(l) It must be clearly understood that for failure to have full monthly supplies ready as required, a penalty of 25 cents for every cubic yard short shall be levied.

(m) A fine of Rs. 10 will be inflicted for every scheduled or marked tree felled, and in addition the contractor will be liable for payment of full royalty value.

 - (b) The holders of the majority in value of the proprietary shares shall be the sole judges of what conduct amounts to misconduct or to conduct likely to prejudice the business of the Company and of whether a holder of proprietary shares has ceased to take an active part in the business, and if such majority shall notify in writing any holder of proprietary shares that he has been guilty of misconduct or of conduct likely to prejudice the business of the Company, or that he has ceased to take an active part in the business of the Company, such holder shall be bound forthwith to transfer all proprietary shares held by him in accordance with sub-clause (a) of this Article.
 - (c) A holder of proprietary shares or trustee in bankruptcy of the property of any holder or his personal representatives or committee who shall be bound to transfer any proprietary share or shares under the provisions hereinbefore contained shall not receive any payment for such share or shares, and his interest in such share or shares shall cease from the date on which the transferee or transferees shall be entered on the register as the holder or holders thereof.
 - (d) Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, shall not be bound to transfer any proprietary shares held by them or by a nominee for them under the provisions of this Article, except in the event of the liquidation of the said Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited (either voluntary or compulsory), otherwise than for the purpose of amalgamation or reconstruction or reorganization.
 - (e) Neither the said William Somerville or the trustee in bankruptcy of his property or his personal representatives or committee shall be bound to transfer any proprietary shares held by the said William Somerville under the provisions of this Article, except so far as the same may be made applicable by the agreements mentioned in Article 3.
 - (f) No person other than Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, or their nominee, or William Somerville and Charles Thompson Young and H. G. Donald shall hold in their or his own name or in the name of any nominee for them or him or become beneficially interested in more than 10 per cent. of the proprietary shares in the Company for the time being issued, unless and until he shall have been in the service of the Company for at least 5 years (including service with the firm of Gow, Somerville & Co. prior to the incorporation of the Company), and no person shall at any time hold in his own name or in the name of any nominee for him or become beneficially interested in more than 35 per cent. of the proprietary shares for the time being issued. If any such person shall hold or become beneficially interested in a larger percentage of the proprietary shares than is authorized by this sub-clause he shall be bound forthwith to transfer or cause to be transferred in the manner provided by sub-clause (a) of this Article such portion of the proprietary shares held by him or in which he may be beneficially interested as may be in excess of the percentage hereby authorized.
 - (g) In calculating majorities for the purpose of this clause any shares held by a person not actually engaged in the business of the Company other than Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, or their nominee shall be excluded.
 - (h) If any holder of proprietary shares or his personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy of his property or committee after becoming bound as aforesaid, shall make default in transferring any proprietary share to the nominee or nominees aforesaid, the Company shall forthwith cause the name of the nominee or nominees to be entered in the register as the holder or holders of such proprietary share, and after the name of the nominee or nominees has or have been entered in the register in purported exercise of the power given by this sub-clause the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.
35. The following restrictions shall take effect with respect to the ordinary shares in the Company :—
- (a) If any holder of ordinary shares (other than Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, or their nominee) shall cease to take an active part in the business or shall die or become lunatic or mentally defective, he or his personal representative or committee, as the case may be, shall be bound on his ceasing to take an active part in the business or on his proving the will or taking out letters of administration of the estate of the deceased holder or on his appointment as committee, as the case may be, forthwith to give a notice (hereinafter called the option notice) to the Company specifying the number of ordinary shares held by such holder as aforesaid, and constituting the Company his agent for the sale of the said ordinary shares to the other holders of ordinary shares at par. If there should be any failure to give any such option notice as in this clause provided on the date upon which the same should have been given, then such option notice shall be deemed to have been duly given on such date, and effect shall be given thereto accordingly. The option notice shall not be revocable, but shall be deemed to be withdrawn at the expiration of six months from the date thereof as regards any shares for the purchase of which no binding agreement shall have been made in manner hereinafter provided.
 - (b) The Company shall offer the ordinary shares comprised in the option notice to the other holders of ordinary shares in proportion to their respective holdings of proprietary shares, and no holder of ordinary shares who is not also a holder of proprietary shares shall be entitled to claim a transfer under this Article. The offer shall in each case limit the time within which the same if not accepted shall be deemed to be declined, and may notify such holders that any holder of ordinary shares who desires an allotment of shares in excess of his proportion should in his reply state how many excess shares he desires to have; and if all the holders of ordinary shares do not claim their proportions, the unclaimed shares shall be used for satisfying the claims in excess. If any shares shall not be capable, without fractions, of being offered to the other holders of ordinary shares aforesaid in proportion to their existing holdings of proprietary shares, the same shall be offered to the said other holders or some of them in such proportions or in such manner as may be determined by lots to be drawn under the directions of the Directors.

