PROCLAMATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR.

IN the Name of His Majesty GEORGE THE FIFTH, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Sir WILLIAM HENRY MANNING, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Island of Ceylon, with the Dependencies thereof.

W. H. MANNING.

WHEREAS by a Proclamation dated June 24, 1899, and published in Government Gazette No. 5,629 of July 1, 1899, the provisions of section 31 and the six following sections of “ The Births and Deaths Registration Ordinance, 1895,” as amended by Ordinance No. 23 of 1900, came into operation within the town of Nuwara Eliya as defined in the schedule thereto :

And whereas it is expedient to amend and alter the said schedule in so far as it relates to the said town of Nuwara Eliya :

Now know Ye that We, the said Governor, in exercise of the powers vested in Us by section 31 of the said Ordinance, and with the advice of the Executive Council, do by this Our Proclamation alter and amend the said schedule as far as it is recited in the first column of the schedule hereto, in the manner set forth in the second column of the schedule hereto, with effect from March 1, 1924.

Given at Colombo, in the said Island of Ceylon, this Eleventh day of January, in the year of our Lord One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty-four.

By His Excellency’s command,

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

Delete the last paragraph "As a rule for approval."

Clause 47 (f).—Alter to read as follows :—

"In order to qualify for promotion, pupils in Standards II. and III. must pass in at least two of the four subjects : English Language (including Reading), Writing, Arithmetic, and one other subject. Promotions into the Upper School must be made in the manner prescribed in clause 23 (1). In Standards V. and VI. a pupil must pass in all three subjects : English Language (including Reading), Writing, and Arithmetic, or in two of them and one other subject. No pupil may be promoted from Standard VII. to Standard VIII. unless he has passed in the four subjects : Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, and English language, or in three of them and one other subject.

"The rules in the foregoing paragraph do not apply to classes worked under the third syllabus of Schedule A. In the first-year class under that syllabus, pupils will not be eligible for promotion unless they pass in three of the four subjects : Conversation, Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic. For admission to the Upper School pupils in the second-year class must pass in English Conversation, Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic.

"Pupils who fail in the examination for promotion may be promoted in special cases if the inspector is satisfied that their work in the terminal examination justifies their promotion."

Clauses 54 and 55.—Add a note at foot of page 18 as follows :—

"Where grant has already been paid for pupils for Vernacular Languages and Needlework in Vernacular or Anglo-vernacular schools, the attendance of pupils will not be counted in the assessment of grant under clauses 54 and 55 if such pupils are presented in the same classes in English schools."

Clauses 53 (A) and 53 (B).—On page 18 insert the following after clause 53 :—

(4) (a) GRANTS TO COMMERCIAL CLASSES.

Clause 53 (A).—In order to be recognized for grant and for purposes of the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce examination, the following conditions must be complied with :—

(i.) A statement giving particulars of staff, equipment, and number of pupils (indicating the number eligible for grant in terms of (ii.) below) should be sent to the Director before January 31 of each year. This return is required whether a class has been previously recognized or not.

(ii.) Only such pupils in a Commercial Class who have passed at least either the English School-leaving Certificate examination or the Cambridge Junior School Certificate examination in Writing and Dictation, English Composition, and Arithmetic, or who have had special permission from the Director to join the class, will be eligible for grant, and such pupils if eligible under clause 77 (2) may be presented within two years for the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce examination.

(iii.) The class must contain at least eight pupils who are eligible for grant under (ii.) above.

(iv.) The teacher in charge of the class must be recognized by the Director as competent to teach Commercial subjects.

(v.) Suitable preparation must be provided in Standard V. to the E. S. L. C. class as follows :—

Standards V.-VII.—Special attention must be given to—

(a) Handwriting, Spelling, and General neatness in all written work ;

(b) Written composition on topics in which the pupils are interested, other than mere reproduction of stories ;

(c) Mental Arithmetic and accuracy in computation ;

(d) Facility and accuracy of expression, both in writing and in speech.

Standard VII.—Shorthand and Elementary Bookkeeping may be introduced in place of Algebra and Geometry for those students who wish to join the Commercial Class later.

E. S. L. C. Class.—The E. S. L. C. syllabus including Shorthand and Book-keeping.

English Composition should include practice in Precise Writing.

Arithmetic : More emphasis on Commercial Arithmetic. Use of tables for calculating interest, exchange, &c. Use of Post Office Guide, Railway Time Table, &c. Data for calculation to be obtained from these and similar tables.

Clause 63 (B).—In Commercial Classes recognized under clause 53 (A), the rate of attendance grant will be Rs. 40 per unit of average attendance.

Clause 59.—Add the following sentence :—“ A grant of Rs. 30 may be paid for each pass in the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce examination.”

Clause 77.—

Sub-clause (3).—In lines 4 and 5 of paragraph 3, alter “ 40 in (4) and (6) and 30 in (3) and (8)” to “ 40 in (3), (4), (6), and (8).”

Sub-clause (4) (i).—In line 1 alter “ will ” to “ may ” ; in line 5 after “ sentences ” insert “ (d) making a precis of a letter or of a series of letters.”

Sub-clause (4) (iii).—In the second paragraph of the Note, in line 2 alter “ card catalogues ” to “ card indexes ” ; in line 3 alter “ tables of exchange ” to “ tables for calculating exchange and interest,” delete “ tea and rubber sale catalogues,” alter “ Chamber of Commerce publications, e.g., weekly price list ” to “ Chamber of Commerce weekly prices current ” ; in line 4 alter “ Post Office and Railway Guide ” to “ Post Office Guide and Railway Time and Fare Tables.”

Sub-clause (4) (iv).—In line 3 alter “ may ” to “ are recommended to.”

Sub-clause (4) (vi).—Include Stocks and shares.

Sub-clause (4) (vii).—Include joint adventure accounts in paragraph 2.

Sub-clauses (6), (7), (8), (9), and (10).—Delete.

IN terms of section 24 of the Minute of December 9, 1908, it is hereby notified that the under-mentioned officer, seconded for service, will be allowed to count the period of his temporary employment for pension purposes :—

Name.	Pensionable Appointment.	Seconded Service.
Mr. G. A. Fernando	Clerk in Class II. of the Clerical Service	Auditor of the accounts of the Controller of Indian Immigrant Labour and the Emigration Commissioner.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 10, 1924.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

HIS Excellency the Governor in Executive Council, with the sanction of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, has been pleased to approve the following amendment to section 30 of the Pension Minute dated December 9, 1908 :—

30. (i.) When a person employed in the Public Service of the Colony, whether serving in a pensionable or in a non-pensionable office, is injured—

- (a) In the actual discharge of his duty ;
- (b) Without his own default ; and
- (c) By some injury specially attributable to the nature of his duty,

it shall be competent for the Governor and the Executive Council to grant to him in respect of such injury an annual allowance not exceeding the under-mentioned portion of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, viz. :—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is slightly impaired	..	5/60ths
Impaired	..	10/60ths
Materially impaired	..	15/60ths
Totally destroyed	..	20/60ths

(ii.) The award shall be so much less than the amount grantable under the scale given above as the Governor and Executive Council shall think reasonable, in case—

- (a) The usual amount exceeds by not less than Rs. 1,000 a year the rate of retired allowance to which the length of the injured man's service would entitle him ; or
- (b) The injured man has continued to serve for not less than one year after the injury in respect of which he retires ; or
- (c) The injured man is 50 years of age or upwards at the date of injury ; or
- (d) The injury is not the sole cause of retirement, i.e., retirement is caused partly by age or infirmity.

