DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend “ The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1909.”

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend “ The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Ordinance, 1909 ”: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as “ The Contagious Diseases (Animals) (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1923.”

2 Section 5 of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects :

- (a) By inserting immediately after the words “ Government Agent ” in line 1 of sub-section (1) thereof the words “ or to a chief headman of a division ”;
- (b) By inserting at the end of the said sub-section (1) the following words :

The chief headman shall forthwith send to the Government Agent a copy of any such declaration as aforesaid made by him.

- (c) By striking out the words “ his declaration ” in line 2 of sub-section (3) thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the words “ any such declaration as aforesaid ”;
- (d) By inserting at the end of sub-section (4) thereof the words “ or a chief headman ”;

Preamble.

Short title.

Amendment of section 5 of the principal Ordinance.

- (e) By striking out the words "Where a Government Agent has proclaimed an area, he" in line 1 of sub-section (5) thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Where an area has been proclaimed by the Government Agent or by a chief headman as aforesaid, such Government Agent";
- (f) By inserting immediately after the words "Government Agent" in line 4 of sub-section (6) thereof the words "or a chief headman."

By His Excellency's command,
 Colonial Secretary's Office, CECIL CLEMENTI,
 Colombo, September 27, 1923. Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

It has been found that avoidable delay is caused by a chief headman having to report to a Government Agent before an area in which the cattle disease has appeared can be proclaimed under section 5 of the principal Ordinance. This delay may involve very serious consequences as before action can be taken by the Government Agent, it may readily happen that an epidemic which might have been easily arrested has time to take hold of a district.

It has been represented to Government that this dangerous and avoidable delay could be dealt with if a chief headman were given the power to proclaim a district directly he ascertains that disease has appeared in it without waiting for the authority of the Government Agent. It is thought that such a change would be in the interests of the agricultural community, and consequently it is proposed by the Bill to amend section 5 of the principal Ordinance so as to allow of infected areas being declared at once by a chief headman. It will be observed, however, that the complete control of the Governor in Executive Council over declarations of infected areas will be maintained in the amended section.

Attorney-General's Chambers,
 Colombo, August 18, 1923.

H. C. GOLLAN,
 Attorney-General.