- (c) Any holder of ordinary shares who accepts any ordinary shares offered in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Article shall within six months of the date of the option notice enter into a binding agreement to purchase the said ordinary shares upon the following terms :—
- (1) The purchase price shall be par and shall be payable within a period of three years from the date of the option notice by six equal half-yearly payments, the purchaser paying in the meantime interest at the rate of $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum on so much of the purchase price as shall for the time being remain unpaid.
 - (2) As and when the purchaser pays the said equal half-yearly payments, the vendor shall transfer to the purchaser ordinary shares of the nominal amount of the payments so made.
 - (3) If the purchaser makes default in payment of any half-yearly payment or interest payable under the agreement, the vendor shall be entitled to determine the agreement in respect of shares not already transferred thereunder and to dispose of such shares in accordance with Article 36.
 - (4) The purchaser may pay up in full at any time with interest at the rate aforesaid up to the time of such payment.
 - (5) The purchaser shall be entitled to all dividends declared or paid after the date of the option notice.
- (d) If any ordinary shares comprised in an option notice shall not become subject to a binding agreement within six calendar months from the date of such option notice, such ordinary shares shall no longer be subject to the provisions of this Article, and may be sold in accordance with the provisions of Article 36.
- (e) If any holder of ordinary shares or other person who shall become bound to transfer any ordinary shares under any agreement entered into in accordance with the provisions of this Article shall make default in transferring such ordinary shares to the purchaser in accordance with the terms of the said agreement, the Company may from time to time receive the instalments of the purchase price becoming due and shall thereupon from time to time cause the name of the purchaser to be entered in the register as the holder of the ordinary shares a transfer of which he is entitled to claim in respect of each instalment, and shall hold the said instalments in trust for the defaulting holder or other person aforesaid. The receipt of the Company for such instalment shall be a good discharge to the purchaser, and after his name has been entered in the Register in purported exercise of the power given by this sub-clause the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.

36. Subject to the provisions hereinbefore contained any shares other than proprietary shares in the Company may be transferred by the holder thereof or other the person entitled to transfer as follows :—

