Every such licensee shall wear in a conspicuous place on his right arm a metal badge bearing his licensed number.

It shall be lawful for the Chairman before granting the license to make or cause to be made such inquiry as he may consider necessary regarding the character of the applicant for license and his physical fitness for the work of pulling or drawing a jinricksha, and to examine him or cause him to be examined as to his knowledge of the rule of the road. It shall be lawful for the Chairman to refuse to grant a license to any applicant, and also to cancel, withdraw, or suspend any license granted by him for such grounds as to him may seem reasonable.

10. No person shall act as a driver of any licensed carriage which is drawn by a horse or of a licensed buggy which is drawn by a pony or horse or of a licensed hackery which is drawn by a bull, unless he shall have first obtained a license from the Chairman of the Local Board.

11. The Chairman shall, on the application of any person for a license to act as a driver of any licensed carriage, satisfy himself that the applicant is of good character and is competent to fulfil the duties of a driver. On being so satisfied he shall cause the applicant to be registered as a "licensed driver."

On being so registered a license renewable annually shall be issued to each driver, together with a metal badge bearing his license number. The driver shall we this bearing his license number. The driver shall we metal badge in a conspicuous place on the right arm

13. The license so issued shall on application be renewed annually on or after March 31. It shall be lawful for the Chairman at any time to cancel, withdraw, or suspend, or to refuse to renew such license on his being satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so.

14. (1) Any person who shall act as a driver of a licensed carriage without having obtained a license or after it has been cancelled, withdrawn, or suspended, or its renewal refused;

(2) Any licensed driver or licensee of a licensed carriage who shall commit any breach of the foregoing by-laws;

(3) Any licensee of a licensed carriage who shall suffer it to be driven by a person other than a licensed driver, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable for each such offence to the penalty prescribed under section 21 of the Ordinance.

GOVERNMENT CLERICAL EXAMINATION, 1922.

TOTICE is hereby given that an examination for candidates wishing to enter Class II., Grade III., of the Clerical Branch of the Public Service will take place annually, commencing on the third Tuesday in April. The next examination will commence on April 18, 1922.

- 2. Applications for admission to the examination by persons not now in the Public Service must be addressed to the Director of Education, bearing a duly cancelled stamp of Rs. 10, and in the prescribed form (Schedule A), which can be obtained at the Education Office on application. A certificate of the registration of the candidate's birth, showing him to have been born on or after April 20, 1899, but not later than April 19, 1905, and a certificate of good character signed by a responsible person,* to the satisfaction of the Director of Education, must be attached to the form of application. If a certificate of birth for a previous examination has been already sent in, and is filed in the Education Office, it will be sufficient to refer to the name and date of that examination. Affidavits will not be accepted. In the case of candidates who submit certificates of registration from the register of past births, the certificates will be accepted only after consideration of the evidence by which the dates of birth were established. If the name appearing in the birth register differs, either by alteration or addition, from the name by which the candidate is known, the parent or guardian should, before obtaining a certificate, apply to the Registrar-General or his Assistant for such alteration in the manner set forth in section 7 of Ordinance No. 23 of 1900. Certificates of birth issued for the purposes of the Code for Aided Schools will not be accepted for this examination. This examination is confined to British subjects whose families are permanently resident in the Island.
- 3. Clerks in Government Service (other than members of the Customs, Postal, Survey, or Railway Departments), from whatever funds they may be paid, who have completed three years' service, and whose service has been throughout satisfactory, are eligible for examination, irrespective of age and without fee. Their applications (in the same form, Schedule A) for admission to the examination should be forwarded to the Director of Education through the Heads of their Departments.
- 4. All Government Clerks within the age prescribed in paragraph 2 above will be admitted without fee, even though they have not completed three years' service under Government.
- 5. Applications should reach the Director of Education not later than 2 P.M. on February 11, 1922, any applications received after that hour will be rejected.
- 6. The Director of Education will return to the candidate his application, approved or disapproved as the case may be, after taking, if necessary, the orders of Government thereon. The approved application shall constitute the candidate's ticket of admission to the examination. Candidates presenting themselves for examination must produce to the officer appointed to supervise the examination their forms of application approved by the Director of Education. A candidate not producing such form will be refused admittance to the examination.
- 7. The examination will be held at Colombo only, under the supervision of the Director of Education, in the places which will be notified to the candidates in due course. Heads of Departments are required to grant leave, to present themselves at the examination, to officers of their Departments whose applications to present themselves for examination have been returned to them approved by the Director of Education.
- 8. The examination will be competitive. The number of places assigned for general competition will be twenty-four.
- 9. The successful candidates will be required to pass a medical examination as to their physical fitness for service in any part of the Island.
- 10. The subjects for examination are those set out in Schedule B of this notice. The examination will be held in two parts. The first part is a qualifying examination in Handwriting, Spelling, and Arithmetic. Any candidate failing to obtain two-thirds of the marks allotted for Handwriting or half those allowed for Spelling or for Arithmetic will be excluded from the remainder of the examination. Special attention will be paid to Handwriting, and candidates whose writing is untidy or illegible or contains defects in the formation of letters will be rigorously excluded. The kind of writing preferred is that generally known as the "Civil Service" hand. The second part of the examination will be in the remaining subjects in Schedule B. Credit will not be given for any paper in which a candidate scores less than 30 per cent. of the maximum marks. In all the written papers marks will be deducted for bad writing and mistakes in spelling.
- 11. Clerks admitted under paragraph 3 will be allowed to compete amongst themselves, and will be eligible, if they obtain a minimum of 66 per cent. in Writing and 33 per cent. in Spelling and Arithmetic and 30 per cent. in other subjects, for twelve of the appointments.
- 12. The Government does not undertake to provide the successful candidates with posts immediately, but they will be given appointments as suitable vacancies occur.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, November 25, 1921. Graeme Thomson, Colonial Secretary.

^{*} If the candidate has been educated at a Government or grant-in-aid school, the certificate must be from the Principal of the last Government or grant-in-aid school which he has attended.

NOTICES CALLING FOR TENDERS.

VENDERS are hereby invited for the supply of broad L gauge sleepers up to a total of 50,000 sleepers more or less from private lands for the Ceylon Government Railway Extensions delivered at any approved Railway Stations in the Island in accordance with the following specifications and conditions:-

Tenders may be made for quantities of 1,000 sleepers and upwards.

3. Broad gauge sleepers for 5 ft. 6 in. gauge railway shall have the following dimensions, 9 feet long, 10 in. wide, and 5 in., deep.

The sleepers shall be of good, sound, strong timber cut from the following woods only, viz :-

Palu, Milla, Halmilla, Red Dun, Hulan Hik, Satinwood, Rani, and Na.

