PASSED ORDINANCE.

E 197/1926

Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

No. 23 of 1926.An Ordinance to Incorporate the Hindu Board of Education.

HUGH CLIFFORD.

Preamble.

WHEREAS certain leading Shaiva inhabitants of the Northern Province have established a society called and known in Tamil as Shaiva Vithya Vriththi Sangam and in English as the Hindu Board of Education for the purpose of effectually carrying out and transacting all affairs connected with the said Board according to the rules and regulations agreed to by its Directors :

And whereas the said Board has applied to be incorporated and it will be for the public advantage to grant the application :

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Hindu Board for the Promotion of Education Ordinance, No. 23 of 1926.

Incorporation of the Hindu Board of Education.

2 From and after the passing of this Ordinance the persons whose names appear in schedule I. hereto and their respective successors elected in the manner provided by rules and regulations in schedule II. hereto, or such other rules and regulations as may be in force at the date of the election, shall be and become a corporation with perpetual succession under the name and style in Tamil of Shaiva Vithya Vriththi Sangam and in English of the Hindu Board for the Promotion of Education (hereinafter referred to as the Board), and by such name shall and may sue and be sued in all courts, with full power and authority to have and use a common seal and to change and alter the same at pleasure.

The general objects of the Board.

3 The general objects for which the Board is constituted are hereby declared to be—

- (a) To establish and maintain Hindu schools in Ceylon where they are needed ;
- (b) To take over and manage such of the existing schools as may be handed over to the Board for management ;
- (c) To render all such assistance to existing Hindu schools as may be considered necessary ;
- (d) To do everything that may be required to promote and popularize the education of Hindu children in Hindu schools ; and
- (e) To encourage the study of Tamil literature, music, and drama.

Rules in schedule II. to be the rules of the Board.

4 The rules and regulations set forth in schedule II. hereto shall for all purposes be the rules of the Board : Provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall be held or construed to prevent the Board at all times hereafter from making fresh rules and regulations, or from altering, amending, adding to, or cancelling any of the rules and regulations in schedule II. hereto or to be hereafter made by the Board.

Property vested in Board.

5 On the coming into operation of this Ordinance all and every property belonging to the Hindu Board of Education, whether held in the name of the said Board or in the name or names of any person or persons in trust for the said Board, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the Board hereby constituted, and the same shall be held by the Board for the purpose of this Ordinance, subject to the rules and regulations for the time being of the Board.

6 The Board shall be able and capable in law to take and hold any property, movable or immovable, which may become vested in it by virtue of any purchase, grant, gift, testamentary disposition, or otherwise, and all such property shall be held by the Board for the purpose of this Ordinance and subject to the rules and regulations for the time being of the Board, with full power to sell, mortgage, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of the same for the purposes of the Board.

Powers of Board.

7 All debts and liabilities of the Hindu Board of Education existing at the time of the coming into operation of this Ordinance shall be paid by the Board hereby constituted, and all debts due to, and subscriptions or contributions payable to, the Hindu Board of Education shall be paid to the Board hereby constituted for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Debts due by and payable to the Board.

8 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall prejudice or affect the rights of His Majesty the King, his heirs and successors or of any body politic or corporate, or of any other persons, except such as are mentioned in this Ordinance, and those claiming by, from, or under them.

Saving as to rights of His Majesty and others.

SCHEDULE II.

1.—The general administration and control of the schools established under the Hindu Board for the Promotion of Education Ordinance, No. 23 of 1926, and all their affairs shall be vested in a Board of Directors of not less than twenty-four, or not more than thirty-six, distributed (for purposes of retirement and election as provided in schedule I.) into three equal sets A, B, and C.

II.—The Directors of the Board shall consist of the persons enumerated in schedule I. or their successors distributed for the purposes aforesaid into three sets A, B, and C as set forth in schedule I.