- (a) Except where the transfer is made pursuant to sub-clause (e) of this Article the person proposing to transfer any share (hereinafter called the proposing transferor) shall give notice in writing (hereinafter called the transfer notice) to the Company that he desires to transfer the same. Such notice shall constitute the Company his agent for the sale of the share to any member of the Company holding shares of the same class as the share comprised in the notice at par. The transfer notice may include several shares of any class (other than proprietary shares), and in such case shall specify the number of shares of each class, and shall operate as if it were a separate notice in respect of each share. The transfer notice shall not be revocable except with the sanction of the Directors.
- (b) The Company in General Meeting may make and from time to time vary rules as to the manner in which any shares specified in any transfer notice given pursuant to sub-clause (c) hereof shall be offered to the members, and as to their rights in regard to the purchase thereof, and in particular may give any member or class of members preferential right to purchase the same. Until otherwise determined any ordinary shares comprised in any transfer notice shall be offered to the holders of ordinary shares other than the proposing transferor as nearly as may be in proportion to their existing holdings of ordinary shares and any other class of shares comprised in any transfer notice shall be offered to the holders of such other class of shares other than the proposing transferor in proportion to their existing holdings of such other class of shares. The offer shall in each case limit the time within which the same if not accepted shall be deemed to be declined, and may notify to the holders of the ordinary shares or the holders of such other class of shares, as the case may be, that any holder of ordinary shares or holder of such other class of shares who desired shares of the class held by him in excess of his proportions should in his reply state how many excess shares he desires to have, and if all the holders of ordinary shares or holders of such other class of shares, as the case may be, do not claim their proportions, the unclaimed shares shall be used for satisfying the claims in excess. If any shares shall not be capable, without fractions, of being offered to the holders of shares of the same class in proportion to their existing holdings of shares of that class, the same shall be offered to such holders or some of them in such proportions and in such manner as may be determined by lots to be drawn under the direction of the Directors.
- (c) If the Company shall in manner aforesaid find a qualified person or qualified persons who is or are willing to purchase the share or shares comprised in any transfer notice (hereinafter called the purchasing member or members), and shall give notice thereof to the proposing transferor, he shall be bound upon payment of the par value of the share or shares to transfer the share or shares to the purchasing member or members.
- (d) If in any case the proposing transferor after having become bound as aforesaid makes default in transferring the share or shares, the Company may receive the purchase money and shall thereupon cause the name of the purchasing member or members to be entered in the register as the holder or holders of the share or shares, and shall hold the purchase money in trust for the proposing transferor. The receipt of the Company for the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing member or members, and after his or their name or names has or have been entered in the register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person.
- (e) If the Company shall not within the space of six calendar months after being served with the transfer notice find in manner aforesaid, a qualified person or persons willing to purchase the share or shares and give notice in manner aforesaid, the proposing transferor shall at any time within three calendar months afterwards be at liberty, subject to Article 37, to sell and transfer the shares (or those not placed) to any person and at any price.
- (f) Proprietary shares are hereby expressly excluded from the operation of this clause.

37. The Directors may in their absolute and uncontrolled discretion refuse to register any proposed transfer of shares, except a transfer under Articles 34, 35, and 36, sub-clause (c).

38. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be in writing in the usual common form, and shall be left at the office for registration accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred, and such other evidence as the Directors may require to prove the title of the transferor.

39. All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall be returned to the person depositing the same.

40. A fee not exceeding Two Rupees may be charged for each transfer, and shall if required by the Directors be paid before the registration thereof.

41. The executors or administrators of a deceased member (not being one of several joint-holders) shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member; and in the case of the death of any one or more of the joint-holders of any shares, the survivors shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in such shares, but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint-holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person.

42. Any person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, or otherwise than by transfer shall be bound by the provisions of Articles 34 and 35, and may subject to Articles 36 and 37 upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this clause, or of his title, as the Directors think sufficient, transfer such shares. This clause is hereinafter referred to as the "transmission clause."

43. The Company shall not, except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction or as by Ordinance required, be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize, even when having notice thereof, any trust or any other right in respect of a share than an absolute right thereto in the registered holder thereof for the time being, or such other rights in case of transmission thereof as are herein mentioned.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL.

44. The Company in General Meeting may by special resolution, from time to time, increase the capital by the creation of new shares of such amount as may be deemed expedient.

45. A resolution of the Company in General Meeting shall be required to sanction the issue of any capital (whether new or original) beyond the amount to be issued as fully paid up in accordance with the provisions of the agreements mentioned in Article 3, and such resolution shall specify the amount and date of the issue and the amount to be paid on allotment. Subject as hereinafter provided the amount so authorized shall be subscribed by the persons who are the holders of the proprietary shares in the Company at the date so fixed in proportion to their respective holdings of proprietary shares, and such persons shall upon being called upon by the Company so to do sign an application form for their respective proportions of such issue. If any holder of proprietary shares shall make default in subscribing in manner aforesaid for any part of his proportion of such issue or in paying the amount made payable on allotment thereof, he shall be bound to transfer to the other holders of proprietary shares without consideration the same proportion of his holding of any proprietary shares, as the nominal value of the portion of the issue for which he shall have failed to subscribe or in respect of which he shall have failed to pay the sum made payable on allotment shall bear to the total nominal value of his proportion of the issue, and such other holders of proprietary shares shall accept a transfer thereof and shall subscribe for the part of the issue which should have been subscribed by the defaulting holder of proprietary shares in proportion to their respective holdings of proprietary shares. If any holder of proprietary shares who shall become bound to transfer any proprietary shares under the provisions of this Article shall make default in transferring such proprietary shares to the other holders of proprietary shares in accordance with such provisions, the Company shall thereupon cause the name of such other holders to be entered in the register as the holders of such proprietary shares, and after the names of the transferees have been entered in the register in purported exercise of the power given by this Article the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person. For the purposes of this Article any proprietary shares held by the said William Somerville (or by any person not actively engaged in the business of the Company other than Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, or their nominees) shall be excluded and the said William Somerville (and such other person as aforesaid) shall not be bound or entitled to subscribe for any portion of any such issue of capital as is mentioned in this Article or be called upon to transfer the proprietary shares held by them or any of them for failing so to subscribe or be called upon to accept or entitled to claim a transfer of any proprietary shares under the provisions of this Article.

