DRAFT ORDINANCE.MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

F 508/1926

An Ordinance to amend the Ceylon Savings Bank Ordinance, 1859.

BE it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof as follows :

|--|--|
| Short title. | 1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Ceylon Savings Bank Ordinance, No. of 192 . |
| Amendment of section 4. | 2 Section 4 of the principal Ordinance is amended by the deletion of the following words, viz. :
“ The words ‘ Colonial Secretary ’ shall mean the person for the time being acting as or for the Colonial Secretary.” |
| Substitution of new section for section 6. | 3 Section 6 of the principal Ordinance is repealed and the following new section is substituted therefor, viz. :
“ 6. The Governor shall from time to time nominate the three members of the board of directors and also appoint one of them president of the board.” |
| Amendment of section 11. | 4 Section 11 of the principal Ordinance is amended by the substitution of the figures and words “ 30th day of June ” for the figures and words “ 31st day of March,” in line 2 thereof. |
| Amendment of section 23. | 5 In the first proviso to section 23 of the principal Ordinance the words “ and in the name of Her Majesty’s permanent Under Secretary of State for the Colonies ” are hereby repealed. |

By His Excellency’s command,

Colonial Secretary’s Office,
Colombo, April 20, 1927.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

SECTIONS 2 and 3 of this Ordinance relieve the Colonial Secretary of his duties as President of the Board of Directors of the Ceylon Savings Bank. The Colonial Secretary’s time is so fully occupied with other matters that it is quite impossible for him to attend to the affairs of the bank. Under the new Ordinance the power of nominating the President will be vested in the Governor.

2. Section 4 of this Ordinance substitutes the 30th of June for the 31st of March as the latest day on which the annual general meeting of the bank is to be held. This change is necessary owing to the introduction of a system of quarterly balancing of all deposits and withdrawals. Experience has proved that this system of balancing takes a period of three months from the last day of the quarter to complete, and the checking of the work by the Audit Department another one or two months. The volume of work during the last quarter of the year is the heaviest owing to the calculation and entering of interest and the proving of abstracts sheets, and it is found to be impracticable to complete the audit by the end of March.

3. At present, under section 23 of Ordinance No. 12 of 1859, the permanent Under Secretary of State for the Colonies is a trustee, jointly with the Crown Agents, of the bank’s investments in Great Britain. The Secretary of State, in requesting that the Under Secretary should be relieved of his trusteeship, points out that, "while theoretically this practice is a logical corollary of the financial control exercised by the Secretary of State, in practice (in present circumstances) the functions of the Under Secretary of State do not and cannot amount to anything more than a mere formality. I consider, therefore, that it is undesirable that the system should continue in operation, since it is liable to create a false impression of responsibility which cannot in fact be exercised." Section 5 of the Ordinance accordingly relieves the Under Secretary of State of his trusteeship.

Colombo, November 2, 1926.

L. H. ELPHINSTONE,
Attorney-General.