(iii.) The above award shall be in addition to the pension or the retiring allowance, or the long service allowance or gratuity, to which the injured man would be qualified by length of service. Provided that no award shall, together with such pension, or retiring allowance or long service allowance, exceed 50/60ths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury.

(iv.) In the case of a pensionable officer, who, not having completed ten years' gross service, is entitled only to a gratuity he may, if he wish it, be awarded in lieu of such gratuity, an annual allowance of so many 720ths as the months he has actually served, together with the number of 60ths that may be awarded as above on account of his injuries.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 15, 1924.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE UVA MOTOR SERVICE, LIMITED.

THE Articles of Association of "The Uva Motor Service, Limited," shall be Articles contained in Table C in Schedule annexed to "The Joint Stock Companies Ordinance, 1861," with following special provisions which shall be observed where they differ from Table C:—

1. The Directorate shall consist of not less than five and not more than eleven, three of whom shall form the quorum.
2. The qualification for a Director shall be holding of not less than one hundred fully paid up shares.
3. The Company shall be managed by the Managing Agents, Messrs. V. Gnanapandithen & Sons, Badulla, for a period of not less than ten years under such agreement as may be concluded between the Directors and the said V. Gnanapandithen & Sons, and such agreement shall be open to inspection at the registered office for the Shareholders of the Company.
4. Directors who are in arrears in the payment of share money shall not be eligible to sit at the Directors' meeting.
5. The Directors are entitled to a sitting fee of Rs. 10 for every meeting attended by them.
6. A Director who fails to attend more than six meetings of the Directorate consecutively shall vacate his seat. But he shall be eligible for re-election.
7. Any vacancy occurring in the Directorate in the middle of a year shall be filled up by the Directors themselves. Any Director so appointed shall act only for the unfinished term of the vacating Director.
8. If shares are taken in the name of a company or partnership, then the agents, for the time being, acting for such company or partnership, shall be eligible to vote for and in the name of that company or partnership.
9. Every Shareholder having not less than two shares of the value of Rupees Five each mentioned in paragraph 10, shall have one vote, and shall have an additional vote for every ten shares held by him. In any case no Shareholder shall be entitled to have more than ten votes.
10. The value of a share is Rs. 5, and is payable in two instalments as Rs. 2 with application and Rs. 3 after two months after allotment.

11. No transfer is recognizable unless it is done in the prescribed form and registered in the books of the Company and approved in a meeting of the Directors. The Directors have power to charge a transfer fee of Fifty Cents for every transfer made.

12. The Directors are not bound to allot shares to all applicants for shares. They have every power to reject an application for shares without assigning any reason.

13. The quorum of a General Meeting shall be five if there are ten Shareholders, and further two for every fifty Shareholders.

14. The Company shall proceed to allotment as soon as 1,000 shares are subscribed other than the shares allotted to the Managing Agents.

15. Any Shareholder, whether a Director or not, and whether alone or jointly with any other Shareholder or Director, and any person not a Shareholder, may become the purchaser of the property of the Company or any part thereof in the event of a winding up or a dissolution or at any other time when a sale of the Company's property or effects or any part thereof shall be made by the Directors under the powers by or under the Ordinance conferred upon them.

16. If the Company shall be wound up, whether voluntarily or otherwise, the liquidator or liquidators with the sanction of special resolution of the Company divide among the contributories in specie any part of the assets of the Company, and may with the like sanction vest any part of the assets of the Company in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator or liquidators with the like sanction shall think fit, and if thought expedient any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the members of the Company, and in particular any class may be given preferential or special rights or may be excluded altogether or in part, and the liquidator or liquidators shall be entitled to sell all or any of the assets of the Company in consideration of or in exchange for shares, ordinary, fully paid, part paid, or preference in the purchasing Company; but in case any division otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories shall be determined on, or any sale made of any or all of the assets of the Company in exchange for shares in the purchasing Company, either ordinary, fully paid, or part paid, or preference, any contributory who would be prejudiced thereby shall have a right to dissent as if such determination were a special resolution passed pursuant to the section 192 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act of 1908 in England; but for the purpose of an arbitration as in the sub-section 6 of the said section provided. The provisions of the Ceylon Arbitration Ordinance 1866, and of the Ceylon Ordinance No. 2 of 1889, shall apply in place of the English and Scotch Acts referred to in the said sub-section 6 of the said section 192 of the aforewritten Companies (Consolidation) Act, and the said section 192, save as herein excepted, shall be deemed to be part and parcel of these present Articles.

In witness whereof the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association have hereunto set and subscribed their names at the place and on the days and dates hereafter written.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE INDO-CEYLON TRADING COMPANY, LIMITED.

THE regulations contained in the Table C in the schedule annexed to "The Joint Stock Companies Ordinance, 1861," shall not apply to this Company, which shall be governed by the regulations contained in these Articles, but subject to repeal, addition, or alteration.

INTERPRETATION.

1. The marginal notes hereto shall not affect the construction of the several clauses herein contained.

In the interpretation of these presents the following words and expressions shall have the following meanings unless such meanings be inconsistent with or repugnant to the subject or context:—

"The Ordinance" means and includes "The Joint Stock Companies Ordinance, 1861." and every other Ordinance from time to time in force concerning Joint Stock Companies which may apply to the Company.

"The Company" means "The Indo-Ceylon Trading Company, Limited."

"These Presents" means and includes the Memorandum of Association and the Articles of the Company from time to time in force.

"Capital" means the capital for the time being raised or authorized to be raised for the purpose of the Company.

"Shares" means the shares from time to time into which the capital of the Company may be divided.

"Shareholders" means every person who has accepted any share or who has accepted part of a share jointly with another or others whose name is entered on the Register of Shareholders as owner or joint owner of such share.

"Directors" means the Directors for the time being of the Company or the Directors assembled at a Board as the case may be.

"Board" means a meeting of the Directors or (as the context may require) the Directors assembled at a quorum of their body in the exercise of authority duly given to them.

"Persons" means partnerships, associations, corporations, companies, unincorporated or incorporated by Ordinance and registration, as well as individuals.

"Office" means the registered office for the time being of the Company.

"Seal" means the common seal for the time being of the Company.

"Month" means a calendar month.

"Writing" includes printing and typewriting. Words importing the singular number only include the plural and vice versa. Words importing the masculine gender only include feminine, and vice versa.

BUSINESS.

- Nature of business. 2. The business of the Company shall include the several objects expressed in the Memorandum of Association and all matters incidental thereto.
- Commencement of business. 3. The Company may proceed to carry out the objects for which it is established, and to employ and apply its capital as soon after the registration of the Company as the Directors in their discretion shall think fit, and if the whole of the shares shall not have been subscribed, applied for, or allotted, they shall do so as soon as in the judgment of the Directors a sufficient number of shares shall have been subscribed or applied for.
- Management of business. 4. The business of the Company shall be carried on by the Managing Director under the direction of the Directors, subject only to such control of General Meetings, as is provided for by these presents.
- Appointment of Manager and Secretary. 5. The Company may, if it deems it expedient or necessary at any time to have a Manager or Secretary for the conduct of the business of the Company, appoint such Manager or Secretary or both at a meeting of the Directors, with a remuneration for their services as the Directors may agree upon or determine.

CAPITAL.

- Capital. 6. The nominal capital of the Company is Rs. 300,000, divided into 30,000 shares of Rs.10 each.
- Power to increase capital. 7. The Directors may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting, increase the capital of the Company by the creation of new shares of such amounts per share, and in the aggregate and with such special, preferential, deferred, qualified or other rights, privileges, or conditions attached thereto as such resolution shall direct, and they shall have power to add to such new shares such an amount of premium as may be considered expedient.
- Capital raised by issue of new shares. 8. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the same provisions in all respects with reference to the payments of allotted money, calls, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender, and otherwise as if it had formed part of the original capital.