46. The new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions, and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto as the General Meeting resolving upon the creation thereof shall direct, and if no direction be given, as the Directors shall determine, and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets of the Company, and with a special, or without any, right of voting.

47. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and instalments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender, and otherwise.

48. The Company may, from time to time, by special resolution reduce its capital, and the Company may also by special resolution subdivide or by ordinary resolution consolidate its shares or any of them, or cancel shares which have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and the Directors may (subject to the provisions of the Ordinance) accept surrenders of shares.

MODIFYING RIGHTS.

49. If at any time the capital by reason of the issue of preference shares, proprietary shares, or otherwise, is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights and privileges attached to each class may be annulled or modified by agreement between the Company and any person purporting to contract on behalf of the holders of shares of that class, provided such agreement is ratified in writing in the case of proprietary shares by the holders of at least eighty-five per cent. of the nominal amount of the issued shares of that class and in the case of any other class of shares by the holders of at least 75 per cent. of the nominal amount of the issued shares of any such other class. Every such agreement shall bind all holders of shares of that class. For the purposes of ratifications under this Article any proprietary share held by any person who is not actively engaged in the business of the Company other than Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, or their nominee shall be excluded, but such person shall be bound by any agreement entered into on behalf of the holders of proprietary shares under this Article.

BORROWING POWERS.

50. The Directors may, from time to time, at their discretion borrow and secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company.

51. The Directors may secure the repayment of such moneys in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit, and in particular, subject to Article 5 (b), by the issue of debentures or debenture stock of the Company charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company (both present and future) including its uncalled capital for the time being.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

52. The First General Meeting of the Company shall be held at such time not being more than twelve months from the date of the registration of the Company, and at such place as the Directors may determine.

53. Subsequent General Meetings shall be held once in every year at such time and at such place as may be determined by the Directors. The General Meetings above mentioned shall be called "Ordinary Meetings," and all other meetings of the Company shall be called "Extraordinary Meetings."

54. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an Extraordinary Meeting, and the Directors shall on the request in writing of the holders of not less than one-tenth of the issued capital of the Company upon which all calls or other sums then due have been paid, forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary Meeting.

55. If at any time there are not sufficient Directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any Director or any two members of the Company may convene an Extraordinary Meeting.

56. Seven days' notice to the members specifying the place, day, and hour of meeting, and, in case of special business, the general nature of such business, shall be given by notice sent by post or otherwise served as hereinafter provided. Provided always that if the business to be transacted at any such meeting involves resolutions increasing or reducing the capital of the Company or affects, the rights, privileges, or interest of the holders of proprietary shares, such notice shall be not less than two calendar months, notice, and it shall be served in manner provided in those Articles on all holders of proprietary shares.

57. Whenever it is intended to pass a special resolution the two meetings may be convened by one and the same notice, and it shall be no objection that the notice only convenes the second meeting contingently on the resolution being passed by the requisite majority at the first meeting.

58. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to any of the members or the non-receipt of such notice by any member shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS.

59. The business of an Ordinary Meeting shall be to receive and consider the profit and loss account, the balance sheet, and the report of the Directors and of the Auditors, to elect Directors and Auditors in the place of those retiring, to declare dividends, and to transact any other business which under these presents ought to be transacted at an Ordinary Meeting. All other business transacted at an Ordinary Meeting, and all business transacted at an Extraordinary Meeting, shall be deemed special.

60. Two members personally present and entitled to vote shall be a quorum for a General Meeting, and no business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the quorum requisite be present at the commencement of the business.

