DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Births and Deaths Registration Ordinance, 1895."

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Births and Deaths Registration Ordinance, 1895": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Births and Deaths Registration (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1921," and shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by the Governor in Executive Council by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette."

Preamble.

Short title and commencement.

2 Section 7 of the principal Ordinance is amended—

Amendment of section 7 of the principal Ordinance.

(a) By striking out the word "Governor" in line 1 and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Registrar-General."

(b) By striking out the words "Registrar-General" in line 8 thereof.

3 Section 11 of the principal Ordinance is amended by striking out the word "Governor" in line 6 of sub-section (1) and inserting in line thereof the words "Registrar-General."

Amendment of section 11 of principal Ordinance.

4 Section 20 of the principal Ordinance is amended by striking out the words "and not more than seven years after the birth of any child" in lines 1 and 2 of paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) thereof.

Amendment of section 20 of principal Ordinance.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, August 1, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

PROVISION is made in section 7 of the principal Ordinance for the appointment by the Governor of Registrars for each division created under section 6 of that Ordinance. As the provisions of that Ordinance are of a special character, it is thought well to give the Registrar-General power to appoint the registration officers.

2. As the Registrar-General is to be given the power to appoint registrars, it is thought well that he should also be empowered to prescribe the language in which they should practise, and this proposal is given effect to by the amendment of section 11.

3. The amendment of section 20 is with a view to the removal of the restriction which now exists on the registration of births after the lapse of seven years from the events. This provision seems to have been copied from the rules under the English Act of 1874, whereas no such restriction appears in the Act itself, nor in the Acts or regulations of Scotland and Ireland. No sufficient reason can be found for its continuance, while it has worked some hardship in certain cases.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to regulate the Business of dealing in Old Metal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the business of dealers in old metal affords facilities for the disposal of stolen goods, and it is expedient that the same should be regulated in order to diminish such facilities: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Old Metal Ordinance, No. of 1921."

Definitions.

2 In this Ordinance unless the context otherwise requires—
 "Dealer in old metal" means any person dealing in, buying, and selling scrap metal, or broken metal, or partly manufactured metal goods, or defaced or old metal goods, or portions of machinery, or old metal of any other kind or description, whether such person deals in such articles exclusively or together with other things;
 "Old metal" means the said articles or any of them;
 "Local authority" means—
 (a) Within any Municipal limits, the Chairman of the Municipal Council;
 (b) In any place outside such limits, the Government Agent of the Province or Assistant Government Agent of the district;
 "Regulations" includes forms.

Dealers to be licensed.

3 It shall not be lawful for any person to carry on the business of a dealer in old metal unless he is duly licensed under this Ordinance.

Licenses.

4 (1) Licenses under this Ordinance shall be granted by and at the discretion of the local authority within whose administrative limits the premises to be licensed are situate.
 (2) No such license shall be granted without the previous report of the Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent of Police of the district, and before the expiration of twenty-one days at least after application in writing has been made therefor to the local authority.
 (3) Such licenses shall be in the form in schedule I. hereto, and shall be annual licenses terminating on the thirty-first day of December of the year for which they are granted. A fee of ten rupees shall be paid to the local authority for each such license.

(4) The local authority shall keep a register of the licenses so issued, and shall enter therein the number of the license, the name and place of abode of each dealer, and every place of business, warehouse, store, and place of deposit occupied or used by such dealer for the purpose of such business.

(5) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the local authority to grant a license may, within one month after such refusal has been communicated to him, appeal to the Governor in Executive Council, whose decision in the matter shall be final.

5 Over one of the principal entrances to the premises licensed under this Ordinance there shall be placed a board, on which shall be printed in legible letters of at least two inches in length the name in full of the person holding such license and the words "Licensed Dealer in Old Metal."

Signboard.

6 (1) Every dealer in old metal who is licensed as aforesaid shall conform to the following regulations, that is to say :

Regulations to be observed by licensed dealer.

(a) He shall keep a book or books fairly written, and shall enter therein, according to the form No. 1 in schedule II. hereto, an account of all such old metal as he is, or may from time to time become, possessed of, stating in respect of each article the name of the person who purchased or received the same and the price paid therefor, and the time at which and the name of the person from whom he purchased or received the same, adding, in the case of every such last-mentioned person, a description of his business and place of abode or of business; and he shall also enter in such book or books, according to form No. 2 in the said schedule, an account of all such old metal as he may from time to time sell or dispose of, stating in respect of such old metal the name of the person to whom and the time at which he sold or disposed of the same and the price received therefor, adding a description of his business and place of abode; and every such entry in any such book shall be deemed and taken, unless the contrary is shown, to have been made by or with the authority of the dealer in old metal to whom such book belongs;

(b) He shall not, by himself or by any other person, purchase or receive any old metal of any description before the hour of seven o'clock in the morning nor after the hour of six o'clock in the evening, nor shall he, by himself or by any other person, purchase or receive old metal of any description from any person apparently under the age of sixteen years, nor shall he employ any servant or apprentice or any other person under the age of twelve years to purchase or receive old metal of any description;

(c) He shall without delay give notice to the officer on duty at the police station nearest to the place where he carries on business, or if such police station is more than ten miles from such place of business, to the nearest peace officer, of any articles then in his possession, or which may thereafter come into his possession answering the description of any articles which have been stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently obtained, of which printed or written information containing a description of such articles is given to him by any officer of police or peace officer; and

(d) He shall keep all old metal purchased or received by him without changing the form in which the articles comprising the same were when so purchased, and without disposing of the same in any way, for a period of fifteen days after such articles have been purchased or received.

