RULES made by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, under section 3 of Ordinance No. 17 of 1894, entitled "An Ordinance relating to Habitual Criminals and to Convicts licensed to be at large."

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, March 31, 1895.

E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.

1. The "Island Registrar of Habitual Criminals" (to be hereafter called in these rules the Island Registrar) shall mean the person in charge of the Registers of Habitual Criminals for the whole Island.

The "Provincial Registrar of Habitual Criminals" (to be hereafter called in these rules the Provincial Registrar) shall mean the person in charge of the Registers of Habitual Criminals for each Province.

"To measure" shall mean to measure under the Bertillon system.

For the purposes of the Ordinance the term "Province" includes Colombo.

Nothing in these rules shall be held to apply to women.

2. The Island Registrar shall keep—

A Register of Habitual Criminals for the whole Island.

A Register of Persons sentenced to Police Supervision or on license at large in the Island.

A Duplicate Card of each Convicted Person measured under the Bertillon system.

3. Each Provincial Registrar shall keep—

A Register of all Persons in the Province convicted of a crime as defined in the Ordinance.

A Register of Habitual Criminals in the Province.

A Register of Persons sentenced to Police Supervision or on license at large in the Province.

A Card of each Convicted Person in the Province measured under the Bertillon system.
A Prison Discharge Book.

4. There shall be kept at each police station an extract from the Provincial Habitual Criminal Register, giving the particulars of each habitual criminal living in the district or sub-district, and a Supervision Book, containing the names of each habitual criminal as above, with notes as to his residence, manner of life, &c.

5. The above registers and books shall be kept in the manner indicated and on the forms supplied by the Island Registrar, as directed by the Inspector-General of Police.

6. In the Register of Convicted Persons shall be entered particulars of every person in the Province convicted of a crime. No offence which is not a crime as defined by the Ordinance shall on any account cause an entry in the register, but when a crime has been accompanied by another offence, the latter shall be entered as well as the crime.

7. When a person has been convicted of a crime committed within seven years of a previous crime, or of the termination of his sentence of imprisonment for a previous crime, he shall become an habitual criminal, and his name shall be transferred to the Provincial Habitual Criminal Register, and the Provincial Registrar shall inform the Island Registrar, who shall enter his name and particulars in the Island Register of Habitual Criminals.

8. Every new conviction of a crime committed by an habitual criminal shall be entered in the Provincial Register of Habitual Criminals, and the Provincial Registrar shall inform the Island Registrar, who shall enter it in the Island Register. The Provincial Registrar shall also inform the Island Registrar of all important changes in the particulars of every habitual criminal in his Province.

9. The Provincial Registrar shall furnish each police station in the Province and each chief headman with an extract from the Habitual Criminal Register, giving the names, aliases, and full particulars, as given in the register, of each habitual criminal living in or haunting the district. The station officer and each chief headman shall furnish the Provincial Registrar with all information as to any change in the locality or condition of each habitual criminal. Such information shall be noted in the station extract, or in that furnished to a chief headman, as the case may be, and all such extracts in each Province shall be checked by the Provincial Registrar at least once in every two months. For this purpose they shall be forwarded to him on the last day of every second month, and he shall return them within three days.

10. The Supervision Book to be kept at each station shall contain the names and aliases of every habitual criminal in the district or sub-district, and a column showing when he has been seen in each month, and also notes indicating what life he is leading (to be shown by the letters h = honest, d = doubtful, b = bad), together with any information as to his haunts, friends, occupation, and other details which may be useful.

11. When an habitual criminal permanently leaves a district, notice shall be given by the station officer, or if there is no station by the chief headman, to the station officer or chief headman of the district to which he is gone, whether it is in the same Province or not, and to the Provincial Registrar; and his name shall be transferred to the records of the district and Province to which he is gone. When a criminal is haunting several districts his name should be on the records of the police station of each of them.

