Government Notifications

THE DIPLOMATIC PRIVILEGES ACT, No. 9 OF 1996

Order under Section 4

BY virtue of the powers vested in me by Section 4 of the Diplomatic Privileges Act, No. 9 of 1996, I, Mangala Samaraweera, Minister of Foreign Affairs, do, by this Order, declare that the provisions of the aforesaid Act shall apply in respect of the International Water Management Institute formerly known as the International Irrigation Management Institute, to the extent necessary to give effect to the terms of the Memorandum of Agreement entered into between the Ford Foundation acting on behalf of the International Irrigation Management Institute Support Group and the Government of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka for the establishment of an International Institute for Research and Training in Irrigation Management, on 01st September, 1983, the relevant articles of which Agreement are recited in the Schedule hereto.

MANGALA SAMARAWEEA, M. P.,
Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Colombo,
30th September, 2016.

SCHEDULE

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE FORD FOUNDATION ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE INTERNATIONAL IRRIGATION MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE SUPPORT GROUP AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE DEMOCRATIC SOCIALIST REPUBLIC OF SRI LANKA FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH AND TRAINING IN IRRIGATION MANAGEMENT

7. Agreements-(a) The Government of Sri Lanka shall recognize IIMI as an autonomous, international, non-profit, research, educational and training organization with objectives and engaged in the activities set forth in this Memorandum. The international status and personality of IIMI will be ensured by its Charter, and will be recognized by the Government of Sri Lanka.

The Government of Sri Lanka agrees to provide IIMI with certain facilities and to grant it certain privileges and immunities which shall be no less favourable than those granted to the UNDP Office in Sri Lanka, including the following:-

- (1) IIMI, its property, funds, assets, and officials shall have the privileges and immunities set out in the Annexure to this Memorandum.

Annexure

IMMUNITIES AND PRIVILEGES

PART I

Immunities and Privileges of the Institute

1. The Institute, its property and assets wherever located and by whomsoever held, shall enjoy immunity from every form of legal process except insofar as in any particular case it has expressly waived its immunity. It is however understood that no waiver of immunity shall extend to any measure of execution.
2. The premises of the Institute shall be inviolable. The property and assets of the Institute, wherever located and by whomsoever held, shall be immune from search, requisition, confiscation, expropriation and any other form of interference, whether by executive, administrative, judicial or legislative action.
3. The archives of the Institute and in general all documents belonging to it or held by it, shall be inviolable wherever located.
4. Without being restricted by financial controls, regulations or moratoria of any kind -
  - (a) The Institute may hold funds or currency of any kind and operate accounts in any currency
  - (b) The Institute shall be free to transfer its funds or currency from Sri Lanka to any other country, and vice versa, or within Sri Lanka, and to convert any currency held by it into any other currency provided that the transfer and conversion of funds or currency acquired in Sri Lanka or Sri Lanka rupee funds or currency, may be subject to such restrictions as are prescribed by law.
5. The Institute, its assets, income and other properties shall be:
  - (a) Exempt from all direct taxes, it is understood however that the Institute will not claim exemptions from rates and taxes which are charges for public utility services.
  - (b) Exempt from customs duties and taxes, and prohibitions and restrictions on imports and exports in respect of articles imported or exported by the Institute for its official use. It is understood, however, that articles imported under such exemptions shall be re-exported and shall not be sold within Sri Lanka except with the prior permission of the Government of Sri Lanka. If sold within Sri Lanka, such articles will be liable to normal duties and taxes.
  - (c) Exempt from customs duties and taxes, and prohibitions and restrictions, on imports and exports in respect of its publications.
6. The Institute shall enjoy for its official communications treatment not less favourable than that accorded by the Government of Sri Lanka to the United Nations, in the matter of priorities, rates and taxes on mails, cables, telegrams, radiograms, telephotos, telephones and other communications; and press rates for information to the press, radio and television. No censorship shall be applied to the official correspondence and other official communications of the Institute.

7. The Institute shall have the right to use codes and to dispatch and receive its correspondence by courier or in bags which shall have the same immunities and privileges as are extended to the UNDP Office in Sri Lanka.
8. Such other privileges and immunities as are extended to the UNDP Office, and its property, funds and assets, in Sri Lanka.

PART II

Immunities and Privileges of the Director-General of the Institute

The Director General of the Institute shall have the same status and privileges as are accorded to the head of a diplomatic mission, and the same immunities as are accorded to the Resident Representative of the United Nations.

PART III

Immunities and Privileges of the Officials of the Institute

This Part will apply to staff members of the Institute. Experts performing missions for the Institute shall be accorded such privileges and immunities under this Part, as are necessary for the independent exercise of their functions, during the period of their mission.

Clauses 3 to 5 will not apply to Citizens and Permanent Residents of Sri Lanka;

1. Immunity from every form of legal process in respect of words spoken or written and acts performed by them in their official capacity.
2. Exemptions from taxation on the salaries and emoluments paid to them by the Institute
3. Exemptions in respect of themselves, their spouses and dependent relatives, from immigration restrictions, alien registration and national service obligations.
4. The same privileges in respect of exchange facilities as are accorded to the officials of comparable rank forming part of the UNDP Office in Sri Lanka.
5. The right to be given, together with their spouses and dependent relatives, the same repatriation facilities in times of international crisis as members of the staff of the UNDP Office in Sri Lanka.
6. Such other privileges and immunities as are extended to officers of comparable rank in the UNDP Office of Sri Lanka.

