Appointment of Public Trustee.

3 It shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint an officer to be called the Public Trustee.

Public Trustee
to be a corporation.

4 The Public Trustee shall be a corporation sole under that name, with perpetual succession and an official seal, and may sue and be sued under the above name like any other corporation sole.

Appointment and powers of Deputy Public
Trustee.

5 The Governor may appoint a deputy or deputies to assist the Public Trustee; and any deputy so appointed shall, subject to the general or specific orders of the Public Trustee, be competent to discharge any of the duties and exercise any of the powers of the Public Trustee, and, when discharging such duties or exercising such powers, shall have the same privileges and be subject to the same liabilities as the Public Trustee.

General powers and duties of Public Trustee.

Powers, Duties, Liabilities, and Immunities of Public Trustee.

6 (1) The Public Trustee shall, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and rules made thereunder, be capable of being appointed and of acting under that name—

- (a) As an ordinary trustee;
- (b) As collector of estates under an order to collect;
- (c) As a custodian trustee.

(2) Save as hereinafter expressly provided, the Public Trustee shall have the same powers, duties, and liabilities, and be entitled to the same rights and privileges, and be subject to the same control and orders of the court as any other trustee acting in the same capacity.

Applications to the court.

7 (1) A person aggrieved by any act or omission or decision of the Public Trustee in relation to any trust may apply to the court, and the court may make such order in the matter as the court thinks just.

(2) The Public Trustee may apply to the court for its discretion or opinion on any question arising in the course of the administration of any trust, and the court may deal with any such application as the justice of the matter may require.

(3) The Judges of the Supreme Court may make rules regulating the procedure to be observed in all applications under this section, and, pending the making of such rules, such procedure shall be followed as shall be directed by the court.

(4) For the purpose of the calculation of stamp duty on any such proceedings, whenever the subject-matter in issue is of the value of one thousand five hundred rupees or over, such subject-matter shall be charged as of the value of one thousand five hundred rupees, and, whenever the subject-matter in issue is of the value of less than one thousand five hundred rupees, no stamp duty shall be charged in respect of any such proceedings, excepting stamp duty payable in respect of service of process.

Liability of public revenue for acts of Public Trustee.

8 The public revenue of the Colony shall be liable to make good all sums required to discharge any liability which the Public Trustee, if he were a private trustee, would be personally liable to discharge, except where the liability is one to which neither the Public Trustee nor any of his officers has in any way contributed, and which neither he nor any of his officers could by the exercise of reasonable diligence have averted, and in that case the Public Trustee shall not, nor shall the public revenue of the Colony, be subject to any liability.

Notice of action against Public
Trustee.

9 (1) If any suit be brought by a creditor against the Public Trustee, such creditor shall be liable to pay the costs of the suit, unless he proves that not less than one month previous to the institution of the suit he had applied in writing to the Public Trustee stating the amount and other particulars of his claim, and had given such evidence in support thereof as, in the circumstances of the case, the Public Trustee was reasonably entitled to require and had required.

(2) If any such suit is decreed in favour of the creditor, he shall, nevertheless, unless he is a secured creditor or otherwise entitled to preference, be only entitled to payment out of the assets of the deceased equally and rateably with the other creditors.

(3) Nothing in section 461 of "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889," shall apply to any suit against the Public Trustee in which no relief is claimed against him personally.

10 Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Public Trustee may decline, either absolutely or except on conditions which he may lay down to accept any trust, but he shall not decline to accept any trust on the ground only of the small value of the trust property.

Public Trustee may decline any trust, but not on ground of small value.

11 The Public Trustee shall not accept any trust which involves the management or carrying on of any business, except in the cases in which he may be authorized to do so by rules made under this Ordinance, or for the purpose of winding up an estate, nor any trust under a deed of arrangement for the benefit of creditors, nor any trust exclusively for religious or charitable purposes.

Not to accept certain trusts.

12 The Public Trustee shall, except where he is appointed a custodian trustee, always be sole trustee, and it shall not be lawful to appoint the Public Trustee to be trustee along with any other person.

Public Trustee to be sole trustee.