12. When an habitual criminal or convicted person has not been convicted of a crime for seven years from the date of his last conviction, or from the termination of his last sentence of imprisonment for a crime, his name shall be struck out from all registers and his card destroyed.

13. The Provincial Registrar shall enter in the Prison Discharge Book, immediately after his conviction, the date on which is due the discharge of every person in the Province sentenced to imprisonment for a crime for less than one year. The date of discharge of every prisoner sentenced to a term of one year or more shall be furnished by the Superintendent of each prison to the Provincial Registrar of the Province in which the prisoner will be discharged, if possible fourteen days before his discharge. The Provincial Registrar shall inform the Inspector of Police or chief headman of the district of the discharge of every prisoner in his district, if possible five days before it is due.

Identification.

14. In order to render the Ordinance effective as early as possible, all persons now undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for a crime shall be measured before the termination of their sentence, and their names and particulars shall be entered in the Register of Convicted Persons, or the Registers of Habitual Criminals, as the case may require.

15. The card of every person measured, whether before or after conviction, shall be retained in the care of the Provincial Registrar of the Province in which he resides, and a copy thereof shall be forwarded to the Island Registrar to be placed in his records, except in the following cases:—

If a person who has been measured shall afterwards be acquitted of the crime with which he was charged, or if he shall be convicted, and the conviction shall be afterwards set aside on appeal, and he has not previously been convicted of a crime, his card shall be destroyed.

If a person has been previously measured his new card shall not be retained, but his old card shall be corrected, if necessary, and a copy of any corrections made shall be forwarded to the Island Registrar.

16. With a view to prevent, whenever it is possible, the necessity for a remand, every person in the custody of the police, charged with a crime, shall, if he consents to it, be measured before being taken to court; and every person charged with a crime, who may be remanded to jail, shall also be measured, either by order of the Magistrate or without such order if he consents to it.

17. If a person charged with a crime is not measured as above, but is suspected of having been previously convicted of a crime, a remand shall be applied for as directed in section 4 of the Ordinance before the Magistrate passes sentence, and he shall be measured.

18. If any person measured as above is identified as being a person previously convicted of a crime, the previous convictions shall be proved as required by section 9 of the Ordinance, if possible without remand or further remand, as the case may be. (The Magistrate in each Police Court should give instructions to the court officer as to the proper stage in a case to apply for a remand or to prove previous convictions.)

19. If on measuring the accused person his corresponding card of a previous measurement is found, and he is found to have been convicted of a crime within the limit of time prescribed in section 5 of the Ordinance, the necessary proofs of a previous conviction, or of previous convictions, as required in section 9 of the Ordinance, shall be obtained from the Provincial Registrar or other officer in charge of the criminal records and furnished to the police officer in charge of the case.

20. If the corresponding card cannot be found among the Provincial collection of cards, the card of measurements shall be sent to the Island Registrar, who shall search for the corresponding card in the Island collection.

21. If the Island Registrar find the corresponding card in his collection, he shall at once take steps to have the necessary proofs of previous conviction furnished to the Provincial Registrar from whom he received the cards by the Provincial Registrar of the Province in which the prisoner was previously convicted.

22. If the Island Registrar cannot find the corresponding card, he shall return the card of measurements to the Provincial Registrar to be dealt with as the occasion shall require.

23. If it is found after admission to prison that any person convicted of a crime has been previously convicted, but that the police have failed to identify him, the fact shall be reported to the Inspector-General of Police, and the record of previous conviction forwarded to him, and a reward may be given from the Police Reward Fund to the prison officer who discovered the identity.

24. The method of identifying a person formally charged with, or convicted of, a crime as a person previously convicted shall be as follows, wherever practicable:—

- (1) The production of a true extract of the substance and effect of the previous charge and previous conviction, certified under the hand of the Chief Clerk, Secretary, or Registrar of the court in which such person was convicted.
- (2) The production of a statement, certified under the hand of the Provincial Registrar, showing the registered name of the court and the number of the case which resulted in the previous conviction, and the measurements, personal description, body-marks, and other particulars taken of the person convicted in that case.
- (3) The production of a statement, certified under the hand of the Provincial Registrar, of the measurements, personal description, body-marks, and other particulars of the person against whom the previous conviction is sought to be proved.
- (4) The sworn testimony of either the officer who took the measurements and particulars referred to in (3), or a person who saw them taken.