61. The Chairman of the Directors shall be entitled to take the Chair at every General Meeting, or if there be no Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or be not willing to act as Chairman, the members personally present shall choose another Director as Chairman, and if no Director be present, or if all the Directors present decline to take the Chair, then the members present shall choose one of their number to be Chairman.

62. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon such requisition as aforesaid, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present any one member personally present shall be a quorum, and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.

63. Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands, and in case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall, both on a show of hands and on a poll, have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a member.

64. At any General Meeting unless a poll is demanded by at least two members or by a member holding or representing by proxy or entitled to vote in respect of at least one-tenth part of the capital represented at the meeting, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

65. If a poll is demanded as aforesaid, it shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting before the conclusion of the meeting directs, and either at once or after an interval or adjournment, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll may be withdrawn.

66. The Chairman of a General Meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

67. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment.

VOTES OF MEMBERS.

68. On a show of hands every member present in person or by attorney duly authorized shall have one vote only, and at a poll every member present in person or by proxy or by attorney duly authorized shall have one vote for every share held by him. But the said proprietary shares shall not confer on the holders the right to attend or vote either in person or by proxy or attorney at any General Meeting, or to have notice of such meeting unless the meeting is convened for sanctioning an issue or reduction of capital, or when the proposition to be submitted directly affects the rights, privileges, or interest of the holders of proprietary shares, and no holder of proprietary shares being a nominee under Article 34 (a) shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting of the Company in respect of any proprietary shares held by him.

69. Any person entitled under the transmission clause to transfer any shares may vote at any General Meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he were the registered holder of such shares, provided that forty-eight hours at least before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which he proposes to vote he shall satisfy the Directors of his right to transfer such shares, unless the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof.

70. Where there are joint registered holders of any shares any one of such holders may vote at any meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect of such shares as if he were solely entitled thereto, and if more than one of such joint-holders be present at any meeting personally or by proxy, that one whose name stands first in the register in respect of such shares shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose sole name any shares stand shall for the purposes of this clause be deemed joint-holders.

71. Votes may be given either personally or by proxy or by attorney duly authorized. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney. No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a member of the Company and qualified to vote.

72. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed shall be deposited at the office not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting (as the case may be) at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote, but no instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 12 months from the date of its execution, but this restriction shall not apply to an attorney duly appointed as such.

73. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the principal, or revocation of the proxy or transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given, unless an intimation in writing of the death, revocation, or transfer shall have been received at the office before the meeting.

74. An instrument of proxy may be in the usual common form or in any other form approved or accepted by the Directors.

75. No member shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any question either personally or by proxy or as proxy for another member at any General Meeting, or upon a poll, or to be reckoned in a quorum, whilst any call shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of any of the shares of such member.

DIRECTORS.

76. The persons hereinafter named shall be the first Directors, that is to say:—Patrick Gow, Charles Thompson Young, and H. G. Donald. Subject to Article 77 the number of Directors shall not be more than 7 and shall not be less than 3.

77. So long as Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, either in their own name or in the name of a nominee or nominees or partly in their own name and partly in the name of a nominee or nominees are the registered holders of ordinary shares and 10 per cent. of the proprietary shares for the time being issued, they shall be entitled to be represented on the Board of the Company by one Director (who need not hold any qualification shares), and such appointment shall be made by the said Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, by memorandum under their Common Seal nominating such person as they from time to time determine as a Director of the Company and forthwith upon such memorandum being left at the registered office of the Company, such person so nominated shall ipso facto be a Director of the Company, and this notwithstanding that the maximum number of Directors may by reason of such appointment be exceeded. The said Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, may by memorandum under their Common Seal from time to time remove any such Director so appointed and by the same or a separate memorandum appoint another Director in the place of the Director so removed, and such removal shall become effective forthwith upon such memorandum removing him being left at the registered office of the Company. No Director appointed under this clause shall be required to hold any share, qualification, or be removable under Article 92 or otherwise than as in this Article 77 provided. The said Patrick Gow shall be deemed to be the first Director nominated by the said Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited.

78. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding vacancies in the Board. Provided that if the members of the Board be less than the prescribed minimum for the time being, the remaining Directors or Director shall forthwith appoint an additional Director or Directors to make up such minimum, or convene a General Meeting of the Company for the purpose of making such appointment.