The following additional species of timber will be accepted for sleepers. Any one or all of them may be withdrawn from the list of timbers after due notice being given :-

Ubberiya, Godapara, Tumpalai, Suriya, and Kolon. 4. The sleepers shall be free from sapwood, dry rot, knot holes, and shall be cut square and straight, a camber of ½ an inch is allowed.

5. The sleepers shall be cut with an allowance of a 1 of an inch width and an eight of an inch in thickness, to allow for shrinkage, and no further allowance shall be made.

The length specified shall be subject to a variation of 1 in., either way.

- 7. The sleepers should have sound gum veins, and may have gum pockets up to 6 in. by § in., sap or wane not to exceed 2 in. on either face and not to come under rail seat. Knots shall be allowed up to 2 in. diameter as long as they are sound and firm.
- All sleepers must be stacked in their respective species.
 Sleepers shall be subject to inspection. The rate per sleeper is Rs. 6·40.

10. Inspection will only be made on quantities of 500 sleepers and upwards at a time. 11. Sleepers rejected on inspection will not be considered part of the contract, but will be appropriated by the Railway Extensions Department and paid for at the following rates, i.e., 1st rejections Rs. 2.40 per sleeper, 2nd rejections Re. 1.80 per sleeper, 3rd rejections 30 cents per sleeper, and may not be claimed or removed by the contractor.

12. All tenders should be in duplicate and sealed under one cover and should be addressed to the Chairman of the Tender Board Office of the Controller of Revenue.

13. Tenders should be either be deposited in the tender box in the office of the Controller of Revenue or sent through the post.

Tenders should be marked "Tenders for Sleepers." in the left hand top corner of the envelope, and should reach the office of the Controller of Revenue not later than noon, on Tuesday, December 6, 1921.

The tenders are to be made on forms which will be supplied upon application at the office of the Chief Construction Engineer, and no tender will be considered unless it is on the recognized form. Alterations must be initialled, otherwise the tenders may be treated as informal and rejected.

Contractors are expected to commence supplying 16. soon after the contract is entered into by the successful tenderers and to supply the sleepers at the rate of not less than 250 sleepers per month on contracts of 1,000 sleepers and proportionately on larger contracts.

17. A cash deposit of Rs. 100 will be required to be made at the General Treasury or at any Kachcheri, and a receipt produced for the same before any form of tender is assued. Should any person decline to enter into contract and bond after he has tendered or fail to furnish the approved security within ten days of receiving notice in writing of the acceptance of the tender, such deposit will be forfeited to the Crown, and the defaulter will render himself liable to be included in the list of defaulting contractors precluded from having any concern in a Government contract. All other deposits will be returned upon signature to the contract. No deposits for tender forms will be accepted at the Chief Construction Engineer's Office.

18. The successful tenderers will be required to furnish cash security of Rs. 1,000 to Rs. 5,000 according to the quantity contracted for and to sign the bond given in the tender for the due fulfilment of the contract; also to furnish with each tender a letter in duplicate signed by two responsible persons, whose addresses must be given, engaging to become an additional security for the due performance of the contract. The amount deposited for tender forms will form part of the security. In addition to this a retention of 5 per cent. will also be held out of the money due to the contractor.

19. Contracts may not be assigned, sublet, or otherwise transferred without the previous written sanction of the Chief Construction Engineer. Sanction will not be given for any transfers, including powers of attorney, in favour of persons in the defaulting contractors' list. No defaulting contractor should be employed on any service connected with the contract.

No tenders will be considered unless in respect of it all the conditions above laid down have been strictly fulfilled.

21. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

22. Any further information can be obtained on application to the Chief Construction Engineer, Colombo.

M. COLE BOWEN, Chief Construction Engineer, Railway Extensions.

November 18, 1921.

Separate Tenders will be received by the Chairman, Sanitary Board, Kandy District, for the purchase of the privilege of selling at the Sanitary Board market at Teldeniya in Pata Dumbara, and for the right to sell beef, mutton, and fish at the beef, mutton, and fish stalls, respectively, at the Sanitary Board market at Norwood in Uda Bulatgama for a period of one year from January 1, 1922, to December 31, 1922.

Tenders which must be in sealed envelopes and on account of which the tender is made should be stated on the outside, and they should reach the Kachcheri not later than 12 noon, on Thursday, December 8, 1921.

Chairman does not bind himself to accept the highest or any tender.

The rents should be payable in advance.

5. For further particulars apply to the Chairman, Sanitary Board, Kandy District.

The Kachcheri. Kandy, November 21, 1921. T. G. WILLETT. for Chairman.

Amended Notice.

TENDERS are hereby invited for the purchase of the following old material from persons willing to buy same, viz. :-

Old cast iron (broken up castings) ... 100 tons. The above quantity is approximate.

2. All tenders should be in duplicate and sealed under one cover, and should be addressed to the Chairman of the Tender Board, Office of the Controller of Revenue, Colombo.

Tenders should either be deposited in the tender box in the Office of the Controller of Revenue, or be sent through the post.

Tenders should be marked "Tender for the purchase of Old Material" in the left hand corner of the envelope, and should reach the Office of the Controller of Revenue not later than midday on December 6, 1921.

5. The tenders are to be made upon forms which will be supplied upon application at the Office of the Harbour Engineer, and no tender will be considered unless it is on the recognized form.

6. A deposit of Rs. 100 will be required to be made either at the Treasury or Kachcheri, and a receipt produced for the same before any form of tender is issued; and should the person whose tender has been accepted decline to make payment and take delivery of the articles in question, or fail to remove them within the time specified by the Harbour Engineer, such deposit shall be forfeited to the Crown. Should, however, he pay the charges due and remove the material in the specified time, the deposit of Rs. 100 will be refunded. The deposit of all other tenderers whose tender has not been accepted will be refunded to them.

7. Tenderers are requested to inspect the old material before tendering, which can be seen on application at the Office of the Harbour Engineer; and once a tender has been accepted, no excuse whatever as regards the quality, &c., of the material will be accepted by the Harbour Engineer.

8. Payment must be made within three days after notification of acceptance of tender, and the material must be removed within one month from date of payment.

9. All alterations or erasures in tenders should bear the initials of the tenderers, otherwise the tenders will be treated as informal and rejected.

10. No tender will be considered unless in respect of it all the conditions above laid down have been strictly fulfilled. Any offers received containing conditions outside the specification will be rejected without question.

11. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

UNOFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

OF ASSOCIATION OF E. COATES AND COMPANY (GALLE), LIMITED.

The name of the Company is "E. COATES AND COMPANY (GALLE), LIMITED."

The registered office of the Company will be situate in Colombo.

The objects for which the Company is established are :-

(a) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business of merchants, manufacturers, and commission agents formerly carried on at Galle, and elsewhere in the Island of Ceylon by E. Coates & Co., together with all or any of the property and assets of the said business or held or used in connection therewith, either subject or not subject to all or any of the liabilities of the said business, and to carry on and develop the said business.