25. When it is sought to prove more than one previous conviction, it shall not be necessary to prove, in the manner given above, such previous convictions as have been already proved in any court, provided that a certificate can be produced, under the hand of the Chief Clerk, Secretary, or Registrar of such court, that such previous convictions, other than the last one, have been already proved to the satisfaction of such court.

Granting of Licenses to Convicts.

26. A license to be at large under section 10 of the Ordinance shall be granted to every prisoner sentenced to a term of imprisonment of twelve months or upwards, for such period of his sentence as he may have earned under the system of marks in use at the time in the prisons, or for such other period as the Governor may direct.

27. Every license-holder shall, before he is enlarged on license, notify the place where he intends to reside to the Superintendent of the Prison.

28. The terms of his license shall be clearly explained to each license-holder before he is enlarged.

Supervision of Criminals sentenced to Police Supervision and of License-holders.

29. The Island Registrar shall have a register of all persons sentenced to police supervision and of license-holders for the whole Island. The Provincial Registrar of each Province shall have a similar register for his Province. The Superintendent of Police or other chief police officer of each district shall have a list of all persons under sentence of police supervision or at large on license in his district.

30. The Superintendent of every Prison shall, fourteen days before the release of any prisoner sentenced to police supervision or of any license-holder, inform the Island Registrar of such intended release, and of the place of his release, and of the place and district which the prisoner has notified as his intended place of residence.

31. The Island Registrar shall enter the information in his register, and shall forward a copy to the Provincial Registrars of the Province in which such prisoner intends to reside, and of the Province in which he will be released.

32. The Provincial Registrars shall enter the information in their registers, and shall inform the Superintendent of Police of the district.

33. Every person sentenced to police supervision or released on license shall on his first release report himself, as directed in sections 7 and 8 of the Ordinance, to the Superintendent of Police of the district in which he is released, and not to the chief headman, in order that his particulars may be registered, and that he may be carefully instructed in what is necessary for compliance with the law. For this purpose he should be discharged from the prison nearest the station of the Superintendent of Police of the district, and should be warned to report himself to him immediately on release.

34. After his first report he shall, if under police supervision, once in every three months, and if on license according to the terms of his license, report himself to the Superintendent of Police, or the chief headman of the district, or to such other person whom under these rules the Superintendent may appoint; and if he shall change his residence he shall also report himself as above, and also if he changes his district to the Superintendent of Police or chief headman of the district to which he changes, within forty-eight hours of his arrival in such district. Whenever he shall report himself as above, either on first release or for a periodical report, or on change of residence, he shall be required to sign his name in the proper place in the Provincial Register or list of the district.

35. The Superintendent of Police of the district may, subject to the approval of the Government Agent, or in Colombo of the Inspector-General, depute, with his consent, any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Inquirer into Deaths, Police Officer not under the rank of Sergeant-Major, or other person specially approved by the Governor, to receive reports, except on first release.

36. The Government Agent, or in Colombo the Inspector-General of Police, may, if a person under sentence of police supervision or at large on license appears to him to be leading a steady and honest life, permit him to report himself at longer intervals than those stated in section 7 of the Ordinance, or in terms of his license.

37. All reports of change of residence received by a chief headman or by any person deputed under rule 35 must be forwarded without delay to the Superintendent of Police of the district, and all periodical reports must be forwarded on the first day of each month.

38. When any person under police supervision or at large on license changes his residence from one district to another, the fact must be reported at once to the Superintendent of Police of the Province and his name transferred to the list of the district to which he has moved: if he changes to another Province, the Superintendent of Police of the Province must inform the Island Registrar, so that his name may be transferred to the Registrar of the Province to which he has moved, and his particulars corrected in the Island Register.