13 If any minor or lunatic is entitled to any gift, legacy, or share of the assets of a deceased person, it shall be lawful for the Public Trustee to retain the same in his hands as trustee for such minor or lunatic pending the order of court, or until claimed by a duly appointed trustee.

Public Trustee to retain share of minor, &c.

14 (1) If any minor or lunatic is entitled to any gift, legacy, or share of the assets of a deceased person, it shall be lawful for the person by whom such gift is made, or for the executor or administrator by whom such legacy or share is payable or transferable, or for any trustee of such gift, legacy, or share, to transfer the same by an instrument in writing to the Public Trustee, if he consents thereto.

Executor or administrator may pay to official trustee, legacy, share, &c., of minor or lunatic.

(2) If any minor or lunatic is entitled to any money which is in court, the court may, if it thinks fit, order, with the consent of the Public Trustee, that such money shall be transferred to the Public Trustee.

15 When any money of any minor or lunatic is in the hands of the Public Trustee, in the absence of any order of court, the Public Trustee may from time to time pay such sum of money to such person as he thinks fit, to be applied by such person for the maintenance, education, and advancement of such minor or lunatic, or may himself so apply such sum.

Maintenance of minors and lunatics.

16 The entry of the Public Trustee by that name in the books of a company shall not constitute notice of a trust, and a company shall not be entitled to object to enter the name of the Public Trustee on its books by reason only that the Public Trustee is a corporation, and, in dealings with property, the fact that the person or one of the persons dealt with is the Public Trustee, shall not of itself constitute notice of a trust.

Entry of Public Trustee in books of a company.

17 (1) Whenever the Public Trustee applies for letters of administration in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, it shall be sufficient if the petition required to be presented for the grant of such letters states—

Public Trustee's petition for grant of letters of administration.

- (a) The time and place of the death of the deceased to the best of the knowledge and belief of the petitioner;
- (b) The names and addresses of the surviving next of kin of the deceased if known;
- (c) The full and true particulars of the property left by the deceased so far as he has been able to ascertain the same;
- (d) Particulars of the liabilities of the estate if known.

(2) Save as provided in this section, the Public Trustee shall not be required to file accounts of the property of the deceased before the court.

18 Notwithstanding anything in "The Civil Procedure Code, 1889," contained, the Public Trustee shall not be called upon to take any oath as an executor or administrator.

Public Trustee not to take oath as executor or administrator.

Public Trustee need not give bond or security nor pay assessed estate duty in advance.

19 (1) Where any bond or security would be required from a private person upon the grant to him of administration, or upon his appointment to act in any capacity, the Public Trustee, if administration is granted to him, or if he is appointed to act in such capacity as aforesaid, shall not be required to give such bond or security, but shall be subject to the same liabilities and duties as if he had given such bond or security.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in section 23 of "The Estate Duty Ordinance, No. 8 of 1919," contained, it shall be lawful for the District Court to grant probate or letters of administration to the Public Trustee without the payment of the amount of assessed estate duty having been made or secured as therein provided, but nothing herein contained shall exempt the Public Trustee from eventually paying such estate duty as is required under the provisions of the said Ordinance.

Prescribed person may act for Public Trustee, except as to acts which can be done only by an advocate or proctor.

20 On behalf of the Public Trustee, such person as may be prescribed may take any oath, make any declaration, verify any account, give personal attendance at any court or place, and do any act or thing whatsoever which the Public Trustee is required or authorized to take, make, verify, give, or do: Provided that nothing in this Ordinance or in any rule made under this Ordinance shall confer upon any person not otherwise entitled thereto any right to appear, or act, or be heard in or before any court or tribunal, on behalf or instead of the Public Trustee, or to do any act whatsoever on behalf or on the instructions of the Public Trustee, which could otherwise be lawfully done only by an advocate or a proctor.

Power to examine on oath.

21 The Public Trustee may, whenever he desires, for the purposes of this Ordinance, to satisfy himself regarding any question of fact, examine upon oath, which he is hereby authorized to administer, any person who is willing to be so examined by him regarding such question.

The Public Trustee as Ordinary Trustee.

Appointment of Public Trustee to be trustee.

