By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, November 23, 1923.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

INASMUCH as (1) the Anglican portion of the population has shifted from the Pettah, (2) there is no space for additional buildings necessary for parochial purposes, and (3) the incessant noise of business makes the site increasingly undesirable, the decision has been taken by the Anglican Church authorities that it is advisable to sell the site of St. Paul's Church with the object of providing a church near the church population, with space for additional buildings and in a quieter neighbourhood, and this Bill has been introduced to allow of that decision being given effect to. In the event of there being any surplus left after providing for the purchase of land and the erection of a new church, the surplus may be applied to the endowment of the new church and its services.