39. No police officer of a rank inferior to that of sergeant or headman of rural police, unless he is specially authorized by an Inspector of Police or the chief headman of the district, shall call on a license-holder to produce his license.

40. If any person under sentence of police supervision or at large on license fails to report himself periodically, or when he changes his residence as required by the Ordinance, a warrant for his arrest must be at once applied for.

41. The Government Agent of each Province and the Inspector-General of Police in Colombo shall be responsible that the Ordinance and the rules made under it are strictly enforced.

42. All registers, returns, and other documents kept or made in respect to this Ordinance and the rules under it shall be forwarded to the Inspector-General of Police for his information, whenever he may require them.

43. Great care shall on all occasions be exercised by the police and all others concerned that persons dealt with under this Ordinance are in no way unnecessarily harassed or oppressed, and that no illegal means of enforcing the Ordinance are resorted to. It is especially necessary to avoid anything which may hamper or hinder a man who has been a criminal, but who is trying to reform and lead an honest life, and to secure honest employment. Police officers and all others concerned must remember that it is a distinct breach of duty for them to point out to others than police officers, or Magistrates in due course of law, that any person has been convicted, or has suffered a term of imprisonment, or that any person is under police supervision or on license. Knowledge of such things, while it must be circulated freely among police officers, should not, so far as the police are concerned, be allowed to go beyond them.

SCHEDULE.

(To be endorsed on the back of the License.)

This license is liable to be forfeited if the holder does not observe the following conditions :—

He shall preserve his license and produce it when called upon to do so by a Magistrate or police officer.

He shall abstain from any violation of the law.

He shall not habitually associate with notoriously bad characters.

He shall not lead an idle life, without visible means of obtaining an honest livelihood.

He shall, within forty-eight hours of his liberation, personally notify the place of his residence to the Superintendent of Police of the district in which he is going to reside, and whenever he changes his residence he shall notify such change to the said Superintendent or the chief headman of the district or other person appointed by the Superintendent, and also, if he is changing his residence from one district to another, to the Superintendent or chief headman of the district into which he is changing his residence.

He shall once in each month report himself personally, at such time and place as may be ordered by the Superintendent of Police of the district in which he resides, to such Superintendent or to a person appointed by him.

The Government Agent, or in Colombo the Inspector-General of Police, may, after the lapse of some months from the granting of the license, during which the conduct of the license-holder shall have been satisfactory, permit the reports to be made at longer intervals than above.

If the holder of the license fails to report himself within forty-eight hours of his release, or of his changing his residence, or once in each month as required above, or if he fails to comply with any of the above conditions, he is liable to be arrested by any police officer and to have his license revoked, and to be sentenced to a term of rigorous imprisonment not exceeding six months; and if he shall be convicted of any crime, as defined in Ordinance No. 17 of 1894, committed during the time in which he shall have been at large under such license, or if his license shall be revoked as above for failing to comply with the conditions of such license, he shall, after undergoing any other punishment to which he may be sentenced, further undergo a term of imprisonment equal to the portion of his term of imprisonment that remained unexpired at the time of the grant of the license.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR has directed that the subjoined copy of a circular despatch of 20th February, 1895, received from the Secretary of State, transmitting a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council dated 2nd February, 1895, for giving effect to the Treaty between Her Majesty and His Majesty the German Emperor, for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, be published for general information.

I have, &c.,
RIPON.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1895.