22 (1) The Public Trustee may by that name, or any other sufficient description, be appointed to be trustee of any will or settlement or other instrument creating a trust or to perform any trust or duty belonging to a class which he is authorized by the rules made under this Ordinance to accept, and may be so appointed whether the will or settlement or instrument creating the trust or duty was made or came into operation before or after the passing of this Ordinance, and either as an original or as a new trustee, in the same cases, and in the same manner, and by the same persons or court, as if he were a private trustee, with this modification, that, though the trustees originally appointed were two or more, the Public Trustee may be appointed sole trustee.

Retirement of original trustees.

(2) Where the Public Trustee has been appointed a trustee of any trust, all existing trustees under the trust shall upon such appointment cease to be trustees.

Public Trustee not to be new trustee where settlement forbids.

(3) The Public Trustee shall not be so appointed as a new trustee where the will, settlement, or other instrument creating the trust or duty contains a direction to the contrary, unless the court otherwise order.

Notice of proposed appointment of Public Trustee.

(4) Notice of any proposed appointment of the Public Trustee as a new trustee shall, where practicable, be given in the prescribed manner to all persons beneficially interested or to any existing trustee who are resident in Ceylon, and whose addresses are known to the persons proposing to make the appointment, or, if such beneficiaries are infants, to their guardians; and if any such person as aforesaid entitled to notice within twenty-one days from the receipt of the notice applies to the court, the court may, if, having regard to the interests of all the beneficiaries, it considers it expedient to do so, make an order prohibiting the appointment being made, provided that a failure to give any such notice shall not invalidate any appointment made under this section.

(5) Where, by the terms of an instrument of trust or a will, the consent of any person is requisite to the appointment of a trustee, and such person refuses to consent to the appointment of the Public Trustee to such office, or where the person whose consent is so requisite is a minor, idiot, or lunatic, or a person of unsound mind, or is absent from the Island, or is under any other disability, then such appointment of the Public Trustee may be made without such consent, if the court so orders and directs.

23 (1) The court may grant probate or letters of administration of any will or estate to the Public Trustee by that name, and for that purpose the court shall consider the Public Trustee as in law entitled equally with any other person or class of persons to obtain the grant of letters of administration, save that the consent or citation of the Public Trustee shall not be required for the grant of letters of administration to any other person, and that, as between the Public Trustee and the widower, widow, or next of kin of the deceased, the widower, widow, or next of kin shall be preferred, unless for good cause shown to the contrary.

(2) Any executor who has obtained probate, or any administrator who has obtained letters of administration, notwithstanding he has acted in the administration of the deceased's estate, and notwithstanding the existence of any other executor or administrator, may apply to the court for an order transferring such estate to the Public Trustee for administration. If the court makes any such order, the estate of the deceased left unadministered and all rights and obligations in respect thereof shall, without other assurances in the law, become and be conveyed, assigned, and transferred to the Public Trustee as executor or administrator, as the case may be, so that the same shall thereupon become and be legally and effectually vested in him, and, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Public Trustee shall have all the powers of such executor or executors, administrator or administrators, and such executor or executors, administrator or administrators, shall not be in any way liable in respect of any act or default in reference to such estate subsequent to the date of such order other than the act or default of himself or themselves, or of persons other than himself or themselves for whose conduct he or they is or are in law responsible.

24 The heirs of an intestate, the gross capital value of whose estate does not exceed ten thousand rupees, may apply to the Public Trustee to administer the estate, and where any such application is made, and it appears to the Public Trustee that the persons beneficially entitled are persons of small means, the Public Trustee shall apply for letters of administration to the estate and administer the same, unless he sees good reason for refusing to do so.

25 Where an application for probate or letters of administration has been made to a court by a person other than an executor named in the will, and most of the persons interested in the estate as beneficiaries under the will, or heirs make it appear either at the time of making the application or subsequently to the court that the estate can be more economically or satisfactorily administered by the Public Trustee, it shall be competent to the court to appoint the Public Trustee if he consents to administer the estate.

26 Whenever any person has died leaving an estate within the Island, the court, on being satisfied that danger is to be apprehended of misappropriation, deterioration, or waste of such estate unless letters of administration of the estate of such person are granted, may, upon the application of the Public Trustee or of any person interested in such estate or in the due administration thereof, make an order, upon such terms as to indemnifying the Public Trustee against costs and other expenses as the court thinks fit, directing the Public Trustee to apply for letters of administration of the estate of such person.

