THE following copy of a National Appeal for the Near East refugees, received from the Secretary, Imperial War Relief Fund, General Buildings, Aldwych, London, W.C. 2, is published for general information.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 5, 1923.

By His Excellency's command,

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

A RECONSTRUCTIVE RELIEF SCHEME.

A National Appeal for the Near East Refugees.

SIR,—SINCE the appeal for the Near East was launched from the Mansion House in October last, it has been possible to envisage the relief problem of the Near Eastern refugees more clearly as a whole, and it has become increasingly obvious that the effective means of dealing permanently with a problem of such magnitude is by the undertaking of relief work on a reconstructive basis.

An opportunity for such work is now offered by the Refugee Settlement Scheme which has been organized by Colonel Procter, the Deputy High Commissioner of the League of Nations. A district of land has been allotted in Greece to some 10,000 refugees by the Greek Government, who have supplied such building materials, agricultural implements, tools, &c., as will enable the refugees to build their own villages and settle permanently on the land. Food supplies which will last till the beginning of April are already in hand, but the interval between that date and the gathering of their harvest is unprovided for.

The High Commissioner of the League of Nations, realizing the importance of the settlement of the rural populations as a necessary preliminary to the whole problem of assisting the refugees, has requested the assistance of the British relief organizations to complete and extend this work of permanent relief. The Greek Government has given assurance of the supply of those essentials which will enable the refugees in this area to become self-supporting after the harvest is gathered; the Relief Societies associated in the All-British Appeal, who are already feeding 35,000 refugees in other parts of Greece, have agreed to provide the necessary food which will be distributed under British supervision; and, in view of the serious position which has been created by the outbreak of epidemics, the British Red Cross Society, who are also giving medical relief and assistance in other districts, have consented to take over and enlarge the hospital established by Lady Rumbold, and to administer medical relief over the whole of this area.

While we appreciate the very many calls upon the public purse at the present time, we cannot refrain from drawing the attention of the subscribing public to the fact that here is a scheme which will appeal not only to their common humanity, but which will contribute to the stabilization of economic conditions in the Near East which are so necessary to the peace and prosperity of all Europe.

We would, therefore, bring this appeal to the serious consideration of the British people. We feel sure that they will once more generously respond, and thus help to prevent the continuation of the present condition in the Near East which may otherwise result in widespread disaster.

Donations for this work of practical Christianity, which may be earmarked, if desired, for general relief purposes or for medical relief, will be gladly received by the Lord Mayor of London, Mansion House, London, E.C. Letters should be marked "Near East Relief."