Present :

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President

Marquess of Ripon

Lord Chamberlain

Lord Kensington

Mr. Cecil Rhodes

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, it was amongst other things enacted that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient; and that if, by any law made after the passing of the Act of 1870 by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Acts in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Acts, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer:

And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in 1886, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," provision is made for carrying into effect within the Dominion the surrender of fugitive criminals:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the seventeenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, it was directed that the operation of the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, should be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as the provision of the said Act of the Parliament of Canada of 1886 should continue in force and no longer:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, between Her Majesty and His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals between the territories of Her Majesty and certain Dependencies of Germany, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, considering it advisable to regulate by a Treaty the extradition of criminals between certain dependencies of Germany and the territories of Her Britannic Majesty, have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries for this purpose—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, the Right Honourable John, Earl of Kimberley, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, &c., Her Britannic Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and

His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, His Minister of State, Paul, Count von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg, Knight of the Exalted Order of the Black Eagle, &c., Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of His Imperial and Royal Majesty to Her Britannic Majesty;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, which were found to be in good and due form, have agreed to and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The provisions of the Extradition Treaty signed between Germany and Great Britain on the 14th May, 1872, shall be applicable to the dependencies of Germany specified in the following Article, in such manner that persons in any of these dependencies, and within the sphere of the authorities established there, who are accused, or who have been convicted, of having committed a criminal act in the territories of Her Britannic Majesty, and persons in any of the aforesaid territories of Her Britannic Majesty, who are accused, or who have been convicted, of having committed a criminal act in any of the dependencies of Germany, shall be mutually extradited in accordance with the provisions of the aforesaid Treaty, in so far as they are not modified by the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

For the purposes of the present Treaty, the following are the dependencies of Germany referred to in Article I.:—

The territories in Africa, in New Guinea, and in the Pacific Ocean which, by agreement between Germany and Great Britain, have been, or shall in future be, reserved to Germany as spheres of influence, Protectorates, or possessions.

ARTICLE III.

In place of Article III. of the Extradition Treaty of the 14th May, 1872, it is hereby provided, with regard to the dependencies of Germany, that there shall be no obligation to grant the extradition from those dependencies of natives or of subjects of the Empire, and that the British authorities shall be under no obligation to grant the extradition of British subjects who have been accused or convicted of a criminal act in those dependencies.

ARTICLE IV.

There shall be no obligation to grant extradition from the dependencies of Germany in cases where before the extradition has taken place, such an application has been received for the transfer of the person in question to the territory of the German Empire as must, according to law, be complied with. The granting of extradition from a dependency of Germany must always be considered as being on the condition that no such application shall have been received before the extradition is carried out. In case the transfer to Germany takes place, it shall, however, be open to the British Government to apply for the extradition of the person concerned from Germany, in accordance with the terms of the Treaty of the 14th May, 1872.

ARTICLE V.

Applications for extradition from dependencies of Germany shall be made through the British ambassador at Berlin, in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article VIII. of the Treaty of the 14th May, 1872, but in the case of persons who are accused, or who have been convicted of criminal acts in the Colonies or foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, the application for extradition may be made to the chief authority of the dependency of Germany from which the extradition of the persons in question is desired by the chief Consular officer of Her Britannic Majesty in the dependency in question, if there be a consular officer therein, or, if there be none, then by the Governor or other chief authority of the colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty concerned. It shall, however, be open to the chief authority of the dependency of Germany to refer to the German Government in case of doubt whether the application for extradition should be complied with.

Applications for the extradition of criminals to one of the dependencies of Germany shall be made in the manner provided in Article VIII., paragraph 1, and Article XV. of the Treaty of the 14th May, 1872; in case, however, there should be no German Consular officer in the Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty from which the extradition is desired, the application may be made by the Governor or other chief authority of the Dependency of Germany which is concerned to the Governor or other chief authority of the Colony or possession concerned.

ARTICLE VI.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged as soon as possible.

The Treaty shall come into operation two months after the exchange of the ratifications, and shall remain in force as long as the Treaty of the 14th May, 1872, remains in force, that is, it shall terminate with the termination of that Treaty.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at London, the fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at London on the third day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, and of the Dependencies of Germany referred to therein.

Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that the operation of the said Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, shall be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so far as relates to the said Dependencies of Germany and to the said Treaty, and so long as the provisions of the Canadian Act aforesaid of 1886 continue in force, and no longer.

And whereas the immediate operation of this Order is urgent, this Order shall come into operation on the said third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.