SHARES AND CERTIFICATES.

- Issue and allotment of shares. 9. The shares, except when otherwise provided, shall be under the control of the Directors who may at any time issue any unissued shares either at par or at a premium, and allot and dispose of the same to such persons on such terms and in such manner as they think fit. Provided, however, that such unissued shares shall first be offered by the Directors to such members as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of General Meetings in the proportions and in manner provided by clause 49 of these Articles with regard to new shares. The Directors, however, may allot any unissued shares to the vendor or vendors of any properties or assets which may be acquired by the Company in payment or part payment of the purchase price of any properties or assets, or to any persons as remuneration for work done for or services rendered to the Company without first offering same to the members.
- Arrangement for amounts and payment of calls. 10. The Company may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and in the time of payment of such calls.
- Recognition of ownership of shares. 11. The Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears upon the register in respect of any share as the absolute owner thereof, and shall except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as by Ordinance required not be under obligation to recognize any trust or equity or equitable claim to or interest in, such share whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof.
- Share certificates. 12. Every member shall be entitled without payment to one certificate, specifying the share or shares held by him with the distinctive numbers thereof and the amount paid up thereon, or to several certificates, each for one or more shares.
- Lost or defaced certificates. 13. If any certificate be defaced, worn out, lost, or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of one rupee or such less sum as the Directors may prescribe, and the person requiring the new certificate shall surrender the defaced or worn out certificate, or give such evidence of its loss or destruction, and such indemnity to the Company as the Directors think fit.

JOINT HOLDERS OF SHARES.

- Joint Shareholders. 14. When two or more persons are registered as the holders of any shares, they shall be deemed to hold the same as joint tenants with benefit of survivorship, subject to the provisions following:—
- The Company shall not be bound to register more than three persons as the holders of any share.
 - The joint-holders of any share shall be liable severally as well as jointly in respect of all payments which ought to be made in respect of such share.
 - On the death of any one of such joint shareholders, the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognized by the Company as having any title to such share, but the Directors may require such evidence of death as they may deem fit.

- (d) Any one of such joint-holders may give effectual receipts for any dividend, bonus, or return of capital payable to such joint-holders.
- (e) Only the person whose name stands first in the register of members as one of the joint-holders of any share shall be entitled to delivery of the certificate relating to such share or to receive notices from the Company, and any notice given to such person shall be deemed notice to all the joint-holders.

CALLS.

15. The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on their shares, and each member, subject to receiving two months' notice at least specifying the time and place for payment, pay the amount of calls so made to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by instalments.

Calls how made.

16. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of Directors authorizing such calls was passed.

17. If the call payable in respect of any share or any instalment be not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder, for the time being of such share, shall be liable to pay interest for the same at such rate not exceeding ten per centum per annum as the Directors shall determine from the day appointed for the payment of such call or instalment to the time of actual payment; but the Directors may, if they shall think fit, remit the payment of such interest or any part thereof.

Payment of interest on calls unpaid on due date.

18. If, by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise, any amount is made payable at any fixed time, such amount or instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors, and of which due notice had been given; and all provisions hereof with respect to the payment of calls and interest thereon or to the forfeiture of shares for non-payment of calls shall apply to such amount or instalments and the shares in respect of which they are payable.

Rs calls payable at fixed times.

19. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled or unpaid upon any shares held by him; and upon the money so paid in advance, the Directors may (until the same would, but for such advance become presently payable), pay interest at such rate (not exceeding without the sanction of the Company in General Meeting ten per cent.) as may be agreed upon between the member paying the sum in advance and the Directors.

Payment of interest on moneys advanced before calls.

TRANSFER OF SHARES.

20. The instrument of transfer of any share in the Company shall be in writing, and shall be executed both by the transferor and transferee and duly attested, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof.

Instrument of transfer.

21. Shares in the Company shall be transferred in the following form or in any usual or common form of which the Directors shall approve:—

Form of transfer.

I, A. B., of _____ in consideration of the sum of Rs. _____ paid to me by C. D., of _____ (hereinafter called the said transferee), do hereby transfer to the said transferee _____ share numbered _____ in the undertaking called "THE INDO-CEYLON TRADING COMPANY, LIMITED," to hold unto the said transferee, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns subject to the several conditions on which I hold the same; and I, the said transferee, do hereby agree to take the said share (or shares) subject to the conditions aforesaid. As witness our hands the _____ day of _____ 19____, signed by the above named in the presence of _____.

22. A share may be transferred by a member or other person entitled to transfer to any member selected by the transferor; but save as aforesaid and save as provided by clause 28 hereof no share shall be transferred to a person who is not a member, so long as any member or any person selected by the Directors as one whom it is desirable in the interests of the Company to admit to membership is willing to purchase the same at the fair value.

To whom shares may be transferred.

23. Except where transfer is made pursuant to clause 22 hereof, the person proposing to transfer any shares (hereinafter called the proposing transferor) shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called the transfer notice) to the Company that he desires to transfer the same. Such notice shall specify the sum at which he is willing to sell the same, and shall constitute the Company his Agent for the sale of the share to any member of the Company or person selected as aforesaid at the price so fixed. The transfer notice may include several shares, and in such case shall operate as if it were a separate notice in respect of each. The transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the sanction of the Directors.

Transfer notice.

24. If the Company shall be unable to find a member or person selected as aforesaid willing to purchase the shares at the price fixed by the proposing transferor, the Company may have the fair value of the share fixed by the Auditor in accordance with these Articles, and may call on the proposing transferor to elect within a period of 14 days from the date of such notice whether he will sell such share at the price so fixed, and the proposing transferor shall, within such period, elect by notice in writing served on the Company whether he will sell such share at the fair value fixed as aforesaid or retain such share, and if he fail to notify the Company within such period as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have elected to retain such share.

If price is not agreed on.

25. If the Company shall, within a space of 60 days after being served with the transfer notice, find a member or person selected as aforesaid willing to purchase the share at the price fixed by the proposing transferor, or if (in case of the fair value of the share being fixed by the Auditor as provided in clause 24 hereof, and the proposing transferor electing to sell such share at the fair value so fixed) the Company shall, within the space of 60 days after being served with such notice of election, find a member or person selected as aforesaid willing to purchase the share at such fair value and shall give notice thereof to the proposing transferor, he shall be bound, upon payment of the price fixed by him or such fair value as the case may be, to transfer the share to the member selected by the Company as aforesaid (hereinafter called the purchasing member).

If the price is agreed on.

26. A certificate in writing signed by the Auditor stating the sum which in his opinion is the fair value of any such share as aforesaid shall be final and conclusive as to the fair value of such share.

Certificate of fair value.

Default by transferor to transfer.

27. If the proposing transferor, after having become bound as aforesaid, make default in transferring the share, the Company may receive the purchase money, and shall thereupon cause the name of the purchasing member to be entered in the register as the holder of the share, and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing member, and after his name has been entered in the register, in exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

Sale to outsiders.

28. If the Company shall not, within a space of 60 days after being served with the transfer notice or within 60 days of service of the notice of election under clause 24 hereof as the case may be, find a member or person selected as aforesaid willing to purchase the shares and give notice in manner aforesaid, the proposing transferor shall, at any time within three calendar months thereafter, be at liberty, subject to clause 31 hereof to sell and transfer the share or shares (or those not placed by the Company) to any person and at any price not being less than the price fixed by the proposing transferor under clause 23 hereof of the fair value fixed under clause 24 hereof as the case may be. If, however, the proposing transferor shall have elected to retain the share as provided by clause 24 hereof, he shall not be entitled to sell the same without first giving a fresh transfer notice in accordance with the provisions of clause 23 hereof.