27 (1) Whenever any person has died leaving an estate within the Island, and the court is satisfied that there is no person immediately available who is legally entitled to the succession to such estate, or that danger is to be apprehended of misappropriation, deterioration, or waste of such estate, before it can be determined who may be legally entitled to the succession thereto, or whether the Public Trustee is entitled Power as to granting probate.

Transfer of administration to Public Trustee by executor or administrator.

Administration of estates under ten thousand rupees by Public Trustee on the application of heirs.

Application by beneficiaries or heirs that Public Trustee be appointed.

Power of court to direct Public Trustee to apply for administration.

Power to direct Public Trustee to collect and hold assets until right of succession is determined.

to letters of administration of the estate of such deceased person, the court may, upon the application of the Public Trustee or of any person interested in such estate, or in the due administration thereof, forthwith direct the Public Trustee to collect and take possession of such estate, and to hold, deposit, realize, sell, or invest the same according to the directions of the court; and in default of any such directions, according to the provisions of this Ordinance so far as the same are applicable to such estate.

(2) Any order of the court made under the provisions of this section shall entitle the Public Trustee—

- (a) To maintain any suit or proceeding for the recovery of such estate or any part thereof; and
- (b) If he thinks fit, to apply for letters of administration of the estate of such deceased person; and
- (c) To retain out of the estate any fees chargeable under rules made under this Ordinance, and to reimburse himself for all payments made by him in respect of such estate which a private administrator might lawfully have made.

Grant or probate or letters to person appearing in the course of proceedings taken by Public Trustee under sections 26 and 27.

28 If in the course of proceedings under the provisions of sections 26 and 27 any person appears and establishes his claim to probate of a will, or to a grant of letters of administration as next of kin of the deceased, and gives such security as may be required by him by law, the court shall grant probate of the will or letters of administration accordingly, and shall award to the Public Trustee the costs of any proceedings taken by him under this section to be paid out of the estate as part of the testamentary or intestate expenses thereof. But if no person appears and establishes his claim to probate of a will, or to a grant of letters of administration as next of kin of the deceased within such period as to the court seems reasonable, or if any person who has established his claim to a grant of letters of administration as next of kin of the deceased fails to give such security as may be required by him by law, the court may grant letters of administration to the Public Trustee.

Recall of Public Trustee's administration, and grant of probate, &c., to executor or next of kin.

29 If an executor or next of kin of the deceased who has not been personally served with a citation, or who has not had notice thereof in time to appear pursuant thereto, establishes to the satisfaction of the court a claim to probate of a will or to letters of administration in preference to the Public Trustee, any letters of administration granted in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance to the Public Trustee may be revoked, and probate or letters of administration may be granted to such executor or next of kin as the case may be:

Provided that no letters of administration granted to the Public Trustee shall be revoked for the cause aforesaid without his consent, unless the application for that purpose is made within twelve months after the grant to the Public Trustee, and the court is satisfied that there has been no unreasonable delay in making the application, or in transmitting the authority under which the application is made.

Cost of obtaining administration, &c., may on revocation be ordered to be paid to Public Trustee out of assets.

30 If any letters of administration granted to the Public Trustee in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance are revoked, the court may order the costs of obtaining such letters of administration, and the whole or any part of any fees which would otherwise have been payable under this Ordinance, together with the costs of the Public Trustee in any proceedings taken to obtain such revocation, to be paid to or retained by the Public Trustee out of the estate:

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 27.

After revocation letters granted to Public Trustee to be deemed as to him to have been voidable only.

31 If any letters of administration granted to the Public Trustee in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance are revoked, the same shall, so far as regards the Public Trustee and all persons acting under his authority in pursuance thereof, be deemed to have been only voidable, except as to any act done by such Public Trustee or other person as aforesaid, after notice of a will or of any other fact which would render such letters void:

Provided that no notice of a will or of any other fact which would render any such letters void shall affect the Public Trustee or any person acting under his authority in pursuance of such letters, unless, within the period of one month from the time of giving such notice, proceedings are commenced to prove the will, or to cause the letters to be revoked, and such proceedings are prosecuted without unreasonable delay.

