each case; whilst the amendments to sections 5 and 6 are merely consequential on the amendment to section 4.

Compensation cases may, and often do, involve large values, and take a long time to investigate, and strong representations have been made to the effect that the limitation of the fee allowed to assessors to two hundred rupees, irrespective of the importance, complexity, or length of the case, is not advisable. By the amendment in section 4 it is proposed that the amount of the fee payable to an assessor should be left to the discretion of the judge who presides at the hearing.