Transfer by executor or administrator.

29. Any share of a deceased member may, subject to clauses 31 and 32 hereof, be transferred by his executors or administrators to any person to whom such deceased member may have specifically bequeathed the same, and any such share or any share devolving on death on the personal representatives of a deceased member shall be subject to the same restrictions as regards transfer, as the share was subject to in the hands of the deceased member.

Power to make and vary rules regarding shares offered for sale.

30. The Company in General Meeting may make and from time to time vary rules as to the mode in which any shares specified in any transfer notice given to the Company pursuant to clause 23 hereof shall be offered to the members hereof and as to their rights in regard to the purchase thereof, and in particular may give any members or class of members a preferential right to purchase the same. Until otherwise determined, every such share shall be determined by lots drawn in regard thereto, and the lots shall be drawn in such manner as the Directors think fit.

Closing of transfer books.

31. The transfer book and register of members may be closed during such time as the Directors think fit, not exceeding in the whole twenty-one days in each year. The Directors may decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless (a) a fee not exceeding two rupees is paid to the Company in respect thereof, and (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares. All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company. The Directors may authorize the registration of transfers without the necessity of any meeting of the Directors being held for that purpose.

Shares not to be transferred to infants.

32. No share shall in any circumstances be transferred to any infant, bankrupt, or any person of unsound mind.

Directors may refuse to register transfer.

33. The Directors may decline to register a transfer of any shares upon which the Company has a lien, and may refuse to register a transfer of any shares to a transferee of whom they do not approve without assigning any reasons therefor.

Executors and administrators to be recognized as having title to shares of a deceased member. Evidence of title in others.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

34. On the death of any member (not being one of several joint-holders of a share) the executors or administrators of such deceased member shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to such share.

35. Any person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of any member upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this clause or of his title as the Directors think sufficient, may with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) be registered as a member in respect of such shares or may, subject to the regulations as to transfers hereinbefore contained, transfer such shares.

Dividends.

36. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not before being registered as a member in respect of the share be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES AND LIEN.

Notice to defaulters.

37. If any member fails to pay any call or instalment on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid serve a notice on him requiring him to pay so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with interest accrued and any expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment.

Notice to state date and place of payment.

38. The notice shall name a further day on or before which such call or instalment and all interest accrued and expenses incurred by reason of such non-payment are to be paid, and it shall also name the place where payment is to be made, such place being either the registered office or some other place at which calls of the Company are usually made payable. The notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call or instalment is payable will be liable for forfeiture.

Forfeiture to be by resolution of Directors.

39. If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or instalments, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect.

Forfeited share to be Company's property.

40. Any shares so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, reallocated, or otherwise disposed of in such manner, either subject to or discharged from all calls made or instalments due prior to the forfeiture as the Directors think fit, or the Directors may, at any time before such shares are disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon such terms as they may approve.

41. Any member whose share have been forfeited shall notwithstanding be liable to pay the Company all calls and instalments owing upon such shares at the time of forfeiture, together with interest thereon at such rate not exceeding ten per centum per annum as the Directors shall appoint, down to the date of payment; but the Directors may, if they shall think fit, remit the payment of such unpaid calls or interests or any part thereof. Calls on forfeited shares must be paid.
42. When any share have been forfeited, an entry shall forthwith be made in the register of members of the Company recording the forfeiture and the date thereof, and so soon as the shares so forfeited have been disposed of, an entry shall also be made of the manner and date of the disposal thereof. Entry of forfeiture to be made in register.
43. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all shares held by any member of the Company (whether alone or jointly with other persons) and upon all dividends and bonuses which may be declared in respect of such shares for all debts, obligations, and liabilities of such member (whether solely or jointly with any other person or persons and whether such other person or persons shall be a member or members or not) to, or with the Company, and whether the period of payment, fulfilment, or discharge thereof shall actually have arrived or not. Company's right of lien.
44. The Directors may serve upon any member who is indebted or under obligation to the Company, a notice requiring him to pay the amount due to the Company or satisfy the said obligation, and stating that if payment is not made or if the said obligation is not satisfied within a time (not being less than 14 days) specified in such notice, the shares held by such member will be liable to be sold, and if such member shall not comply with such notice within the time aforesaid, the Directors may sell such shares without further notice. Notice of sale of shares for non-payment of debts.
45. Upon any sale being made by the Directors of any shares to satisfy the lien of the Company thereon, the proceeds shall be applied first in the payment of all costs of such sale, next in satisfaction of debts or obligations of the member of the Company; and the residue, if any, shall be paid to the said member or as he shall direct. Proceeds of sale how applied.
46. Any entry in the minute book of the Company of the forfeiture of any shares, or that any shares have been sold to satisfy a lien of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence as against all persons entitled to such shares that the said shares were properly forfeited or sold, and such entry and the receipt of the Company for the price of such shares shall constitute a good title to such shares, and the name of the purchaser shall be entered in the register as a member of the Company, and he shall be entitled to a certificate of title to the shares and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money. The remedy of the former holder of such shares and of any person claiming under or through him shall be against the Company and in damages only. Entry in the minute book sufficient evidence of forfeiture or sale.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL.

47. The Directors may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting, increase the Capital by the issue of new shares, such aggregate increase to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts as the resolution shall prescribe. Increase of capital.
48. The new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such rights, priorities, privileges, or restrictions as the resolution sanctioning the increase of capital shall direct, and if no such direction be given as the Directors shall determine, and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets of the Company and with a special or without any right of voting. Terms of issue.
49. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the resolution sanctioning the increase of capital, all new shares before issue be offered to such members as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of General Meetings in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled, such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined; and after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declined to accept the shares offered, the Directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this Article. The Directors may also allot any new shares to the vendor or vendors of any properties or assets, or to any person or persons as remuneration for work done for or services rendered to the Company without first offering same to the members. New shares to be offered first to existing members.
50. The Company may by special resolution—
- (a) Consolidate its shares or any of them into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares.
 - (b) By sub-division of its existing shares or any of them, divide the whole or any part of its capital into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association; provided that in the sub-division of the existing shares the portion between the amount paid and the amount (if any) unpaid on each share of reduced amount shall be the same as it was in the case of the existing share from which the share of reduced amount is derived.
 - (c) Cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
 - (d) Reduce its capital in any manner allowed by law.
- Consolidation, sub-division, cancellation, and reduction of shares and capital.

MODIFICATIONS OF RIGHTS.

51. Wherever the capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights and privileges attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of the three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of the shares of the class by a majority consisting of not less than three-fourths of the votes given upon the resolution. To every such separate General Meeting the provisions of these regulations relating to General Meetings mutatis mutandis apply, but so that at every such separate General Meeting the quorum shall be a person or persons holding or representing by power of attorney or proxy three-quarters of the issued shares of the class. Variations of rights, privileges when capital is divided into classes of shares.

BORROWING POWERS.

Power to borrow from bankers.

52. The Directors may from time to time borrow from bankers or others for the temporary purposes of the Company by way of bills, overdrafts, cash credits on the security of goods or produce, or by any other usual means of obtaining trading accommodation such sum or sums of money as they in their discretion shall consider necessary or desirable for the proper and convenient administration of the Company's finances.

From Directors and others.

