DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to amend "The Estate Duty Ordinance, No. 8 of 1919."

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Estate Duty Ordinance, No. 8 of 1919": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Estate Duty (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1923."

2 The following shall be inserted as section 17 A of the principal Ordinance:

17 A. The local situation in the United Kingdom of any property shall be determined in accordance with the law of England with regard to the local situation of property within the meaning of section 20 of the Finance Act, 1894, of the Imperial Parliament.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colombo, September 14, 1923. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTION 20 of the Finance Act, 1894, provides that where the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in England are satisfied that in a British Possession to which that section applies duty is payable by reason of a death in respect of any property situate in such Possession and passing on such death, the Commissioners are to allow a sum equal to the amount of that duty to be deducted from the estate duty payable in respect of that property on the same death.

2. The condition on which that section is made applicable to any particular British Possession depends upon the making of an Order in Council applying that section to the British Possession; but before that application can be made His Majesty in Council must be satisfied that by the law of that Possession either no duty is leviable in respect of property situate in the United Kingdom, or that the law of such Possession as respects any duty so leviable is to the like effect as the provisions of that section.

3. The Secretary of State has pointed out that it is not made absolutely clear in the Estate Duty Ordinance, No. 8 of 1919, that the local situation of property in the United Kingdom is to be decided according to the law of England, and has requested that this matter be dealt with. The object of this Bill is to satisfy the requirements of the Secretary of State.

Deputy Fiscal's Office,
Negombo, July 15, 1923.

FRED. G. HEPPONSTALL,
Deputy Fiscal.

DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Births and Deaths Registration Ordinance, 1895."

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Births and Deaths Registration Ordinance, 1895": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Births and Deaths Registration (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1923."

2 Section 35 of the principal Ordinance is amended by striking out the word "Governor" in line 1 thereof, and inserting in its place the words "Registrar-General."

Preamble.

Short title.

Amendment of section 35 of the principal Ordinance.

Amendment of section 47 of the principal Ordinance.

3 Section 47 of the principal Ordinance is amended as follows :

- (a) By numbering the said section as sub-section (1) ;
- (b) By inserting the following as sub-section (2) :

(2) The Governor in Executive Council may by Proclamation published in the "Government Gazette" declare that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any particular division named in such Proclamation, and thereupon such provisions shall not apply within such division as aforesaid.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 12, 1923.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

As the result of the amendment of section 7 of the principal Ordinance, by Ordinance No. 14 of 1922, registrars of proclaimed districts under section 34 of that enactment are appointable by the Registrar-General ; but by an oversight deputy registrars under section 35 must be appointed by the Governor. This is obviously unnecessary, and the necessary amendment is made by section 2 of the Bill.

The amendment to section 47 of the principal Ordinance has been carried out to give effect to a recommendation made by the Retrenchment Commission. In his evidence before the Commission, the Registrar-General expressed the opinion that it was unnecessary to require the report of a policeman or village headman before a birth or death could be registered. But it is thought well to give effect to this recommendation of the Registrar-General gradually ; and for that reason, instead of repealing the section, power is given to dispense with the requirements of section 47 in proclaimed divisions.

Attorney-General.
