PASSED ORDINANCES.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 39 of 1921.

An Ordinance further to amend "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889."

W. H. MANNING.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Civil Procedure Code (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 39 of 1921."

2 Section 208 of the principal Ordinance is amended by striking out the words "charges of witnesses" in line 7 thereof and substituting therefor the words "such just and reasonable charges as appear to have been properly incurred in procuring evidence and the attendance of witnesses."

3 Section 219 of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by altering its number to 219 (1) and by the addition of the following sub-section at the end thereof:

(2) If a debtor for whose attendance an order has been made under this section fails to comply with such order, the court may, on its own motion or on the application of the party entitled to enforce the decree, issue a warrant for the arrest of such debtor. Provided the court may make it a condition of the issue of such warrant that the person

No. 40 of 1921.

An Ordinance further to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898."

W. H. MANNING.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Ordinance, No. 40 of 1921."

Insertion of new chapter in principal Ordinance.

2 The following provisions shall be inserted as Chapter XX. A of the principal Ordinance:

CHAPTER XX. A.

Of Expenses of Witnesses, &c., Costs, and Compensation.

Power of Governor in Executive Council to make regulations.

253 A. (1) The Governor in Executive Council may make regulations providing—

- (a) For the payment out of the public revenue of the expenses of persons attending to give evidence for the prosecution or defence or called to give evidence at the instance of the court for the expense, trouble, or loss of time properly incurred in, or incidental to, the attendance and giving of evidence in any trial before the Supreme Court or a District Court, or on the inquiry preliminary to any such trial, and the conditions on which such payments may be allowed;
- (b) For the payment out of the public revenue of the expenses of persons summoned to serve as jurors or assessors in any trial before the Supreme Court or a District Court, respectively;
- (c) For the persons by whom, and the manner in which, the amounts of such expenses shall be ascertained and payments made.

(2) Such regulations shall be laid as soon as conveniently may be before the Legislative Council, and may at any time within forty days after the date of their being so laid before the Council, or at any of the three meetings of the Council next succeeding such date, by resolution of the Council, be disallowed, amended, or otherwise dealt with as may be directed by the said Council, but without prejudice to anything that may have been done thereunder.

253 B. (1) If in any case instituted on complaint under section 148 (1) (a) which a Police Court has power to try, a Magistrate acquits or discharges the accused and declares that the complaint was frivolous or vexatious, it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to order the complainant to pay by way of Crown costs a sum not exceeding five rupees, and he may, in addition, at the same time, order the complainant to pay to the accused, or to each of the accused when there are more than one, such compensation not exceeding ten rupees to each person as the Magistrate shall think fit, which sum if paid or recovered shall be taken into account in any subsequent civil suit relating to the same matter.

Frivolous or vexatious complaints.

(2) Any sum awarded under this section shall be recoverable as if it were a fine, and if it cannot be recovered, the imprisonment to be awarded shall be simple and for such term not exceeding in the case of a sum awarded by way of compensation thirty days, and in the case of a sum awarded by way of Crown costs fourteen days, as the Magistrate directs at the time of awarding such sum.

(3) Before making any such order the Magistrate shall record and consider any objection which the complainant may urge against the making of the order, and if he makes such order, he shall record his reasons for making the same.

(4) No appeal shall lie against any order for payment of Crown costs.

253 c. (1) Whenever any person causes a peace officer to arrest another person, if it appears to the Magistrate who takes cognizance of the case that there was no sufficient ground for causing such arrest, he may award such compensation not exceeding twenty-five rupees to be paid by the person so causing the arrest to the person so arrested for his loss of time and expenses in the matter as the Magistrate thinks fit.

Compensation for groundlessly giving in charge.

(2) In such cases, if more persons than one are arrested, the Magistrate may in like manner award to each of them such compensation not exceeding twenty-five rupees as such Magistrate thinks fit.

(3) All compensation awarded under this section may be recovered as if it were a fine, and if it cannot be so recovered, the person by whom it is payable shall be sentenced to simple imprisonment for such term not exceeding thirty days as the Magistrate directs, unless such sum be sooner paid.

(4) Such compensation shall be no bar to an action for false imprisonment.

253 d. (1) Whenever a criminal court imposes a fine or passes a sentence of which fine forms a part, or the Supreme Court confirms in appeal, revision, or otherwise a sentence of a fine or sentence of which fine forms a part, such court may order the whole or any part of the fine recovered to be applied—

Power of court to pay expenses or compensation out of fine.

(a) In defraying the expenses properly incurred in the prosecution; or

(b) In compensation for the injury caused by the offence committed where substantial compensation is, in the opinion of the court, recoverable by civil suit.

(2) If the fine is imposed in a case which is subject to appeal, no such payment shall be made before the period allowed for presenting the appeal has elapsed, or, if an appeal be presented, before the decision of the appeal.

(3) At the time of awarding compensation in any subsequent civil suit relating to the same matter, the court shall take into account any sum paid or recovered as compensation under this section.

253 e. (1) Whenever any person (hereafter referred to as the convict) is convicted by or before a criminal court, or the Supreme Court confirms in appeal, revision, or otherwise a sentence, such court may order the convict to pay such sum not exceeding one hundred rupees by way of compensation to any person affected by the offence (hereafter referred to as the aggrieved party) as to the court shall seem fit. Provided that in the case of a person convicted before a Magistrate the amount awarded by him shall not exceed fifty rupees to each aggrieved party.

Power of court to order payment of compensation to aggrieved party.

Proviso.

(2) Any sum awarded under this section shall be recoverable in the manner set forth in sub-section (2) of section 312 of "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1898," for the recovery of fines, and if and when recovered shall be paid over to the aggrieved party.

(3) Such compensation shall be no bar to an action for false imprisonment.

Repeal.

3 Sections 197, 198, 277, 431, 432, and 437 of the principal Ordinance and section 54 of "The Police Ordinance, 1865," are hereby repealed.

Passed in Council the Twenty-first day of October, One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty-one.

M. A. YOUNG,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Seventh day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty-one.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.
