The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Defence Force Ordinance, 1910."

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Defence Force Ordinance, 1910": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Defence Force (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1922."

Short title.

2 The definition of "General Officer Commanding the Troops" in section 3 of the principal Ordinance is hereby struck out, and the following definition shall be inserted in lieu thereof:—

Amendment of section 3 of the principal Ordinance.

"General or other Officer Commanding the Troops" means the General or other Officer Commanding the Troops in the Colony, and includes the officer for the time being commanding the troops in the Colony, but does not include, except when on active service, an officer of lower rank than Colonel who is in command of the troops in consequence of the death, absence, or inability to act of the General or other Officer Commanding the Troops.

3 In all places in any Ordinance or in any rules or regulations made thereunder, in which there shall appear the expression "General Officer Commanding the Troops," there shall be substituted therefor the expression "General or other Officer Commanding the Troops."

New designation of Officer Commanding Troops.

Substitution of new section 9.

4 Section 9 of the principal Ordinance is hereby struck out, and there shall be inserted in lieu thereof the following section :—

Requisites of efficiency to be declared by General or other Officer Commanding.

9 The General or other Officer Commanding the Troops shall, after consultation with the Commandant, by means of regulations, lay down conditions of efficiency, to be approved by the Governor, which conditions shall specify the drill and courses of instruction to be attended, the musketry practice to be executed, and the proficiency to be attained before a soldier of the Defence Force can be passed as efficient.

Substitution of new section 12:

5 Section 12 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, and there shall be inserted in lieu thereof the following section :

Power for the General or other Officer Commanding to make regulations for government of Defence Force.

12 (1) The General or other Officer Commanding the Troops may, after consultation with the Commandant, make regulations, to be approved by the Governor, respecting anything in this Ordinance directed or authorized to be done or provided by regulation, and also such regulations as may seem fit (not being inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Ordinance) respecting—

- (a) The appointment, promotion, and rank of officers ;
- (b) The assembling and proceedings of courts of inquiry ;
- (c) Generally the execution of this Ordinance, and the general government, discipline, and training of the Defence Force.

(2) For the purpose of the discipline and training of all officers and soldiers of the Defence Force, whether persons to whom part IV. of the Ordinance applies or not, the power to make regulations under this section shall include power to make regulations for all the purposes referred to in paragraph (b) of section 40, in the same manner as if such officers or soldiers were in all cases persons to whom the said part applies.

Substitution of new section 17.

6 Section 17 of the principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, and there shall be inserted in lieu thereof the following section :

Pensions to officers and soldiers disabled on service, and to widows and families of those killed on service or died within three years after being so disabled.

17 All officers and soldiers of the Defence Force who shall have received wounds or injuries while on active service as aforesaid, or contracted any illness directly traceable to fatigue or exposure incident to such active service, and the widows and families of all such officers and soldiers of the Defence Force who may have been killed or have died within three years after having been wounded or injured, of wounds or injuries received during such active service, or have died within three years from illness directly traceable to fatigue or exposure incident to such active service, shall be entitled to such pensions or gratuities as shall be fixed by the Governor in Executive Council : Provided that no pension under this section shall exceed the sum of one thousand rupees per annum, and that no gratuity shall exceed the sum of one thousand rupees.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, February 25, 1922.

GRAEME THOMSON,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE rank of Officer Commanding the Troops contemplated by Ordinance No. 8 of 1910 is that of a General Officer ; but owing to the appointment of an officer of lower rank, it has become necessary to amend the definition of " General Officer Commanding the Troops " given in section 3 of the principal Ordinance. It is proposed, therefore, to substitute for that expression the expression " General or other Officer Commanding the Troops," which will make the definition more elastic. As a consequential amendment, it is also necessary to provide that, wherever in any Ordinance or in any rules or regulations made under it the expression " General Officer Commanding the Troops " appears, there shall be substituted for it the expression " General or other Officer Commanding the Troops."

2. Sections 9 and 12 of the principal Ordinance provide for the way in which powers given to the General Officer Commanding the Troops under those sections are to be exercised. It is proposed by the amendments contained in sections 4 and 5 of the Bill that those powers should be exercised only after consultation with the Commandant.

3. Section 17 of the principal Ordinance lays down the condition on which pensions and gratuities may be awarded to officers and soldiers of the Defence Force and their dependents. It has been found, however, that the provisions of that section are not very satisfactory. For instance, the widows and families of officers and soldiers who have died from illness directly traceable to fatigue or exposure incident to active service are entitled to such pensions or gratuities as may be fixed by the Governor in Executive Council. But an officer or soldier who has contracted any such illness is not entitled to a pension or gratuity. This difference of treatment is thought to press hardly on officers and soldiers of the Defence Force, and the section has been amended so as to cover such cases. Similarly, although an officer or soldier who has received an injury as distinct from a wound whilst on active service is entitled to a pension or gratuity, the widow or family of such officer or soldier would not be entitled to a pension or gratuity, if he died from such injury. The new section which is proposed to be substituted for section 17 of the principal Ordinance removes this difference.

This section has further been amended so as to increase the period within which death must take place from twelve months to three years on the recommendation of the Officer Commanding the Troops, who states that the limitation to twelve months works great hardship.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
Colombo, January 24, 1922.

Attorney-General.