32 If any letters of administration granted to the Public Trustee in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance are revoked upon the grant of probate of a will, or upon the grant of letters of administration with a copy of the will annexed, all payments made or acts done by or under the authority of the Public Trustee in pursuance of such letters of administration prior to the revocation, which would have been valid under any letters of administration lawfully granted to him with a copy of such will annexed, shall be deemed valid notwithstanding such revocation.

Payments made by Public Trustee prior to revocation.

The Public Trustee as Collector under an Order to Collect.

33 (1) Whenever it is made to appear to the court that there is reasonable ground to suppose that any person has died intestate leaving property in the Island, the court may order and empower the Public Trustee to collect the estate of such person.

Administration of estate of person believed to be dead.

(2) Every such order shall be valid until revoked, and shall empower the Public Trustee to—

- (a) Collect, manage, and administer the movable property of such supposed deceased person;
- (b) Enter upon and receive the rents and profits and otherwise manage the immovable property; and
- (c) Pay and discharge the debts and liabilities of such person;

in like manner as if he were certainly dead, and the Public Trustee had obtained letters of administration to his estate.

(3) The Public Trustee shall not proceed to any distribution of the assets without an order of the court specially authorizing him to make such distribution.

(4) Within fourteen days after any order to collect has been granted, the Public Trustee shall, unless the court otherwise orders, cause notice of the fact that such order has been granted to be published twice in some newspaper published in the town or place where such person resided, or if there is no such newspaper, then twice in some daily newspaper published in the Island.

The Public Trustee as Custodian Trustee.

34 (1) Subject to rules under this Ordinance, the Public Trustee may, if he consents to act as such, and whether or not the number of trustees has been reduced below the original number, be appointed to be custodian trustee of any trust—

trustee.

- (a) By order of the court made on the application of any person on whose application the court may order the appointment of a new trustee; or
- (b) By the testator, settlor, or other creator of any trust; or
- (c) By the person having power to appoint new trustees.

(2) Where the Public Trustee is appointed to be custodian trustee of any trust—

- (a) The trust property shall be transferred to the custodian trustee as if he were sole trustee, and for that purpose vesting orders may, where necessary, be made under "The Trusts Ordinance, No. 9 of 1917";
- (b) The management of the trust property and the exercise of any power or discretion exercisable by the trustees under the trust shall remain vested in the trustees other than the custodian trustee (which trustees are hereinafter referred to as the managing trustees);
- (c) As between the custodian trustee and the managing trustees, and subject and without prejudice to the rights of any other persons, the custodian trustee shall have the custody of all securities and documents of title relating to the trust property, but the managing trustees shall have free access thereto and be entitled to take copies thereof or extracts therefrom;

- (d) The custodian trustee shall concur in and perform all acts necessary to enable the managing trustees to exercise their powers of management or any other power or discretion vested in them (including the power to pay money or securities into court), unless the matter in which he is requested to concur is a breach of trust, or involves a personal liability upon him in respect of calls or otherwise, but, unless he so concurs, the custodian trustee shall not be liable for any act or default on the part of the managing trustees or any of them;
- (e) All sums payable to or out of the income or capital of the trust property shall be paid to or by the custodian trustee: Provided that the custodian trustee may allow the dividends and other income derived from the trust property to be paid to the managing trustees or to such person as they may direct, or into such bank to the credit of such person as they may direct, and in such case shall be exonerated from seeing to the application thereof, and shall not be answerable for any loss or misapplication thereof;
- (f) The power of appointing new trustees, when exercisable by the trustees, shall be exercisable by the managing trustees alone, but the custodian trustee shall have the same power of applying to the court for the appointment of a new trustee as any other trustee;
- (g) In determining the number of trustees for the purposes of "The Trusts Ordinance, No. 9 of 1917," the custodian trustee shall not be reckoned as a trustee;
- (h) The custodian trustee, if he acts in good faith, shall not be liable for accepting as correct and acting upon the faith of any written statement by the managing trustees as to any birth, death, marriage, or other matter of pedigree or relationship, or other matter of fact, upon which the title to the trust property or any part thereof may depend, nor for acting upon any legal advice obtained by the managing trustees independently of the custodian trustee;
- (i) The court may, on the application of either the custodian trustee, or any of the managing trustees, or of any beneficiary, and on proof to their satisfaction that it is the general wish of the beneficiaries, or that on other grounds it is expedient, to terminate the custodian trusteeship, make an order for that purpose, and the court may thereupon make such vesting orders and give such directions as under the circumstances may seem to the court to be necessary or expedient.

