DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to incorporate the Comrades of the Great War (Ceylon) Association.

WHEREAS an association, called and known as "The Comrades of the Great War (Ceylon) Association," has heretofore been established in Ceylon for the purpose of effectually carrying out and transacting all matters connected with the said association according to the rules agreed to by its members: Preamble.

And whereas the said association has heretofore successfully carried out and transacted the several objects and matters for which it was established, and has applied to be incorporated, and it will be for the public advantage to grant the said application: O

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Comrades of the Great War (Ceylon) Association (Incorporation) Ordinance, No. of 1923." Short title.

2 (1) From and after the passing of this Ordinance the President, Vice-Presidents, and the members of the Committee for the time being of the said association, and such and so many persons as now are members of the said association or shall hereafter be admitted members of the corporation hereby constituted, shall be and become a corporation with continuance for ever under the name and style of "The Comrades of the Great War (Ceylon) Association," and by that name shall and may sue and be sued in all courts, with full power and authority to have and use a common seal and to change and alter the same at their pleasure. Incorporation.

(2) In the event of the association ceasing to exist from lack of members or from any other reason, the property of the association may be applied to such purposes, as nearly as possible resembling the objects of the association, as the Governor in Executive Council may direct.

- General objects. 3 The general objects for which the association is constituted are hereby declared to be to promote and perpetuate the spirit of comradeship, patriotism, and devotion which has characterized the fighting forces of the Empire, to perpetuate the memory of those who died in the Great War of 1914-1918, to watch and safeguard the interests of its members, to protect its members and their dependents, to assist and protect the women and children left by those who have fallen in the Great War, and to see that all monies raised and contributed from any source for the welfare of the members of the association are utilized for that purpose.
- Management. 4 The affairs of the association shall be managed by such Committee or Committees as may be prescribed by rules under this Ordinance.
- Power to make rules. 5 It shall be lawful for the association from time to time, at any general meeting of its members and by a majority of votes, to make all such rules as may be deemed necessary for the general management of the association, and the accomplishment of its objects. Such rules when made may, at a like meeting, be altered, added to, amended, or cancelled, subject, however, to the requirements of section 7.
- Rules in the schedule to be the rules of the association. 6 Subject to the provisions in the preceding section contained, the rules set forth in the schedule hereto shall be, for all purposes, the rules of the association. Provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall be held or construed to prevent the association at all times hereafter from making fresh rules, or from altering, amending, adding to, or cancelling any of the rules in the aforesaid schedule contained or to be hereafter made by the association.
- Amendments. 7 No rule in the schedule hereto, nor any rule hereafter passed at a general meeting as provided for in section 5 of this Ordinance, shall be altered, added to, amended, or cancelled, except by a majority of the members present and voting at any subsequent general meeting.
- Property vested in corporation. 8 On the coming into operation of this Ordinance all property belonging to the said Comrades of the Great War (Ceylon) Association, whether held in the name of the said association or in the name or names of any person or persons in trust for the said association, shall be and the same is hereby vested in the association hereby incorporated, and the same shall be held by the said association for the purposes of this Ordinance, and subject to the rules for the time being of the said association.
- Holding of property. 9 The association shall be able and capable in law to take and hold any property, movable or immovable, which may become vested in it by virtue of any purchase, gift, grant, testamentary disposition, donation, or otherwise, and all such property shall be held by the association for the purpose of this Ordinance, and subject to the rules for the time being of the said association, with the full power to sell, lease, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise dispose of the same.
- Debts, &c., due by or to Association. 10 All debts and liabilities of the said Comrades of the Great War (Ceylon) Association existing at the time of the coming into operation of this Ordinance shall be paid by the association hereby incorporated, and all debts due to, and subscriptions, contributions, donations, and fines payable to, the first-named association shall be paid to the hereby incorporated association for the purposes of this Ordinance.
- The seal. 11 The seal of the association shall not be affixed to any instrument whatsoever except in the presence of at least six of the members of the General Committee for the time being, and the members so present shall sign their names to the instrument in token of their presence, and such signing shall be independent of the signing of any person as witness.
- Rights of the Crown. 12 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, His Heirs, and Successors, or of any body politic or corporate or of any other person except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from, or under them.

SCHEDULE.

RULES.

1. (a) Membership.—There shall be no limit to the number of the members of the association, but every member must have served overseas in the Great War of 1914–1918 in the old or new forces of the British Army. Members of the special reserve who served overseas during such war shall be eligible as members.

(b) Subject to the terms of the last preceding paragraph the association shall be open to persons of all nationalities.

(c) Application for membership shall be made on a form to be obtained from the Secretary; and all such applications shall be dealt with by the Executive Committee, who shall have power to refuse any application without giving a reason.