(b) To carry on in Ceylon and elsewhere the businesses of general merchants, dealers in Ceylon and other produce, manufacturers, financiers, financial agents, contractors, planters, farmers, storekeepers, wharfingers, millowners, shipowners, barge-owners, lightermen, warehousemen, carriers, forwarding and commission agents, brokers, underwriters, importers, and exporters, and any other trades or businesses which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above-mentioned businesses, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of, or render profitable, any of the Company's property

(c) To purchase, sell, export, import, manufacture, grow, prepare for market, and deal in all kinds of merchandise, produce, commodities, articles, and things which may be required for the purposes of any of the businesses which the Company is authorized to carry on, or which are commonly produced, dealt in, or used by persons engaged in any such business, or which may seem capable of being profitably or conveniently produced, dealt in, or used in connection with any such business.

(d) To construct, make, build, erect, maintain, alter, or improve any buildings, roads, tramways, railways, bridges, canals, water-courses, works, machinery, ships, or other craft and conveniences necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company, or any of them, or which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to be for the benefit of the Company.

(e) Generally to purchase, rent, take on lease or in exchange, hire, charter, or otherwise acquire any property whatsoever and wheresoever, whether immovable or movable, real or personal, or any interest therein, or any rights or privileges which may be considered desirable in the interest of the Company, and to develop and turn to account any property, rights, or privileges for the time being belonging to the Company.

(f) To lend money either with or without security and generally on such terms as may seem expedient, and to guarantee the payment of money or the performance of any contract or other obligation by any other Company or person, and to receive money on deposit.

(g) To draw, make, accept, issue, endorse, or discount bills of exchange, cheques, promissory notes, drafts, and other negotiable or transferable instruments.

(h) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, or any of them, in such manner and upon such terms as may seem expedient.

(i) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the immovable and movable or real or personal property of the Company, whether present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company.

(j) To secure the payment of any moneys borrowed or raised or owing or the performance of obligations incurred by the Company by the creation and issue of redeemable or irredeemable or perpetual bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, or by mortgages, charges, or other securities, and to further secure or collaterally secure any securities of the Company by a trust deed or otherwise, and to confer upon the trustees of any such trust deed all such powers of management and realization, and also such powers of supervision, control, veto, and otherwise as the Company may consider expedient.

(k) To issue any shares or securities which the Company has power to issue either at par or at a premium, or as regards securities at a discount.

(1) To issue any shares or securities which the Company has power to issue as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price of any property acquired by the Company or in consideration of services rendered to the Company or other valuable consideration.

(m) To enter into any arrangements, with any authorities supreme, Municipal, or local or otherwise, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, concessions, charters, or privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and advantages.

(n) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, goodwill, assets, or liabilities of any Company or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of the Company, and so that any business (including the business mentioned in sub-clause (a) of this clause) may be purchased as from a past date on the footing that the profits derived therefrom and from the assets employed therein down to the date of actual purchase may be treated as profits of the Company and dealt with on that footing whether the Company was or was not in existence at the time when such profits were actually earned.

(o) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, reciprocal concession, or co-operation either in whole or in part with any such Company or person as is mentioned in the last preceding sub-clause.

To purchase, subscribe for, underwrite, guarantee, issue on commission, take, acquire, hold, dispose of, and deal in any shares or securities of any such Company as is mentioned in sub-clause (n) of this clause, or any other stocks, shares, or securities which may seem to the Company capable of being profitably dealt in or held.

(q) To sell, exchange, let on rent, royalty, or share of profits, surrender, or otherwise deal with either absolutely conditionally, or for any limited interest, all or any part of the undertaking, property, rights, or privileges of the Company as may from time to time be determined

(r) To promote, establish, form, organize, and register, or to aid or assist in the promotion, establishment, formation, organization, and registration of any other Company for the purpose of purchasing or otherwise acquiring, working, or otherwise dealing with all or any part of the business or undertaking, any assets or liabilities of the Company or any property in which the Company is interested, or for any other purpose with power to assist any such Company by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof or by taking or subscribing for shares, preferred, ordinary, or deferred therein, or by lending money thereto, or partly in one mode and partly in another.

(s) To pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other Company, and to the issue, underwriting, or subscription of its shares or securities, including brokerage and commission for obtaining applications for or placing or guaranteeing the placing thereof.

(t) To obtain or in any way assist in obtaining any provisional order, Act of Parliament, Ordinance, statue, decree, rescript, or other necessary authority for enabling this or any other Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of this or any other Company's constitution or to procure this or any other Company to be legalized, registered, or incorporated, if necessary, in accordance with the laws of any country or state in which it may or may propose to carry on operations.

u) To distribute any of the assets or property of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction (if any) for the time

(v) To make pecuniary grants by way of donation, subscription allowance, gratuity, guarantee, or otherwise, to or for the benefit of persons who are or have been employed by the Company and the widows, or phans, and dependents of any such persons, and to or in aid of associations or funds for the benefit of any of those objects and to hospitals and for other charitable or benevolent objects.

(w) To make pecuniary grants by way of donation, subscription, or otherwise, to or in aid of associations, societies, and other organizations, or for the defence, protection, indemnification, or advantage of Companies or others, or for the promotion of or opposition to any scheme in connection with traders, either general or of any special description, or for the promotion of or opposition to any legislative measures or for any similar purpose.

- (x) To do all or any of the above things either as principals, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents or otherwise, and with power to appoint a trustee or trustees, corporate or incorporate, to hold any property on behalf of the Company and to allow any property to remain outstanding in such trustee or trustees.
- (y) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in this clause when applied otherwise than to this Company shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and whether domiciled or constituted in Ceylon or elsewhere, and that the objects specified in each of the sub-clauses (a) to (y), inclusive, of this clause shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in no wise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such sub-clause) by reference to the objects indicated in any other sub-clause or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent Company.

The liability of the members is limited.

5. The nominal Capital of the Company is Rupees 500,000, divided into 50,000 shares of Rupees 10 each.

Any new shares of the Company from time to time to be created may from time to time be issued with any preferential, deferred, qualified or special rights, privileges conditions or advantages over or as compared with any shares previously issued or to be thereafter issued whether in respect of dividend or repa ment of capital or both, and whether with any special right of voting or without any right of voting and capacity on such towards and the Company in the control of the company is the control of the control with any special right of voting or without any right of voting, and generally on such terms as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine, but so, nevertheless, that the rights or privileges attached to any special class or classes of shares may be effected, altered, modified, or dealt with in accordance with the provisions in that behalf contained in clause 38 of the Articles of Association of the Company.

We, the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed, are desirous of being formed into a Company in pursuance of this Memorandum of Association, and we respectively agree to take the number of shares in the capital of the Company set opposite our respective names:-

Words denoting the singular number include the plural and vice versa, words referring to males include females words importing persons include Corporations, and words or expressions defined in the Ordinances bear the same meaning in these presents.

