DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to carry out certain Conventions relating to the Employment of Women, Young Persons, and Children.

WHEREAS at Washington, on the Twenty-eighth day of November, Nineteen hundred and Nineteen, a general conference of the International Labour Organization of the League of Nations adopted three conventions containing (together with other provisions) the provisions set out in Part I., Part II., and Part III. of the schedule to this Ordinance :

Preamble.

And whereas at Genoa, on the Ninth day of July, Nineteen hundred and Twenty, a general conference of the International Labour Organization of the League of Nations adopted a convention containing (together with other provisions) the provisions set out in Part IV. of the schedule to this Ordinance :

And whereas power is given under the conventions hereinbefore mentioned to modify the terms of any such convention in their application to colonies, protectorates, and possessions which are not fully self-governing, for the purpose of making the same applicable to local conditions :

And whereas it is expedient that for the purpose of carrying out the said conventions, the provisions hereinafter contained should have effect :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 (1) This Ordinance may be cited as "The Employment of Women, Young Persons, and Children Ordinance, No. of 1922."

Short title and commencement.

(2) This Ordinance shall come into operation on such date or dates as the Governor in Executive Council may, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," appoint, and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Ordinance and for different industries or different branches of any industry.

Interpretation.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

"Child" means a person under the age of fourteen years ;

"Young person" means a person who has ceased to be a child and who is under the age of eighteen years ;

"Woman" means a woman of the age of eighteen years or upwards ;

"Industrial undertaking" has, with respect to the employment of children, young persons, and women, the meanings respectively assigned thereto in the conventions set out in Parts I., II., and III. of the Schedule to this Ordinance ;

"Ship" means any sea-going ship or boat of any description which is registered in the Colony as a British ship ;

"Duly authorized officer" means any officer authorized by the Governor to act under the provisions of this Ordinance, by notice published in the "Government Gazette."

Savings.

3 (1) The provisions of this Ordinance shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any of the provisions of any other Ordinance restricting the employment of women, young persons, or children.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance shall apply to an industrial undertaking or ship in which only members of the same family are employed.

(3) Nothing in this Ordinance shall prevent the employment in any industrial undertaking or ship, of a child lawfully so employed at the commencement of this Ordinance.

Restrictions on the employment of women, young persons, and children in industrial undertakings.

4 (1) No child shall be employed in any industrial undertaking.

(2) No child shall be employed in any ship except to the extent to which and in the circumstances in which such employment is permitted under the convention set out in Part IV. of the schedule to this Ordinance.

(3) No young person or woman shall be employed at night in any industrial undertaking, except to the extent to which and in the circumstances in which such employment is permitted under the conventions set out in Part II. and Part III. respectively of the schedule to this Ordinance : Provided that in the application to Ceylon of the convention set out in Part II. of the schedule to this Ordinance, article 2 shall not apply to male young persons over fourteen years of age.

(4) Where young persons are employed in any industrial undertaking, a register of the young persons so employed, and of the dates of their birth, and of the dates on which they enter and leave the service of their employer, shall be kept, and shall at all times be open to inspection by any duly authorized officer.

(5) There shall be included in every agreement with the crew entered into under Ordinance No. 7 of 1863 or any Ordinance amending or substituted for the same, a list of the young persons under the age of sixteen years who are members of the crew, together with particulars of the dates of their birth, and, in the case of a ship in which there is no such agreement, the master of the ship shall, if young persons under the age of sixteen years are employed therein, keep a register of those persons with particulars of the dates of their birth and of the dates on which they become or cease to be members of the crew, and the register so kept shall at all times be open to inspection by any duly authorized officer.

(6) This section, so far as it relates to employment in a ship, shall have effect as if it formed part of Ordinance No. 7 of 1863 or of any Ordinance amending or substituted for the same.

(7) (a) If any person employs a child or a young person in any industrial undertaking in contravention of this Ordinance, he shall be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding thirty rupees, or, in case of a second or subsequent offence, not exceeding one hundred rupees; and where a child is taken into employment in any industrial undertaking in contravention of this Ordinance on the production, by or with the privity of the parent, of a false or forged certificate, or on the false representation of his parent that the child or young person is of an age at which such employment is not in contravention of this Ordinance, that parent shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty rupees.

