The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance relating to Obscene Publications.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Obscene Publications Ordinance, No. of 1927.

Offences relating to obscene publications.

2 It shall be an offence against this Ordinance punishable on conviction by a Police Magistrate with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or imprisonment of either description for any period not exceeding three months, or with both such fine and imprisonment to do any of the following acts, viz. :

- (a) For purposes of or by way of trade or for distribution or public exhibition to make or produce or have in possession obscene writings, drawings, prints, paintings, printed matter, pictures, posters, emblems, photographs, cinematograph films, or any other obscene objects;
- (b) For the purposes above mentioned to import, convey, or export or cause to be imported, conveyed, or exported any of the said obscene matters or things, or in any manner whatsoever to put them into circulation;
- (c) To carry on or take part in a business, whether public or private, concerned with any of the said obscene matters or things, or to deal in the said matters or things in any manner whatsoever, or to distribute them or to exhibit them publicly or to make a business of lending them;
- (d) To advertise or make known by any means whatsoever, in view of assisting in the said punishable circulation or traffic, that a person is engaged in any of the above punishable acts, or to advertise or to make known how or from whom the said obscene matters or things can be procured either directly or indirectly.

Abetment of offences.

3 (1) Any person who abets the commission of an offence against this Ordinance shall be deemed to be guilty of the same offence.

(2) Any person who in Ceylon aids, abets, counsels, or procures the commission in any place outside Ceylon of any offence punishable under the provisions of any corresponding law in force in that place, or does any act preparatory to, or in furtherance of, any act which if committed in Ceylon would constitute an offence against this Ordinance, shall be deemed to have committed an offence against this Ordinance and shall be punishable accordingly.

(3) The expression " corresponding law " in this Ordinance means any law stated in a certificate purporting to be issued by or on behalf of the Government of any country outside Ceylon to be a law providing for the suppression of the circulation of and traffic in obscene publications in accordance with the provisions of the International Convention for that purpose signed at Geneva on September 12, 1923, and any statement in any such certificate as to the effect of the law mentioned in the certificate, or any statement in any such certificate that any facts constitute an offence against that law, shall be conclusive.

4 Nothing in this Ordinance shall affect or prevent a prosecution under the Ceylon Penal Code or any other written law; but a person shall not be punished more than once for the same offence. Saving of provision of Penal Code.

By His Excellency's command,
Colonial Secretary's Office, E. B. ALEXANDER,
Colombo, February 2, 1927. Acting Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Ordinance is to give effect to the International Convention for the suppression of the circulation of and traffic in obscene publications signed at Geneva on September 12, 1923; of which articles 1 and 2 are as follows:—

Article 1.

"The High Contracting Parties agree to take all measures to discover, prosecute, and punish any person engaged in committing any of the following offences, and accordingly agree that:—

It shall be a punishable offence—

1. For purposes of or by way of trade or for distribution or public exhibition to make or produce or have in possession obscene writings, drawings, prints, paintings, printed matter, pictures, posters, emblems, photographs, cinematograph films, or any other obscene objects;
2. For the purpose above mentioned to import, convey, or export or cause to be imported, conveyed, or exported any of the said obscene matters or things, or in any manner whatsoever to put them into circulation;
3. To carry on or take part in a business, whether public or private, concerned with any of the said obscene matters or things, or to deal in the said matters or things in any manner whatsoever, or to distribute them or to exhibit them publicly or to make a business of lending them;
4. To advertise or make known by any means whatsoever, in view of assisting in the said punishable circulation or traffic, that a person is engaged in any of the above punishable acts, or to advertise or to make known how or from whom the said obscene matters or things can be procured either directly or indirectly."

Article 2.

"Persons who have committed an offence falling under article 1 shall be amenable to the courts of the Contracting Party in whose territories the offence, or any of the constitutive elements of the offence, was committed. They shall also be amenable, when the laws of the country shall permit it, to the courts of the Contracting Party whose nationals they are, if they are found in its territories, even if the constitutive elements of the offence were committed outside such territories.

Each Contracting Party shall, however, have the right to apply the maxim non bis in idem, in accordance with the rules laid down in its legislation."

2. Provisions for the punishment of certain offences in connection with obscene publications are contained in sections 285 and 286 of the Ceylon Penal Code. But in view of the special provisions for the abetment in Ceylon of offences committed outside Ceylon required by the Convention, it is considered expedient to provide for the punishment of the offences enumerated in the Convention by a separate Ordinance.

3. In view of the principle established by Macleod v. Attorney-General for New South Wales, (1891) App. Cas. 455, it is not permissible for the Ceylon Legislature to make punishable in Ceylon an offence committed outside Ceylon.