Business.

The Company shall as speedily as possible after the incorporation of the Company proceed to acquire the business referred to in clause 3 (a) of the Memorandum of Association, and shall obtain the execution of all such deeds and documents requisite for vesting in the Company the property referred to in the said clause. The Company being established on the basis that it shall acquire the business and property mentioned in the said clause, it shall be no objection that the vendors are in a fiduciary position towards the Company or that there is no independent Board of Directors, nor shall any claim be made against any of the vendors on any such ground. And every member of the Company (present or future) shall be deemed to have joined the Company on this basis.

No part of the funds of the Company shall be applied in the purchase of or lent on the security of shares in the Company, but without prejudice to the provisions of these presents as to lien.

5. The office shall be situate in Colombo.

SHARES.

6. The shares shall be at the disposal of the Directors who may allot or otherwise dispose of them to such persons at such times and upon such terms as they may think proper, but the Company in General Meeting may at any time give any directions with regard to the allotment or disposal of any unissued shares.

7. If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any one of such persons may give effectual receipts for any dividends or other money payable in respect of such share.

8. Not more than four persons shall be registered as the joint-holders of any share.

No person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or recognize any equitable, contingent, future, or partial interest in any share.

CERTIFICATES.

10. Every member shall without payment be entitled to one certificate under the seal specifying the shares held by him and the amount paid up thereon, provided that in the case of joint holders the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate to all the joint holders, and delivery of such certificate to any one of them shall be sufficient delivery to all.

11. If any certificate is worn out or lost it may be renewed on payment of one rupee or such less sum as the Directors may prescribe, and in case of wearing out on delivery up of the old certificate and in case of loss on such proof of loss and the execution of such indemnity (if any) as the Directors shall require.

LIEN.

- 12. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien and charge on all the shares registered in the name of a member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon all dividends thereon for all money owing to the Company by him or his estates, solely or jointly with any other person, on any account whatever, whether such money is presently payable or not.
- For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they may think fit, but no sale shall be made until the money is presently payable and until a demand and notice in writing stating the amount due and demanding payment and giving notice of intention to sell in default shall have been served on such member or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares, and default in payment shall have been made by him for e en days after such notice.

The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the amount due, and the residue

(if any) shall be paid to the member or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares.

15. Upon any such sale as aforesaid the Directors may enter the purchaser's name in the register as the holder of the shares, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity or validity of the sale or be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings or be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the register the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

CALLS ON SHARES.

16. The Directors may subject to the regulations of these presents from time to time make such calls upon the members in respect of all money unpaid on their respective shares (other than money which by the terms of allotment are made payable on allotment or at a fixed date) as they may think fit, provided that en days' notice at least is given of each call specifying the amount thereof and the persons to whom and the times and places at which it is to be paid, and each member shall be liable to pay the amount of every call so made upon him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors.

17. A call may be made by instalments.
18. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorizing such call was passed.

The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all calls in respect thereof 19. If before or on the day appointed for payment thereof a call payable in respect of a share is not paid, the holder for the time being thereof shall be liable to pay interest on the amount of the call at the rate of 5 per cent, per annum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment, but the Directors may, if they think fit, remit all or any of such interest. Any sum which by the terms of allotment of a share is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed date shall for all purposes of these presents (except as regards the notice required to be given of a call) be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment thereof, and in case of non-payment the provisions of these presents as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, and the like, and all other the relevant provisions of these presents shall apply as if such sum were a call duly made and notified as hereby provided.

22. The Directors may from time to time make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and in the time of payment of such calls.

23. No Shareholder shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to be present or vote at any meeting or upon a poll or to exercise any privilege as a member until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share held by him, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any).

TRANSFER OF SHARES.

24. Subject to the restrictions of these presents any member may transfer his share in the usual common form, but every transfer must be left at the office, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred and such other evidence (if any) as the Directors may require to prove the title of the intending transferor. A fee not exceeding one rupee for each transfer may be charged for registration.

25. The instrument of transfer of a share shall be executed both by the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.

26. The Register of Transfers shall be closed during the 14 days immediately preceding every Ordinary General Meeting of the Company and at such other times (if any) and for such period as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that it shall not be closed for more than 21 days in any year.

27. The Directors may refuse to register any transfer of shares (whether on sale or otherwise) upon which the Company is entitled to a lien or to a person to whom they may object, and in the latter case they shall not be bound to give any reason for their refusal.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

28. In case of the death of a member if he was one of two or more joint-holders, the survivors or survivor of such joint-holders, and if he was a sole holder, his executors or administrators, shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the shares, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint-holder from any liability in respect of any share jointly held by him.

29. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, may (subject as hereinafter provided) upon producing such evidence of title as the Directors may require, either be registered himself as holder thereof or may elect to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof.

30. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing stating that he so elects. For all purposes of these presents relating to the registration of transfers of shares such notice shall be deemed to be a transfer, and the Directors shall have the same power of refusing to give effect thereto by registration as if the event upon which the transmission took place had not occurred and the notice were a transfer executed by the person from whom the title by transmission is derived.

31. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to have his nominee registered, he shall testify his election by executing to his nominee a transfer of such share. The Directors shall have in respect of transfers or executed the same power of refusing to give effect thereto by registration as if the event upon which the transmission took place had not occurred and the transfer were a transfer executed by the person from whom the title by transmission is derived.

32. A person entitled to a share by transmission shall be entitled (subject to any lien of the Company) to receive and may give a discharge for any dividend bonus or other money payable in respect of the share, but he shall not be entitled to receive notices of or to attend or vote at meetings of the Company, or save as aforesaid to any of the rights and privileges of a member unless and until he shall have been registered as a member in respect thereof.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL.

33. The Company may from time to time, whether all the shares for the time being authorized shall have been issued or all the shares for the time being issued shall have been fully called up or not by Extraordinary Resolution, increase its capital by the creation and issue of new shares, such aggregate increase to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts and having such attributes as the Company by the Extraordinary Resolution authorizing such increase directs.

Subject to any directions that may be given by resolution under the powers contained in the Memorandum of Association or these presents relating to the issue of new shares, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, lien, and otherwise as if it had been part of the original capital.

The Company may by Special Resolution do the following things or any of them :-

(a) Consolidate and divide its capital or any part thereof into shares of larger amount than its existing shares.

(b) By subdivision of its existing shares, or any of them, divide its capital or any part thereof into shares of smaller amount.

(c) Reduce its capital or any part thereof in any manner authorized by law.

36. Anything done in pursuance of the last preceding Article shall be done in manner provided by the Ordinances so far as they shall be applicable and so far as they shall not be applicable in accordance with the terms of the Special Resolution authorizing the same and so far as such resolution shall not be applicable in such manner as the Directors may deem most expedient.

