DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to make provision for the Establishment and Organization of a Department of Agriculture.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the establishment of a Department of Agriculture, and for the constitution of a Board of Agriculture to be advisory to the said Department: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows: Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Department of Agriculture Ordinance, No. of 1921." Short title.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.

"Director" means the Director of Agriculture;
 "Board" means the Board of Agriculture;
 "Department" means the Department of Agriculture;
 "Agriculture" includes horticulture.

3 There shall be a Government Department to be styled the Department of Agriculture, with a Director and such other officers as may be duly appointed by Government at such salaries as the Governor, with the consent of the Legislative Council, may from time to time direct. Department of Agriculture.

4 (1) There shall be established a Board to be styled the Board of Agriculture composed of the Governor, the Colonial Secretary, the Controller of Revenue, the Government Agents of the Western, Southern, Central, and Northern Provinces, the Director of Irrigation, the Director, two Unofficial Members of the Legislative Council nominated by the Governor, and not more than seventy other persons to be appointed by the Governor for a term not exceeding three years, either on the nomination of such bodies as the Governor may recognize to be representative of the agricultural industries of the Colony, or on the recommendation of the Director. Board of Agriculture.

(2) The Governor shall be the President of the Board, and the Colonial Secretary shall be the Vice-President.

(3) Twenty members, including the President, shall form a quorum.

(4) The President may appoint a secretary and such other officers to the Board as may be necessary.

(5) Any member may resign his seat on the Board by letter addressed to the Director, and the President shall have power from time to time to fill vacancies arising from the death or absence of any member of the Board or from any other cause.

Functions of Board.

5 (1) The Board shall not be an administrative or executive body, but shall be advisory to the Government and to the Department of Agriculture.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Board to advise on all matters and questions in connection with the agricultural industries of the Colony, which may be referred to it by the Governor or Director, and further, it shall be competent for the Board to make recommendations to the Governor or Director in connection with such questions without previous reference.

Committees of Board.

6 (1) There shall be three standing committees of the Board, namely :

- (a) The Executive Committee ;
- (b) The Estate Products Committee ; and
- (c) The Food Products Committee ;

but nothing in this sub-section shall prevent the Board appointing such other committees and co-opting such additional members to its committees as it shall consider necessary.

(2) The members of each of such committees shall be appointed at a general meeting of the Board : Provided that any such committee may co-opt additional members thereof, and that such additional members may, at the discretion of such committee, be either members or non-members of the Board.

(3) The constitution, powers, and duties of such committees shall be defined by the Board from time to time as occasion may arise.

Business of Board.

7 The Board may from time to time make such rules as may be deemed necessary for the carrying out of the duties of the Board, and in particular the Board may—

- (a) Prescribe the times and places the Board and the several committees shall meet, and the mode in which such meetings shall be summoned ;
- (b) Lay down rules to ensure regular attendance at meetings of members and for the procedure to be adopted at meetings.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 19, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Bill proposes to make provision for the formal establishment of the Department of Agriculture, and for the constitution of a Board of Agriculture.

Several organizations have been established in recent years to act as advisory bodies in agricultural matters to Government and the Department of Agriculture. It has been thought desirable, by the constitution of a Board of Agriculture representative of all the agricultural interests of the Colony, to co-ordinate the work of these bodies and to prevent overlapping.

This Board of Agriculture, it is proposed in the first instance, shall be advisory to the Department of Agriculture and to Government.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Births and Deaths Registration Ordinance, 1895."

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Births and Deaths Registration Ordinance, 1895": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Births and Deaths Registration (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921," and shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by the Governor in Executive Council by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette."

Short title and commencement.

2 Section 7 of the principal Ordinance is amended—

Amendment of section 7 of the principal Ordinance.

(a) By striking out the word "Governor" in line 1 and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Registrar-General."

(b) By striking out the words "Registrar-General" in line 8 thereof.

3 Section 11 of the principal Ordinance is amended by striking out the word "Governor" in line 6 of sub-section (1) and inserting in line thereof the words "Registrar-General."

Amendment of section 11 of principal Ordinance.

4 Section 20 of the principal Ordinance is amended by striking out the words "and not more than seven years after the birth of any child" in lines 1 and 2 of paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) thereof.

Amendment of section 20 of principal Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, August 1, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

PROVISION is made in section 7 of the principal Ordinance for the appointment by the Governor of Registrars for each division created under section 6 of that Ordinance. As the provisions of that Ordinance are of a special character, it is thought well to give the Registrar-General power to appoint the registration officers.

2. As the Registrar-General is to be given the power to appoint registrars, it is thought well that he should also be empowered to prescribe the language in which they should practise, and this proposal is given effect to by the amendment of section 11.

3. The amendment of section 20 is with a view to the removal of the restriction which now exists on the registration of births after the lapse of seven years from the events. This provision seems to have been copied from the rules under the English Act of 1874, whereas no such restriction appears in the Act itself, nor in the Acts or regulations of Scotland and Ireland. No sufficient reason can be found for its continuance, while it has worked some hardship in certain cases.