53. In addition to the moneys so borrowed under the preceding clause, the Directors may, from time to time at their discretion, raise or borrow money from the Directors or other persons for the purposes of the Company, and may secure the repayment of the same by mortgage or charge upon the whole or any part of the assets and property of the Company (present or future) including its uncalled or unissued capital, and may issue bonds, debentures, or debenture stock either charged upon the whole or any part of the assets and property of the Company or not so charged, but so that the whole amount borrowed or raised and outstanding at any one time, under the provisions of this clause, shall not, without the consent of the Company in General Meeting, exceed the amount of the share capital of the Company for the time being issued or agreed to be issued; nevertheless no lender or other person dealing with the Company shall be concerned to see or inquire whether this limit is observed.

Issue of debentures.

54. Any debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, or other securities may be issued at a discount, premium, or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotments of shares attending and voting at General Meetings of the Company, appointment of Directors, and otherwise.

Inspection of register of mortgages.

55. The register of mortgages shall be open to inspection by any creditor or member of the Company without payment and by any other person on payment of the sum of one rupee for each inspection.

Inspection of register of debentures.

56. A register of the holder of the debentures of the Company shall be kept at the registered office of the Company, and shall be open to the inspection of the registered holder of any such debentures and of any holder of shares in the Company at any time between the hours of two and four in the afternoon. The Directors may close the said register for such period or periods as they think fit, not exceeding in the aggregate twenty-one days in each year.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

First General Meeting.

57. The First General Meeting shall be held at such time not being more than twelve months after the incorporation of the Company, and at such place as the Directors may determine.

Subsequent General Meetings.

58. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, and if no other time or place is prescribed at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors.

Ordinary and Extraordinary Meetings.
Extraordinary General Meetings.

59. The General Meetings referred to in the last preceding clause shall be called ordinary meetings; all other meetings of the Company shall be called extraordinary meetings.

60. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, and they shall upon a requisition made in writing by the holders of not less than one-tenth of the issued capital of the Company, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company.

Requisition to express object of Meeting.

61. Any requisition so made shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called, and shall be sent to the registered office of the Company.

Requisitionists to give notice of Extraordinary Meeting.

62. If the Directors do not proceed to convene a meeting within twenty-one days from the date of the requisition being so deposited, the requisitionists may themselves convene the meeting.

63. In the case of an extraordinary meeting convened by the requisitionists under the preceding clause three months, notice shall be given to the members specifying the place, day, and hour of the meeting and the business to be transacted thereat, and no business other than that stated in the requisition as the objects of the meeting shall be transacted.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS.

Notices for General Meetings.

64. Except in the case of meetings called to consider a special resolution, seven days' notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given), specifying the place and the hour of meeting, shall be given to the members in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but the accidental omission to give notice to any member or the non-receipt by any member of such notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at any General Meeting. In the case of meetings called to consider a special resolution three months' notice at the least shall be given.

Ordinary General Meetings competent to discuss accounts, elect Directors, Auditors.

65. Every Ordinary General Meeting shall be competent without special notice having been given of the purposes for which it is convened or of the business to be transacted thereat to receive and consider the accounts and balance sheets and the reports of the Directors and Auditors to elect Directors in place of those retiring to elect Auditors and fix their remuneration and to sanction a dividend and shall also be competent to enter upon, discuss, and transact any other business of which special mention shall have been made in the notice or notices convening the meeting.

Quorum for General Meetings.

66. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting, except election of a Chairman, the declaration of a dividend, or the adjournment of the meeting, unless a quorum of members present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; and such quorum shall consist of not less than five members present personally or by proxy or attorney.

Dissolution of meeting for want of quorum.

67. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum be not present the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any either case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum be not present those members who are present shall be deemed to be a quorum, and may do all business which a full quorum might have done.

Chairman to preside.

68. The Chairman (if any) of the Board of Directors shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company. If there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he be not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of the Directors present to be Chairman; or if no Director shall be present and willing to take the chair, the member present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

69. The Chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place; but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for twenty-one days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

70. At any General Meeting every question shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands; and unless a poll be demanded in the case of a special resolution by at least five persons entitled to vote, or in any other case by one or more members, or an attorney or attorneys representing one or more members holding or representing not less than one-tenth of the capital of the Company or be directed by the Chairman, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or not carried by a majority, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the facts without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

71. If a poll be demanded or directed in manner above-mentioned, it shall be taken at such time and in such manner above-mentioned as the Chairman may appoint, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in General Meeting. In the case of an equality of votes at any General Meeting whether upon a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of any vote, the Chairman shall determine the same, and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.

72. A poll demanded upon the election of a Chairman or upon a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.

VOTES OF MEMBERS.

73. Upon a show of hands every member present in person or by proxy or attorney shall have one vote only. In case of a poll every Shareholder present in person or by proxy or attorney shall have one vote for every share held by him up to ten, and an additional vote for every ten shares beyond the first ten up to one hundred, and an additional vote for every twenty-five shares held by him beyond the first hundred.

74. The parent or guardian of an infant Shareholder, the manager or curator of any lunatic Shareholder, the husband of any female Shareholder not entitled to her share on separate estate and the executor or administrator of any deceased Shareholder or any one of such persons as aforesaid, if more than one, shall not be entitled to vote in the place of such infant, lunatic, female, or deceased person, unless such person shall have been registered as such.

75. No Shareholder shall be entitled to vote or speak at any General Meeting, unless all calls or instalments due from him on his shares or any of them shall have been paid.

76. When there are joint registered holders of any share, any one of such persons may vote at any meeting, either personally or by proxy in respect of such shares as if he were solely entitled thereto, and if more than one of such joint-holders be present at any meeting personally or by proxy. That one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the register in respect of such share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof.

77. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy or by attorney.

78. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorized in writing, or if such appointer be a corporation either under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorized. No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a member of the Company and qualified to vote, but this provision shall not apply to an attorney under a power of attorney. Provided always that a corporation being a member of the Company may appoint any one of its officers to be its proxy, and the person so appointed may attend and vote at any meeting and exercise the same functions on behalf of the corporation which he represents as if he were an individual Shareholder.

79. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death of the principal or revocation of the proxy or transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given, provided no intimation in writing of the death, revocation, or transfer shall have been received at the office before the meeting.

80. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.

81. The instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form:—

The Indo-Ceylon Trading Company, Limited.

I, _____, of _____, being a member of the Indo-Ceylon Trading Co., Ltd., hereby appoint _____ of _____ (a member of the Company) as my proxy to vote for me and on my behalf at the ordinary (or extraordinary as the case may be) General Meeting of the Company to be held on the _____ day of _____ One thousand Nine hundred and twenty _____, and at any adjournment thereof.

As witness my hand this _____ day of _____ One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty _____.

82. No objection shall be taken to the validity of any vote except at the meeting or poll at which such vote shall be tendered, and the Chairman of such meeting shall be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered thereat.

83. No Shareholder shall be prevented from voting by reason of his being personally interested in the result of the voting.

Adjourned meeting to transact business left unfinished only.

DIRECTORS.