37. The Special Resolution whereby any share is subdivided may determine that as between the holders of shares resulting from such subdivision one or more of such shares shall have any preference over the other or others.

ALTERATION OF RIGHTS.

38. The rights or privileges of the holders of any special classes of shares into which the capital of the Company may from time to time be divided may be affected, altered, modified, or dealt with in any manner with the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the members holding the class of shares whose rights are to be so affected, altered, modified, or dealt with. To any such General Meeting all the provisions of these present, applicable to General Meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be members of the class holding or representing by proxy two-thirds of the capital credited as paid on the issued shares of the class, and so that in case of a poll every member shall have one vote for every share of the class held by him.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

39. The first General Meeting shall be held at such time within one year after the registration of the Company and at such place as the Directors may determine.

40. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year and at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no time or place be so prescribed, then at such time and place as may from time to time be determined by the Directors.

41. The above-mentioned General Meetings shall be called Ordinary Meetings, all other General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary.

42. The Directors may call an Extraordinary Meeting whenever they may think fit.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS.

43. Seven days' notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which the notice is given) specifying the place, the day, and the hour of meeting, and, in case of special business, the general nature of such business, shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to such members as are for the time being under these presents entitled to receive notices from the Company. But the accidental ommission to give such notice to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any member shall not invalidate any resolution passed or proceedings had at any such meeting.

44. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting, and all that is transacted that is transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting at a second at a seco at an ordinary Meeting shall also be deemed special with the exception of sanctioning or declaring a dividend, the consider ation of the accounts and balance sheets, and the ordinary reports of the Directors and Auditors, and the election of Directors and other officers in the place of those retiring by rotation or otherwise.

Any member entitled to be present and vote at a meeting may submit any resolution to any General Meeting, provided that at least four clear days and not more than fourteen clear days before the day appointed for the meeting he shall have served upon the Company a notice in writing signed by him or by his duly authorized representative containing the proposed resolution and stating his intention to submit the same.

Upon receipt of any such notice as in the last preceding Article mentioned the Directors shall include in the notice of the meeting, in any case where the notice of intention is received before the notice of the meeting is issued, and shall in any other case issue as quickly as possible to the members notice that such resolution will be proposed.

47. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of at least two members entitled to vote is present when the meeting proceeds to business. For the purpose of the quorum a member shall not be deemed present unless present in person.

48. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened on the requisition of members shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the meeting shall be adjourned sine die.

49. The Chairman, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, may adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place as the meeting shall determine. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid the members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

50. The Chairman (if any) of the Board of Directors shall preside at every General Meeting, but if there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to act as Chairman, the members present shall choose some Director, or if no Director be

- be present, or all the Directors present decline to take the chair, some member present to be Chairman of the Meeting.

 51. At every General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands by a majority of the members present in person or by attorney (not being a Shareholder) and entitled to vote, unless before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll be demanded by the Chairman of the meeting or by two or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poli be demanded by the Chairman of the meeting of by two or more-members present in person or by proxy or attorney and entitled to vote, or by one member holding not less than one-tenth of the issued share capital for the time being present in person or by proxy or attorney and entitled to vote, and unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or has been carried or not carried by a particular majority, or lost, shall be conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company shall be sufficient evidence thereof without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
- 52. If a poll be demanded in manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place either at once or after an adjournment and in such manner as the Chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the - resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

 53. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting, or on any question of adjournment. In the case of an equality of votes either on a show of hands or at the poll, the Chairman of the meeting at 54. which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, as the case may be, shall be entitled to a further or casting vote. 55. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

Votes of Members.

56. On a show of hands every member personally present and entitled to vote shall have one vote only, and proxies shall not be taken into account, but where a Shareholder is present by an attorney (who is not a Shareholder), such attorney shall be entitled to vote for such Shareholder on a show of hands. In case of a poll every member present personally or by proxy or attorney shall have one vote for every share held by the member.

57. If two or more persons are jointly entitled to a share, the member whose name stands first in the register of members and no other shall, unless the Directors otherwise determine, be entitled to vote in respect thereof. If any member be a lunatic or idiot or non compos mentis, he may vote by his committee curator bonis or other legal curator who may vote either personally or by proxy, and if such committee or curator is present in person at a meeting, the member who he represents shall be deemed to be present in person thereat.

Votes may be given either personally or by proxy or attorney.

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor, or if such appointor is a 59. corporation, under their common seal (if any), and if none, then under the hand of some officer duly authorized in that behalf.

No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a member of the Company entitled on his own behalf to be present and vote at the meeting or meetings for which the proxy is given. But this Article shall not apply to an attorney nor to any proxy appointed by the holder of shares to the face value of one-tenth part of the whole of the capital issued for the time being.

61. The instrument appointing a proxy or attorney shall be deposited at the office at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote, otherwise such proxy or attorney shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

62. An instrument appointing a proxy may be in either of the following forms:-

Each of the Directors shall have the right and power to nominate in writing any person to act as alternate Director in his place and stead during his absence from Ceylon, and on such appointment being made the alternate Director shall (except as regards remuneration and except as otherwise provided by these Articles) be subject in all respects to the terms and conditions of these Articles applicable to Directors of the Company, and each alternate Director whilst acting in the place of an absent Director shall exercise and discharge all the rights, powers, and duties of the Director he replaced. including a right where applicable to act as Chairman of the Board.

66. In case any alternate Director shall die or vacate his office or be removed during the absence from Ceylon of the Director whom he replaced, the vacancy so arising may be filled up in writing by such last-named Director.

The appointment of an alternate Director shall be cancelled and the alternate Director shall cease to hold office whenever the Director who appointed him shall return to Ceylon or shall cease to be a Director or shall give notice in writing to the Secretary of the Company that the alternate Director representing him has ceased to do so.

68. An instrument appointing an alternate Director shall, as near as circumstances shall admit, be in the following form or to the following effect:-

E. Coates & Co. (Galle), Ltd.

-, Director of E. Coates & Co. (Galle), Ltd., in pursuance of the power in that behalf contained in the Articles of Association of the Company, do hereby nominate and appoint ———— to act as alternate Director in my place during my absence from Ceylon, to exercise and discharge all my powers and duties as a Director of the Company.

-. 19 - day of -As witness my hand this -

69. The remuneration of the Directors shall be such annual sum to be divided in such manner as shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting—a Director shall also be paid his travelling and hotel expenses incurred in attending Directors Meetings or General Meetings or otherwise in connection with the Company's business.

70. The qualification of a Director shall be the holding in his own name alone or jointly with any other person of one share in the Company. A Director requiring a qualification may act before acquiring his qualification but any Director requiring a qualification shall acquire the same within three months after he has become a Director, and unless he shall do so his office shall ipso facto be vacated.

71. The Directors may appoint any of their number to be a Managing Director, and the remuneration of a Managing Director may (subject to the provisions of any contract between him and the Company) be fixed from time to time by the Directors, and may be by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or by any or all of these methods or otherwise.