(d) If any applicant is refused admittance, he may present his case through a member of the General Committee; and if supported by not less than five members, his claim may be heard by the General Committee, whose decision shall be final.

(e) Any person who is not eligible for full membership may be elected as an honorary member without voting powers, but he shall otherwise enjoy the full privileges of the association, and shall not be liable to pay any subscription.

(f) Any member who, on a complaint by any member to the General Committee or on the complaint of any member of the General Committee; is found guilty of conduct opposed to the constitution or spirit of the association may be suspended or expelled from the association by a vote of four-fifths of those present at a meeting of the General Committee.

2. (a) Subscription.—The annual subscription shall be two rupees, payable on the first day of January of each year.

(b) Such subscription shall entitle the member to all the privileges of the association for a period of one year.

(c) Each member shall, on payment of his subscription, receive a card of membership.

(d) No member's name shall be allowed to remain on the list of members of the association if his subscription is unpaid by the first day of March in any year, unless under special circumstances, which in each case shall be decided upon by the Executive Committee.

(e) The fee for life membership shall be five hundred rupees payable by yearly instalments of not less than one hundred rupees.

3. (a) General Committee.—The affairs of the association shall be managed by a General Committee, consisting of the Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, and not more than twenty-three members, to be elected annually by ballot, nine to form a quorum. This General Committee shall hold office until the next election of members of such Committee. The annual election shall take place as soon after the first day of January as possible.

(b) The following shall be ex officio members of the General Committee:

The President and Vice-Presidents.

(c) The General Committee shall appoint an Executive Committee of at least eight members, which shall include the Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall deal with all urgent matters and with applications for membership, four to form a quorum.

(d) The Executive Committee shall have power to fill any vacancy which may occur during the year in such Executive Committee.

(e) District Secretaries, where necessary, shall be appointed by the Executive Committee.

(f) The General Committee shall meet at least once a quarter. Special meetings may be convened by the President for the time being or by the Secretary at the written request of not less than three members. Notice of at least five days may be required for a meeting.

(g) The General Committee shall from time to time appoint such standing and special committees as it may deem necessary.

4. (a) Finance.—All monies received on behalf of the association shall be paid into a banking account in the name of the association.

(b) All payments must be sanctioned by the Executive Committee, and all cheques must be signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by a member of the Executive Committee.

5. Audit.—An auditor shall be elected or appointed for the current year at the annual general meeting.

6. General Meetings.—An annual general meeting shall be held early in the year on such day as the General Committee may appoint, when a statement of the affairs of the association for the previous financial year, duly audited, shall be exhibited. Its other functions shall be—

- (a) To determine any such questions of policy as may arise from time to time;
- (b) To decide general proposals relating to organizations and propaganda;
- (c) To deal generally with all matters affecting the interest and welfare of discharged sailors and soldiers which may come within the scope of the association;
- (d) To elect office-bearers for the current year;
- (e) To elect a general committee for the current year;
- (f) To transact any other business of which due notice shall have been given;
- (g) Fifty members shall form a quorum.

7. Extraordinary General Meetings.—The General Committee may call an extraordinary general meeting at any time to deal with urgent matters of importance, and also shall be bound to do so within a month of receiving a requisition signed by fifteen members of the association.

8. Notice of new Rules or Amendments, &c.—One month's notice of the intention shall be given in writing to the Secretary, and in the case of the annual general meeting, such notice shall be given not later than the first day of January.

9. Branches.—The General Committee may at such times and places as may seem to it advisable, establish branches of the association, and such branches shall for all purposes be subject to the control of the General Committee. All such branches shall be managed by a Committee of Management.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, September 4, 1923.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of the Ordinance is to incorporate the Comrades of the Great War (Ceylon) Association, which is an association established for the purpose—

- (1) Of promoting and perpetuating the spirit of comradeship, patriotism, and devotion which has characterized the fighting forces of the Empire;
- (2) Of perpetuating the memory of those who died in the Great War;
- (3) Of watching and safeguarding the interests of its members;
- (4) Of protecting its members and their dependents;
- (5) Of assisting and protecting the women and children left by those who have fallen in the Great War;
- (6) Of seeing that all monies raised and contributed from any source for the welfare of the members of the corporation are utilized for that purpose.

2. The Ordinance provides for the appointment of a Committee or Committees as may be prescribed by rules thereunder to manage the affairs of the association (section 4); for the vesting and holding of property in, and by, the association (sections 8 and 9); and for dealing with the debts and liabilities of the existing association.

3. The association is given the power to make rules for the purposes of administering its funds, conducting business, and generally managing its affairs (section 6). Rules are scheduled to the Bill which are to remain in force until altered or revoked by the association (sections 6 and 7).