- Number of Directors. 84. The number of Directors shall never be more than five nor less than three, but this clause shall be construed as being directory only, and the continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any number of vacancies.
- Qualification for Directors. 85. The qualification of a Director shall be his holding five hundred shares in the Company whether fully paid up or partly paid up. In the case of partly paid up shares all calls or instalments for the time being shall have been paid.
- Directors fee for attending Meetings. 86. As remuneration for their services the Directors except the Managing Director shall be entitled to a payment of Rs. 10·50 for each meeting or adjournment thereof they attend. The Company in General Meeting may at any time alter the amount of such remuneration. The Managing Director shall be paid a monthly salary of Rs. 200 or such other sum as may be fixed from time to time at General Meetings.
- Managing Director. 87. The First Directors shall be Major John Rockwood, Sivasangaram Sanmogam, Alfred Benjamin Gomes, Saravanamuttu Somasunderam, and Cathiraveloe Arumugam, who shall hold office (subject to clause 88) till the First Ordinary General Meeting of the Company when they shall retire but shall be eligible for re-election.
- Appointment of Secretaries and Managing Directors. 88. The services of Mr. Cathiraveloe Arumugam shall be retained for at least five years as Managing Director.
- Remuneration for services of Directors. 89. Subject to clause 88 herein the board of Directors may appoint one or more Directors to act as Secretary, Secretaries, Managing Director, or Managing Directors, for such time and on such terms as the board may determine or fix, and may from time to time revoke such appointment and appoint another or other Secretary or Secretaries, Managing Director or Managing Directors.
- Board to fill vacancies. 90. If any Director shall be called upon to perform any extra services, the Directors may arrange with such Director for such special remuneration for such services either by way of salary, Commission, or the payment of a lump sum of money as they shall think fit.
- Retirement of Directors. 91. The Board of Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time before the First Ordinary General Meeting to supply any vacancies in their number arising from death, resignation, or otherwise.
- Who shall retire. 92. At the second ordinary general meeting and general meeting in every subsequent year one of the Directors for the time being (subject to clause 88) shall retire from office as provided in clause 93).
- Re-election. 93. Subject to clause 88 the Directors to retire from office at the second and third general meetings shall unless the Directors otherwise arrange among themselves be determined by ballot. In every subsequent year the Directors to retire shall be those who have been longest in office.
- Increasing or reducing the number of Directors. 94. Retiring Directors shall be eligible for re-election.
- When retiring Directors can continue in office. 95. The Directors subject to the approval of a General Meeting may from time to time increase or reduce the number of Directors, and may also subject to the like approval determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number is to go out of office.
- Resignation of Directors. 96. If at any meeting at which an election of a Director ought to take place the place of a retiring Director is not filled up, the retiring Director may continue in office until the ordinary General Meeting in the next year, and so on from meeting to meeting until his place is filled up, unless it shall be determined at such meeting to reduce the number of Directors.
- When Directors cannot hold office. 97. A Director may at any time give notice in writing of his intention to resign by delivering such notice to the Secretary or Manager, or by leaving the same at the office of the Company, or by tendering his written resignation at a meeting of the Directors, and on the acceptance of his resignation by the Directors, but not before his office shall become vacant.
- Exception. 98. The office of Directors shall be vacated :—
- (a) If he accepts or holds any office or place of profit other than Managing Director, Manager or Secretary under the Company.
 - (b) If he becomes bankrupt, or insolvent, or suspends payment, or files a petition for the liquidation of affairs, or compounds with his creditors.
 - (c) If by reason of mental or bodily infirmity he become incapable of acting.
 - (d) If he ceases to hold the required number of shares to qualify him for the office.
 - (e) If he is concerned or participates in the profits of any contract with or work done for the Company.
- But the above rule shall be subject to the following exception :—
- “ That no Director shall vacate his office by reason of his being a member of any Corporation, Company, or firm which has entered into any contract with or done any work for the Company of which he is a Director or by his being Agent or Secretary, or proprietor of the Company, nevertheless he shall not vote in respect of any contract work or business in which he may be personally interested.
- Removal of Directors. 99. The Company may by a special resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office and may by an ordinary resolution appoint another person in his stead. The Director so appointed shall hold office only during such time as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.
- Indemnity to Directors and Officers. 100. Every Director or officer and his heirs, executors, and administrators shall be indemnified by the Company from all losses and expenses incurred by him respectively in or about the discharge of his respective duties, except such as happen from his respective wilful act or defaults, and no Director or officer nor the heirs, executors, or administrators of any Director or officer shall be liable for any other Director or officer, or for joining in any receipt or other acts of conformity or for any loss or expense happening to the Company by the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired for or on behalf of the Company or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security, in or upon which any of the moneys of the Company shall be invested or for any loss, or damage, arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency, or tortious act of any person with whom any moneys, securities, or effects shall be deposited, or for any other loss, damage, or misfortune whatsoever which shall happen in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto unless the same otherwise happen through his own wilful act or default.

101. The manager, proctor, and officers (other than auditors) of the Company shall from time to time be appointed by special boards, and no manager or proctor, shall be removed from his office except by the resolution of a special board at which not less than three-fourths of the whole number of Directors for the time being are present, and concur in the expediency of the removal.

Appointment and removal of Manager and Proctors.

POWERS OF DIRECTORS.

102. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Directors, either by themselves or through a Managing Director or with the assistance of an Agent, Manager, or Secretary of the Company to be appointed by the Directors for such period and on such terms as they shall determine, and Directors may pay out of the funds of the Company all costs and expenses as well as preliminary or otherwise paid or incurred in and about the formation and registration of the Company and in connection with the placing of the shares of the Company and in about the valuation, purchase lease, or acquisition of any lands, estates, or other property, or goods, and in or about the working and business of the Company.

Power to purchase property, pay expenses, &c.

103. The Directors shall have power to make and may make such rules or regulations for the management of the business and property of the Company as they may from time to time think proper, and shall carry on the business of the Company in such manner as they may think most expedient, and in addition to the powers and authorities by any Ordinance or by these presents expressly conferred on them, they may exercise all such powers, give all such consents, make all such arrangements, appoint all such agents, managers, secretaries, salaried clerks, accountants, and other officers, artisans, labourers, engravers, jewellers, watchmakers, and other servants for such period or periods, and with such remuneration and at such salaries, and upon such terms and conditions as they may consider advisable and may pay the expenses occasioned thereby out of the funds of the Company, and may from time to time remove or suspend all or any of the managers, agents, accountants, officers, clerks, or other servants of the Company for such reasons as they may think fit proper and advisable and without assigning any cause for so doing.

Directors to make rules, engage Agents, Manager, clerks, &c.

104. The Directors shall exercise in the name and on behalf of the Company all such powers of the Company as are not expressly required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting, and shall generally do all such acts and things as are or shall be by any Ordinance and by these presents directed and authorized to be exercised, given, made or done by the Company and are not by any Ordinance or by these presents required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting subject nevertheless to the provisions of any such Ordinance and of these presents and to such regulations and provisions (if any) as may from time to time be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but no regulations made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such regulations had not been made.

Directors to exercise powers which are not expressly required to be exercised by General Meeting.

The generality of the powers conferred by any clause in these presents on the Directors shall not be taken to be limited by any clause conferring any special or expressed power.

105. The Directors shall have power to open from time to time on behalf of the Company any account or accounts with such bank or banks as they may select or appoint, and also by such signatures as they may appoint to draw, accept, make, endorse, sign, and execute cheques, bills of exchange, and promissory notes, bills of lading, receipts, contracts and agreements, bonds, mortgages, proxies to any proctor or proctors, and other documents on behalf of and to further the interests of the Company.

Directors to open accounts in banks.

106. It shall be lawful for the Directors if authorized so to do by a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting to arrange terms for the amalgamation of the Company with any other company or companies or individual or individuals or for the sale or disposal of the business estates and effects of the Company or any part or parts, share or shares thereof, respectively to any company or companies or person or persons upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit, and the Directors shall have power to do all such things as may be necessary for carrying such amalgamation, sale, or other disposition into effect so far as a resolution or special resolution of the Company is not by law necessary for such purpose, and in case any terms so arranged by the Directors include or make necessary the dissolution of the Company, the Company shall be dissolved to that end.