(2) (a) The Governor in Executive Council may make further regulations for the carrying out of the provisions of this section, and may amend, add to, or revoke any regulations contained in the said section or any such further regulations.

(b) Such further regulations, and any amendments, additions, or revocations of such further regulations or of any regulations contained in this section, shall forthwith be published in the "Government Gazette," and shall thenceforth be as valid and effectual as if they were contained in this Ordinance.

Power of entry and inspection.

7 (1) It shall be lawful for any officer of police, not below the rank of sergeant or any peace officer not below the rank of vidane arachchi, korala, or udaiyar, at any time when the licensed premises are open for business, to inspect any such book as is required to be kept under this Ordinance, or the old metal lying in the premises of any licensee under this Ordinance.

(2) Such licensee, or his representative, or the person in charge of such premises, or the person in whose custody or charge such book or old metal may be, or the person who shall have made any entry in such book with respect to which any such police officer may desire to ask any question, shall permit such officer to inspect such book or old metal, and shall answer all such questions as may be asked by such officer with reference to such book or old metal or to any of the entries or contents of such book.

Possession of old metal and not accounting for it.

8 If old metal is found in the possession or keeping of a person being in His Majesty's service, or in the service of a public department, or being a dealer in old metal, or a pawnbroker within the meaning of any enactments for the time being in force relating to such pawnbrokers, and he is taken or summoned before a Police Court, and the court sees reasonable grounds for believing the old metal found to be, or to have been, His Majesty's property, then, if such person does not satisfy the court that he came lawfully by the old metal so found, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

Criminal possession defined.

9 For the purposes of this Ordinance, old metal shall be deemed to be in the possession or keeping of any person if he knowingly has them in the actual possession or keeping of any other person, or in any house, building, lodging house, apartment, field, or place, open or enclosed, whether occupied by himself or not, and whether the same are so had for his own use or benefit, or for the use or benefit of another.

Penalties.

10 (1) Every person who shall do or omit to do anything which is by this Ordinance or by any regulation made thereunder forbidden or required to be done, or shall assault, resist, oppose, hinder, prevent, or obstruct any person acting under and by the authority of this Ordinance or of any regulation made thereunder, or shall in any way violate, or assist in, or be party to the violation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance or of any regulation made thereunder, or shall be guilty of any offence against this Ordinance, shall, on summary conviction before a Police Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, and, in default of payment of such fine, to imprisonment of either description for any term not exceeding six months.

Confiscation.

(2) All old metal seized under the provisions of this Ordinance may be forfeited.

Procedure and appeal.

11 All proceedings before any Police Magistrate under this Ordinance shall be conducted as nearly as may be according to the form of summary procedure, and shall be subject to the appeal provided by "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

Police Court to have jurisdiction.

12 (1) Any offence or any breach of regulations under this Ordinance may be inquired into, tried, and determined by any Police Court within whose jurisdiction such offence or breach was committed wholly or in part, and such court shall have jurisdiction to award the maximum punishment prescribed therefor, and to declare and adjudge any old metal seized under the provisions of this Ordinance forfeited, and to condemn the same whatever may be the amount or value thereof, anything in "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," to the contrary notwithstanding.

(2) The Police Court imposing a fine under this Ordinance may award to an informer any portion not exceeding a moiety thereof which may be actually recovered.

13 When any person licensed under this Ordinance is convicted of any offence against this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the convicting Magistrate, if he sees fit, to cancel the license of such person. Cancellation of licenses on conviction.

14 "The Old Metal Ordinance, 1905," is hereby repealed. Repeal.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, August 4, 1921.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

"THE Old Metal Ordinance, 1905," is based on an English Act, 24 & 25 Vict., Chap. 110, which deals with the same subject. The carrying on of this business gives wide opportunities for disposing of stolen goods, and as a result the law in England was amended by the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907.

"The Old Metal Ordinance, 1905," does not come into operation until a dealer in old metal has been convicted of an offence under that Ordinance, and directed to be registered under its provisions. In the present Bill it is proposed to adopt the requirements of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, and provide for the registration of all dealers in old metal.

The provisions of the Bill are to all intents and purposes similar to those of the existing law, the great difference being that, as required by the English law, all dealers in old metal must, whether they have been convicted or not, be registered.

There is one provision of the Bill to which it may be well to call attention. Under section 7 (1) (c) of "The Old Metal Ordinance, 1905," a dealer must keep all old metal purchased or received by him without changing the form in which the articles comprising the same were when so purchased for a period of forty-eight hours. The Inspector-General of Police has stated that this period is much too short to allow of the necessary inquiries being made, and for that purpose the period has been extended to fifteen days.