If any of the Directors shall hold any other office in the Company or be called upon to perform extra services or to make any journey for any of the purposes of the Company or the business thereof, the Company may pay the expenses of such Director and remunerate him by a fixed sum or salary or commission or a percentage of profits or by any or all of these methods or otherwise as may be determined by the Directors, and such remuneration may be in addition to or in substitution for his remuneration hereinbefore provided.

ROTATION AND APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS.

73. Subject to the provisions of these Articles at the first Ordinary Meeting of the Company, other than the Statutory Meeting, and at each succeeding Ordinary Meeting, one-third of the Directors for the time being or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to but not exceeding one-third shall retire from office.

74. The Directors to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election. but as between persons who became Directors on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

75. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.76. The Company at the General Meeting at which a Director retires in manner aforesaid may fill up the vacated office by electing a person thereto.

77. If at any meeting at which an election of Directors ought to take place the places of the vacating Directors are not filled up, the vacating Directors, or such of them as have not had their places filled up, shall be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at such meeting it is determ ned to the contrary.

78. The Directors or the Company in General Meeting shall have power at any time or times to appoint a qualified person to be a Director, but so that the total number of the Directors shall not exceed the maximum number for the time being fixed under these Articles, and any Director so appointed by the Directors shall hold office only until the next following Ordinary Meeting of the Company, and shall then be eligible for re-election.

79. No person other than a retiring Director shall, unless recommended by the Directors for election, be eligible for election as a Director at any General Meeting, unless a member has at least fourteen clear days before the meeting left at the office a notice in writing under his hand, signifying his intention to propose such person for election, accompanied by a notice in writing signed by the person to be proposed stating his consent to be elected.

80. The Company in General Meeting may at any time or times increase or reduce the maximum or minimum number of Directors as fixed above to such number as the Company may think fit, and alter the rotation in which the Directors are to go out of office.

81. The Company may by Extraordinary Resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of the Derson in his stead: the person so appointed shall be subject to office, and may by Ordinary Resolution appoint another person in his stead; the person so appointed shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a Director on the day on which the Director in whose place he is appointed commenced his then current period of office.

If at any time there should be less than two Directors (including alternate Directors) holding office in Ceylon, a General Meeting of Shareholders shall forthwith be convened by the remaining Director or alternate Director in office, or if there be no such Director in office, then by the Secretary or Acting Secretary or other senior official of the Company resident in Ceylon, and the Shareholders shall by resolution determine on the appointment of a Director or Directors and as to his or their terms of remuneration and period of office.

DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS.

- 83. The office of a Director shall be vacated if the Director-
- (a) Ceases to be a Director by virtue of the Ordinances;
- (b) Resigns his office by a notice in writing under his hand which is left at the office and is accepted or remains unwithdrawn for one month or
- (c) Becomes bankrupt; or(d) Is found a lunatic or becomes of unsound mind.

THE SEAL.

84. The Seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the Directors. The Seal shall be affixed in the presence of at least one Director and of the Secretary or such other person as the Directors may appoint for the purpose.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS.

85. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors who may exercise all such powers of the Company, and do on behalf of the Company all such acts as are within the powers of the Company and as are not by the Ordinances or these presents required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting subject nevertheless, to any regulations of these presents to the provisions of the Ordinances and to such regulations not being inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations and provisions as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting. Provided that no regulations made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors or Director which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

86. All acts bona fide done by any Meeting of Directors or by any person acting as a Director or alternate Director shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Director or alternate Director or person acting as aforesaid or that they or any of them or he were or was disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director or alternate Director as the case may be.

87. The Directors may from time to time appoint any managers or agents for managing any of the affairs of the Company in Ceylon or elsewhere and may fix their remuneration, and any such appointment may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit.

88. The Directors may from time to time delegate to any manager or agent to be appointed under the last preceding Article hereof all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions exercisable under these presents by the Directors as they may from time to time think fit, and such delegation may be made for such time and for such objects and purposes and upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they may think expedient, and they may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter, or vary all or any of such powers, authorities, and discretions.

89. The Directors may from time to time, by power of attorney under the seal of the Company, appoint any person or persons to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company in Ceylon or elsewhere for such purposes and with such powers, authorities, and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Directors under these presents) and for such period and subject to such conditions as they may from time to time think fit, and any such appointment may (if they think fit) be made in favour of any Company or of the members, directors, nominees, or managers of any company or firm, or otherwise in favour of any fluctuating body of persons whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Directors, and any such power of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with such attorney or attorneys as the Directors think fit.

90. Any such delegate or attorney as aforesaid may be authorized by the Directors to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities, and discretions for the time being vested in him.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS.

The Directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. When there shall be two or more Directors, two Directors shall be a quorum until otherwise determined. Questions arising at any meeting of the Directors shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have second or casting vote.

On the request of a Director the Secretary shall at any time summon a meeting of the Directors. 92.

93. The Chairman of Directors shall be elected and/or removed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

The Chairman of the Board for the time being shall preside at all meetings of the Board, but if there shall be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to act as Chairman of such meeting, and he shall preside thereat accordingly.

95. A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a duly convened meeting of the Directors.

No Director or intended Director (including an alternate Director) shall be disqualified by his office from being appointed to and holding any other office under the Company and receiving remunertaion for the same or from entering into any contract or arrangement with the Company as vendor, purchaser, or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or arrangement or any contract or arrangement entered into, by or on behalf of the Company in which any such Director or any intended Director shall be in any way interested be avoided, nor shall any such Director or intended Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason only of any such Director holding or intending to hold that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established, but the nature and extent of his interest (unless apparent from the nature of the contract or arrangement in question) must be disclosed by him at the meeting of the Directors at which such contract or arrangement is determined upon if his interest, then exists, or in any other case at the first meeting of the Directors after the acquisition of his interest. upon if his interest then exists, or in any other case at the first meeting of the Directors after the acquisition of his interest, provided, nevertheless that no Director shall as a Director vote in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is so interested as aforesaid and if he do so vote his vote shall not be counted.

MINUTES.

97. The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in books to be provided for the purpose-

(a) Of all appointments made by them.

(b) Of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Directors.

(c) Of all resolutions passed and proceedings had by and at all meetings of the Directors and of the Company and of all resolutions under Article 95, and any such minute if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of the meeting at which such appointments were made or such Directors were present or such resolutions were passed or proceedings had (as the case may be) or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting of the Directors or of the Company (as the case may be) or in the case of a resolution under Article 95 by the Directors or Director signing the same, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVE FUND.

98. Subject to the rights of the holders of any shares which may hereafter be issued on special conditions as to dividend and to the provisions hereinafter contained as to reserve and the powers of the Directors to recommend dividends or bonus the net profits arising from the business of the Company shall be applicable in payment to the holders of the ordinary shares of a dividend on the amounts credited as paid up thereon.