Amalgamation, sale, disposition, or dissolution of the Company.

107. In furtherance and not in limitation of and without prejudice to the general powers conferred or implied in any of the proceedings, clauses, and of the other powers conferred by these presents, it is hereby expressly declared that the Directors shall have the powers following:—

Further powers.

- (a) To purchase or take on lease premises suitable for the business of the Company and generally to purchase or otherwise acquire for the Company any property rights or privileges which the Company is authorized to acquire at such price and generally on such terms and conditions as they think fit, and to execute any mortgage of the said premises or other property of the Company for securing any loan or interest thereon on such terms as they may think fit, and to exercise all borrowing powers of the Company.
- (b) At their discretion to pay for any rights acquired by or services rendered to the Company either wholly or partially in cash or in shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company, and any such shares may be issued either as fully paid up or with such amount credited as paid up thereon as may be agreed upon.
- (c) To secure the fulfilment of any contract or engagement entered into by the Company by mortgage or charge of all or any of the property of the Company and its uncalled capital for the time being or in any other manner as they may think fit.
- (d) To accept from any member on such terms and conditions as shall be agreed a surrender of his share or stock or any part thereof.
- (e) To give to any officer or servant of the Company a commission on the profits of any particular business or transaction on a share in the general profits of the Company, and such commissions or share of the profits shall be treated as part of the working expenses of the Company.
- (f) To institute, conduct, defend, compromise, settle, or abandon any action, suit, prosecution, or other legal proceedings on behalf of the Company, and also to compound and allow time for payment or satisfaction of any debts due to or from the Company and any claim or demand made by or against the Company.
- (g) To refer any claims or demands by or against the Company to arbitration, and absolve and perform or enforce the award.

- (h) To act on behalf of the Company in all matters relating to bankrupts and insolvents, with power to accept the office of trustees, assignees, liquidators, or inspectors, or any similar office.
- (i) To confer upon and entrust to the Managing Director or Managing Directors all or any of the powers of the Directors (excepting the power to make calls, forfeit shares, borrow money), that they may think fit. But the exercise of all powers by the Managing Director or Managing Directors shall be subject to such regulations and restrictions as the Directors may from time to time impose, and the said powers may at any time be withdrawn, revoked, or varied.

PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS.

Directors' meeting.

108. The Directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Until otherwise determined, three Directors shall be a quorum. Questions arising at any meetings shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote: A Director may, and the Secretary or Manager on the requisition of a Director shall at any time summon a meeting of the Directors. It shall not be necessary to give any notice of a meeting of Directors to any Director who is absent from Ceylon.

Election of Chairman of the Board.

109. The Board of Directors may elect a Chairman of their meeting and determine the period for which he is to hold office, and all meetings of the Directors shall be presided over by the Chairman if one has been elected and if present; but if there be a vacancy of the office of Chairman, or if at any meeting of Directors, the Chairman be not present at the time appointed for holding the same, then in that case the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of such meeting.

Directors may pass a resolution without meeting.
Minute books.

110. A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it has been passed at a meeting of the Directors duly called and constituted.

111. The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in books to be provided for the purpose of the following matters:—

- (a) Of all appointments of officers made by the Directors.
- (b) Of the names of the Directors present at each meeting of the Directors.
- (c) Of the resolutions and proceedings of all General Meetings.
- (d) Of the resolutions and proceedings of all meetings of the Directors.
- (e) Of all orders made by the Directors.

The seal of the Company.

112. The seal of the Company shall not be used or affixed to any deed or instrument except in the presence of two or more of the Directors or of one Director and the Secretary or Manager of the Company, who shall attest the seal thereof, such attestation on the part of the Secretary or Manager in the event of a firm being the secretaries being signified by a partner of the said firm signing for and on behalf of the said firm as such secretaries.

Account books shall be kept.

113. The Managing Director, Manager, or Secretary for the time being shall cause true accounts to be kept of the paid-up capital for the time being of the Company, and of all sums of money received and expended by the Company, and of the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place, and of the assets, credits, and liabilities of the Company, and generally of all its commercial, financial, and other affairs, transactions, and engagements, and of all other matters necessary for showing the true financial state and condition of the Company, and the account shall be kept in such books and in such a manner at the registered office of the Company as the Directors think fit.

Inspection of books.

114. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what time and place, and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company or of any of them shall be open for the inspection of the Shareholders, and no Shareholder shall have any right of inspecting any account or books or documents of the Company, except as conferred by statute or authorized by the Directors or by a resolution of the Company in General Meeting:

Balance sheet and profit and loss account.

115. At the Ordinary General Meeting in every year the Directors shall lay before the Company a statement of the profit and loss account for the preceding financial year and a balance sheet containing a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company made up to the end of the same period.

Report to accompany balance sheet.

116. Every such statement shall be accompanied by a report as to the state and condition of the Company and as to the amount which they recommend to be paid out of the profits by way of dividend to the Shareholders, and the statement, report, and balance sheet shall be signed by the Directors.

Printed copy of balance sheet to be sent to every Shareholder.

117. A printed copy of such balance sheet shall at least seven days previous to such meeting be delivered at or posted to the registered address of every Shareholder.

DIVIDENDS.

How dividends are to be paid.

118. Subject to the provisions of the Memorandum of Association and to the rights of the holders of any shares entitled to any priority, preference, or special privilege, all dividends shall be declared and paid to the members in proportion to the amounts paid upon the shares held by them respectively. No amount paid on a share in advance of calls shall, while carrying interests, be treated for the purpose of this Article as paid on a share.

Dividends to be paid from profits.

119. No dividends shall be paid otherwise than out of the profits arising from the business of the Company.

Debts due by Shareholders to be deducted from dividends.

120. The Directors may deduct from the dividends payable to any member all such sums of money as may be due from him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.

Reserve fund.

121. Before the declaration of a dividend the Directors may set aside any part of the nett profits of the Company to create a reserve fund, and may apply the same either by employing it in the business of the Company or by investing it in such manner (not being the purchase of or by way of loan upon the shares of a Company) as they shall think fit, or place same on fixed deposit in any bank or banks, and the income arising from such reserve fund shall be treated as part of the gross profits of the Company. Such reserve fund may be applied for the purpose of maintaining, or extending the property of the Company, replacing wasting assets, meeting contingencies, forming an insurance fund or for special dividends or equalizing dividends, or for any other purpose for which the nett profits of the Company may lawfully be used, and until the same shall be so applied it shall be deemed to remain undivided profit. The Directors may also carry forward to the accounts of the succeeding year or years any profit or balance of profit which they shall not think fit either to be divided or to place to reserve.

AUDIT.

122. No person shall be eligible as an Auditor who is interested otherwise than as a member in any transaction of the Company, but it shall not be a necessary qualification for an Auditor that he be a member of the Company, and no Director or officer of the Company shall during his continuance in office be eligible as an Auditor.

Appointment of Auditors.

123. The Directors shall appoint the first Auditor or Auditors of the Company and give his or their remuneration. He or they shall hold office till the second General Meeting of the Company. All subsequent appointments shall, except as is hereinafter mentioned, be made at the Ordinary General Meeting of the Company in each year by the members present thereat, and the Auditor or Auditors appointed at such meeting shall hold office only until the first Ordinary General Meeting after his or their appointment, or until otherwise ordered by a General Meeting.

124. The remuneration of the Auditors other than the first shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting, and this remuneration may from time to time be varied by a General Meeting.

