DRAFT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance further to amend "The Courts Ordinance, 1889."

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Courts Ordinance, 1889": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Courts (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1924," and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Governor by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette."

2 Section 28 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, and the following section shall be inserted in its place :

28. Criminal sessions of the Supreme Court shall be holden by one of the Judges thereof, or by a Commissioner of Assize duly appointed under the provisions of this Ordinance, for each of the circuits, for the hearing, trying, and determining all prosecutions which shall be commenced against any person for or in respect of any crime or offence, or alleged crime or offence :

For the Western Circuit, four times at least in each year at Colombo and such other places in such circuit as the Governor, after previous consultation with the Judges, shall appoint, such sessions commencing at Colombo on January 10, on March 20, on July 10, and on October 10 in every year.

For the Midland Circuit, three times at least at Kandy and any other sessions at such other places in such circuit as the Governor, after previous consultation with the Judges, shall appoint, such sessions commencing at Kandy on March 10, on August 1, and on December 1, in every year.

Preamble.

Short title and commencement.

Substitution of new section for section 28 of principal Ordinance.

Criminal sessions when and where holden.

For the Northern Circuit, twice at least at Jaffna and such other places in such circuit as the Governor, after previous consultation with the Judges, shall appoint, such sessions commencing at Jaffna in the month of February and the month of July in every year.

For the Southern Circuit, twice at least at Galle and such other places in such circuit as the Governor, after previous consultation with the Judges, shall appoint, such sessions commencing at Galle on April 25 and September 15 in every year.

For the Eastern Circuit, twice at least at Batticaloa and such other place or places in such circuit as the Governor, after previous consultation with the Judges, shall appoint, such sessions commencing at Batticaloa in the month of February and the month of July in every year.

Provided that, should any of the aforementioned days fall on a Saturday or a Sunday or on any public holiday, the sessions shall commence on the next working day: And provided further, that it shall be competent for the Governor, for sufficient reasons to him appearing, to order, after previous consultation with the Judges, other sessions to be holden at the places above mentioned, or at any other place in any of the said circuits either in substitution for or in addition to any of the places above mentioned or to fix any other place for the commencement of any sessions, or to alter the dates above mentioned, and to fix any other date for the commencement of the sessions at any place:

Provided further that in the event of it proving impracticable or inconvenient for any Judge to arrive at any circuit town in time to commence any sessions on the date appointed, such Judge may, on giving such public or other notice as he may deem necessary for the purpose of informing all persons concerned, postpone such sessions until such other date as he may deem convenient:

Provided further that in the event of there not being in any of the aforesaid circuits, within a reasonable time before the date fixed for such sessions, any cases committed for trial or sufficient cases, or cases of sufficient importance to justify the holding of a sessions, the Governor may, after previous consultation with the Judges, by notification in the "Government Gazette," cancel such sessions and direct that the cases, if any, ready for trial at such sessions, shall be tried at such times and places as may be specified by the Governor in the said notification.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 17, 1924.

CECIL CLEWENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

REPRESENTATIONS have been made by the Chief Justice that amendments are required in section 28 of the principal Ordinance, and, as amendments have previously been made to this section, it is thought better to repeal and re-enact it in an amended form. The first part of the section, which deals with the dates and places at which and on which sessions are to commence, is not altered, but in the provisoes certain changes are made to which it is necessary to call attention.

2. In the first proviso it is proposed that, if the date of commencement of a sessions falls on a Saturday, the sessions shall commence on the next working day. The present provision deals only with Sundays. Further, power is also taken in the proviso to appoint places in substitution for or in addition to places named in the first part of the section for commencement of sessions.

3. It has been found that the second proviso, which was inserted in section 28 of the principal Ordinance by section 3 of Ordinance No. 36 of 1921, is not sufficiently elastic. In its present form it only allows of the commencement of a sessions being postponed in cases where, by reason of pressure of work of circuit or other work elsewhere, it is impossible for a Judge to arrive at the circuit town at the appointed time. It has been found by experience that there are other causes which require postponement, and consequently the limitation of pressure of work has been left out. Similarly there appears in the existing proviso a provision that the postponement must not be for more than a week beyond the prescribed date. This limitation has also been found undesirable, and it is proposed that it should be left out.

4. The third proviso to the section is new, and is intended to deal with cases where either there is no work done on the circuit or the work is of such a character as to make it unnecessary to hold the sessions at any particular place. It will be seen that provision is made for the transfer of such cases to another place.