The Director-General shall from time to time make known to the Government of Sri Lanka the names of the persons to whom this Part will apply.

PART IV

Waiver of Privileges and Immunities

Privileges and immunities shall be accorded to the Director-General and officials of the Institute and experts performing missions for the Institute not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves, but in the interests of the Institute. Consequently the Governing Body of the Institute, or the Director-General shall have the right and the duty to waive the immunity of the Director-General, or any such officials, or experts respectively, in any case where the immunity would impede the course of justice, and can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the Institute.

PART V

Privileges and Immunities in Respect of Customs and Import Duties and Taxes

This Part will apply only to expatriate officials of the Institute, and to citizens and permanent residents of Sri Lanka provided they have been internationally recruited, who take up residence in Sri Lanka for the purpose of their functions and duties for a period of six months or over.

The persons to whom this Part applies shall have the right to import, free of duties and taxes, and without providing security -

1. With six months of first taking up their post in Sri Lanka, one motor vehicle, and limited quantities of furniture and household articles for the personal use of themselves and the members of their family accompanying them on the same basis as that accorded to persons of comparable rank in the UNDP Office of Sri Lanka.

Such articles may include

- (a) For each household one motor vehicle, one refrigerator, one deep-freezer, one cooker, one washing machine, one dish washer, one radio, one record player, one tape recorder, one television set, one video recorder and minor electrical appliances, and
- (b) For each person, one air conditioner, one set of photographic equipment and cine equipment and one radio cum cassette recorder;

Such motor vehicle so imported shall normally be re-exported and shall not be sold within Sri Lanka except with the prior permission of the Government of Sri Lanka. If sold within Sri Lanka, the articles referred to in his paragraph shall be subject to the payment of normal duties and taxes.

2. Foodstuffs, liquor, cigarettes and other consumable articles of daily use, for personal use, to the value of Rs. 6,000 per quarter FOB if married and accompanied by family and Rs.3,900/- per quarter FOB if unmarried, or married but not accompanied by family.
3. Requests for replacements and additional imports of limited quantities of household effects for personal or family use will be given due consideration by the relevant Sri Lanka authorities when appropriate and on a case by case basis.

6. The provisions of article 1, paragraph 4 shall also apply to the ICRC Delegates and foreign employees' residences.
  - (a) The privileges and immunities listed in this Article are granted to the ICRC to facilitate the carrying out of its humanitarian mission and not to individuals. They are therefore, granted to the ICRC for its Delegates and foreign employees in the interest of their work and functions.
  - (b) The Government of Sri Lanka may call upon the ICRC to waive the immunity of any delegate or alien employee in case where, in its opinion, the immunity would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the ICRC. The ICRC shall accede to such a request unless such waiver would, for good reasons, prejudice the interests of the ICRC.
8. The ICRC shall co-operate with the Government of Sri Lanka at all times with the view of preventing any form of abuse of the privileges and immunities listed in this Article.

ARTICLE 7

FINAL PROVISIONS

1. The ICRC shall co-operate at all times with the appropriate authorities of the Government of Sri Lanka to facilitate the proper administration of justice, secure the observance of police regulations and prevent the occurrence of any abuses in connection with the privileges, immunities and facilities accorded to the ICRC.
2. The ICRC's offices shall not be used in any manner incompatible with the exercise of its official functions.

ADDENDUM TO THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE DEMOCRATIC SOCIALIST REPUBLIC OF SRI LANKA AND THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS (ICRC) of 1990

1. The ICRC, as well as its current and former employees and representatives, regardless of where they are based, shall be exempt from being called as a witness or otherwise required to give evidence, in respect of all acts performed by them in their official capacity including words spoken or written, even after they have left the service of the Delegation. The said exemption shall apply in all types of legal proceedings;
2. The Head of Delegation and the delegates shall enjoy regardless of their nationality, immunity from legal process in respect of all acts performed by them in their official capacity including words spoken or written, even after the end of their mission. This immunity from jurisdiction will include the exemption to testify on facts that they might have learned due to the exercise of their functions;
3. The ICRC shall have the right to dispatch and receive its correspondence by courier or in sealed bags, which shall have the same immunity and privileges as diplomatic courier and bags;
4. The Government of Sri Lanka undertakes to respect the confidentiality of ICRC reports, letters and other communications as well as the contents and records of its communications with the ICRC. Such respect includes neither divulging their content to anyone other than the intended recipient, nor permitting their disclosure or use in legal proceedings, without prior consent of the ICRC; and
5. ICRC may waive any of the above -mentioned privileges and immunities, in any case where in its sole opinion, the immunity would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the ICRC. Such a waiver shall only be valid when given in writing by the President of the ICRC or a person to whom he or she has delegated the power to do so in any given case.