Remuneration of Auditors.

125. Retiring Auditors shall be eligible for re-election.

Re-election of Auditors.

126. If any vacancy that may occur in the office of Auditors is not supplied at the Ordinary General Meeting, nor if any casual vacancy shall occur in the office of Auditor, the Directors shall fill up the vacancy by the appointment of a person or persons who shall hold office until the next Ordinary General Meeting after his or their appointment.

Vacancy to be filled by Directors.

NOTICES.

127. Every member shall register with the Company an address in Ceylon to which notices may be sent, and any notice required to be given to such member may be served by the Company, upon such manner either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to such member at his registered address.

Address of Members to be registered.

128. Notices from the Company may be authenticated by the signature of the Managing Director, Manager, or Secretary, or other persons appointed by the Board to do so.

Notices to be signed by.

129. All notices required to be given by advertisement shall be published in the Ceylon Government Gazette.

Notices in Gazette.

DISSOLUTION OF THE COMPANY.

130. If at any time the Directors find that the losses of the Company have exhausted the reserve fund and also one-third of the paid-up capital, they shall forthwith call an Extraordinary Meeting, and submit to it a full statement of the affairs of the Company.

When losses exhaust reserve fund and one-third of the capital. Board to recommend dissolution.

131. If the Board shall pass a resolution recommending a dissolution of the Company, or that it shall discontinue its business and wind up its affairs either in contemplation of or in connection with or in order to effect a transfer of its business, property, and liabilities to any other company, and the continued prosecution of its business by such other company, or without reference to and independently of any such objects; and the Company shall by special resolution adopt such recommendation, or if all the members shall in writing under their hands agree thereto, thereupon the affairs of the Company shall be wound up by the Directors or the liquidators of the Company, and they shall continue in office for that purpose anything hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

132. Such Directors shall have full power to carry such resolutions or agreement into full and complete effect, and they shall and may have and exercise for such purpose all the powers conferred by the Ordinances upon liquidators appointed in the case of a voluntary winding up of a company as well as all other powers applicable to such purpose which might have been exercised by them in reference to their continued prosecution of the Company's business and any other powers which, under the circumstances of the case, may be conferred upon them by any General Meeting, or which may be requisite for enabling them to effect a complete winding up of the affairs of the Company and a dissolution thereof.

Directors to carry out resolution.

133. In order to assist in such winding up as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Directors to declare any debt which they consider to be bad or doubtful to be irrecoverable.

Irrecoverable debts.

134. If any moneys to which upon the winding up of the Company any Shareholder or his representatives (including therein whatever moneys he or they may be entitled to receive by virtue of these Articles) shall not be claimed by the person entitled thereto within six months from such days as the Directors shall fix by advertisement as being the period within which the same must be claimed or forfeited, such moneys and all increase, profits, and accumulations made from any investment or employment thereof, shall at the expiration of such period be forfeited and be divided and distributed among the rest of the Shareholders or their representatives in proportion to their several shares.

Unclaimed money.

135. When the affairs of the Company in the opinion of the Directors shall be finally wound up, closed, and settled, the Directors may thereupon declare the same by a resolution to be passed by them, and advertise such resolution.

Publication of final dissolution.

136. The resolution so passed and advertised shall immediately on the expiration of one month from the date of such advertisement, if in the meantime no proceedings shall have been taken on the part of any Shareholder or his representative to prevent the operation thereof, operate and be effectual as a full, final, and complete general mutual release between the Shareholders and their representatives individually and collectively in respect of all actions, suits, and causes of action and suits, accounts, reckonings, controversies, disputes, claims, and demands which may be subsisting between them on which either of them are or is entitled to or can or may have, maintain, bring, prosecute, recover, or set up against any other or others of them touching the property or affairs of the Company, or the management or disposal thereof, or any act, deed, matter or things done, committed, executed, omitted, neglected, occasioned or suffered by the Directors, or by any other person in connection therewith, as fully and completely as if a release to the same extent had been contained in and made by deed or deeds duly made between and executed by and between such Shareholders or their representatives inter se and by and between them and the Company, respectively.

137. All acts, matters, and things heretofore done for or on behalf of the Company by the promoters and by the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association are hereby confirmed and adopted by the Company.

Examination for the Admission of Learners to the Field Staff of the Irrigation Department.

AN examination for the admission of Learners to the Irrigation Department for training as Irrigation Sub-Inspectors will be held not later than February 18, 1924, at the following centres:—

Anuradhapura, Kurunegala, Tangalla, Badulla, and Batticaloa.

2. Candidates wishing to take up the examination at Anuradhapura, Kurunegala, Tangalla, or Batticaloa, should apply to the Divisional Irrigation Engineers in the respective centres. Those wishing to take up the examination at Badulla should apply to the Divisional Irrigation Engineer, Haldummulla. Applications for admission to the examination will be received not later than February 6, 1924, by the Divisional Irrigation Engineers mentioned.

3. Applications must be on the prescribed form, which can be obtained from a Divisional Irrigation Engineer.

4. Candidates must be between the ages of 18 and 25, and must furnish, together with their applications, the following:—

- (a) Birth certificate.
- (b) Certificates of respectability from at least two persons, whose social or official position can be accepted as a guarantee of reliability and who are not the candidates' schoolmasters, and also conduct certificates from the candidates' schoolmasters.
- (c) Educational certificate of a standard not lower than the Cambridge Junior School Certificate (with pass in Mathematics).

5. Candidates who are approved will be examined in—

- (1) Mathematics.
 - (a) Arithmetic.
 - (b) Algebra (up to and including quadratic equations).
 - (c) Geometry (theorems and problems on the following: angles at a point; parallel straight lines; side and angle properties of triangles and parallelograms; areas of triangles and quadrilaterals; the chord, angle, and tangent properties of the circle; the properties of the right-angled triangle).
 - (d) Mensuration, elementary (of areas and solids).
- (2) English Composition (Essay).
- (3) Viva voce in English.

6. Successful candidates will be required, before final selection as Learners, to fill up a form (General 16), which may be obtained from a Divisional Irrigation Engineer, and handed to a Government Medical Officer, from whom a health certificate, testifying to the candidates' sound constitution, good vision and hearing, and physical fitness for service in the jungle districts of the Island, must be obtained and produced to the Divisional Irrigation Engineer for examination.

7. Security for the sum of Rs. 100 in two satisfactory sureties must be furnished to cover the cost of loss of stores or damage to instruments through neglect or carelessness. Candidates must also sign an agreement to the effect that they will serve, if so required by the Director of Irrigation, for a period of three years in this Department, failing which they will refund the cost of their training if called upon to do so. After selection, they will be taken into a Divisional Office or sent on to works of construction or survey for about 9 months, and granted subsistence allowance of Rs. 30 a month during this period. They must pay travelling expenses to their first station.

8. Five and a half months of the period may be spent at the Training Classes of the Irrigation Department at Trincomalee, where free unfurnished camp quarters will be provided. Travelling expenses to and from a Learner's station and Trincomalee will be allowed, but will be limited to fare by public conveyance and daily allowance at the rate paid to Sub-Inspectors.

9. At the end of the training period a Learner will be examined as to his fitness for appointment as an Irrigation Sub-Inspector, but a Learner, who does not attend to his work, or shows no promise of becoming a satisfactory officer, may be discontinued at any time.

10. A Sub-Inspector will be eligible, on passing a further examination, for promotion to Irrigation Inspector (on vacancies occurring), and ultimately, after satisfactory service and approved ability, to Assistant Irrigation Engineer.