(3) The provisions of this section shall apply in like manner as to the Public Trustee, to any banking or insurance company or other body corporate entitled by rules made under this Ordinance to act as custodian trustee, with power for such company or body corporate to charge and retain or pay out of the trust property fees not exceeding the fees chargeable by the Public Trustee as custodian trustee.

Distribution of Assets of Estates.

Distribution of assets.

35 (1) When the Public Trustee has given the prescribed notice for creditors and others to send in to him their claims against the estate of the deceased, he shall, at the expiration of the time therein named for sending in claims, be at liberty to distribute the assets or any part thereof in discharge of such lawful claims as he has notice of.

(2) He shall not be liable for the assets so distributed to any person of whose claim he had no notice at the time of such distribution.

(3) No notice of any claim which has been sent in and has been rejected or disallowed in part by the Public Trustee shall affect him unless proceedings to enforce such claim are commenced within three months after notice of the rejection or disallowance of such claim has been given in the prescribed manner, and unless such proceedings are prosecuted without unreasonable delay.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the right of any creditor or other claimant to follow the assets or any part thereof in the hands of the persons who may have received the same respectively.

(5) In computing the period of limitation for any suit, appeal, or application under the provisions of any law for the time being in force, the period between the date of submission of the claim of a creditor to the Public Trustee and the date of the final decision of the Public Trustee on such claim shall be excluded.

36 When any moneys payable to a beneficiary under a trust have been in the hands of the Public Trustee for a period of twelve years or upwards in consequence of the Public Trustee having been unable to trace the person entitled to receive the same, such moneys shall be paid over to the Colonial Treasurer by the Public Trustee to be carried to the account of the public revenue :

Provided that no such moneys shall be so paid over if any action or proceeding is pending in respect thereof in any court.

37 (1) If any claim is made to any moneys so paid over, and such claim is established to the satisfaction of the Governor in Executive Council, the Governor in Executive Council shall order the payment to the claimant of the amount in respect of which the claim is established.

(2) If such claim is not established to the satisfaction of the Governor in Executive Council, the claimant may, without prejudice to his right to take any other proceedings for the recovery of such moneys, apply by petition to the court, and, after taking such evidence as it thinks fit, such court shall make such order on the petition in regard to the payment of such moneys as it thinks fit.

(3) The court may further direct by whom all or any part of the costs of such proceedings shall be paid.

38 (1) There shall be charged in respect of the duties of the Public Trustee such fees, whether by way of percentage or otherwise, as may be prescribed.

(2) The fees under this section may be at different rates for different properties or classes of properties or for different duties, and shall, so far as may be, be arranged so as to produce an amount sufficient to discharge the salaries and all other expenses incidental to the working of this Ordinance (including such sum as the Governor may determine to be required to insure the public revenue against loss under this Ordinance).

(3) The incidence of the fees and expenses under this section as between capital and income shall be determined by the Public Trustee.

(4) Any expenses which might be retained or paid out of the trust fund, if the Public Trustee were a private trustee, shall be so retained or paid, and any fees leviable under this Ordinance shall be retained or paid in like manner as and in addition to such expenses.

39 The Public Trustee shall transfer and pay to the Colonial Treasurer in such manner and at such times as the Governor may prescribe all fees received by him under this Ordinance, and the same shall be carried to the credit of the Government of Ceylon.

Audit.

40 (1) The accounts of the Public Trustee shall be audited at least once annually, and at any time if the Governor so direct, by the prescribed person and in the prescribed manner.

(2) The auditor shall examine such accounts, and shall forward to the Colonial Secretary a statement thereof in the prescribed form, together with a report thereon and a certificate signed by him, showing—

- (a) Whether the accounts contain a full and true account of everything which ought to be contained therein ; and
