DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to provide for Public Holidays in this Colony.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to public holidays in this Colony: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title and commencement.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Public Holidays Ordinance, No. of 1924," and it shall come into operation on the passing thereof.

Certain days to be public holidays.

2 The several days mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed (and which days are hereinafter referred to as public holidays) shall, in addition to Sundays, be dies non, and shall be kept (except as hereinafter provided) as holidays in this Colony. If any of these holidays fall on a Sunday, the following Monday shall be a public holiday, unless otherwise ordered by the Governor, of which notice shall be given in the "Government Gazette."

Regulations.

3 The Governor in Executive Council may, from time to time, make regulations excluding in whole or in part, from the operation of this Ordinance, any public office or any department thereof, and thereupon all acts and things relating to such public office or department thereof may be done and performed on any public holiday, notwithstanding the provisions of this Ordinance.

Governor may appoint special days to be observed as public holidays.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor, by notification in the "Government Gazette," at any time to appoint a special day to be observed as a public holiday, in addition to or in substitution for any of the days mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed, and thereupon the provisions of this Ordinance shall be applicable to such day in the same manner as if the said day had been mentioned in the said schedule.

Repeal.

5 The provisions of Ordinance No. 4 of 1886, in so far as they relate to public holidays, are hereby repealed.

SCHEDULE.

Public Holidays.

New Year's Day and the day following.
Good Friday and the day following.
Easter Monday and Tuesday.
The Birthday of His Majesty the King.
Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, and the six subsequent days.
Hindu New Year Festival Day.
The first full moon day of the Sinhalese month Wesak.
The Muhammadan Hadji Festival Day.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 2, 1924.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THIS Ordinance is a companion Ordinance to the proposed Bank Holidays Ordinance. It involves no amendment of the existing law, which is now embodied in the Public and Bank Holidays Ordinance, No. 4 of 1886. In view of the decision to amend the law relating to bank holidays and to embody it in a separate Ordinance, it is thought preferable to deal similarly with the subject of public holidays instead of making numerous alterations and amendments of the existing Ordinance.

An Ordinance to provide for Bank Holidays in this Colony.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to bank holidays in this Colony: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Bank Holidays Ordinance, No. of 1924," and it shall come into operation on the passing thereof.

Short title and commencement.

2 For the purposes of this Ordinance, "the day next following" a bank holiday shall mean the next following day on which a bill of exchange may be lawfully noted or protested.

Interpretation clause.

3 After the coming into operation of this Ordinance, the several days in the schedule hereto annexed (and which days are hereinafter referred to as bank holidays) shall be kept as close holidays in all banks in this Colony, and all bills of exchange and promissory notes which are due and payable on any such bank holiday shall be payable, and in case of non-payment may be noted and protested, on the day next following such bank holiday, and any such noting or protest shall be as valid as if made on the day on which the bill or note was made due and payable.

Bank holidays.

4 When the day on which any notice of dishonour of an unpaid bill of exchange or promissory note should be given, or when the day on which a bill of exchange or promissory note should be presented or received for acceptance, or accepted, or forwarded to any referee or referees, is a bank holiday, such notice of dishonour shall be given and such bill of exchange or promissory note shall be presented or forwarded on the day next following such bank holiday.

Provision as to notice of dishonour and presentation for honour.

5 No person shall be compellable to make any payment or to do any act upon such bank holiday which he would not be compellable to do or make on Sunday; and the obligation to make such payment and do such act shall apply to the day next following such bank holiday; and the making of such payment and doing such act on such following day shall be equivalent to payment of the money or performance of the act on the holiday.

As to payments on bank holidays.

6 It shall be lawful for the Governor, by notification in the "Government Gazette," at any time to appoint a special day to be observed as a bank holiday, in addition to or in substitution for any of the days mentioned in the schedule hereto annexed, and thereupon the provisions of this Ordinance shall be applicable to such day in the same manner as if the said day had been mentioned in the said schedule.

Governor may appoint special days to be observed as bank holidays.

Repeal.

7 The provisions of Ordinance No. 4 of 1886, in so far as they relate to bank holidays, are hereby repealed.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
 Colombo, July 2, 1924.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
 Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE law at present in force in this Island in regard to bank holidays is to be found in Ordinance No. 4 of 1886, an enactment which deals both with bank holidays as well as public holidays. Certain provisions of this Ordinance, notably the provisions of sections 6 and 7, have given rise to much inconvenience in business circles. Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes which fall due on a bank or public holiday are not payable till the following day. Similarly, when the day on which notice of dishonour of an unpaid Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note should be given, or when the day on which a Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note should be presented or received for acceptance, or accepted, or forwarded to any referee or referees, is a bank or public holiday, the day next following such bank or public holiday is appointed as the day on which these acts are to be done. The day next following a bank or public holiday means the day next following not being itself a bank or public holiday. It will be observed that public holidays partake largely of the character of bank holidays. This is not the position either in England or in India. Some idea of the resulting inconvenience to business may be formed when it is remembered that the public holidays in connection with Christmas and the New Year alone run almost continuously from December 24 to January 2. With the growing development of the commercial life of the Island, this inconvenience is making itself felt more and more from day to day. From representations made and inquiries instituted thereon, there would seem to be a strong and a very general feeling that the present state of affairs places a wholly unnecessary handicap on the business life of the city. The object of the present Ordinance is to give the relief which is desired. It is based on the English Bank Holidays Act. Inasmuch as the law relating to Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes in force in this Island is the English law, it is manifestly desirable that the law relating to bank holidays should be brought as closely as possible into line with the law in England. The proposed Ordinance gives relief in the matters to which attention has already been specially invited; it proposes no other material alteration of the existing law.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend "The Co-operative Societies Ordinance, No. 34 of 1921."