III.—The Directors or their successors shall be elected in such a way that they may represent the Divisions or group of Divisions in the Island in the following proportions :—

- (1) Seven Directors to represent the Maniagars of Jaffna Division and of Punakari and Thunukkai.
- (2) Six Directors to represent Valikamam West Division.
- (3) Five Directors to represent Valikamam North Division.
- (4) Three Directors to represent the Valikamam East Division.
- (5) Three Directors to represent the Vadamaratchi Division.
- (6) Two Directors to represent the Islands Division.
- (7) Two Directors to represent the Thenmaratchi, Pachchilai-palai, and Karachchi Divisions.
- (8) One Director to represent the Mannar and Mullaittivu Districts.
- (9) Two Directors to represent the Eastern Province.
- (10) Two Directors to represent the Central and Uva Provinces.
- (11) One Director to represent the North-Central and North-Western Provinces.
- (12) Two Directors to represent the Western, Southern, and Sabaragamuwa Provinces.

IV.—Each of the Directors shall pay a sum of one thousand rupees or an annual subscription of fifty rupees, and if anyone fails to pay his subscription before the next annual meeting he shall cease to be a Director and another person shall be elected in his place.

V.—All persons who profess the Shaiva faith and pay a sum of one hundred rupees or an annual subscription of ten rupees to the Board and whose name appears in the register of electors to be kept for the purpose shall be entitled to vote for the election of Directors.

VI.—The first election of Directors shall be held at the first annual general meeting provided under clause IX., and at the said election the Directors included in set A shall retire from office and new Directors elected to replace the said retiring Directors in conformity with clause III. The retiring set of Directors shall be eligible for re-election. The Directors elected shall serve on the Board for the next ensuing three years.

The second and third set of Directors included in B and C shall in like manner be elected at the second and third annual meetings respectively, and the Directors included in B shall retire at the second, and those included in C at the third, annual general meeting, but in each case they shall be eligible for re-election. This rotation of retirement of each of the three sets of Directors successively, with like eligibility for re-election, shall be followed in the elections to be held in successive years thereafter.

VII.—At each such election everyone who is a Shaiva by religion and who shall then be resident in the Island and who shall have some interest in the Division for which he is elected shall be eligible for election as a Director. But no person convicted of an infamous crime shall be eligible as a Director.

VIII.—If the office of a Director is rendered vacant under clause IV. or by his resignation, death, continued absence, or illness, the remaining Directors may elect as a substitute for such Director in the set to which he belongs, any person who is eligible under the rules and regulations, and such substitute shall hold office as a Director until the set to which he belongs shall retire from office.

IX.—The annual general meeting of the Directors of the Board and of the electors of the Board shall be held in the month of February of each year and at such time and place as the Directors or the standing committee (as constituted under clause XIV.) shall determine; seven days' notice of such meeting in writing shall be posted or given by the Secretary to each Director and elector. At each such meeting the Secretary shall present a full report of the work and state of the Board, and the Treasurer shall present a statement of account properly audited by an auditor appointed by the Directors showing all moneys received and disbursed during the year then ended.

X.—A meeting of the Directors may be held upon the requisition of seven Directors or at the instance of the standing committee.

XI.—At any meeting of the Board duly called nine Directors shall form a quorum.

XII.—The officers of the Board shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected at a meeting of the Directors held immediately after the election of a new set of Directors, or within a week after the election of a new set, and shall continue to hold office until the next election of office-bearers. Should any office be vacated at any other time, the Directors may at any meeting appoint another Director in his place.

XIII.—The Directors of the Board may from time to time make rules and regulations defining the duties of its several officers and regulating the manner in which its meetings may be commenced, held, adjourned, and recorded. Such rules and regulations when made shall not be revoked or altered save at a meeting of the Board after due notice to all Directors specifying the proposed alterations.

XIV.—At the meeting for the election of the office-bearers the Board shall appoint a standing committee of nine members. The Board may make rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of the standing committee and subject to the provisions herein contained define the duties to be discharged by it.

XV.—The standing committee shall have power to consider and decide all questions appertaining to the work of the Board, subject to the right of the Board to cancel or disallow any decision of the committee.

XVI.—Any rule or regulation of this constitution may be repealed or amended by the Board and a new rule or regulation may be substituted or added to the said constitution: Provided, however, that such substitution or addition has been duly notified to all the Directors and shall have been passed by at least two-thirds of the Directors for the time being present at a meeting.

Passed in Council the Twenty-fifth day of November, One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty-six.

J. A. MAYBIN,
Clerk to the Council.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor the Twenty-fourth day of January, One thousand Nine hundred and Twenty-seven.

J. A. MAYBIN,
Clerk to the Council.
