Colonial Secretary.Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE object of this Ordinance is to incorporate the present "Board of Electors of the Maradana Mosque" who control the affairs of the mosque. The present constitution of the mosque was adopted by the congregation of the mosque in 1913, and article 22 provides that it is to remain in force till the Trustees of the mosque are incorporated by Ordinance.

The mosque has extensive properties and large funds, and intends acquiring other properties and erecting buildings.

It is obvious that these extensive properties should be vested in an incorporated Board of Trustees.

The rules in Schedule II. are taken over with slight alterations from the existing constitution, and have been approved by the present Board of Electors at a meeting held on January 6, 1924.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 13, 1924.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE following is a statement of the general nature and objects of the proposed Ordinance:—

A voluntary community or society of Christian persons known as "The Salvation Army" was founded in or about the month of August, 1878, by William Booth (usually known as "General of the Salvation Army") and carried on in Ceylon and other places its work of religion, philanthropy, and benevolence in accordance with the objects and purposes set forth and contained in certain Deeds Poll executed in England on the 7th day of August, 1878; the 24th day of June, 1880; and the 26th day of July, 1904. By these deeds it was declared that the General of the Salvation Army should have power to acquire movable and immovable property for the purposes of the Salvation Army and the said William Booth was declared the first General of the Salvation Army.

William Booth was also interested in a separate and distinct scheme known as the "Darkest England" Scheme, the trusts relating to which are set forth and contained in a Deed Poll dated the 30th January, 1891.

William Booth died on the 20th August, 1912, and on his death William Bramwell Booth was appointed his successor as General of the Salvation Army, and the question of vesting in the succeeding General the title to the various allotments of land and other property then arose.

In order to obviate the necessity for completing the usual necessary legal formalities of transfer according to law and the consequent expense it is proposed to make provision by an Ordinance for the incorporation of the General of the Salvation Army as a corporation sole with perpetual succession.