79. No person other than a retiring Director shall be elected a Director (except as a first Director or a Director appointed by the Board), unless at least four and not more than 14 days' notice shall have been left at the office of the intention to propose him, together with a notice in writing signed by himself of his willingness to be elected.

80. Subject to Article 77 the qualification of a Director shall be the holding in his own right of 100 ordinary shares of the Company.

81. A Director requiring qualification may act before acquiring his qualification, but shall acquire his qualification within two months after his appointment, and unless he does so he shall be deemed to have agreed to take his qualification shares from the Company, and the same shall forthwith be allotted to him accordingly.

82. Each Director, other than a resident Director, shall be paid remuneration at such rate as the Company in General Meeting shall direct, and each Director shall be entitled to be paid his reasonable travelling expenses incurred by him whilst employed on the business of the Company or in attending Board Meetings.

83. If any Director, being willing, shall be called upon to perform extra services for the purposes of the Company, the Company shall remunerate such Director by a fixed sum or percentage of profits, or otherwise as may be determined by the Directors, and such remuneration may be either in addition to, or in substitution for his remuneration above provided for.

84. The Directors shall have power from time to time, and at any time (subject to Article 77) to appoint any other person or persons to be a Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board, but so that the total number of Directors shall not any time exceed the maximum number fixed as above, and so that any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the next following Ordinary General Meeting of the Company, and shall then be eligible for re-election.

85. The office of a Director shall, ipso facto, be vacated—

(a) If he be found lunatic or become of unsound mind.

(b) If he cease to hold the required amount of shares to qualify him for office.

(c) If he become bankrupt or compound with his creditors.

(d) If he be absent from the meetings of Directors during a period of more than 3 calendar months without special leave of absence from the Directors, but this sub-clause (d) shall not apply to any Director ordinarily resident out of Ceylon at the time of his appointment or any Director appointed under Article 77.

(e) If by notice in writing to the Company he resign his office.

(f) If he shall infringe Article 88.

86. No Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company, nor shall any such contract or any contract entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract by reason only of such Director holding that office, or of the fiduciary relations thereby established, but (except as to the agreements mentioned in Article 3 of these Articles) it is declared that the nature of his interest must be disclosed by him at the meeting of the Directors at which the contract is determined on if his interest then exists, or in any other case, at the first meeting of the Directors after the acquisition of his interest.

87. No Director shall, as a Director, vote in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is interested, and if he do vote his vote shall not be counted, but this prohibition may be suspended or relaxed to any extent by a General Meeting, and such prohibition shall not apply to any contract by or on behalf of the Company to give to the Directors or any of them any security for advances or by way of indemnity, or to the agreements referred to in Article 3 of these Articles, or any matters arising thereout, or to any contract or arrangement with or in which Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, are, or may be interested directly or indirectly.

88. No member shall (without the consent of the Company) either solely or jointly with or as manager or agent for any other person, firm, or company directly or indirectly carry on or be engaged or concerned or interested as a shareholder or otherwise in any business which the Company has carried on or is for the time being carrying on, and the Directors may by resolution forfeit the shares of any member who acts in contravention of this provision, but this Article 88 shall not apply to Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited, or to any Directors appointed by or at the instance or request of or as nominee or representative of the said Gow Wilson & Stanton, Limited.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.

89. The Company in General Meeting may, from time to time, appoint new Directors, and may determine to increase or reduce the number of Directors, and may alter their qualifications, and may also determine in what rotation such increased or reduced number is to go out of office.

90. The Company at any General Meeting at which any Directors retire may fill up the vacated offices by electing a like number of persons to be Directors.

91. If at any General Meeting at which an election of Directors ought to take place, the place of any Director retiring is not filled up, he shall, if willing, continue in office until the Ordinary Meeting in the next year and so on from year to year, until his place is filled up, unless it shall be determined at such meeting to reduce the number of Directors.

REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS.

92. Subject to Article 77 the Company may by extraordinary resolution remove any Director, before the expiration of his period of office, and may by ordinary resolution appoint another qualified person in his stead. The person so appointed shall hold office during such time only as the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed, but this provision shall not prevent him from being eligible for re-election.

RESIDENT DIRECTORS.
