Statement of Objects and Reasons.

EXPERIENCE has shown that "The Medical Wants Ordinance, No. 9 of 1912," requires further amendment in several particulars, and it has been thought well to introduce an amending and consolidating Bill. A table is attached to this statement which shows the sources from which this Bill is drawn, and also calls attention to the more important amendments in the existing law proposed :—

Section of Bill.	Corresponding section in Ordinance No. 9 of 1912.	Remarks.
2	2	.. This is the definition section. An important amendment has been made to the definition of "estate." At present only estates which have 10 acres under actual cultivation are within the Ordinances. This prevents grants for the building of hospitals, &c., being made in respect of estates which are only in the development stage, and when, perhaps, such hospitals are most required. In the Bill "estate" is defined as including estates on which labourers are employed in development operations.
3 to 8	3 to 8	..
9	9	.. Sub-section (2) of section 9 is new. It is obvious that if the Medical Department cannot supply the drugs referred to in section 9 (1) (c), the superintendent should be allowed to buy them, and the cost should be refunded to him.
10	10	.. Section 10 of the Bill proposes that fees in respect of visits by Medical Officers to estates shall be received by them for their own use. The fees for such visits and for the maintenance of patients in Government hospitals are also proposed to be raised.
11 to 26	11 to 26	..
27	27	.. Section 27 of Ordinance No. 9 of 1912 as amended by section 3 of Ordinance No. 16 of 1915.
28 to 35	28 to 34 and 36	.. There are slight amendments of a formal character.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, September 30, 1921.

H. C. GOLLAN,
Attorney-General.

PASSED ORDINANCE.

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 42 of 1921.

An Ordinance further to amend "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889."

W. H. MANNING.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Amendment of section 756 of the principal Ordinance.

In the case of any mistake, omission, or defect on the part of any appellant in complying with the provisions of this section, the Supreme Court, if it should be of opinion that the respondent has not been materially prejudiced, may grant relief on such terms as it may deem just.

3 Section 756 of the principal Ordinance, as amended by this Ordinance, shall apply to appeals pending at the time of the commencement of this Ordinance as well as to appeals instituted after such commencement. But nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be deemed to affect any appeal in which the decision of the Supreme Court thereon shall have been given prior to the commencement of this Ordinance.

Section 756 of the principal Ordinance as amended to apply to pending appeals.

4 The following section shall be inserted as section 839 of the principal Ordinance :

839. Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the court to make such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of the process of the court.