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Co-operative Societies Ordinance, No. 34 of 1921" : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1924."

Preamble.

Short title.

2 Section 5 of the principal Ordinance is amended in the following respects :—

Amendment of section 5 of the principal Ordinance.

(a) By striking out, in lines 1 and 2 of sub-section (1) thereof, the words "composed of at least two registered societies" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "of which registered societies are members";

(b) By inserting as sub-section (1) (a) thereof the following :—

(1) (a) No society established for the purpose of facilitating the operations of registered societies shall be registered unless at least two members thereof are registered societies.

3 Sub-section (2) of section 6 of the principal Ordinance is hereby struck out, and the following shall be inserted in lieu thereof :—

Amendment of section 6 of the principal Ordinance.

(2) The application shall be signed—

(a) In the case of a society of which no member is a registered society, by at least ten persons qualified in accordance with the requirements of section 5 (1) of this Ordinance ; and

(b) In the case of a society of which registered societies are members, by a duly authorized person on behalf of every such registered society, and, where all the members of the society are not registered societies, by ten other members or, when there are less than ten other members, by all of them.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 11, 1924.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Co-operative Ordinance, No. 34 of 1921, had for one of its objects the affording of facilities for the creation of Central Societies which would act as financing or supervising agencies for affiliated primary societies. The formation of such societies has been under the consideration of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies for some time, and he states that it will be difficult to create such Central Societies composed solely, as Ordinance No. 34 of 1921 provides, of registered primary societies. It is therefore proposed by the present amending Ordinance to allow of the formation, as in India, of Central Societies having for their members individuals as well as registered primary societies.

2. Section 5 (1) of the principal Ordinance does not provide for Central Societies of a "Mixed" constitution and section 6 (2) b) precludes the consideration of applications from Central Societies which are not composed solely of registered primary societies.

3. The object of the present amending Ordinance is to remove these difficulties which tend to hinder the further extension of the Co-operative Movement in Ceylon. At the same time it is desired to safeguard the interests of the registered primary societies and to assure that these Central Societies will be mainly co-operative. It is therefore stipulated by section 2 (b) that no such Central Society shall be registered unless at least two of its members are registered primary societies.

An Ordinance further to amend "The Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement Ordinance, 1896."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement Ordinance, 1896": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Nuwara Eliya Board of Improvement (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1924."

Amendment of section 32 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 32 of the principal Ordinance shall be amended by the addition of the words "including the erection of model tenements for housing the poorer classes" after the word "Ordinance" in line 2 of paragraph (2) thereof.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, July 5, 1924.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Board of Improvement of Nuwara Eliya has spent considerable sums in putting up model tenements, and it is proposed to carry out this policy with greater activity in the future. As the power of the Board to erect and lease these tenements is not absolutely clear, it is thought well to remove any doubt by making special provision for the purpose.

An Ordinance further to amend "The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865."

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Masters Attendant's (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1924."

Amendment of section 9 of the principal Ordinance.

2 Section 9 of the principal Ordinance is amended by inserting after the word "port" in line 3 thereof the words "or any person authorized by him either generally or on a special occasion."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 26, 1924.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865, was passed before the existing harbour was made and at a time when the number of ships calling at the port was very small. Under section 9 of the Ordinance the berth of every ship which enters the harbour is required to be pointed out by the Master Attendant, a work which is impossible for him to carry out having regard to the number of ships which frequent the port and to the numerous other duties which he has to perform. By the amendment embodied in this Bill it is proposed to allow the Master Attendant to depute his duties under section 9 to a person authorized either specially or generally.

An Ordinance further to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909."

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend "The Game Protection Ordinance, 1909": Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Game Protection (Amendment) Ordinance, No. of 1924."

Short title.

2 The following section shall be inserted as section 28 A of the principal Ordinance:

Insertion of new section 28A in the principal Ordinance.

28 A (1) The Governor in Executive Council may by notification in the "Government Gazette" establish a close season in respect of any fish not mentioned in schedule III. of this Ordinance.

(2) Any person who shall take, kill, or destroy any fish in contravention of any such notification shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees and, in default of payment, to simple or rigorous imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, June 24, 1924.

CECIL CLEMENTI,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

THE attention of the Governor has been called to the necessity of taking steps to protect the oyster if its disappearance from the Island is to be prevented. With this object it is proposed that a clause should be inserted in the principal Ordinance allowing of a close season being proclaimed in respect of fish. The term "fish" includes oyster; but it is thought well that the power to proclaim a close season in respect of fish which do not come under Part III. of the principal Ordinance should be taken in general terms.