(b) If any child is employed in any ship in contravention of this Ordinance, the master of the ship shall, on summary conviction, be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding thirty rupees, or, in the case of a second or subsequent offence, not exceeding one hundred rupees, and where a child is taken into employment in any ship in contravention of this Ordinance, on the production, by or with the privity of the parent, of a false or forged certificate, or on the false representation of his parent that the child is of an age at which such employment is not in contravention of this Ordinance, that parent shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty rupees.

(c) If any person, being the employer of a young person, fails to keep such a register so required to be kept by him as aforesaid, or refuses or neglects, when required, to produce it for inspection by a duly authorized officer, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding three hundred rupees.

(d) If the master of a ship fails to keep such a register so required to be kept by him as aforesaid, or refuses or neglects, when required, to produce it for inspection by a duly authorized officer, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three hundred rupees.

(e) If a person employs a woman in contravention of this Ordinance, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding three hundred rupees.

5. (1) If it appear to any Police Magistrate, on the complaint of a duly authorized officer, that there is reasonable cause to believe that a child is employed in contravention of this Ordinance in any place, whether a building or not, such Magistrate may by order under his hand empower such officer to enter into such place at any reasonable time, within forty-eight hours from the date of the order, and examine such place or any person therein, touching the employment of any child therein.

(2) Any person refusing admission to an officer authorized by an order under this section, or obstructing him in the discharge of his duty, shall for each offence be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding three hundred rupees.

Power of duly authorized officer to enter place of employment.

SCHEDULE.

PART I.

Convention fixing Minimum Age for Admission of Children to Industrial Employment.

Article I.

For the purpose of this Convention the term "industrial undertaking" includes particularly—

- (a) Mines, quarries, and other works for the extraction of minerals from the earth.
- (b) Industries in which articles are manufactured, altered, cleaned, repaired, ornamented, finished, adapted for sale, broken up or demolished, or in which materials are transformed, including shipbuilding, and the generation, transformation, and transmission of electricity and motive power of any kind.
- (c) Construction, reconstruction, maintenance, repair, alteration, or demolition of any building, railway, tramway, harbour, dock, pier, canal, inland waterway, road, tunnel, bridge, viaduct, sewer, drain, well, telegraphic or telephonic installation, electrical undertaking, gaswork, waterwork, or other work of construction, as well as the preparation for or laying the foundations of any such work or structure.

- (d) Transport of passengers or goods by road or rail or inland waterway, including the handling of goods at docks, quays, wharves, and warehouses, but excluding transport by hand.

The competent authority in each country shall define the line of division which separates industry from commerce and agriculture.

Article 2.

Children under the age of fourteen years shall not be employed or work in any public or private industrial undertaking, or in any branch thereof, other than an undertaking in which only members of the same family are employed.

Article 3.

The provisions of Article 2 shall not apply to work done by children in technical schools, provided that such work is approved and supervised by public authority.

Article 4.

In order to facilitate the enforcement of the provisions of this Convention, every employer in an industrial undertaking shall be required to keep a register of all persons under the age of sixteen years employed by him, and of the dates of their birth.

PART II.

Convention concerning the Night Work of Young Persons employed in Industry.

Article 1.

For the purpose of this Convention the term "industrial undertaking" includes particularly—

- (a) Mines, quarries, and other works for the extraction of minerals from the earth.
- (b) Industries in which articles are manufactured, altered, cleaned, repaired, ornamented, finished, adapted for sale, broken up or demolished, or in which materials are transformed, including shipbuilding, and the generation, transformation, and transmission of electricity or motive power of any kind.
- (c) Construction, reconstruction, maintenance, repair, alteration, or demolition of any building, railway, tramway, harbour, dock, pier, canal, inland waterway, road, tunnel, bridge, viaduct, sewer, drain, well, telegraphic or telephonic installation, electrical undertaking, gaswork, waterwork, or other work of construction, as well as the preparation for or laying the foundations of any such work or structure.
- (d) Transport of passengers or goods by road or rail, including the handling of goods at docks, quays, wharves, and warehouses, but excluding transport by hand.

The competent authority in each country shall define the line of division which separates industry from commerce and agriculture.

Article 2.

Young persons under eighteen years of age shall not be employed during the night in any public or private industrial undertaking, or in any branch thereof, other than an undertaking in which only members of the same family are employed, except as hereinafter provided for.

Young persons over the age of sixteen may be employed during the night in the following industrial undertakings on work which by reason of the nature of the process is required to be carried on continuously day and night:

- (a) Manufacture of iron and steel; process in which reverberatory or regenerative furnaces are used, and galvanizing of sheet metal or wire (except the pickling process).
- (b) Glass works.
- (c) Manufacture of paper.
- (d) Manufacture of raw sugar.
- (e) Gold mining reduction work.