99. The Company in General Meeting may from time to time declare dividends to be paid to the members according to their rights and interests under these presents. In no case, however, shall any dividends or bonus be paid except out of profits or in excess of any amount recommended by the Directors.

100. As regards any shares issued as fully or partly paid up under any agreement entered into by the Company, the same shall be entitled to rank for dividend as from such date (if any) other than that of issue as shall be provided by such agreement.

10T. The Directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as in their or his opinion the position of the Company justifies.

102. The Directors in arriving at the net profits of the Company shall first set aside such sum as in their opinion is proper to provide for bad and oubtful debts, to replace wasting property, and to maintain the plant, works, and property used in the Company's business or any part thereof, and in addition thereto the Directors may out of the net profits create a reserve and by setting aside such sums as they shall think fit for the purpose of meeting contingencies, the liquidation, reduction, or extinction of any debt or liability of the Company, equalizing dividends, and providing a reserve for any purpose which they may think desirable, and may use the sums so set aside either in the business of the Company or by investing them in such shares or securities or other investments (not being the shares of the Company) as they shall think investing them in such shares or securities or other investments (not being the shares of the Company) as they shall think fit, or in accordance with the provisions of Article 99. Any balance of undivided profit remaining after the payment of dividends and provisions being made for the reserve fund (if required) shall be carried forward to the accounts of the succeeding year.

(a) The Directors may at any time or times, pursuant to a resolution of the Company in General Meeting, capitalize the whole or any part of the undivided profits for the time being of the Company, whether presently available as such or standing to the credit of any reserve fund either (a) by applying such profits or any portion thereof in making payment in full at par for any shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or other obligations of the Company, and by distributing among the members of the Company or any class or classes of such members such fully paid shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or other obligations of the Company in proportion to the amounts paid or credited as paid upon the shares of the Company held by such members respectively, or (b) by applying such profits or any portion thereof in making payment, in whole or in part, of any moneys remaining upon any shares of the Company which may have been issued and are not fully paid in proportion to the amounts paid or credited as paid upon such shares respectively, or (c) partly by an application and distribution under (a) and partly by an application under (b), and where some of the shares of the Company are fully paid and others are partly paid, then as between the members holding the fully-paid shares and the members holding the partly-paid shares and the members stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company distributed under (a) and in making payment, in whole or in part, of any moneys remaining unpaid on the partly-paid shares referred to under (b), or partly in one way and partly in the other shall be so applied pro rata in proportion to the amounts then already paid upon the shares of the Company held by such members

(b) The Directors may at any time or times, with the sanction of a General Meeting and with or without any such capitilization as aforesaid, declare and pay a dividend or bonus out of any reserve fund and fix the time for payment thereof.

(c) The Directors may at any time or times, with the sanction of a General Meeting direct the payment of any dividend or bonus whether the same is paid out of the profits of the Company or out of any reserve fund wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of fully paid shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or other obligations of the Company or of any other Company, or in one or more of such ways.

(d) Where any difficulty arises in regard to any application or distribution under this clause, the Directors may, subject to any resolution of the Company in General Meeting, settle the same as they may think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates and fix the value for distribution of the subject matter distributed as they may think fit, and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any member of the Company on the footing of the value so fixed, and may vest any part of such subject matter in trust for the persons entitled as they may think fit.

(e) When required a proper contract shall be filed, and the Directors may appoint any person to sign such contract for and on behalf of the allottees of the shares issued, and such appointment shall be effective.

(f) This clause is subject to any special conditions which may be attached to any shares of the Company to be hereafter issued.

104. The Directors may deduct from any dividend or bonus payable to any member all such sums of money as may be due from him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.

105. Unless otherwise directed any dividend or bonus may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the member entitled, or in the case of joint-holders to the registered address of that one whose name stands first on the register in respect of the joint-holding, and every cheque or warrant so sent shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent, and the Company shall not be responsible for the loss of any such cheque or warrant in course of transmission or for any loss arising from the payment of the amount thereof upon a forged endorsement.

106. Notice of any dividend or bonus that may have been declared shall be given to each member in manner hereinafter mentioned.

107. No dividend or bonus shall bear interest as against the Company.

ACCOUNTS

108. The Directors shall cause true accounts of the Company's assets, stock-in-trade, credits, liabilities, receipts, and outgoings, transactions, and affairs, and of their own management to be kept in proper books, to which books the members shall have access at reasonable times, subject to such restrictions, if any, as may be imposed by the Company in General Meeting. 109.

The books of account shall be kept at the office or such other place or places as the Directors shall think fit.

110. Once at least in every year the Directors shall lay before the Company in General Meeting a profit and less account and balance sheet of the Company in such form as they shall think convenient (but so that as regards such balance sheet the statutory provisions with regard to the form thereof shall be observed), but unless and until the Company in General Meeting shall otherwise direct the profit and loss account and balance sheet need not be printed or circulated either before or after the meeting, nor need any further statement of accounts or of income and expenditure be laid before the Company in General Meeting.

111. The first balance sheet shall be made out within twelve months after the registration of the Company, and such balance sheet and every subsequent balance sheet shall be duly filed as required by law.

112. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined, and the correctness of the profit and loss account and balance sheet ascertained by one or more Auditors. If one Auditor only is appointed all the provisions herein contained relating to Auditors shall apply to him.

The first Auditors of the Company shall be appointed and their remuneration fixed by the Directors. quent Auditors shall be appointed and their remuneration fixed by the Company at the Ordinary General Meeting in each An Auditor shall be re-eligible on quitting office. If any casual vacancy occurs in the office of Auditor, the Directors shall forthwith fill up the same and may fix the remuneration of such appointee.

114. The Auditors may be members of the Company, but no person shall be eligible as an Auditor who is interested otherwise than as a member in any transaction of the Company, and no Director of the Company shall be eligible during his continuance in office.

115. Every Auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the profit and loss account and balance sheet, and it is shall be his duty to examine the same with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto.

116. Every Auditor shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Company, and shall at all times have access to the books and accounts and youchers, and shall be entitled to require from the Directors and the officers of the Company such information and explanation as may be necessary for the performance of his duties.

117. The Auditor shall make a report to the members upon the profit and loss account and balance sheet and on the accounts examined by them, and such report shall be read at the Ordinary General Meeting in each year.

118. Every account of the Directors when audited and approved by a General Meeting shall be conclusive, except ards any error discovered therein within three months next after the approval thereof. Whenever any such error is as regards any error discovered therein within three months next after the approval thereof. discovered within that period the account shall forthwith be corrected and thenceforth shall be conclusive.

Notices.

A notice may be served by the Company upon any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to him at his registered address.

120. All notices directed to be given to the member shall with respect to any share to which persons are jointly entitled be given to whichever of such persons is named first in the register, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all such joint-holders.

