DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to make provision for the Transfer to the Imperial Bank of India of the Undertaking and Property of the Bank of Madras.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Bank of Madras is a Bank now constituted and regulated by an Act of the Legislature of British India entitled The Presidency Banks Act, 1876, and subsequent amending Act or Acts :

And whereas an Act of the said Legislature entitled The Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920, has provided for the constitution of an Imperial Bank of India for the purpose of taking over the undertakings of the said Bank of Madras and of the Bank of Bengal and the Bank of Bombay as constituted by the said Presidency Banks Act, 1876, and subsequent amending Act or Acts, and to carry on the business of banking in accordance with the provisions of the said Act :

And whereas it is provided by the said Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920, that, subject to the provisions of the said Act, as from the appointed day as thereby defined the undertaking of the said Bank of Madras shall be transferred to and shall vest in the said Imperial Bank of India :

And whereas the appointed day is defined in the said Act to mean such day as the Governor-General of India in Council may appoint for the commencement of the said Act :

And whereas the said Bank of Madras maintains a branch or agency in Ceylon, and carries on business and owns and possesses property in Ceylon :

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the transfer to the said Imperial Bank of India of the undertaking of the said Bank of Madras in Ceylon from the said appointed day :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Imperial Bank of India Ordinance, No. of 1920."

Short title.

- Commencement. 2 (i.) This Ordinance shall commence on the same date as The Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920, shall come into operation in India.
- (ii.) The notification by the Governor in the "Ceylon Government Gazette" of the date on which the said Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920, shall have come into operation shall be conclusive proof of the said date for the purposes of this Ordinance.
- Interpretation. 3 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—
- (i.) The expression "appointed day" means the day on which The Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920, shall come into operation in India.
- (ii.) The expression "the Bank" means The Imperial Bank of India as constituted by the Act of the Legislature of British India entitled "The Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920," and any Act or Acts amending or substituted for the said Act.
- (iii.) The expression "the Bank of Madras" means the Bank of Madras as constituted and regulated by the Act of the Legislature of British India entitled "The Presidency Banks Act, 1876," and any Act or Acts amending or substituted for the said Act.
- Transfer of undertaking of Bank of Madras in Ceylon to the Imperial Bank of India. 4 (i.) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the undertaking in Ceylon of the Bank of Madras shall, as from the appointed day, be transferred to and shall vest in the Bank.
- (ii.) The said undertaking shall be deemed to include all rights, powers, authorities, and privileges, and all property, movable and immovable, including cash balances, reserve funds, investments, and all other interests, and rights in or arising out of such property as may be in the possession of the Bank of Madras immediately before the appointed day, and all books, accounts, and documents relating thereto, and shall also be deemed to include all debts, liabilities, and obligations of whatsoever kind then existing of such undertaking.
- (iii.) If on the appointed day any suit, appeal, or legal proceeding of whatever nature is pending by or against the Bank of Madras, the same shall not abate, be discontinued, or be in any way prejudicially affected by reason of the transfer to the Bank of the said undertaking or of anything in this Ordinance or in the said Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920, but the suit, appeal, or proceeding may be continued, prosecuted, and enforced by or against the Bank.
- (iv.) All contracts, deeds, bonds, agreements, and other instruments of whatever nature subsisting or having effect immediately before the appointed day, and to which the Bank of Madras is a party, shall be of as full force and effect against or in favour of the Bank, as the case may be, and may be enforced as fully and effectually as if, instead of the Bank of Madras, the Bank had been a party thereto.
- Officers in employment of Bank of Madras in Ceylon at commencement of Ordinance. 5 Every officer and servant employed immediately before the appointed day by the Bank of Madras, who shall under or by virtue of The Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920, become an officer or servant of the Bank, shall from the appointed day be deemed an officer or servant of the Bank for the purpose of this Ordinance.
- Stay of proceedings against Bank of Madras. 6 As from the appointed day no person shall make, assert, or take any claims, demands, or proceedings against the Bank of Madras, or against a director or officer thereof in his capacity as such director or officer, except in so far as may be necessary for enforcing the provisions of this Ordinance or of The Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920, so far as the same may be enforceable in Ceylon.
- References to Bank of Madras in enactments and instruments. 7 (i.) All references to the Bank of Madras contained in any Ordinance or in any rules or regulations made under or by virtue of any Ordinance shall from the appointed day be deemed to be references to the Bank so far as the context permits.
- (ii.) Where by any instrument power is given to invest in, to hold, or to exercise any rights in regard to shares or stock in the Bank of Madras, then that power may be exercised as if the same power were given by such instrument in regard to shares in the Bank.

(iii.) A power of attorney in favour of the Bank of Madras or in favour of the Bank of Madras and its officers shall be deemed, as the case may be, to be a power of attorney in favour of the Bank or of the Bank and its officers.

Payment in lieu of stamp duty.

8 The Bank shall on the appointed day pay to the Government of Ceylon such sum as shall, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Stamps, be equivalent to the amount of the stamp duty which would have been payable had the Bank of Madras executed a transfer in favour of the Bank of its immovable property in Ceylon.

Saving as to rights of His Majesty and others.

9 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, his heirs, and successors or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other persons, except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance, and those claiming by, from, or under them.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, GRAEME THOMSON,
Colombo, November 11, 1920. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Indian Legislature has by The Imperial Bank of India Act, 1920, provided for the constitution of a Bank to be called The Imperial Bank of India, which is to take over and conduct the business now carried on by the Presidency Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay. The Act is to come into force on a day to be appointed by the Governor-General of India in Council. On that day the Bank of Madras will cease to exist, and its whole undertaking will be transferred and vested in The Imperial Bank of India. The Indian Act makes the necessary provisions for this transfer, so far as India is concerned; but the Bank of Madras has a branch in Ceylon and owns property in Ceylon, and it is necessary to make provision by an Ordinance for the transfer of the undertaking of the Bank of Madras in Ceylon to the Imperial Bank of India when it comes into existence.

H. C. GOLLAN,
Attorney-General.