Article 3.

For the purpose of this Convention the term "night" signifies a period of at least eleven consecutive hours, including the interval between ten o'clock in the evening and five o'clock in the morning.

In coal and lignite mines work may be carried on in the interval between ten o'clock in the evening and five o'clock in the morning, if an interval of ordinarily fifteen hours, and in no case of less than thirteen hours, separates two periods of work.

Where night work in the baking industry is prohibited for all workers, the interval between nine o'clock in the evening and four o'clock in the morning may be substituted in the baking industry for the interval between ten o'clock in the evening and five o'clock in the morning.

Article 4.

The provisions of Articles 2 and 3 shall not apply to the night work of young persons between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years in cases of emergencies which could not have been controlled or foreseen, which are not of a periodical character, and which interfere with the normal working of the industrial undertaking.

Article 7.

The prohibition of night work may be suspended by the Government, for young persons between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years, when in case of serious emergency the public interest demands it.

PART III.

Convention concerning the Night Work of Women employed in Industry.

Article 1.

For the purpose of this Convention the term "industrial undertaking" includes particularly—

- (a) Mines, quarries, and other works for the extraction of minerals from the earth.
- (b) Industries in which articles are manufactured, altered, cleaned, repaired, ornamented, finished, adapted for sale, broken up or demolished, or in which materials are transformed, including shipbuilding, and the generation, transformation, and transmission of electricity or motive power of any kind.
- (c) Construction, reconstruction, maintenance, repair, alteration, or demolition of any building, railway, tramway, harbour, dock, pier, canal, inland waterway, road, tunnel, bridge, viaduct, sewer, drain, well, telegraphic or telephonic installation, electrical undertaking, gaswork, waterwork, or other work of construction, as well as the preparation for or laying the foundations of any such work or structure.

The competent authority in each country shall define the line of division which separates industry from commerce and agriculture.

Article 2.

For the purpose of this Convention, the term "night" signifies a period of at least eleven consecutive hours, including the interval between ten o'clock in the evening and five o'clock in the morning.

Article 3.

Women without distinction of age shall not be employed during the night in any public or private industrial undertaking, or in any branch thereof, other than an undertaking in which only members of the same family are employed.

Article 4.

Article 3 shall not apply—

- (a) In cases of force majeure, when in any undertaking there occurs an interruption of work which it was impossible to foresee, and which is not of a recurring character.
- (b) In cases where the work has to do with raw materials or materials in course of treatment which are subject to rapid deterioration, when such night work is necessary to preserve the said materials from certain loss.

Article 6.

In industrial undertakings which are influenced by the seasons and in all cases where exceptional circumstances demand it, the night period may be reduced to ten hours on sixty days of the year.

PART IV.

Convention fixing the Minimum Age for Admission of Children to Employment at Sea.

Article 1.

For the purpose of this Convention the term "vessel" includes all ships and boats, of any nature whatsoever, engaged in maritime navigation, whether publicly or privately owned; it excludes ships of war.

Article 2.

Children under the age of fourteen years shall not be employed or work on vessels other than vessels upon which only members of the same family are employed.

Article 3.

The provisions of Article 2 shall not apply to work done by children on school ships or training ships, provided that such work is approved and supervised by public authority.

Article 4.

In order to facilitate the enforcement of the provisions of this Convention, every shipmaster shall be required to keep a register of all persons under the age of sixteen years employed on board his vessel, or a list of them in the articles of agreement, and of the dates of their births.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, B. HORSBURGH,
Colombo, October 18, 1922. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE purpose sought to be attained by this Bill is set out in the Preamble, and a reference to the provisions of the various Conventions set out in the Schedule to the Bill will show the objects for which they were entered into.

2. It will be seen that in adopting the provisions of the Convention set out in Part II., its operation does not cover male young persons over fourteen years of age. By Article 6 of the Convention it is specially provided that so far as India is concerned, its terms are not to apply to male young persons over fourteen years of age, and it has been thought well, having regard to the similarity of conditions prevailing in Ceylon and India, to adopt the Indian limitation rather than the more extended provision applicable in other places to which the Convention refers. It will be observed that by section 1 (2) of the Bill its provisions can be brought into force gradually, and that by section 3 important limitations on the operation of the Bill are imposed.