121. Every member described in the register by an address not within Ceylon shall give an address to the Company in Ceylon at which notices may be served on him, and shall be entitled to have notices served on him at that address, but if he does not he sha'l not be entitled to receive any notice from the Company.

Conditions on which the hereinafter-mentioned Land belonging to the Crown is put up for Sale by Tender at 12 noon on December 16, 1921.

- 1. The land shall be sold to the highest tenderer, provided that the sum offered by him shall at the least amount to the upset price noted against the land.
- No tender shall be finally accepted unless the person making the same shall, on being declared the highest tenderer, immediately pay to the Government Agent a deposit of 10 per cent. on the purchase amount of the said
- The purchaser shall pay to the Government Agent, within one month from the day of sale, the balance of the purchase money, and in failure thereof the purchase shall be considered void, and the deposit of 10 per cent., together with any other sum paid on account of the said land, shall be forfeited.
- 4. On payment to the Government Agent, within the time specified of the whole of the purchase money, the purchaser shall receive a deed of transfer.
- 5. Should it appear at any time before the execution and issue of the deed of transfer that the actual extent of the said land is in excess of the extent given in those conditions of sale, the purchaser will be liable to pay the value of the excess extent at the same rate per acre as that at which he purchased the land. In the event of the extent of the said land being hereafter found to be less than the extent given in these conditions of sale, the purchaser will be entitled to claim a refund of a proportionate amount of the purchase price paid by him at the same rate per acre as that at which he purchased the land. Provided, however, that he will not be entitled to claim any further amount as interest on the money paid by him or by way of com-pensation. In all questions affecting the description and admeasurement of the land, the decision of the Surveyor-General will be taken as final.
- The landis sold subject to the reservation to the Crown of all rights to mine for plumbago, save with the express sanction in writing of the Governor for the time being, and subject to such payment and regulations as he may approve from time to time.
- 7. Should the land be or hereafter become benefited by any irrigation work already constructed (or which may be hereafter undertaken) at the expense of the public revenue, and for which any payment may be levied by virtue of any Ordinance now in force or hereafter enacted, it shall be liable to payment of such rate per acre as may be recoverable under such Ordinance or Ordinances.
- 8. The Government Agent reserves the right to reject any or all tenders.

at time of sale, if so required.

4. Depôt measurements must be accepted, but previous to date of auction any prospective bidder is at liberty to check the measurements recorded in the notice and to represent any differences promptly.

5. No timber shall be removed before payment of the price bid, and all timber sold must be removed from the depôt within ten days of date of notification of acceptance by the Conservator of Forests of such bid and will be at the risk of

6. Should any person to whom a lot is knocked down refuse to take it over at the full price bid or refuse or fail to sign the sale book and pay 25 per cent. of his bid when so required, or refuse or fail to pay the full purchase amount or balance thereof, as the case may be, and to remove the timber within the time specified in clause 5 above, the lot will again be put up for auction, and the original purchaser or bidder will be held liable for any less to Convergent owing to a lower price being realized for any loss to Government owing to a lower price being realized at the re-sale, while, if an enhanced price is realized at such re-sale, he shall, however, have no claim to the profit which the lots advertised in the list, and shall be put up separately, at the discretion of the Assistant Conservator of Forests, after consulting the wishes of prospective purchasers.

8. Agents bidding for others will be required to produce a written authority from the firm or person for whom they bid, such authority will be retained by the Assistant Conservator of Forests, and will hold good only at the particular sale at which it is produced.

Minutes of Proceedings of a General Meeting of the Municipal Council of Galle held in the Municipal Office on October 8, 1921, at 2 p.m., pursuant to notice dated October 3, 1921.

Present:—Mr. F. Bartlett, Chairman; Mr. D. G. Goonewardene; Mr. H. M. Macan Markar; Mr. D. W. Subasinghe; Mr. C. E. de Vos; Mr. G. E. Abeywardene; Mr. J. E. Perera; Mr. D. I. Durham; and Mr. E. W. Cade.

The Minutes of Proceedings of the General Meeting of September 10, 1921, a copy thereof having been furnished to each Councillor, were taken as read and confirmed.

2. With the permission of the Council, Mr. D. W. Subasinghe submitted a petition from the members of the Plumbago Union of Galle.—The petition was read.

3. Pursuant to notice, Mr. D. W. Subasinghe moved—"That the recovery of the tax on plumbago stores be suspended for 1922."

With the permission of Council, Mr. Subasinghe amended his motion as follows:—"That the recovery of the tax on plumbago curing stores be suspended for 1922." Mr. J. E. Perera seconded.

The Chairman stated that only three licenses for curing plumbago had been taken out this year, and that no fees would be payable where no curing was carried on, except the fees for storing plumbago. Mr. Subasinghe asked permission to let his motion lie over till the next meeting.

Pursuant to notice, Mr. D. W. Subasinghe moved-"That the annual sale for a lump sum of the amount recovered by way of the 4 per cent. commission on fish sold at the fish auction shed be discontinued, as also the recovery of a 5 per cent, commission from fishermen on all fish brought by them to the fish auction shed." Mr. J. E. Perera seconded. pro formá.

Mr. D. G. Goonewardene and the Chairman spoke against the motion.

The motion was put to the meeting and declared lost, one voting for it and eight against. Mr. Subasinghe called for a division, and the Council divided as follows:—

For.—Mr. D. W. Subasinghe.

Against.—Mr. E. W. Cade, Mr. D. I. Durham, Mr. J. E. Perera, Mr. G. E. Abeywardene, Mr. C. E. de Vos, Mr. H. M. Macan Markar, Mr. D. G. Goonewardene, and the Chairman.

5. Petition from the High Priest of Parama Vichitrananda Vihare in Galwadugoda. Resolved that the Superintendent of Works do furnish a sketch of the land and a report as to its extent.

6. Application from the Hon. Secretary, Young Women's Christian Association of Galle, for the free grant of the vacant land adjoining the New Oriental Hotel for the purpose of building a hall and a hostel for the accommodation of 20 girls.—Resolved that permission be not granted for the erection of any building to be used as a dwelling.

7. Application from the Athletic Secretary, Galle Y. M. C. A., to lay down a tennis court for the use of the members of the Y. M. C. A. on the vacant land adjoining the New Oriental Hotel.—Resolved that the application be allowed on payment of a nominal rent of Rs. 5 per annum, provided that no trees are cut down. The Council does not guarantee, permanency of occupation, and the lease may be terminated on a month's notice.

Tarring the road through the bazaar.—Resolved that Rs. 300 be spent on laying one more coat of tar on the road through the bazaar, and Rs. 500 for tarring beyond the bazaar.

The following extracts from the Minutes of the Standing Committees on Municipal Works, Finance and Assessment and Markets and Sanitation of October 8, 1921, were laid before the Council:
