Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 19 of 1922.

An Ordinance to Incorporate the British Soldiers' and Sailors' Institute of Colombo.

W. H. MANNING.

WHEREAS by "The Colombo Sailors' Home Ordinance, 1877," it was enacted that the Principal Collector of Customs of this Colony and the Master Attendant of the Port of Colombo for the time being shall be ex officio trustees of the Colombo Sailors' Home, and the Governor was empowered to appoint from time to time a third trustee to act with the said ex officio trustees in the execution of the trusts of the said Home:

Preamble.

And whereas by "The Colombo Sailors' Home Ordinance, 1906," it was enacted that the aforesaid trustees shall permit the buildings and premises vested in them or which may thereafter become vested in them to be opened for the admission and entertainment of soldiers as well as sailors:

And whereas the buildings and premises used as the said Colombo Sailors' Home have become unsuitable for the purpose for which they were intended, and it is necessary and expedient to sell the same and make other provisions for carrying out the objects of the said trust:

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The British Soldiers' and Sailors' Institute of Colombo (Incorporation) Ordinance, No. 19 of 1922."

Short title.

2 (1) The trustees appointed by "The Colombo Sailors' Home Ordinance, 1877," shall have power to sell to the best advantage the properties vested in or belonging to them as such trustees and to hand over to the trustees hereinafter provided the proceeds of such sale, after defraying all liabilities, if any, of the said Colombo Sailors' Home and of the cost of effecting such sale.

Power to sell premises of Colombo Sailors' Home, and expiration of existing trust.

(2) The trusts, powers, and authorities vested in, held, possessed, or exercised by the trustees appointed under "The Colombo Sailors' Home Ordinance, 1877," shall be deemed to have expired on such sale and handing over of the proceeds thereof to the trustees hereinafter provided.

3 (1) From and after the passing of this Ordinance the Government Agent of the Western Province for the time being, the Principal Collector of Customs for the time being, the General Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of Colombo for the time being, a person to be appointed by the Governor to represent His Majesty's Naval and Military Forces, and a person to be appointed by the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce to represent the said Chamber, shall be the trustees of "The British Soldiers' and Sailors' Institute of Colombo," hereinafter referred to as the Institute, and be and become a body corporate with continuance for ever under the style and name of "The British Soldiers' and Sailors' Institute of Colombo," and by that name shall and may sue and be sued in all courts of justice in the Island, with full power and authority to have and use a common seal and to change and alter the same at their pleasure.

Incorporation of trustees.

(2) If any trustee appointed as aforesaid by the Governor or the Chamber of Commerce is absent from the Colony for a period exceeding three months, or if he resigns or dies, or if he becomes incapable of acting as trustee, or if the Governor or Chamber of Commerce, at his or their discretion, cancels the appointment of any trustee made by him or them, the Governor or the Chamber of Commerce, as the case may be, may appoint another person in the place of any trustee who is so absent or has resigned, died, or become incapable of acting or whose appointment has been cancelled as aforesaid.

Object of the Institute.	4 The object of the Institute shall be to provide the privileges of club life for soldiers and sailors ashore in Colombo, and the Institute shall be maintained for the use of British soldiers and sailors without any distinction of colour or race: provided, however, others may be admitted from time to time at the discretion of the trustees.
Provision of necessary land or buildings.	5 The trustees may, for the purposes of this Ordinance, take and hold any property, movable or immovable, which may become vested in them by virtue of any purchase, grant, gift, testamentary disposition, or otherwise, and may, subject to any trust affecting the same, sell, mortgage, lease, exchange, or otherwise deal with the same for such purposes as aforesaid.
Management and control of Institute and its property.	6 The trustees shall be responsible for the entire control and management of the Institute, and may make such rules as they deem fit for the management and use of the Institute.
Contribution out of public revenue towards expenses of Institute.	7 There shall be paid, monthly, to the trustees of the Institute by the Colonial Treasurer out of the revenue of the Colony, a sum not exceeding half the amount expended during the previous month by the trustees in carrying on the Institute, provided that no such payment shall exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty rupees in any one month.
Repeal.	8 "The Colombo Sailors' Home Ordinance, 1877," and "The Colombo Sailors' Home Ordinance, 1906," are hereby repealed subject to the power hereinbefore given to the trustees of the said Home for the sale of the premises thereof, and for the handing over of the proceeds of such sale to the trustees of the Institute.
Saving clause.	9 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, his heirs and successors, or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other persons except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance and those claiming by, from, or under them.
